ABOUT

Meg's practice covers a broad range of estate planning, trust administration, and probate matters. She works with clients to develop personalized and tax-efficient estate plans, including wills, revocable trusts, and incapacity documents. In addition to planning, Meg represents executors, trustees and beneficiaries in probate, estate and trust administration matters, including the preparation and filing of federal gift tax and federal estate tax returns. Meg also advises on and helps implement business succession and sophisticated lifetime wealth transfer techniques.
