Insurance for Real Estate Lawyers

A. LIABILITY INSURANCE

1. What You Did Not Know, and Could Have Known, Can Hurt You

It is the authors' opinion and experience that lawyers drafting transactional documents are resistant to undertaking the effort required to understand the insurance provisions they include in their documents and to following up with their clients to assure that the drafted insurance provisions are fulfilled by the parties and their insurance brokers.¹ On occasion this resistance has risen to heated rhetoric to the effect "I only draft the provisions. I am not an insurance person. It is up to the client to understand and implement the provisions."

Perhaps this choice arises out of concern that professing some knowledge as to one's craft exposes the practitioner to a greater likelihood of being held accountable in cases where "things go wrong" than being silent. The insurance industry's forms promote taking this position. The standard certificates of insurance are simple appearing one page documents.² Industry forms are not readily accessible to the practitioner. Once obtained, they appear complicated.³ They are identified by a seemingly complicated numbering system.⁴

These circumstances led the authors to present to you Insurance for Real Estate Lawyers. It is the authors' hope that exposure to these "traps for the unwary" will result in change in your approach to drafting insurance provisions and will lead to your more active involvement in implementing the insurance program contemplated thereby.⁵

2. Certificates of Insurance Are Not Certificates

a. An All Too Typical Specification

Specifying appropriate insurance coverages is the first step. The next step is to confirm the insurance has been obtained and is in full force and effect.⁶ Many contracts require that a certificate of insurance be furnished as evidence of the existence of the specified insurance. The following is an all too typical specification:

Tenant shall provide Landlord a certificate of insurance certifying the coverages required herein.

Is this sufficient? Unfortunately, no. Prior to 2006, the ACORD form of certificate of insurance appeared to be evidence of insurance and appeared to give rights against the insurer (including independent rights to notice upon

⁶ Lender an Interested Party. See Bill Locke and Marilyn C. Maloney, Top Ten Insurance Issues for Lenders, THE ACREL PAPERS Tab 11 (Las Vegas, Spring 2012).

cancellation). When ACORD changed its certificate forms in 2006 to clearly state that they conferred no rights on the certificate holder, insureds and their attorneys attempted to negotiate with insurers and agents to restore some enforceability to insurance certificates. Unfortunately, these efforts did not succeed. In response to these efforts the insurance industry approached state insurance commissioners and legislatures to gain support for their position that a certificate of insurance could not vary the underlying policy or grant rights that did not exist under the applicable policy. At last count, 42 states have either insurance regulations or statutes on this point.

The result? A certificate of insurance does not provide coverage if coverage is not provided in the underlying policy.

b. It is Not Reasonable to Rely Upon an ACORD Certificate of Insurance

The ACORD 25 Certificate of Liability Insurance is labeled a certificate, is addressed to a “certificate holder” and states “This is to certify that the policies of insurance listed below have been issued to the insured named above for the policy period indicated.” However, it also contains the following disclaimers:

THIS CERTIFICATE IS ISSUED AS A MATTER OF INFORMATION ONLY AND CONFERS NO RIGHTS UPON THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER. THIS CERTIFICATE DOES NOT AFFIRMATIVELY OR NEGATIVELY AMEND, EXTEND OR ALTER THE COVERAGE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES BELOW. THE CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A CONTRACT BETWEEN THE ISSUING INSURER(S), AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OR PRODUCER, AND THE CERTIFICATE HOLDER.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT THE POLICIES OF INSURANCE LISTED BELOW HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO THE INSURED NAMED ABOVE FOR THE POLICY PERIOD INDICATED. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY REQUIREMENT, TERM OR CONDITION OF ANY CONTRACT OR OTHER DOCUMENT WITH RESPECT TO WHICH THIS CERTIFICATE MAY BE ISSUED OR MAY PERTAIN, THE INSURANCE AFFORDED BY THE POLICIES DESCRIBED HEREIN IS SUBJECT TO ALL THE TERMS, EXCLUSIONS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH POLICIES. AGGREGATE LIMITS SHOWN MAY HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY PAID CLAIMS.

IMPORTANT: If the certificate holder is an additional insured, the policy(ies) must be endorsed. A statement on this certificate does not confer rights to the certificate holder in lieu of such endorsement(s). If subrogation is waived, subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, certain policies may require an endorsement. A statement on this certificate does not confer rights to the certificate holder in lieu of such endorsement(s).

Many courts have held that these disclaimers effectively negate reliance by certificate holders.⁷ See e.g., the following statements by courts: Prudential Property and Casualty Ins. Co. v. Anderson, 922 A.2d 236 (Conn. 2007):

Troublesome as it may be that Zurich permits its agents to issue certificates when it knows prior to the certificate’s being issued that coverage was cancelled and lacks an identifiable procedure for notifying certificate holders that coverage has been cancelled, the allegations in plaintiff’s complaint do not state a cause of action against Zurich.

Bradley Real Estate Trust v. Plummer & Rowe Ins. Agency, 609 A.2d 1233, 1235 (N.H. 1992):

In effect, the certificate is a worthless document; it does no more than certify that insurance existed on the day the certificate was issued. We leave it to the legislature or to future bargaining of parties to rectify inequities in the notification process.

TIG Ins. Co. v. Sedgwick James of Washington, 276 F.3d 754 (5th Cir. 2002), aff'g 184 F. Supp.2d 591 (S.D. Tex. 2001):

Had Plaintiffs taken the reasonable step of obtaining a copy of (the policy) ... Plaintiffs would have learned that there was no additional insured coverage in the policy at all. Thus, the Court finds that the Plaintiffs' reliance upon (the insurance broker's) representation of additional insured status was not reasonable. Accordingly, as a matter of law, Plaintiffs' claims for negligent and fraudulent misrepresentation fail.

A certificate of insurance, if incorrect, may provide a claim against the agent who issued the incorrect certificate, but it does not obligate the underwriter under the policy.⁸ A claim against the agent may be of small consolation under the circumstances.

3. Antiquated, Problematic and Just Plain Wrong Terminology

Even after almost 27 years since the insurance industry changed their policy forms in 1986, leases, construction contracts and other forms drafted by many lawyers still employ "antiquated, problematic and just plain wrong" terminology.

Don't Say This	Say This
"comprehensive general liability policy"	commercial general liability policy
"blanket or broad form contractual liability coverage"	contractual liability coverage
"broad form property damage"	(automatically covered)
"deletion of personal injury employee exclusion"	(this exclusion no longer exists, automatically covered)
"cross liability or severability of interests endorsement"	separation of insureds
"products/completed operations for 2 years following completion of the Work"	(See discussion below.)

(1) "Comprehensive General Liability Policy"

A "comprehensive general liability policy" was anything but comprehensive. It was a very basic liability insurance policy to which numerous endorsements had to be added. When the commercial general liability policy was introduced, it incorporated many of those changes that were previously required to be added by endorsement.

(2) "Blanket or Broad Form Contractual Liability Coverage"

Since 1986, "blanket" or "broad form contractual liability coverage" has not existed. The current commercial general liability definition of contractual liability in the standard CGL policy achieves the same result.⁹

⁸ Fictitious Insured Syndrome. An amazingly common problem in the insurance industry is the issuance by the Producer of a certificate of insurance certifying to a party to be protected that it is an additional insured on the protecting-party's insurance, but then its failure to notify the insurance company of the need to alter or amend the coverage to match the certificate. The result is that the insurance company refuses to provide coverage. As observed by one commentator:

Probably the most common area in which certificates of insurance and insurance policies conflict is with respect to additional insured status. Certificate holders are often listed as additional insureds on certificates without the policy actually being endorsed to reflect that intent. An extreme case of this that often occurs is for a copy of an additional insured endorsement to be attached to the certificate but not the policy. This practice may not provide additional insured status and, thus is sometimes called the "fictitious insured syndrome." Sometimes this problem stems from a lack of communication. The insurance agent, for example may have the authority to add another party to a policy as an additional insured and may issue a certificate indicating that this has been done while forgetting to ask the insurer to issue the endorsement. When the additional insured later seeks protection, the insurer denies such protection, shifting the blame elsewhere.

The ADDITIONAL INSURED BOOK 5th Ed., Malecki, Ligeros, and Gibson, Ch. 20 Certificates of Insurance pp. 349-50 (International Risk Management Institute, Inc. www.IRMI.com 2004).

⁹ Contractual Liability Coverage – An Exception to an Exclusion From Coverage. See Endnote 29 in the Commentary on Insurance Forms.

(3) “Broad Form Property Damage,” “Broad Form CGL Endorsement,” and “Deletion of the Personal Injury Employee Exclusion”

The same thing is true of “broad form property damage,” “broad form CGL endorsement,” and “deletion of the personal injury employee exclusion.” Use of such terminology is indicative of lack of awareness of changes that occurred almost 27 years ago.¹⁰

(4) “Cross Liability Endorsement” or “Separation of Insureds Endorsement”

Requiring a “cross liability endorsement” is even more problematic. A cross liability endorsement in today’s vernacular is an exclusion, not a provision or extension of coverage, the purpose of which is to prevent one insured from being provided coverage when sued by another insured. A “separation of insureds endorsement” or “severability of interests provision” states that each insured against whom claim is made or suit is brought will be provided a separate defense. This protection is automatically included in today’s standard form commercial general liability policy.¹¹

(5) Products/Completed Operations for 2 Years Following Completion of the Work

A requirement that coverage be provided for a specified number of years following substantial completion of a construction job is not a requirement that can be met by any standard insurance program, as all such programs expire annually. A requirement for the continued provision of coverage is instead a performance requirement being placed on the insured.¹²

4. Additional Insureds Are Not Automatically Notified of Cancellation or Modification, and Never Notified of Non-Renewal of Coverage

Don’t Say This	Say This
30 day notice of cancellation, amendment, reduction of limits or nonrenewal	30 day notice of cancellation

The standard ISO CGL policy provides that notice of cancellation will be provided to the first Named Insured.¹³ Similarly, the ISO Common Policy Conditions, which is a component of the ISO property policy, provides that notice of cancellation is to be given only to the first Named Insured.¹⁴ Neither the ISO CP 12 18 06 07 Loss Payable Provisions nor the ISO CP 12 19 06 07 Additional Insured – Building Owner endorsement issued to tenants insuring a building on leased premises provides for notice of cancellation to be given to the landlord.¹⁵ Additional insureds are not first; they are “additional” and, therefore, the standard policy without endorsement does not commit

¹⁰ Commercial General Liability Insurance (CGL). See Endnote 23 in the Commentary on Insurance Forms.

¹² Products-Completed Operations. See Endnote 71 in the Commentary on Insurance Forms.

¹⁴ Notice Only to First Named Insured. See Par. A Cancellation in the ISO IL 00 17 11 98 Common Policy Conditions attached in the Appendix of Forms. See Endnote 15 in the Commentary on Forms for a discussion of the change in 2006 to the ACORD Certificate of Insurance deleting the statement that the insurer is to endeavor to give notice of policy cancellation to the certificate holder.

¹⁵ No Notice to Landlord. See ISO CP 12 18 06 07 Loss Payable Provisions and ISO CP 12 19 06 07 Additional Insured – Building Owner attached in the Appendix of Forms.

the insurer to give notice to the additional insured if the insurer cancels the policy for nonpayment of premium or for any other reason.¹⁶

Some but not all states permit policies to be endorsed with a “notice of cancellation” endorsement obligating the insurer to give Named Insureds other than the first Named Insured or additional insureds advance notice of policy cancellation.¹⁷ Even in states where some form of notice endorsement has been approved by the state insurance industry regulatory body, it is difficult to get insurers to commit to give notice of cancellation to persons that are not the first Named Insured. Further, insurance companies will not provide a “notice of nonrenewal” endorsement. When any term, condition or verbiage is changed in a policy at time of renewal, that policy is technically no longer a renewal. Hence, every time there is even a minor change (and something is almost always changed), a nonrenewal notice would have to be sent. Insurance companies are unwilling to commit to such a burden and expense.

5. Not All Indemnified Liabilities Are Insured

a. An Indemnitor is a Private Insurer

An obligation to defend, indemnify and hold harmless another party for risks other than those prescribed by law is a contractual assumption of those risks by the indemnitor. The indemnitor has agreed to be liable for those risks. Subject to the limits of anti-indemnification legislation, the scope of risks that can be transferred by indemnity are quite broad, potentially including the indemnitee’s joint, concurrent, sole, strict and even gross negligence. Indemnification agreements can be drafted to include “any and all liabilities including fines, penalties, and all other associated expenses.” Most indemnification provisions are unlimited in amount (i.e., a blank check!). An indemnitor becomes a private insurer of the indemnified liabilities, but usually one under an indemnification agreement not approaching the detail of an insurance policy.

b. Applying Contractual Liability Coverage to the Indemnification Agreement

What portion of this transferred risk is insured, or even insurable? Contractual liability insurance is the funding mechanism for a portion of the liabilities assumed by an indemnitor by its indemnity. This insurance coverage is provided in the standard CGL policy as (1) a series of definitions to (2) an exception to (3) an exclusion to (4) the coverage provision for bodily injury and property damage liability only.¹⁸ In other words, contractual liability insurance applies to allegations of bodily injury and physical injury to tangible property, and nothing else.

Problematic Insurance Spec:

____ shall provide contractual liability insurance covering the liabilities assumed in the indemnification agreement.

¹⁷ Texas: Better Than Most. The Texas Department of Insurance (“TDI”) currently permits a “notice of cancellation or material change” endorsement. See ISO CG 02 05 12 04 Texas Changes – Amendment of Cancellation Provisions or Coverage Change. TDI has not defined what constitutes a “material change”.

Standard CGL insurance does not and cannot “cover” an indemnity. It does not cover “any and all liabilities, fines, or penalties”. Only “bodily injury” and “property damage” are covered. Coverage is also limited to the policy amounts.

Revised Insurance Spec:

_____ shall provide contractual liability insurance applying to the indemnification agreement.

The application of contractual liability coverage to a broad form indemnity provides coverage for a limited portion of the indemnified liabilities. It must be kept in mind that, since insurance potentially covers so few of the exposures for which indemnification may be required, the indemnification provision is potentially bankrupting to the indemnitor. Also, as noted in Item A.11 Exclusions May Be Invisible, you cannot assume that contractual liability coverage afforded by the standard commercial general liability policy has not been limited or even deleted by endorsement.

Furthermore, there is no duty to defend an indemnitee found in the standard commercial general liability policy. When defense is required in the indemnification provision, a funny thing happens. Unlike the way costs of defense is provided in most liability coverages, costs of defense provided on behalf of an indemnitee are deemed to be damages, meaning that those costs are included in the limit of liability (not outside of or in addition to that limit) and therefore erode the limit.

Hypothetical:

If $400,000 is paid for defending the indemnitee, only $600,000 is left for payment of settlement. Who wins? Not the indemnitee, who thought it was being provided, for example $1,000,000, in coverage by the indemnitor. And certainly not the indemnitor (the Named Insured), who not only (1) paid dearly for the coverage but (2) is now having to share its limits of liability with the indemnitee and (3) is having those limits rapidly eroded by the indemnitee’s defense costs.

6. A General Specification for “Additional Insured Status” Is Meaningless

a. Complementary Risk Management Tools

It is not a matter of choosing between indemnification and additional insured status – properly done, you should seek both. Indemnification and additional insured status are two complementary risk-transfer provisions. They perform similarly in most respects but are two totally independent coverage provisions. They act as two separate contracts for coverage.

Many attorneys negotiate long and hard regarding indemnification but fail to take into consideration the ramifications of additional insured status. Do not do that. Require a scope of additional insured coverage that coordinates with the indemnity provision.

b. Additional Insured Advantages

If the indemnitee is an additional insured, among other advantages it has the following:

- The additional insured party is an insured under the policy. It has the right to contact the insurance company directly and place a claim. It does not have to even notify the named insured of its intent to do so.

- Each insured, including each additional insured, must not only be provided a separate defense but the cost of that defense is unlimited in amount, being outside of or in addition to the limit of liability, until the insurance company’s obligations are fulfilled.

- Additional insured status can provide coverages that include the concurrent or sole negligence of the additional insured party.

- In most jurisdictions, there are no “fair notice rules” applicable to drafting of additional insured specifications, substantially reducing the likelihood of litigation to enforce this specification.

Returning to the Hypothetical:

Now, return to the Hypothetical. The additional insured party not only receives the desired limit of liability for settlement, but also has its defense costs paid in addition to that limit. The named insured still has to share its limit of liability with the additional insured, but is no longer having that limit eroded by defense costs of the other protected party. Now who wins? Everybody, except the insurance company. Additional insured status achieves a dramatic shift in coverage for defense costs.

c. Most Common Drafting Error

Unfortunately, although additional insured coverage is the most common risk management technique, it is also the most commonly misunderstood, even by professionals in the field such as risk managers, insurance agents and lawyers. The most common error is failing to specify the coverage terms to be contained in the additional insured endorsement. Parties commonly cover the additional insured requirement by specifying

(The Named Insured) will cause its CGL insurer to list _____ as an additional insured on its CGL policy.

A landlord may specify in its lease that the tenant and the tenant’s contractors will cause each of their CGL insurers to list the landlord, its lender and management company as additional insureds on the tenant’s and the tenant’s contractors’ CGL policies; a tenant may specify in its contract with its tenant-finish contractor that the contractor is to cause its CGL insurer to list the tenant, its landlord, the landlord’s lender and the management company as additional insureds on the tenant-finish contractor’s CGL policy; the tenant’s contractor may specify in its subcontract with its subcontractors that the subcontractors list the contractor as an additional insured on the subcontractor’s CGL policy. Unfortunately, in each of these cases, the person desiring protection as an additional insured has, by this wording of its insurance clause, left it up to the other party’s insurance carrier to define the scope of the coverage to be provided. This is equivalent to “letting the fox determine how, when, and if to protect the chicken.”¹⁹

A mistake has been made because there is no commonly accepted definition of what is an “additional insured.” The above-quoted specification neither specifies the triggers to coverage nor what exclusions to coverage are to be permitted. There are literally hundreds of different additional insured endorsements in current use, each providing a different scope of coverage. Without a detailed specification of the scope of coverage to be afforded by the insurer to the additional insured, you have left it up to the insurer to select the form of additional insured coverage to provide. Simply requiring “additional insured status” may get the additional insured coverage that (1) includes both completed and ongoing operations and concurrent and sole negligence, or (2) includes only ongoing operations and excludes sole negligence of the additional insured, or (3) includes only certain ongoing operations and excludes both concurrent and sole negligence of the additional insured, and has additional exclusions added to it, or (4) innumerable additional options.

¹⁹ A Common Mistake. See ACREL News, Vol. 28, No. 2 (May 2008) William H. Locke, Jr., The Most Common Yet Most Misunderstood Risk Management Tool – the Additional Insured Endorsement.

d. What to Look For In An Additional Insured Endorsement

The most common and well recognized additional insured endorsements are drafted for use by the insurance industry by ISO, or Insurance Services Office. ISO endorsements will include a footer that reads © ISO Properties, Inc., 20__” or © Insurance Services Office, Inc., 20__”.²⁰

The following are questions to be answered in reviewing an additional insured endorsement (the “Coverage Matrix”):

- Who? Who is being added as an additional insured?
- What? What scope of negligence is being transferred? What activity is covered (e.g., operations, work, ownership, use, maintenance)?
- When? Is there a time period covered?
- Where? Is there a location covered?
- Exclusions? Are there exclusions to coverage?
- Limitations?²¹

Pay careful attention to edition date of the endorsement. Each new edition restricts coverage that was provided in previous edition. Also, confirm that the issued additional insured endorsement is the form specified in the insurance specifications. Two forms of clerical errors of an issuing agent are issuing the wrong additional insured endorsement form and assuming that an existing blanket insured endorsement form appropriately applies to the transaction (for example, the authorized representative signing the certificate of insurance may erroneously believe that the blanket additional insured endorsement attached to the policy applies to a landlord/tenant relationship, but the blanket endorsement covers an owner/contractor relationship).

e. The 2013 Amendments to the ISO Additional Insured Endorsements – a Friend or a Foe?

ISO amended most of its additional insured endorsements effective April, 2013, so the new endorsements will reflect a 04 13 edition date. These revised endorsements provide that the insurance afforded to the additional insured (the “2013 Additional Limitations”):²²

²⁰ ISO and ACORD Forms. Following the Appendix of Forms is a Commentary on Insurance Forms which sets out by Endnotes a discussion of various provisions in the Forms. See Endnote 1 for a discussion of ISO and the ISO insurance form numbering system. See Endnotes 8-11 and 15 - 18 for a discussion of the ACORD certificate forms. Many insurance companies utilize manuscript additional insured endorsements. A manuscript endorsement is one that an insurance company makes up, which may or may not include some ISO wording. Beware of any endorsement that includes a footer reading “Includes Copyrighted Material of Insurance Services Office, Inc. With Its Permission”. All manuscript endorsements require careful scrutiny. They frequently:

- Limit the parties being added as an additional insured;
- Limit the scope of coverage being provided;
- Limit the operations being covered; and
- May add new exclusions.

An example of a new exclusion is “No coverage is provided for damages because of bodily injury to employees of the insured”. This obviously adversely affects the risk transfer allowed even under many of the anti-indemnification statutes recently adopted across the nation.

²¹ Limitations. Note, some manuscripted additional insured endorsements specify a sublimit for additional insured coverage that is less than the policy limits applicable to the Named Insured. See MALECKI ON INSURANCE, Additional Insured Coverage – A Critique of a Nonstandard Endorsement (August, 2005, Vol. 14, No. 10, pp. 1-8) which reviews the following manuscripted endorsement to a CGL policy that specified on its Declaration Page a sublimit for additional insured coverage an amount less than the policy limits applicable to the Named Insured:

The Limits of Insurance applicable to the additional insured are those specified in the written contract or written agreement, if any between you and the additional insured regarding the work described above, or in the Declarations of this policy, whichever is less. The coverage provided to the additional insured by this endorsement and by paragraph f. of the definition of “insured contract” under Definitions (Section V), as amended by this endorsement, does not apply to “bodily injury” or “property damage” beyond: ... d. The effective date of any deletion of, any removal of, or any non-continuance of, this additional insured endorsement from this policy.

Note that this manuscripted language provides that the additional insured coverage can be terminated by the insurer’s unilateral issuance of a deletion endorsement. Unless the policy is endorsed to provide the additional insured notice of the insurer’s issuance of an endorsement deleting additional insured coverage, the additional insured may never learn of the termination of its coverage.

- Applies only to the extent permitted by law;
- Will be no broader in scope than required by the contract; and
- Will not provide for more than the limit required by the contract or the policy limit, whichever is less.

A. Section II - Who is An Insured However:

1. The insurance afforded to such additional insured only applies to the extent permitted by law,²³ and
2. If coverage provided to the additional insured is required by a contract or agreement, the insurance afforded to such additional insured will not be broader than that which you are required by the contract or agreement to provide for such additional insured.²⁴

B. With respect to the insurance afforded to these additional insureds, the following is added to Section III – Limits of Insurance:

The most we will pay on behalf of the additional insured is the amount of insurance:

1. Required by the contract or agreement you have entered into with the additional insured; or

²³ To the Extent Permitted by Law. This change was brought about by the wave of anti-indemnification sweeping the country and the many different manners in which the legislation is drafted. Anti-indemnity statutes in some states are silent or unclear as to whether the statute's prohibitions apply to insurance as well as indemnification. Most of ISO's additional insured endorsements provide coverage to the additional insured for negligence shared with the named insured. In those states, like Texas, where the statute expressly prohibits additional insured coverage for another party's negligence (except in specified exceptions), this language is to make clear that despite the wording extending coverage to an additional insured for its concurrent negligence (or even sole negligence), coverage applies only to the extent permitted by law. See Endnote 79 - Additional Insured Coverage in the Construction Context - Anti-Indemnity Statutes. This change permitted the use of a uniform endorsement throughout the United States in lieu of the tailored state-by-state endorsements that ISO had previously promulgated for states with varying anti-indemnity statutes.

²⁴ Coverage Not Broader Than Required by Contract or Agreement. This change was made to make it clear that additional insured coverage will be no broader than "required" in the underlying contract or agreement. This is to avoid giving an additional insured coverage broader than the coverage specified in the contract or agreement. The "required" language stresses the importance of insurance specification drafting.

Questions will abound.

- What was the parties' intent? If the additional insured endorsement is an 07 04 endorsement but the CGL policy required by the contract is an 04 13, will the endorsement be broader than the underlying policy?
- Will the adjuster have to divine the parties' intent? How will the adjuster divine the parties' intent (ask the parties, read the contract)?
- What if the insurance specifications in the contract merely state that a party is to be an additional insured, and does not specify the scope or limits of coverage?
 - Even if the contract's additional insured specification specifies coverage for bodily injury and property damage, what if it does not specify additional insured coverage for otherwise covered risks (e.g., fire damage legal liability coverage or medical payments or completed operations coverage)?
 - Does the absence of a specific requirement mean that such coverage will not be available to the additional insured? (Narrative form insurance specifications generally do not go into the detail of insurance contracts.)
 - Are these questions eliminated by a contract provision that the additional insured coverage will be the broader of the minimum required by the contract or that included within the named insured's policy, or a provision in the contract that states that if the additional insured endorsement contains such "no broader" language, that it shall in no way limit the "breadth" of insurance provided to the additional insured?
 - Will the court or the insurance adjuster look to the indemnity provision and its qualifications to determine the scope of additional insured coverage intended?

A common example is the following limitation contained in the AIA A201-2007 General Conditions indemnity language (see Appendix of Forms, A201 § 3.18.1 (Indemnification) limiting the contractor's indemnity:

To the fullest extent permitted by law the Contractor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Owner ... but only to the caused by the negligent acts or omissions of the Contractor, a Subcontractor, or anyone directly or indirectly employed by them or anyone for whose acts they may be liable, regardless of whether or not such claim, damage, loss or expense is caused in part by a party indemnified hereunder

This language creates a "limited" form indemnity, since it does not involve the contractor's assumption of the owner's tort liability. Is it the intent of the parties to limit the additional insured coverage by this limitation to the indemnity? The Texas Anti-Indemnity Act, TEX. INSURANCE CODE Chapter 151 has the following significant express exceptions to the Act's elimination of broad-form indemnity: (1) bodily injury or death of an employee of the indemnitor, its agent, or its subcontractor of any tier (§ 151.103); (2) claims arising from single-family residential construction (§ 151.105(10)(A)); and (3) claims arising from construction projects insured through CIPs, controlled insured programs (§ 151.105(1)).

2. Available under the applicable Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations; whichever is less.²⁵ This endorsement shall not increase the applicable Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations. (Underlining added by author.)

Note that the 2013 ISO Additional Limitations import into the endorsement the scope of coverage and limitations of coverage contained in the additional insured specifications in the underlying contract documents. This change introduces into the endorsement the potential for contract disputes over the meaning of contract wording.

f. Frequently Used Additional Insured Endorsements

(1) ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person or Organization

The most common ISO additional insured endorsement used for the construction industry is the ISO CG 20 10 04 13. A copy of this additional insured endorsement is found in the Appendix of Forms. This additional insured endorsement provides the following coverage:

Who? This endorsement “includes as an insured the person or organization shown in the Schedule.” If you desire that a person or persons or classes of persons be covered as additional insureds, you need to list them in the endorsement’s Schedule (e.g., name the primary additional insured; list as additional insureds, the named additional insured’s “officers, directors, employees, and its successors and assigns”; list the project manager as an additional insured; list the primary additional insured’s lender as an additional insured).

What? Coverage is afforded “but only with respect to liability for ‘bodily injury’, ‘property damage’ or ‘personal and advertising injury’ caused in whole or in part by your (the Named Insured’s) acts or omissions; or the acts or omission of those acting on your (the Named Insured’s) behalf”

When? Coverage is afforded for “liability ... in the performance of your (the Named Insured’s) on-going operations for the additional insured(s)....” Coverage to the additional insured for exposures arising out of completed operations is lost.

Where? The additional endorsement limits coverage to “liability ... in the performance of your on-going operations for the additional insured(s) at the location(s) designated above” (the endorsement provides a blank for insertion of the “Location(s) of Covered Operations”).

²⁵ Dollar Limit Required by Contract or Agreement, Whichever is Less. This change was made to limit the dollar limits of coverage afforded the additional insured to the lesser of the policy limits or the limit required in the underlying contract or agreement that specified additional insured coverage. For example, if the contract requires the contractor to maintain CGL limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence, but the contractor obtains coverage for $2,000,000 per occurrence, the additional insured owner is insured only to the extent of $1,000,000.

More questions abound.

- What constitutes “the amount of insurance ... required by the contract”?
- What happens in cases where the named insured/indemnitor's indemnity is not capped by a specific dollar amount, but the insurance specification provides for a specific dollar amount of coverage, and the named insured actually has greater limits? (In such case, the dollar amount of the additional insured coverage is limited to the amount specified for the liability policy, but the additional insured/indemnitee can claim against the named insured/indemnitor for amounts greater than the contract specified CGL limit. The named insured/indemnitor can then make a claim against its CGL policy for the limits within its actual policy. But what if the named insured/indemnitor does not pursue its claim on its CGL policy as it has no assets?) A court addressing a manuscripted additional insured endorsement held the limits for the additional insured were capped at the amount specified in the contract as the dollar coverage amount. Bovis Lend Lease LMB, Inc. v. Great Am. Ins. Co., 53 A.D.3d 140 (N.Y. App. Div. [1st Dept.] 2008).
- What if the contract calls for coverage to be provided in an amount “of at least” or “shall be no less than” a stated amount? See Mobil Oil Corp. v. Maryland Cas. Co., 681 N.E.2d 552 (1997) - court held that the additional insured's coverage under the CGL policy and excess layer policies was not limited by contract language that the insured was required to procure “at least $250,000” of coverage, but extended to the full face value of the policies. Other cases construing similar language are cited at footnote 8 to Forest Oil Corp. v. Strata Energy, Inc., 929 F.2d 1039 (5th Cir. [Tex.] 1991) in which the court found that an underlying contract's “with limits of not less than” a specified amount did not limit the additional insured's coverage to the contractually specified “not less than amount” and also held the primary insurer was not entitled to subrogate as to its insured against the excess insurer for a claim settled by the primary insurer above the “not less than amount” but below the actual limits of the primary coverage.

Exclusions? The additional insured endorsement expressly sets out the following two exclusions: “This insurance does not apply to ‘bodily injury’ or ‘property damage’ occurring after: (1) All work ... has been completed; or (2) That portion of ‘your work’ out of which the injury or damage arises has been put to its intended use....”

Limitations? Additionally, the ISO CG 20 10 04 13 contains the 2013 Additional Limitations.²⁶

(2) ISO CG 20 11 Additional Insured – Managers or Lessors of Premises

The ISO CG 20 11 04 13 endorsement is used when a landlord or the property manager, or both, is to be listed as an additional insured on the tenant’s liability insurance policy. A common risk transfer strategy is for a landlord to provide in its lease that its tenant indemnify and make the landlord and its property manager an additional insured on the tenant’s CGL policy. These provisions recognize that the tenant’s occupancy creates an additional liability exposure to the landlord for injuries and property damage resulting from the tenant’s activities. A copy of this additional insured endorsement is found in the Appendix of Forms. This additional insured endorsement provides the following coverage:

Who? This endorsement “includes as an insured the person or organization shown in the Schedule.” As noted above, all intended additional insureds need to be scheduled in the endorsement’s Schedule.

What? Coverage is afforded “but only with respect to liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use” of that part of the premises leased to you (the named insured)....”

When? This endorsement expressly sets out as a time of coverage limitation “This insurance does not apply to ... (a)ny ‘occurrence’ which takes place after you cease to be a tenant in that premises.”

Where? The additional insured endorsement limits coverage to “that part of the premises leased to you and shown in the Schedule” (the endorsement provides a blank for “Designation of Premises (Part Leased to You)”).

Exclusions? In addition to the time coverage limitation, this endorsement expressly sets out the following exclusion: “This insurance does not apply to ... (s)tructural alterations, new construction or demolition operations performed by or on behalf of the person or organization shown in the Schedule.”

Limitations? The ISO CG 20 11 04 13 contains the 2013 Additional Limitations.

Coverage Matrix: (1) Who? This endorsement “includes as an insured the person or organization shown in the Schedule.” (2) What? Coverage is afforded “but only with respect to liability arising out of your [the named insured’s] work for that insured by or for you.” The “arising out of” language has been held to include the concurrent and sole negligence of the additional insured party, as that party ostensibly wouldn’t be involved in the litigation but for its agreement with the named insured. (3) When? “Work” is defined including both ongoing and completed operations. (4) Where? The additional endorsement does not limit coverage to a specified location. (5) Exclusions? The additional endorsement does not contain exclusionary language. This endorsement is rarely possible to obtain as it offers quite broad coverage to the additional insured and it is quite old and a variety of more current endorsements are available.

If the insurance provision simply calls for additional insured status to be provided, who decides which one will be provided? The insurance company for the downstream party gets to make that decision. If an insurance provision fails to specify an adequate scope of additional insured coverage to be provided and a claim occurs that falls outside of the limited scope of additional insured status provide, how is coverage potentially provided? The policy may still have to respond to the indemnification provision, in which case defense costs are shifted from outside the limit to inside the limit. In either case, who wins? The insurance company. Don't let that happen to your client.

Remember your audience. The people that most need to understand what is being required are the downstream party's insurance brokers. Make it easy for them to understand. Require a specific ISO endorsement or a specific scope of coverage. If requiring a specific ISO endorsement, do not say "or equivalent". What does that mean? What it does not mean is "identical". Make the downstream party declare what in fact they do have. Get a copy and read it. Make sure that it complies with your requirement.

Recommended: Sample wording including the sole negligence of the additional insured:

Contractor shall obtain additional insured coverage in favor of Landlord Parties on commercial general liability and excess liability policies. Additional insured status shall be provided on a combination of unmodified ISO endorsements CG 20 10 10.01 and CG 20 37 10.01.

Alternative: Sample wording excluding the sole negligence of the additional insured:

Contractor shall obtain additional insured coverage in favor of Landlord Parties on commercial general liability and excess liability policies. Additional insured status shall be provided on a combination of unmodified ISO endorsements CG 20 10 04.13 and CG 20 37 04.13.

h. Primary and Noncontributory Liability

Many agreements call for the downstream party's insurance to be primary. The problem with this is that all general liability policies state that they are primary, and that, if two or more policies cover a claim, they will share in payment of that loss. The insurance industry attempted a fix to this by including a provision that states that a Named Insured's coverage is excess where that Named Insured is added to another party's coverage as an additional insured. That works fine so long as the downstream party hasn't also modified its additional insured coverage to be provided on an excess liability or other modified basis.

Example – Manuscript Wording:

Primary & Noncontributory Additional Insured Endorsement

Who Is An Insured is amended to include as an insured the person or organization shown in the schedule of this endorsement, but only with respect to liability arising out of "your work" for that insured by or for you.

As respects additional insured as defined above, this insurance also applies to "bodily injury" or "property damage" arising out of your negligence when the following written requirements are applicable: Coverage available under this coverage part shall apply as primary insurance.

The first paragraph is the same wording as the CG 20 10 11 85 additional insured endorsement, offering broad coverage that includes coverage for the concurrent and sole negligence of the additional insured. What could possibly be wrong? Examine the second paragraph closely. For what causes of loss is primary coverage provided? Only for liability arising out of the named insured's negligence – not the additional insured.

We strive to address these issues contractually by calling for the downstream party to provide “primary and noncontributory” liability coverage, but isn’t that title nonsensical? ISO has a new endorsement that will resolve some of these problems. ISO’s new Primary and Noncontributory Endorsement CG 20 01 04 13 (see form in Appendix of Forms) reads:

This insurance is primary to and will not seek contribution from any other insurance available to an additional insured under your policy provided that: The additional insured is a Named Insured under such other insurance; and You have agreed in writing in a contract or agreement that this insurance would be primary and would not seek contribution from any other insurance available to the additional insured.

This new endorsement will resolve some problems, if the requirement for it is carefully drafted.²⁷

Recommended Insurance Spec:

It is the intent of the parties to this Agreement that all insurance coverage required herein shall be primary to and shall seek no contribution for any other insurance (whether primary, umbrella, contingent or excess) available to [Upstream Parties], with [Upstream Parties] insurance being excess, secondary and non-contributing. This CGL coverage shall be endorsed to provide such primary and noncontributory liability.

h. Umbrella and Excess Liability

Most “umbrella liability policies” are not umbrellas. Most are really a form of excess liability policy. Umbrella liability policies are most recognizable by the provision of Parts A and B. Part A is the excess liability over the underlying primary liability coverages, and Part B is the “umbrella” portion. Most “excess liability policies” do not provide pure excess liability, meaning that the coverage provided is not usually on a following form basis. Both kinds of policies frequently include gaps with regard to such matters as additional insured status, primary and noncontributory liability, waivers of subrogation and the like.

Recommended Insurance Spec:

Such insurance shall follow form of the underlying coverages. It shall be excess over and no less broad than all coverages and conditions described above, including but not limited to the required additional insured status, designated construction projects or locations, or both, general aggregate, waiver of subrogation, notice of cancellation, and prohibited exclusions or limitations and will be primary to and not seek contribution from any other insurance (primary, umbrella, contingent or excess) maintained by [the additional insured].

Keep in mind that umbrella or excess liability policies provide additional limits only over those underlying liability policies specifically listed in the policy.

7. Completed Operations Coverage is Important

Failure to require, and then follow up and assure maintenance by contractors and subcontractors of, products and completed operations coverage for up to the jurisdiction’s statute of repose can lead to catastrophic uninsured losses and can leave an owner or developer with little financial recourse. “Products and completed operations” coverage is a major general liability sub-line which provides coverage for an insured, including an additional insured, if coverage is maintained, against claims arising out of products sold, manufactured, handled or distributed, or operations which are complete. This line of coverage applies to claims for bodily injury and/or property damage and not for the Insured's failure to complete a job or operation on time.

The following are examples of injuries or property damage occurring after work completion, which are covered by products and completed operations coverage: injuries occurring from an explosion of a gas pipe after it was negligently installed; building collapse after completion; window leaks after installation; popping out of windows from a high rise condominium hotel after construction completion; cupping or upward warping of wood flooring due to negligent installation over wet subflooring. The "injury" or "property damage" occurs (manifests itself) after cessation of the contractor's ongoing operations when the pipeline explodes, the building collapses, the windows pop or the flooring warps, or a person is injured or killed.

The following most commonly issued standard additional insured endorsements issued in connection with construction exclude coverage for bodily injury and property damage occurring after completion of construction operations: ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person Or Organization, ISO CG 20 33 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Automatic Status When Required in Construction Agreement with You and ISO CG 20 38 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Automatic Status When Required in Construction in Written Construction Agreement. These endorsements define coverage as arising out of "ongoing operations" of the contractor or subcontractor as follows:

Who is An Insured is amended to include as an additional insured the person(s) or organization(s) ... [shown in the Schedule], but only with respect to liability for "bodily injury", "property damage" or "personal and advertising injury" caused, in whole or in part, by:

1. Your acts or omissions; or
2. The acts or omissions of those acting on your behalf;

in the performance of your ongoing operations for the additional insured(s)

They also contain the following exceptions to coverage:

This insurance does not apply to:

2. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" occurring after:
 - a. All work, including materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection with such work, on the project (other than service, maintenance or repairs) to be performed by or on behalf of the additional insured(s) at the location of the covered operations has been completed; or
 - b. That portion of "your work" out of which the injury or damage arises has been put to its intended use by any person or organization other than another contractor or subcontractor engaged in performing operations for a principal as part of the same project.

Additional insured coverage is available through issuance of ISO CG 20 37 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Completed Operations. This form is contained in the Appendix of Forms. Products and completed operations coverage only covers occurrences occurring during the CGL policy's term. For products and completed operations coverage to continue year-to-year after work completion, the Named Insured contractor must purchase from the insurer completed operations coverage either year-to-year after the original policy term or purchase such coverage for a specified term after work completion with the project scheduled as a covered project and endorsed to include the owner as an additional insured under ISO CG 20 37 04 13 or 20 37 10 01 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Completed Operations. Another approach is to purchase a project specific policy written for the term of construction plus the extended coverage period negotiated by the parties (e.g., up to a jurisdiction's statute of repose). An insurer may be unwilling to issue a completed operations extension endorsement on the original policy after its term without there being also issued a current term CGL policy for the periods covered by the completed operations sub-line.

Ideally, contractors (and subcontractors) should be required to maintain additional insured coverage of owners and tenants for bodily injury and property damage arising out of the work for up to the maximum time limit in which a cause of action can be maintained against the owners and tenant. The length of time a contractor should be required to maintain products and completed operations coverage can be, depending on the risk tolerance of an owner (or other party desiring such protection, e.g., tenant or contractor), between two years (a typical state's tort statute of limitations) and 10 years (a typical state's statute of repose) after work completion.

See Specification 2.A § 1.3 Post-Completion Coverage specifying that Contractor agrees to maintain Products-Completed Operations coverage with respect to "Bodily Injury" and "Property Damage" caused, in whole or in part, by Contractor's work at the Premises and Property for a period of ___ years after final completion of the construction of the Improvements. This insurance is to be endorsed with an ISO CG 20 37 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Completed Operations endorsement to schedule Landlord Parties for the entirety of this post-completion period.

8. Additional Insureds May Not Be Covered by a Blanket Additional Insured Endorsement

Many additional insured coverages are provided on a "blanket" or "automatic" basis. This is important for two reasons:

- It means that additional insured status is provided where required by written contract. If a written, executed contract does not exist, neither does additional insured status.

- It tells you nothing whatsoever about the coverage provided the additional insured. It may be an ISO endorsement or a manuscripted endorsement. It may offer broad coverage or essentially no coverage.

a. Endorsement May Contain a Requirement of Privity Between Named Insured and Additional Insured

It is essential to obtain a copy of the policy and read it as was learned by the general contractor in Westfield Ins. Co. v. FCL Builders, Inc., 948 N.E.2d 115 (Ill. 2011). FCL, a general contractor, relied upon a certificate of insurance provided to it by its subcontractor listing FCL as an additional insured on the CGL policy of the sub-subcontractor. A tort action was brought by a severely injured employee of the sub-subcontractor against the general contractor. Unfortunately, although subcontractor's CGL policy was issued with an blanket additional insured endorsement, it extended additional insured coverage only to "persons for whom you are performing operations when you and such person have agreed in a written contract that such person be added as an additional insured." There was no written agreement between the sub-subcontractor and the general contractor. A similar circumstance exists between a landlord and a tenant's improvement contractor.²⁸

b. Endorsement May Require an Examination of the Contract Between the Insured and Additional Insured - the $750 M Comma

In a case arising out of the infamous "British Petroleum" ("BP") oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico, the Texas Supreme Court held in In re Deepwater Horizon, 2015 WL 674744, 470 S.W.3d 452 (Tex. 2015), in answer to questions

²⁸ ISO Blanket Additional Insured Endorsements. ISO has two forms of blanket additional insured endorsements for contractors and subcontractors: the ISO CG 20 33 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Automatic Status When Required in Construction Agreement With You and the ISO CG 20 38 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Automatic Status for Other Parties When Required in Written Construction Agreement. The ISO CG 20 38 (unlike to the ISO CG 20 33) provides that the following persons are additional insureds protected by the endorsement: "Any other person or organization you are required to add as an additional insured under the contract or agreement described in Paragraph 1 above". Paragraph 1 provides that the following person is an additional insured: "Any person or organization for whom you are performing operations when you and such person or organization have agreed in writing in a contract or agreement that such person or organization be added as an additional insured on your policy". FCL would have been protected if its subcontractor had its sub-subcontractor's CGL policy endorsed with an ISO CG 20 38 instead of with an ISO CG 20 33! See William H. Locke, Jr., Landlord's Beware of Insurance Certificates (A Trojan Horse), presented at the ACREL Las Vegas March 2012 Leasing and Insurance Committee meetings.

certified to it by the Fifth Circuit,²⁹ that BP was not an additional insured on the liability insurance policies of Transocean, its drilling contractor. In the drilling contract, BP and Transocean agreed to a "knock-for-knock" allocation of risk that is standard in the oil and gas industry. Among other indemnity provisions, Transocean agreed to indemnify BP for above-surface pollution regardless of fault, and BP agreed to indemnify Transocean for all pollution risk Transocean did not assume, i.e., subsurface pollution. The court interpreted the insurance policy's additional insured provision as incorporating the risk allocation provisions of the contract. The catastrophic damages resulted from subsurface pollution. The court found that the only reasonable construction of the additional insured provision in the BP drilling contract with Transocean was that

BP is an additional insured only as to liabilities assumed by Transocean under the Drilling Contract and no others. Because Transocean did not assume liability for subsurface pollution, Transocean was not "obliged" to name BP as an additional insured as to that risk. Because there is no obligation to provide insurance for that risk, BP lacks status as an "Insured" for the same.³⁰

The court rejected BP's argument that the presence of a comma in the additional insured provision made the court's interpretation unreasonable.³¹ The court also rejected BP's argument that the contract's provision to the effect that the indemnity and insurance provisions were separate and independent resulted in the insurance provisions not being limited by the scope of the indemnity.³²

9. Controlled Insurance Programs

There are two insurance approaches to protect the parties against the risk of non-auto "bodily injuries" and "property damages" arising out a construction project: the "traditional" approach; and a "controlled insurance program".

²⁹ Fifth Circuit. In re Deepwater Horizon, 728 F.3d 491, 500 (5th Cir. 2013) certified questions to the Texas Supreme Court, including the following question:

Whether Evanston Insurance Co. v. ATOFINA Petrochemicals, Inc., 256 S.W.3d 660 (Tex. 2008) compels a finding that BP is covered for the damages at issue, because the language of the umbrella policies alone determines the extent of BP's coverage as an additional insured if, and so long as, the additional insured and indemnity provisions of the Drilling Contract are "separate and independent"?

This certified question came after the Fifth Circuit withdrew its prior opinion (710 F.3d 338 (5th Cir. 2013) where it held that BP was an additional insured covered by $750,000,000 in primary and umbrella policies.

³⁰ Inexorably Linked. Id. at 9. The additional insured provision in the drilling contract obligated Transocean to acquire various types and minimum limits of insurance, including CGL, workers' compensation, and employer's liability insurance. The additional-insured provision states

[BP], its subsidiaries and affiliated companies, co-owners, and joint venturers, if any, and their employees, officers, and agents shall be named as additional insureds in each of [Transocean's] policies, except Workers' Compensation for liabilities assumed by [Transocean] under the terms of this contract. (Emphasis added.)

The court held that "It is immediately apparent from the plain language of this provision that BP's status as an insured is inexorably linked, at least in some respect, to the extent of Transocean's indemnity obligations. What is in dispute is the intended breadth of the limiting language in the emphasized portion of the provision." Id. at 10. (emphasis added.)

³¹ The $750,000,000 Comma. BP asserted that the court's interpretation was unreasonable because there is a comma before, but not after, the phrase "except Workers' Compensation" and further contended that a comma cannot be inserted where it does not exist (after "Workers' Compensation") when it would alter the plain meaning of the contract. See 37 No. 2 INS. LITIGATION RPT. 2 The $750 Million Comma? Texas Supreme Court Rules BP Is Not Entitled to Coverage for the Gulf Oil Spill as Additional Insured Under Policies Issued to Transocean (Feb. 2015).

³² Separate and Independent. The drilling contract provides

[w]ithout limiting the indemnity obligation or liabilities of [Transocean] or its insurer, at all times during the term of this contract, [Transocean] shall maintain insurance covering the operations to be performed under this contract as set forth in Exhibit C.

The court held "But simply because the duties to indemnify and maintain insurance may be separate and independent does not prevent them from also being congruent; that is, a contract may reasonably be construed as extending the insured's additional-insured status only to the extent of the risk the insured agreed to assume." Id. at 12.

The “Traditional” Approach. The traditional approach is for each party to maintain its own liability insurance. The owner maintains commercial general liability insurance protecting it against liability arising out of its "ownership, maintenance and use" of the project site; and the contractor (e.g., the construction manager) and its subcontractors of every tier each maintain a separate liability insurance program, including separate commercial general liability insurance, workers compensation and employers liability policies, and business auto liability policies.

A Controlled Insurance Program (“CIP”).³³ The other approach is for the owner or the contractor to maintain a "controlled insured program" (an owner controlled insurance program or "OCIP" if established by the owner; and a contractor controlled insurance program or "CCIP" if established by the contractor). A CIP has certain advantages over the traditional approach.³⁴ A CIP also has additional considerations which must be addressed in order to be implemented.³⁵ A CIP can be just a consolidated commercial general liability program or it can be a consolidated commercial general liability program plus other consolidated lines of liability insurance such as a consolidated workers compensation/employer's liability program.

OCIP. In an OCIP subcontractors are "enrolled" in the OCIP. A CIP addendum is attached to the general contract and to the subcontracts. Enrollment is accomplished by the subcontractors execution of the CIP addendum to their subcontract. This step can also be followed up by the formality of an enrolling call. An OCIP has the following advantages:

- The owner is the named insured. Thus, an owner's premises liability coverage (e.g., inclusion of “slips, trips and falls”) is included in addition to construction site liability coverage.
- Risk coverages can be tailored to an owner’s objectives: e.g., loss of use coverage.

³³ CIP. A controlled-insurance program (“CIP”), sometimes called a “wrap-up” insurance program, is used to provide liability insurance coverage for on-site construction participants from a single insurer. Construction participants must agree to be “enrolled” (“enrolled parties”) in the consolidated insurance program and agree to substitute the CIP coverage in lieu of the party’s own insurance coverage. The CIP is “sponsored” (administered) either by the owner (“OCIP”) or the general contractor (a “CCIP”). The sponsor is responsible for the program’s insurance premium cost, which is reflected one way or another in the construction contract’s contract sum (e.g., in the Case Study, the liability program was a CCIP and the premium cost is passed through to the owner pursuant to the “cost plus” feature of the A133. In order to implement a CIP, the sponsor must be assured that the all liability risk inducing parties are to the maximum extent possible enrolled parties (subcontractors of all tiers) and that they comply with the program (e.g., the safety program, loss controls, payroll reporting, claims reporting), and that program cost funding is secure to assure payment of deductible losses and premiums. CIPs may be project-specific programs, multiple project programs or rolling programs. (The Case Study program was a rolling CCIP). The Case Study CCIP had a CIP Manual setting out a “coordinated master insurance, safety and claim management program for the Contractor and all Enrolled Subcontractors working on the Project.” The CIP Manual addressed the following: (1) coverages provided; (2) obligations of an enrolled party; (3) identification of types of subcontractors that are not program participants (“non-enrolled subcontractors or non-enrolled project parties”); (4) obligations of non-enrolled subcontractors or non-enrolled project parties, including insurance specifications for insurance to be maintained; (5) details as to the project safety program; (6) if workers comp coverage is to be offered, insurance calculation worksheets facilitating calculation of the subcontractor’s estimated insurance premium using its estimated payroll and payroll reporting forms, and experience rating data; (7) provisions, including insurance specifications, to be included by an enrolled subcontractor in lower tier subcontracts; (8) claims reporting procedures; (9) bid procedures to assure the sponsor that the enrolled subcontractor deducted from its bid the cost of insurance for coverages within the CIP; and (10) insurance specifications for insurance to be carried by the enrolled subcontractor for risks not covered by the CIP.

³⁵ Implementation Considerations. The following program implementation considerations are noted in the ABA CONSTRUCTION INSURANCE GUIDE at p. 333:

There are other considerations to bear in mind, of course: (1) CIP programs typically entail high deductibles that, though usually capped at a fixed percentage of payroll, can result in program costs that exceed contractor credits; (2) CIP policies often have premiums that can go up (or down) depending on loss frequency and audited payroll, presenting a potential financial risk to the sponsor; (3) significant collateral can be required; (4) particularly for larger projects, the CIP model requires experienced administration for successful implementation, and this has a cost impact as well; (5) project-specific coverage is usually at least as robust as individual policies but there are exceptions, and it can be less favorable than some larger contractors’ own practice policies, which may not be available if a CIP is used; and (6) realizing cost savings requires that participants fully disclose their insurance costs and that they have sophisticated understanding of that cost.

- The premises liability aggregate is reinstated on an annual basis. This can be advantageous in a multi-year construction project. (In the Case Study addressed later in this article, the construction term was only 16 months).
- Unlike an OCIP, a CCIP contains a “builders risk exclusion.” This exclusion modifies the CGL coverage to exclude property damage to property on which the contractor or the subcontractors are working and damages that arise out of those operations. There is in such case a potential risk that the builder's risk insurer will also deny claims on grounds of faulty workmanship and therefore, neither the CCIP nor the builder's risk policy insures against this risk.
- OCIPs may employ a 5-10% (“swing”) audit margin clause. With such a feature added to an OCIP an additional premium is not assessed to the project if the exposure basis (hard costs) does not increase by more than the swing. The additional premium is only assessed on value exceeding the swing.

CCIP. In a CCIP, subcontractors are also enrolled. The workers compensation and employer's liability insurance may be maintained inside or outside of the CIP. The CIP in the Case Study was only a consolidated commercial general liability program and was part of a master CCIP into which all of the contractor's construction projects across the United States participated.

10. Commercial General Liability Insurance Coverage of Construction Defects!

a. Uninsurable Business Risk or Insurable Accident?

The most common means of insuring against property damage at a construction site is through “first party” coverage, e.g., builder's risk insurance. Protection of owners, developers, contractors and subcontractors against “third party” claims (claims by parties other than the parties to the contract, for example, claims by injured employees of the contractor against the owner) is the subject of commercial general liability (“CGL”) insurance policies. CGL insurance is thus commonly considered to be third party insurance. Contractors have sought to utilize CGL policies as first party insurance to cover property damage occurring at the construction site arising out of faulty workmanship. Due to defective products and negligently performed work damage can occur to the contractor's work product and even beyond the work to the project. Liability insurers have sought to exclude from the coverage of CGL policies so-called “business risks”, those risks thought generally to be under the control of the insured (contractor or subcontractor) and which are not regarded as fortuitous in nature. In crafting policy language (coverage and exclusions) insurers have struggled for decades to draft policy language that clearly and unambiguously covers “accidental” property damage but does not cover uninsurable business risks. The insurance industry has resisted insuring contractor's for property damage caused by “business risks” within the contractor's control. This issue has been the subject of considerable litigation. Although the vast majority of cases involve interpretation of the same CGL policy language, there is a marked split of authority. As reviewed below, the recent focus has been on the “occurrence” and “property damage” requirements of the CGL policy, with some courts applying the legal theories of “business risk” and “economic loss” as a means to exclude coverage. In undertaking this approach, these courts have ignored interpreting the policy as a whole and have failed to consider the purpose and scope of the policy's construction-specific exclusions and the exceptions to these exclusions.

b. The Standard Policy Language

See the Appendix of Forms, CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Insurance Coverage Forms, and in particular the portions quoted below.³⁶ Upon examination of this language, a determination of what is covered and what is excluded is the product of the following definitions: "property damage"; an "occurrence"; "your work"; and "products-completed operations hazard". Assuming that the property damage is covered because it is the result of an occurrence, then coverage involves a determination as to whether any of the policy's exclusions exclude coverage, including the following exclusions discussed below: 2.a Expected or Intended Injury-"property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured (the contractor); 2.b Contractual Liability; 2.j(5) Damage to Property - "property damage" to that particular part on which the insured (the contractor) or its contractors or subcontractors are performing operations, if the "property damage" arises out of those operations; 2.j(6) Damage to Property - damage to that particular part of any property that must be restored, repaired or replaced because "your work" was incorrectly performed on it; or 2.l Damage to Your Work - damage to your work and included in the "products-completed operations hazard".

c. An "Occurrence"? - Or Excluded as Exclusion 2.a - Expected or Intended Injury?

The standard policy definition of an "occurrence" is set out in Section V - Definitions, Paragraph 13 "Occurrence". The policy defines "occurrence" as an "accident". However, the term "accident" is not defined and its definition is left to the courts. This circumstance has led to a range of definitions and determinations of coverage. See Endnote 214 for a list of jurisdiction holding that faulty workmanship is not an occurrence and a list of jurisdictions holding it is.³⁷ See discussion of the Hawaiian experience at Item 10f the end of this Item 10. Texas courts are of the view

SECTION I—COVERAGES
 COVERAGE A. BODILY INJURY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE LIABILITY
1. Insuring Agreement
 a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance applies.
 b. This insurance applies to "bodily injury" and "property damage" only if:
 (1) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" is caused by an "occurrence" ...; (and)
 (2) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs during the policy period;
2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to: ...
 a. Expected or Intended Injury. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured.
 b. Contractual Liability. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" for which the insured is obligated to pay damages by reason of the assumption liability in a contract or agreement. This exclusion does not apply to liability for damages:
 (1) That the insured would have in the absence of the contract or agreement; or
 (2) Assumed in a contract or agreement that is an "Insured Contract", provided the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs subsequent to the execution of the contract or agreement....
 j. Damage to Property. "Property damage" to: ...
 (5) That particular part of real property on which you or any contractors or subcontractors working directly or indirectly on your behalf are performing operations, if the "property damage" arises out of those operations; or
 l. Damage To Your Work. "Property damage" to "your work" arising out of it or any part of it and included in the "products-completed operations hazard". This exclusion does not apply if the damaged work or the work out of which the damage arises was performed on your behalf by a subcontractor. (emphasis added.)

³⁷ What is an "Accident"? There are multiple judicial views of this question. See the National Summary Chart (current as of February 2015) appearing in Wielinski, Patrick J., INSURANCE FOR DEFECTIVE CONSTRUCTION (IRMI 4th Ed. 2015) in the slides accompanying this article.

Intent Irrelevant; Faulty Workmanship Per Se Not an "Occurrence". Some courts find that faulty workmanship per se cannot trigger a covered "occurrence." DCB Const. Co., Inc. v. Travelers Indem. Co. of Illinois, 225 F.Supp.2d 1230 (D. Colo. 2002) - no accident where contractor had to tear down walls and rebuild them because they did not meet specifications for sound transmission; Monticello Ins. Co. v. Wil-Freds Const., Inc., 661 N.E.2d 451 (Ill. 2d Dist. 1996); State Farm Fire and Cas. Co. v. Tillerson, 334 Ill. App.3d 404, 777 N.E.2d 986 (Ill. 5th Dist. 2002) - construction defects not an "occurrence" as they were ordinary consequence of contractor's improper work; Hawkeye-Security Ins. Co. v. Vector Const. Co., 460 N.W.2d 329 (1990); ACS Const. Co., Inc. of Mississippi v. CGU, 332 F.3d 885, 889 (5th Cir. [Miss.] 2003) - "The faulty workmanship of the waterproofing membrane resulting in the leaks does not constitute an 'occurrence' under the policy."; Cincinnati Ins. Co. v. Venetian Terrazzo, Inc., 198 F. Supp.2d 1074 (E.D. Mo. 2001) - alleged negligence in pouring concrete subfloor did not constitute an accident or an "occurrence" and therefore insurer had no duty to defend; L-J, Inc. v. Bituminous Fire and Marine Ins. Co., 2004 WL 1775571 (S.C. 2004) - premature deterioration of roads as a result of faulty workmanship was not caused by an "occurrence"; ProDent, Inc. v. Zurich U.S., 33 Fed. Appx. 32 (3rd Cir. 2002) - negligence in installing copper pipes instead of PVC called for by drawings was not an "occurrence" within meaning of policy.

Faulty Workmanship is a "Business Risk" Not Covered by CGL Policy. Some courts ground their decision of no occurrence on the rationale that CGL insurance is not intended to protect an insured from having to repair or replace improperly performed work. These courts hold that such losses are an "expectation" loss, and to hold otherwise would be to encourage poor workmanship. These courts do not base their opinion on the terms of the policy but on "public policy". For example, this rationale is set out in Henderson, Insurance Protection for Products Liability & Completed Operations—What Every Lawyer Should Know, 50 NEB. L. REV. 415, 441 (1971) where the commentator states that CGL coverage is "for tort liability for physical damage to others and not for contractual liability of the insured for economic loss because the product or completed work is not that for which the damaged person bargained." See the following Minnesota court decisions following this "tort vs. contract" rationale in interpreting the Broad Form Property Damage Endorsement to the pre-1986 CGL policy form: Bor-Son Building Corp. v. Employers Commercial Union Ins. Co. of America, 323 N.W.2d 58 (Minn. 1982) and Knutson Construction Co. v. St. Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co., 396 N.W.2d 229 (Minn. 1986). Henderson's article is addressing the coverage language of even the earlier pre-1966 version. Unfortunately, some court decisions have cited this article and the "tort vs. contract" rationale as the coverage test in construing post-1986 policies without recognizing the changes reflected in the 1986 revision. See, e.g., Data Specialties, Inc. v. Transcontinental Ins. Co., 125 F.3d 909 (5th Cir. 1997) – court found no coverage as insured's obligation to repair arose out of a contract obligation, not a tort; Silk v. Flat Top Const., Inc., 453 S.E.2d 356 (Va. 1994) – construction manager's liability for failing to properly supervise and inspect work resulting in cost overruns is a result of breach of contract not tort.

The Illogical Performance Bond Comparison. Some courts falling into this line of reasoning compare use of CGL policies for this purpose as an attempt to substitute a CGL policy for a performance bond. These courts overlook the fact that property damage may be covered by both a CGL policy and a performance bond, but for different purposes. Essex Ins. Co. v. Holder, 261 S.W.3d 456 (Ark. 2007) - faulty workmanship is not an accident; instead it is a foreseeable occurrence and performance bonds exist in the market place to insure the contractor against claims for the cost of repair or replacement of faulty work; Oak Crest Const. Co. v. Austin Mut. Ins. Co., 137 Or. App. 475, 905 P.2d 848 (Or. 1995) aff'd 329 Or. 620, 998 P.2d 1254 (Or. 2000); U. S. Fidelity & Guar. Corp. v. Advance Roofing & Supply Co., Inc., 163 Ariz. 476, 788 P.2d 1227 (Ariz. Ct. App. Div. 1 1989) – no coverage existed for contractor that installed negligent roofs as poor workmanship did not amount to an occurrence and to hold otherwise would be tantamount to converting the CGL policy into a performance bond. However, although there is an overlap in coverage between performance bonds and CGL insurance, neither is a substitute for the other. A performance bond does not extend to cover "bodily injury" like a CGL policy; and a performance bond covers many other risks than failure of the contractor or, if given by subcontractors, the subcontractors' breaches of contract, except to the extent of a CGL's coverage of a subcontractor's damage to the work or the project.

Coverage Depends on Actor's Intent. The majority of courts focus on the intent of the actor. However, since most action involves a degree of intent, focus on an actor's intent to act runs the risk of holding that an "accident" could not occur as the actor intended his action, even though he did not intend to cause the damage that resulted. Even when the focus is on the consequence of an insured's act, as opposed to the act itself, there is a wide divergence in court decisions as to whether a covered loss has occurred. Sheets v. Brethren Mut. Ins. Co., 342 Md. 634, 679 A.2d 540, 58 A.L.R.5th 883 (1996) – court states that Maryland follows the majority position that whether a loss arises from an accident is to be determined from the standpoint of the insured's subjective intent. The court in Indiana Ins. Co. v. Hydra Corp., 245 Ill. App.3d, 185 Ill. Dec. 775, 615 N.E.2d 70, 73 (2d Dist. 1993) defined an "occurrence" with a focus on whether the damages were intended or expected by the insured. The court defined "occurrence" as "an unforeseen occurrence, usually of an untoward or disastrous character or an undesigned, sudden or unexpected event of an inflictive or unfortunate character." Voorhees v. Preferred Mut. Ins. Co., 128 N.J. 165, 607 A.2d 1255, 1263, 8 A.L.R. 5th 937 (1992); Economy Lumber Co. v. Insurance Co. of North America, 157 Cal. App. 3d 641, 204 Cal. Rptr. 135 (1st Dist. 1984) - damage caused by the application of defective siding was an occurrence; however, if more siding applied after knowing of the damage it caused, then damage is not unforeseeable and no "occurrence". Federated Mut. Ins. Co. v. Grapevine Excavation, Inc., 197 F.3d 720 (5th Cir. 1999) - suit which included allegations that insured excavation subcontractor negligently damaged work of paving subcontractor through use of substandard fill asserted "accident" within definition ascribed to that term by Texas Supreme Court and thus "occurrence" within meaning of commercial general liability policy.

The Standard CGL Policy - Exclusion 2.a. The concept of excluding from coverage expected or intended damages is specifically addressed in the standard policy at Paragraph 2.a Exclusion – Expected or Intended Injury. Paragraph 2.a is the result of ISO's modifying the standard policy form in 1986 to remove the following language from the definition of an "occurrence": "which results in 'bodily injury' or 'property damage' neither expected nor intended from the standpoint of the insured." and by creating a new exclusion from coverage for "expected or intended injuries", set out in the standard policy above at Paragraph 2.a.

Seven Approaches to Determining if Damages are Covered as Expected or Unforeseeable Damages. The Tennessee Supreme Court noted the following seven approaches that courts have taken to determine whether the injury or damage incurred is excluded from coverage as an expected or intended injury. Tennessee Farmers Mut. Ins. Co. v. Evans, 814 S.W.2d 49, 54-55 (Tenn. 1991). The court stated:

[1] One approach has been to decide whether there was an intent to do "some" harm, which disregards the question of whether the insured wanted to cause the particular harm that resulted. ... [2] A second approach has been to focus on whether the insured intended to commit the act and also intended to commit some type of harm. ... [S]ome jurisdictions have indicated that the insured's intent in this regard may be actual or inferred from the nature of the act and the accompanying reasonable foreseeability of harm. ... [3] A third approach is to hold that an exclusionary provision ... applies where an intentional act by an insured person results in injuries or damages that are a natural and probable result of the act. ... [4] A fourth method has been to construe the policy language so that there can be no recovery if the ultimate result is substantially certain to be a consequence of the insured's actions. ... [5] A fifth view has been to hold that the insured must have intended that the act cause the type of injury that actually occurred and, in addition, intended to harm the person who actually sustained the injury. ... [6] A sixth method of analysis has become known as the "damn fool" doctrine, which simply means that coverage is not provided for acts which are simply too ill-conceived to warrant allowing the insured to transfer the risk of such conduct to an insurer. ... [7] A seventh view, a combination of some of those mentioned previously, is that the insured must have intended the act and also to have caused some kind of injury in order for the intentional injury exclusion to apply, but once it is found that harm was intended, it is immaterial that the actual harm caused is of a different character or magnitude from that intended by the insured. (Approach numbering and underlining added by author.)

(1) The "Specific Intent Rule" - No Coverage if There is an Intent to Do Some Harm. The approach results in a broad reading of the exclusion and thus results in very limited coverage for the insured. This approach is followed by very few courts. Keeton, INSURANCE LAW 520 (1988). See discussion at 31 A.L.R.4th 957 Construction and application of provision of liability insurance policy expressly excluding injuries intended or expected by insured § 5(a) Construction of "intended" – View that insured must have intended act and to cause some kind of bodily injury or property damage – generally (1984).

(2) No Coverage if Act Is Intentional and There is an Expectation of Resulting Damage. Some courts have employed an "expectation" of injury standard, and in so doing have imported a "foreseeability" test. Calvert Ins. Co. v. Western Ins. Co., 874 F.2d 396, 399 (7th Cir. 1989) - "Injury is 'expected' where the damages are not accomplished by design or plan, i.e., not 'intended,' but are 'of such a nature that they should have been reasonably anticipated (expected) by the insured.'" (emphasis in original). Taylor-Moreley-Simmon, Inc. v. Michigan Mut. Ins. Co., 645 F. Supp. 596, 599-600 (E. D. Mo. 1986), judgm't aff'd, 822 F.2d 1093 (8th Cir. 1987) - "[A]n accident includes that which happens by chance or fortuitously, without intention or design, and which is unexpected, unusual, and unforeseen... . The alleged breaches of warranty raised in the [plaintiff's] petition do not remove the conduct at issue here from the "accident" category for purposes of this lawsuit." Smith v. Hughes Aircraft Co. Corp. 783 F.Supp. 1222, 1235-37 (D. Ariz. 1991), aff'd in relevant part, rev'd in part and remanded, 22 F.3d 1432 (9th Cir. 1993) - "Because the insured's intent is measured subjectively, it follows that the insured's expectations should be measured similarly." Queen City Farms, Inc. v. Central Nat. Ins. Co. of Omaha, 126 Wash. 2d 50, 882 P.2d 703 (Wash. 1994), as amended (1994) and as clarified on denial of reconsideration (Wash. 1995) - subjective standard applied in determining whether personal injury or property damage arising from contamination of groundwater resulting from leak of toxic materials from waste pit was "occurrence," covered by liability policies, which defined occurrence as accident or happening or event or continuous or repeated exposure to conditions which unexpectedly and unintentionally resulted in personal injury or property damage. Keeton, INSURANCE LAW 520 (1988). See discussion at 31 A.L.R.4th 957 Construction and application of provision of liability insurance policy expressly excluding injuries intended or expected by insured § 5(a) Construction of "intended" – View that insured must have intended act and to cause some kind of bodily injury or property damage – generally (1984). Other courts have recognized the fallacy of this as the test. Armstrong World Industries, Inc. v. Aetna Cas. & Surety Co., 45 Cal. App. 4th 1, 52 Cal. Rptr.2d 690 (1st Dist. 1996):

In our view, imposing a "should have known" standard on insureds would defeat the essential purpose of insurance agreements. What is expected or intended is different from that which was reasonably foreseeable or what should have been known. An insurance policy exclusion from manufacturing activities which carry a risk of causing environmental harm, although not known or intended to cause harm in the insureds business conduct, would create an exclusion swallowing the entire purpose of the insurance protection for unintended consequences. Insurance is purchased and premiums are paid to indemnify the insured for damages caused by accidents, that is, for conduct not meant to cause harm but which goes awry. The insured may be negligent indeed in failing to take precautions or to foresee the possibility of harm, yet insurance coverage protects the insured from his own lack of due care. If coverage is lost for damage which a prudent person should have foreseen, there would be no point to purchasing a policy of liability insurance.

(3) The "Natural and Probable Consequences" Test. Other courts have stated the standard as whether the damages are a result of the natural and ordinary consequence of the insured's action and thus not covered. See discussion at 31 A.L.R.4th 957 Construction and application of provision of liability insurance policy expressly excluding injuries intended or expected by insured § 5(d) Construction of "intended" – View that classic tort doctrine of looking to natural and probable consequences of insured's act determines intent – generally (1984). Argonaut Southwest Ins. Co. v. Maupin, 500 S.W.2d 633 (Tex. 1973) – court found that an "occurrence" did not exist as the damage was a natural result of voluntary and intentional acts by the insured, even if the insured was unaware or did not intend the resulting damages. The court found that the insured, a contractor, acted intentionally when it removed soil from the property pursuant to a contract with a tenant. Armstrong v. Security Ins. Group, 292 Ala. 27, 288 So.2d 134 (Ala. 1973); Casualty Reciprocal Exchange v. Thomas, 647 P.2d 1361 (Kan. 1982); Northwestern Nat. Casualty Co. v. Phalen, 597 P.2d 720 (Mont. 1979); Vittum v. New Hampshire Ins. Co., 369 A.2d 184 (N.H. 1977). See discussion at 31 A.L.R.4th 957 Construction and application of provision of liability insurance policy expressly excluding injuries intended or expected by insured § 5(d) Construction of "intended" – View that classic tort doctrine of looking to natural and probable consequences of insured's act determines intent – generally (1984). This approach has been criticized by commentators. See Holmes, APPLEMAN ON INSURANCE, 2d, § 116.4 at 148 (1996) - "[Minority rule that the natural and ordinary consequences of a negligent act do not constitute an accident] is, of course, nonsense."; and § 117.3 at 247 "This judicial holding seriously restricts or limits the liability insurer's liability so as to render the liability policy valueless or even meaningless."; and § 117.3 at 259 "[T]hese opinions. . . essentially annul a large amount of liability coverage." The Fifth Circuit in Federated Mut. Ins. Co. v. Grapevine Excavation, 197 F.3d 720 (5th Cir. 1999) addressed the Texas law approach of distinguishing between excluded intentional conduct and covered voluntary conduct as follows:

We perceive a clearly reconcilable dichotomy, not a tension, resulting from the distinction between the Maupin and Orkin line of cases; in the former, the damage-causing acts of the tortfeasor are either actually or legally deemed to be intentionally harmful; in the latter, the acts that are performed intentionally are not intended to cause harm but do so as the result of negligent performance of those acts. In the instant case, both types of tortious acts frequently occur in the performance of a contract; the difference lies in the way that the obligor performs. An obligor who intends his performance to result in damage—or, one who commits an act that is legally deemed to constitute an intentional tort—is a Maupin tortfeasor. On the other hand, an obligor that intends his performance to be correct, but who negligently falls short of the appropriate standard and causes unintentional damage, is an Orkin tortfeasor. Had the only allegations against GEI [the insured] accused it of knowingly and willfully choosing and using the substandard material that damaged the paving, and doing so to cut corners or gain unearned profit, GEI would be a Maupin tortfeasor. As [the contractor's] allegations against GEI include negligence, however, GEI is an Orkin tortfeasor.

In Grapevine Excavation the insured contractor subcontracted to provide excavation, backfill and compaction for a retailer's parking lot. Due to the contractor's use of fill materials that failed to meet the retailer's compaction specifications, its subcontractor's paving failed and the contractor cured the construction defect by overlaying another coat of blacktop. The court found that the damages suffered by the contractor were the result of a covered accident.

that the term "occurrence" is ambiguous and does not provide a basis for limitation on coverage. In its 2007 decision the Texas Supreme Court in Lamar Homes, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 242 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. 2007), in answer to certified questions from the Fifth Circuit, 501 F.3d 435 (5th Cir. 2007), held that an insured builder's faulty workmanship in building a house foundation met the "occurrence" requirement of its CGL policy.³⁸

(4) No Coverage if Ultimate Result is a Substantially Certain Consequence of the Act. Courts adopting this view employ a more objective test as to intent. City of Carter Lake v. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co., 604 F.2d 1052 (8th Cir. 1979) – court held no coverage for damage to a property's owner's basement due to the insured's operations where the court determined the insured "knew or should have known after the first instance of flooding that further flooding was 'substantially probable.'"

(5) No Coverage if Insured Intended Act that Caused Type of Injury that Actually Occurred and Intended to Injure Person that Was Actually Injured. Few courts have adopted this stringent test as the sole basis of finding an exclusion from coverage. See discussion at 31 A.L.R.4th 957 Construction and application of provision of liability insurance policy expressly excluding injuries intended or expected by insured § 5(f) Construction of "intended" – View that insured must have had specific intent to cause type of injuries suffered (1984).

(6) The "Damn Fool Doctrine". This approach is to exclude coverage for damage caused by actions too ill-conceived to permit coverage. Discussing this doctrine, Professor Keeton states:

All of these situations involve 'calculated' decisions by insureds. There are many instances in which an insured's course of conduct was intentional, but the consequences which resulted, though highly expectable, were clearly not intended or desired by the insured. When one attempts to predict whether a court will negate the insurer's decision to reject coverage under a liability insurance policy in such cases, an analytical approach that is worth considering is whether the insured's actions fall into the category of incredibly foolish conduct. Keeton, INSURANCE LAW 539-541 (1988).

(7) No Coverage if Insured Intended Some Harm, Even if the Damage is Not the Harm Intended. In this approach the insured must have intended the act and also to have caused some kind of injury in order for the intentional injury exclusion to apply, but once it is found that harm was intended, it is immaterial that the actual harm caused is of a different character or magnitude from that intended by the insured. Lockhart v. Allstate Ins. Co., 579 P.2d 1120 (Az. 1978); Butler v. Behaeghe, 548 P.2d 934 (Colo. 1976); Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Spreen, 343 So.2d 649 (Fla. App. 1977); Colonial Penn Ins. Co. v. Hart, 291 S.E.2d 410 (Ga. 1982); Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co. v. Freyer, 411 N.E.2d 1157 (Ill. 1980); Hanover Ins. Co. v. Newcomer, 585 S.W.2d 285 (Mo. App. 1979); Oakes v. State Farm Fire & Cas. Co., 137 N.J. Super. 365, 349 A.2d 102 (N.J. 1975).

³⁸ Lamar Homes. The court analyzed the issue as follows:

We begin with the question whether defective construction or faulty workmanship that damages only the work of the insured is an "occurrence." As previously mentioned, "occurrence" is defined, in part, as an accident, but accident is not otherwise defined in the policy. Terms that are not defined in a policy are given their generally accepted or commonly understood meaning.

The insurance carrier submits that the damages alleged here for repairs to the home are direct economic damages flowing from Lamar's contractual undertaking and are conclusively presumed to have been foreseen by Lamar. [The homeowners alleged that Lamar was negligent in designing and constructing their home's foundation and that, as a result, the home's sheetrock and stone veneer cracked.] Thus, the carrier concludes that faulty workmanship is not an accident because injury to the general contractor's work is the expected and foreseeable consequence. ... [Texas law], however, did not adopt foreseeability as the boundary between accidental and intentional conduct. Insurance is typically priced and purchased on the basis of foreseeable risks, and reading [Texas law] as the carrier urges would undermine the basis for most insurance coverage. Moreover, the carrier's argument includes a false assumption—that the failure to perform under a contract is always intentional (or stated differently "that an accident can never exist apart from a tort claim"). ...

An accident is generally understood to be a fortuitous, unexpected, and unintended event. ... [A] claim does not involve an accident or occurrence when either direct allegations purport that the insured intended the injury (which is presumed in cases of intentional tort) or circumstances confirm that the resulting damage was the natural and expected result of the insured's actions, that is, was highly probable whether the insured was negligent or not. Applying our prior decisions, the Fifth Circuit has concluded that the terms "accident" and "occurrence" include damage that is the "unexpected, unforeseen or undesigned happening or consequence" of an insured's negligent behavior, including "claims for damage caused by an insured's defective performance or faulty workmanship." The federal district court here [question certified by the Fifth Circuit under appeal from the federal district court that ruled against the insured] distinguishes [prior Fifth Circuit case law finding poor workmanship meets the occurrence element] by drawing the distinction between faulty workmanship that damages the insured's work or product and faulty workmanship that damages a third party's property. ... The CGL policy, however, does not define an "occurrence" in terms of the ownership or character of the property damaged by the act or event. Rather, the policy asks whether the injury was intended or fortuitous, that is, whether the injury was an accident. ... We ... see no basis in the definition of "occurrence" for the district court's distinction.

The determination of whether an insured's faulty workmanship was intended or accidental is dependent on the facts and circumstances of the particular case. For purposes of the duty to defend, those facts and circumstances must generally be gleaned from the plaintiffs' complaint. Here, the complaint alleges an "occurrence" because it asserts that Lamar's defective construction was a product of its negligence. No one alleges that Lamar intended or expected its work or its subcontractors' work to damage the DiMares' home. (citations omitted.)

d. Coverage Triggers

A question arises as to the timing of the "occurrence" and which policy in a string of annual CGL policies affords coverage. There are four theories of "occurrence" triggers: (1) exposure – a policy is triggered upon the first exposure to the injury-causing event;³⁹ (2) manifestation – a policy is triggered upon the first manifestation of injury;⁴⁰ and (3) continuous – all policies between the date of first exposure and the date of manifestation are triggered;⁴¹ and (4) injury-in-fact – a policy is triggered when the first injury takes place.⁴²

The Texas Supreme Court addressed this question in Don's Building Supply, Inc. v. OneBeacon Insurance Co., 267 S.W.3d 20 (Tex. 2008). In response to certified questions raised by the Fifth Circuit, 496 F.3d 361, the supreme court responded as follows adopting the "injury-in-fact" trigger in Texas:

The Fifth Circuit asks generally when property damage "occurs" under Texas law for purposes of an occurrence-based commercial general liability insurance policy, a question this Court has never answered. More specifically, is an insurer's duty to defend triggered where damage is alleged to have occurred during the policy period but was inherently undiscoverable until after the policy expired? As to this policy, which focuses on when damage comes to pass, not when damage comes to light, we answer "yes"—the insurer's duty is triggered under Texas law; the key date is when injury happens, not when someone happens upon it.

In Don's Building Supply the insurer sought a declaration that it had no duty to defend or indemnify its insured, Don's Building Supply ("DBS"), in 22 lawsuits that various homeowners filed against DBS and other defendants. Previously homeowners had filed suits against DBS asserting claims arising from water intrusion into the wall cavities of their homes due to an allegedly defective synthetic siding system known as Exterior Insulation and Finish Systems ("EIFS"). The EIFS was distributed and sold by DBS and designed, manufactured, and marketed by the other defendants. The defects were latent, being not readily apparent to one examining the exterior of the EIFS surface. DBS requested a defense from OneBeacon under three occurrence-based CGL policies issued to DBS by Potomac Insurance Company of Illinois and assigned by Potomac to OneBeacon. The central question before the federal district court was whether the property damage described in the suit was alleged to have occurred within the respective policy periods such that OneBeacon's duty to defend DBS was triggered. Based on the Texas Supreme Court's response, the Fifth Circuit issued its per curiam opinion reciting the following answers of the Texas Supreme Court:

So in this case, property damage occurred when a home that is the subject of an underlying lawsuit suffered wood rot or other physical damage. The date that the physical damage is or could have been discovered is irrelevant under the policy.... (Answer to first question.)

Under the actual-injury rule applicable to this policy, a plaintiff's claim against DBS that any amount of physical injury to tangible property occurred during the policy period and was caused by DBS's allegedly defective product triggers OneBeacon's duty to defend. The duty is not diminished because the property damage was undiscoverable, or not readily apparent or "manifest," until after the policy period ended. (Answer to second question.)

OneBeacon Ins. Co. v. Don's Building Supply, Inc., 553 F.3d 901, 902 (5th Cir. 2008 per curiam). The court of appeals in Mid-Continent Casualty Co. v. Castagna, 410 S.W.3d 445 (Tex. App.-Dallas 2013, pet. denied) held that a home owner did not have to apportion its damages attributable to foundation cracks that appeared over three CGL policy periods to each policy period, but could select the policy period with the highest limits; each insurer being fully liable for the loss.

Another Fifth Circuit case, Wilshire Insurance Co. v. RJT Construction, LLC, 581 F.3d 222, 226 (5th Cir. [Tex.] 2009) illustrates how the injury in fact may occur many years after the defective work was performed. In finding that the CGL insurance issuer had a duty to defend a foundation repair contractor, the court noted

Wilshire urges that the homeowner's complaint in this case makes no allegations that property damage occurred during the policy period. We disagree. The complaint alleges that "cracks in the walls and ceilings" were "suddenly appearing" in late 2005. The cracks themselves are physical damage allegedly caused by the faulty foundation. This is not a case where latent internal rot long lies undiscovered before external signs warn of the festering damage. The cracks are not merely a warning of prior undiscovered damage; they are the damage itself. It is of no moment that the faulty foundation work occurred in 1999, [citation omitted] or that the damage was discovered in 2005; it matters only that damage was alleged to have occurred in 2005.⁴³

In a more recent EIFS case, the Texas Supreme Court in Lennar Corp v. Markel American Insurance Co., 413 S.W.3d 750 (Tex. 2013) held the insured's loss "because of" (see this language italicized above in Coverage A to the standard form CGL policy) property damage that occurred during the policy period (wood rot from defective construction due to using EIFS) included "rip and tear" costs Lennar incurred in ripping all of the EIFS off of the homes it constructed using EIFS, as the only way to find all the damage. These investigation and access costs were covered as all houses had suffered at least some wood rot during the policy period. The court rejected the insurer's argument that the damages should be apportioned among different insurers' policy periods. The court concluded, "that Markel's policy covered Lennar's entire remediation costs for damaged homes." Lennar, 413 S.W.3d at 758-59.

e. Excluded? - Other Exclusions

(1) Exclusion 2.b - the "Contractual Liability" Exclusion and the "Insured Contract" Exception

As noted above, the "insured contract" exclusion is contained in the CGL policy as an exception to an exclusion from coverage. The exclusion provides:

2. Exclusions

This insurance does not apply to:...

b. Contractual Liability

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" for which the insured is obligated to pay damages by reason of the assumption liability in a contract or agreement. This exclusion does not apply to liability for damages:

- (1) That the insured would have in the absence of the contract or agreement; or

“Insured contract” is defined in the standard CGL (see Section 5 Definitions in the CG 00 01 attached in the Appendix of Insurance Forms) as follows:

9. “Insured contract” means: ...

The Texas Supreme Court in Ewing Construction Co., Inc. v. Amerisure Ins. Co., 420 S.W.3d 30 (Tex. 2014) held that Exclusion 2.b, the “Contractual Liability” Exclusion, did not apply to negate coverage for a contractor where the “property damage” at issue is only to the property constructed. The supreme court was asked to answer two questions posed to it by the Fifth Circuit.⁴⁴ In 2008, Ewing Construction Company, Inc. (Ewing) entered into a standard AIA construction contract with a school district to build in a good and workmanlike manner additions to a school in Corpus Christi, including constructing tennis courts. Shortly after construction of the tennis courts was completed, the courts started flaking, crumbling, and cracking, rendering them unusable. Ewing tendered defense of the school district's suit to its insurer. The federal district court, and the Fifth Circuit initially held, that Ewing “assumed” the liability for its own performance under the contract. The Texas Supreme Court concluded that a contractor that agrees to perform its construction work in a good and workmanlike manner, without more, does not enlarge its duty to exercise ordinary care in fulfilling its contract and thus does not “assume liability” for damages arising out of its defective work and does not trigger the contractual liability exclusion.⁴⁵ The court found that the ⁴⁴ Fifth Circuit. The Fifth Circuit certified the following two questions to the Texas Supreme Court:

1. Does a general contractor that enters into a contract in which it agrees to perform its construction work in a good and workmanlike manner, without more specific provisions enlarging this obligation, “assume liability” for damages arising out of the contractor's defective work so as to trigger the Contractual Liability Exclusion.
2. If the answer to question one is “Yes” and the contractual liability exclusion is triggered, do the allegations in the underlying lawsuit alleging that the contractor violated its common law duty to perform the contract in a careful, workmanlike, and non-negligent manner fall within the exception to the contractual liability exclusion for “liability that would exist in the absence of contract. 690 F.3d 628, 633 (5th Cir. 2012).

⁴⁵ Gilbert. The supreme court distinguished Ewing from the facts addressed in Gilbert Texas Constr. LP v. Underwriters at Lloyd's, London, 327 S.W.3d 118 (Tex. 2010). In Gilbert the insured entered into a contract with the Dallas Area Rapid Transit Authority (DART) to construct a commuter railway system. During construction, heavy rains damaged neighboring buildings owned by RT Realty (RTR). RTR sued Gilbert, under a third-party beneficiary claim as to the Gilbert's contractual undertaking under Gilbert's contract with DART. The contract obligated Gilbert to protect all existing improvements at or near the work site and on adjacent property of third parties and to repair any damage to them. In Gilbert the Texas Supreme Court held the contractual liability exclusion applied to deny coverage for Gilbert. Gilbert by its contract assumed a liability, which the court was unwilling to allow recourse to its CGL insurance to insure it against its breach of contract. The court stated:

Independent of its contractual obligations, Gilbert owed RTR the duty to comply with law and to conduct its operations with ordinary care so as not to damage RTR's property, and absent its immunity it could be liable for damages it caused by breaching its duty. In its contract with DART, however, Gilbert undertook a legal obligation to protect improvements and utilities on property adjacent to the construction site, and to repair or pay for damage to any such property “resulting from a failure to comply with the requirements of this contract or failure to exercise reasonable care in performing the work.” (emphasis added). The latter obligation—to exercise reasonable care in performing its work—mirrors Gilbert's duty to RTR under general law principles. The obligation to repair or pay for damage to RTR's property “resulting from a failure to comply with the requirements of this contract” extends beyond Gilbert's obligations under general law and incorporates contractual standards to which Gilbert obligated itself. The trial court granted summary judgment on all RTR's theories of liability other than breach of contract, so Gilbert's only potential liability remaining in the lawsuit was liability in excess of what it had under general law principles. Thus, RTR's breach of contract claim was founded on an obligation or liability contractually assumed by Gilbert within the meaning of the policy exclusion. Id. at 127.

allegations that Ewing did not perform its work in a good and workmanlike manner were substantively the same as the allegations that it negligently performed its work under the contract. The court held that

Accordingly, we conclude that a general contractor who agrees to perform its construction work in a good and workmanlike manner, without more, does not enlarge its duty to exercise ordinary care in fulfilling its contract, thus it does not “assume liability” for damages arising out of its defective work so as to trigger the Contractual Liability Exclusion. We answer the first question “no” and, therefore, need not answer the second question. Id. at 38.

(2) Exclusion 2.j(5) - the "Ongoing Operations" Exclusion aka the "Property Being Worked On" Exclusion

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to: ...
j. Damage to Property. "Property damage" to: ...
(5) That particular part of real property on which you or any contractors or subcontractors working directly or indirectly on your behalf are performing operations, if the "property damage" arises out of those operations; (emphasis added.)

A number of terms used in this exclusion are not defined in the standard policy, for example, "that particular part"⁴⁶ and "are performing operations."⁴⁷

⁴⁶ "That Particular Part". See Turner, INSURANCE COVERAGE OF CONSTRUCTION DISPUTES (2d ed.) § 31:5:

The use of the word "particular" suggests that the exclusion should only apply to the smallest unit of division available to the work in question. This coverage approach is often called the "component parts" approach. Even in cases where work is being performed on a large, undivided and undifferentiated piece of property, such as bare land, the "particular part" language seems too limiting to allow the entire property to fall within the exclusion. More appropriately, only the immediate area of the work where the property damage arises should fall within the exclusion. Certainly, the entire building or piece of real property being worked on cannot be the "particular part." Thus, damages for the diminution in value of the entire building or property have been held to be unaffected by exclusions containing the "particular part" limitation.

That the phrase "that particular part" is intended to limit the breadth of the exclusion from coverage is illustrated by the following analysis by the Missouri Supreme Court in Columbia Mut. Ins. Co. v. Schauf, 967 S.W.2d 74, 80 (Mo. 1998) when it was called on to decide whether this exclusion resulted in excluding coverage for all fire loss damages to a house or merely to the portion of the work from which the fire originated:

Houses and buildings can be divided into so many parts that attempting to determine which part or parts are the subject of the insured's operations can produce several reasonable conclusions. For example, the "particular part of the real property on which [the insured] is performing operations" could mean, as Columbia Mutual contends, "the entire area of the real property that Schauf is scheduled to work." Under this interpretation, any damage the insured causes to property in the area which he was contracted to work would be excluded from coverage.

Another possible definition of the instant exclusion is that the "particular part of real property on which [the insured] is performing operations" is only the part of the property that is the subject of the insured's work at the time of the damage. Under this interpretation, only the damage the insured causes to the particular part of the property that is actually the object of the insured's work where the damage occurs is excluded from coverage; any other damage would not be subject to the exclusion....

In accordance with the relevant maxims of construction and the language and purpose of the instant exclusion, this Court upholds that the instant exclusion denies coverage for property damage to the particular part of real property that is the subject of the insured's work at the time of the damage, if the damage arises out of those operations.

Applying the holding to the facts of this case compels the conclusion that the exclusion applies to any damage to the kitchen cabinets. When the damage in this case occurred, Schauf was cleaning from his spray equipment the lacquer he had applied to the kitchen cabinets. Because cleaning the lacquer was the last step in the job of lacquering the kitchen cabinets, the kitchen cabinets were the particular part of the real property that was the subject of Schauf's operations at the time of the damage. Consequently, the damage to the kitchen cabinets is excluded from coverage.

⁴⁷ "Are Performing Operations". A second limitation on exclusion 2.j(5) is for damage to "real property on which you or any contractors or subcontractors working directly or indirectly on your behalf are performing operations, if the "property damage arises out of those operations." This language is interpreted to exclude damages involving "works in progress", in other words it does not apply to "completed operations." The "arises out of operations" has caused confusion for some courts in interpreting the scope of the exclusion. However, the vast majority of courts have concluded that this exclusion is limited to barring coverage for property damage occurring during on-going operations. See e.g., Mid-Continent Casualty Co. v. JHP Development, Inc., 557 F.3d 207, 215 (5th Cir. [Tex.] 2009).

(3) Exclusion 2.j(6) - the "Faulty Workmanship" Exclusion and the "Products-Completed Operations Hazard" Exception

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to: ...

j. Damage to Property. "Property damage" to: ...

The stated exception to this exclusion is for "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations". Thus, if the claim arises from defective work that is discovered after the contractor has completed its work, Exclusion 2.j(6) does not apply. The purpose of exclusion 2.j(6) is to exclude coverage for the costs to repair or replace particular work discovered while the insured is still performing its work.⁴⁸ Note that exclusion 2.j(6) also employs the "that particular part" limitation to the exclusion. This limitation to this exclusion has been held to permit coverage for damage to other non-defective work emanating from defective work.⁴⁹

(4) Exclusion 2.1 - the "Your Work" Exclusion and the "Subcontractor" Exception

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to: ...

1. Damage to Your Work. "Property damage" to "your work" arising out of it or any part of it and included in the "products-completed operations hazard". This exclusion does not apply if the damaged work or the work out of which the damage arises was performed on your behalf by a subcontractor. (emphasis added.)

The exclusion is limited to damages to "your work". Damage to other property (i.e., others' non-defective work or personal property) is not encompassed by this exclusion.⁵⁰ This exclusion is the "heart" of the "business risk"

⁴⁸ Exclusion 2.j(6) for "Property Damage" to Your Work Except if Occurs After Completion of Operations. American States Ins. Co. v. Powers, 262 F. Supp.2d 1245, 1251-52 (D. Kan. 2003):

Thus, when exclusion j(6) is read together with the "product-completed operations hazard" provision, the result is that exclusion j(6) does not apply to claims arising from 'defective work that is discovered after the contractor has completed its work.' The application of exclusion j(6), then, turns on whether Mr. Powers' work on the building was incomplete (in which case the exclusion would apply) or complete (in which case the exclusion would not apply). There is no evidence before the court suggesting that Mr. Powers' work on the building was incomplete at the time the Stouts discovered the allegedly defective work. Rather, the uncontroverted facts demonstrate that Mr. Powers completed the building on May 30, 2000 and that sometime thereafter the Stouts realized that the building allegedly did not meet the contract specifications, did not meet various building codes pertaining to structural design, and was not constructed in a workmanlike manner. While the work performed by Mr. Powers may have needed significant correction, repair or replacement, such work is nonetheless treated as "complete" for purposes of the policy. Thus, because Mr. Powers' work was complete at the time of the damage, the property damage falls within the 'property-completed operations hazard' exception to exclusion j(6) and, accordingly, exclusion j(6) does not apply here.

⁴⁹ Exclusion 2. j(6) - "That Particular Part". Mid-Continent Casualty Co. v. Krolczyk, 408 S.W.3d 896 (Tex. App.--Hou. [1st Dist.] 2013, pet. denied) - in a "duty to defend" issue case, a court construed a HOA's pleadings in a suit against a subdivision developer that the developer built a "totally inadequate" road as not excluding coverage of the developer under 2.j(6). The court found the HOA's pleadings had alleged that the asphalt laid on the surface of the road cracked, but not allegations were made that the surface work was defective. Accordingly, only the defectively performed work (e.g., the road base) would not be covered by the CGL insurance, while the non-defectively performed work would be covered, such as the paving and repaving work.; also see E & R Rubalcava Const., Inc. v. Burlington Ins. Co., 147 F. Supp.2d 523 (N. D. Tex. 2000) "[T]he business risk exclusion [2.j(6)] ... only applies to the cost of repair of the foundation work itself, not to the cost of repair of any other damage to the homes in issue."; and Dorchester Development Corp. v. Safeco Ins. Co., 737 S.W.2d 380 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1987). However, some courts have interpreted the exclusion to apply to the whole project. See, e.g., E. H. Spencer & Company, LLC v. Essex Insurance Co., 2009 WL 2231222 (Mass. Super.) following the rationale in Jet Line Servs., Inc. v. American Employers Ins. Co., 494 Mass 706 (Mass. 1989) where court stated "[w]here the insured was retained to perform work on an entire unit of property, and not just a portion of it, the applicability of the exclusion to damage of the entire unit is more apparent than in cases in which the insured was retained to work on only a part of the unit."

⁵⁰ Covered Damages. The Fifth Circuit in Wilshire Insurance Co. v. RJT Construction Co., 581 F.3d 222, 226 (5th Cir. [Tex.] 2009) found that Exclusion 2.1 precluded coverage only for the cost of repairing its insured's own work, the defective foundation, but did not exclude coverage of the damages caused to the balance of the home. The court noted that in Travelers Insurance Co. v. Volentine, 578 S.W.2d 501, 503 (Tex. Civ. App.—Texarkana 1979, no writ) the insured, an automobile mechanic, performed faulty work on an engine's valves which resulted in the doctrine. It is most often asserted by insurers in claims against contractors for latent defective work. It is oft said that "CGL insurance does not insure against faulty workmanship." The policy arguments supporting this exclusion are the concerns that substituting CGL insurance for the contractor's workmanship obligation is tantamount to providing a performance bond; expanding CGL insurance to cover performance promises will encourage poor workmanship; shifting the economic loss to the insurer for the contractor's faulty performance affords little incentive for the insured to exercise the necessary care and workmanship to operate in a sound business manner; and to do otherwise would encourage the contractor to underestimate the cost of performing the job, and thus shift the cost of doing business from the insured to the insurer.⁵¹

The function of the "products-completed operations hazard" ("PCOH") exception has been defined as follows:

Before proceeding to our analysis of whether there was coverage, we think it would be helpful to explain how the PCOH provision fits into a CGL policy. A CGL policy, like every other insurance policy, has an insuring clause under which the insurer agrees to pay sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay because of property damages caused by an occurrence. The CGL policy also has exclusions that take away some of this coverage. The PCOH provision is an exception to these exclusions. Or, stated another way, the PCOH provision is simply a category of losses that are covered even though these losses might otherwise be excluded. Viewed in this light, the PCOH provision does not create a separate category of coverage. Rather, any loss falling within the PCOH provision must still meet all the requirements of the policy, like any other loss, except the exclusion from which the losses are excepted.⁵²

Note that that Exclusion 2.1 does not apply if the "damaged work or the work out of which the damage arises was performed on your behalf by a subcontractor." This exclusion and this exception were introduced into the standard policy and have remained unchanged since their introduction in the 1986 revision to the standard CGL policy. The 1986 exclusion/exception to exclusion replaced the 1973 "exclusion o" aka the "Work Performed" exclusion which read:

This insurance does not apply ... to property damage to work performed by or on behalf of the named insured arising out of the work or any portion thereof or out of the materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection therewith.

The 1973 Work Performed exclusion applied to both property damage occurring during the course of construction and to completed operations. Also, the 1973 exclusion did not contain the "subcontractor exception". The 1986 exclusion is substantially narrower than the 1973 exclusion. Thus, whether this exclusion permits broader coverage depends on the extent to which the contractor has performed its services through subcontractors.⁵³ As the Texas Supreme Court explained in Lamar Homes, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 242 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. 2007), in answer to certified question from the Fifth Circuit, 501 F.3d 435 (5th Cir. 2007):

Lamar submits that this exclusion would have eliminated coverage here but for the subcontractor exception. According to Lamar, this exception was added to protect the insured from the consequences of a subcontractor's faulty workmanship causing "property damage." Thus, when a general contractor becomes liable for damage to work performed by a subcontractor—or for destruction of the entire engine; the Texas court found that the exclusion 2.1 precluded only the cost of replacing the valves themselves, but not the extent those other parts [of the engine] were damaged or destroyed. Travelers at 504.

⁵¹ Rationale for the "Business Risk" Exclusions. Hendrick and Weizel, The New Commercial General Liability Forms—An Introduction and Critique, 36 F.I.C.C., 319, 322 (Summer 1986). "Business Risks" are "[those risks] which are the normal, frequent, or predictable consequences of doing business, and which business management can or should control and manage. CGL insurance is not meant to be a safety net for every business error or omission."

⁵² PCOH. Pursell Const., Inc. v. Hawkeye-Security Ins. Co., 596 N.W.2d 67, 69 (Iowa 1999).

⁵³ Subcontractor Exception. For an example of sustaining coverage under the "subcontractor exception", see Mid-Continent Casualty Co. v. Castagna, 410 S.W.3d 445 (Tex. App.-Dallas 2013, pet. denied) finding that the foundation work that cracked over several policy periods was constructed by the contractor's subcontractors.

damage to the general contractor's own work arising out of a subcontractor's work—the subcontractor exception preserves coverage that the “your-work” exclusion would otherwise negate. Lamar's understanding of the subcontractor exception is consistent with other authorities who have commented on its effect.

f. The Hawaiian Experience

On this issue commentators characterize Hawaiian law as undecided.⁵⁴ As a result of concerns about the perceived impact of the decision of the Hawaii Intermediate Court of Appeals (“ICA”) in Group Builders, Inc. v. Admiral Ins. Co., 123 Hawai‘i 142, 231 P.3d 67 (Haw. Ct. App. 2010)⁵⁵ on insurance coverage for building owners and contractors and the prospect of no coverage for injured persons, Hawaii enacted Haw. Stat. § 431:1-217 effective June 3, 2011 (“the Act”). Two bills were introduced in the legislature; HB 839 and HB 924. They sought to require Hawaiian courts to presume that a CGL insurance policy covers construction defects. As such, the purpose of the Act was stated to be to restore the insurance coverage for which construction professionals paid and to ensure that the good faith expectations of parties at the time they entered into the insurance contract are upheld.⁵⁶ After vigorous insurance industry lobbying, the Act as passed provided that the term “occurrence” under CGL policies is to be construed in accordance with the law as it existed at the time the policy was issued.⁵⁷ The Act leaves open the ⁵⁵ Group Builders. Group Builders, Inc. v. Admiral Ins. Co., 123 Hawai‘i 142, 231 P.3d 67 (Haw. Ct. App. 2010). The decision in Group Builders arose out of a suit brought by a subcontractor, Group Builders, Inc., against its CGL insurer, Admiral Ins. Co., for Admiral’s refusal to defend, indemnify, or otherwise provide coverage as to a construction defect damage case brought by Hilton Hotels Corporation. Hilton hired Hawaiian Dredging as the general contractor for construction of the Kalia Tower as part of the Hilton Hawaiian Village in Waikiki. Hawaiian Dredging subcontracted with Group Builders, Inc. to install an exterior insulation finishing system (“EIFS”) and sealant, spray-applied fireproofing, building insulation, and metal wall framing on Kalia Tower. After completion of construction, extensive mold growth was discovered resulting in Hilton's closing guest rooms on floors 5 through 25. Hilton and Group Builders settled its lawsuit, which resulted in Group Builders assigning its claims against Admiral, as well as the right to sue in Group Builder's name, to Tradewind Insurance Company, Ltd. The court found that under the CGL policy the mold damage and resulting loss of use of the Kalia Tower qualified as “property damage” under the policy, but stated the question to be determined as follows:

The issue before us is whether alleged faulty construction work, giving rise to contractual claims, constitutes an “occurrence” under a CGL policy. Id. at 146, 71.

After noting that there was a split of authority on the issue, and reviewing precedents cited as the majority position, the court held:

We hold that under Hawai‘i law, construction defect claims do not constitute an “occurrence” under a CGL policy. Accordingly, breach of contract claims based on allegations of shoddy performance are not covered under CGL policies. Additionally, tort-based claims, derivative of these breach of contract claims, are also not covered under CGL policies. Id. at 148-149 and 73-74.

⁵⁶ Legislative Purpose. The text of H.B. 924 passed as Act 93 proclaims:

The legislature further finds that the 2010 decision of the Hawaii Intermediate Court of Appeals in Group Builders, Inc. v. Admiral Ins. Co., 123 Hawai‘i 142, 231 P.3d 67 (Haw. Ct. App. 2010), creates uncertainty in the construction industry, and invalidates insurance coverage that was understood to exist and that was already paid for by construction professionals. Prior to the Group Builders decision, which held that commercial general liability policies do not cover bodily injury or property damage arising from construction defects, construction professionals entered into and paid for insurance contracts under the reasonable, good-faith understanding that bodily injury and property damage resulting from construction defects would be covered under the insurance policy. It was on that premise that general liability insurance was purchased....

The purpose of this Act is to restore the insurance coverage that construction industry professionals paid for and to ensure that the good-faith expectations of parties at the time they entered into the insurance contract are upheld.

⁵⁷ The Act. 2011 Hawaii Laws Act 83 (H.B. 924) provides:

question of what "the law" is or was as of the issuance of the CGL policy. The Hawaii Supreme Court has not ruled on whether CGL insurance provides coverage for construction defects, neither prior to June 3, 2011 or subsequently. As of the adoption of the Act, in addition to Group Builders, there were and there have subsequently been federal court decisions where the court looked at related Hawaii cases to guess how the Hawaii Supreme Court would rule.⁵⁸ A difference of opinion exists as to whether the guess was correct.⁵⁹ It remains to be determined if Hawaii courts will look at CGL insurance as a contractual undertaking to insure the insured for claims of property damage arising out of its faulty workmanship and will review each case on a facts and circumstances basis: was the insured's faulty workmanship intended or accidental from the standpoint of the insured; was the damage only to the work itself or did it cause damage to other work of the insured or to a third party's property; did the damage occur after completion of construction; and was the work undertaken by the insured's subcontractor.

11. Exclusions May Be Invisible

There is today a plethora of "invisible" exclusions and limitations being added to general liability coverage by endorsement by the insurance industry to minimize the carrier's exposures. These are invisible because they never show up on any certificate of insurance unless you are careful in your drafting of the insurance specifications. Some of these invisible exclusions are the following.

a. CG 21 39 Contractual Liability Limitation

As stated above in addition to additional insured coverage, Contractual Liability Coverage is the funding mechanism for a portion of the liabilities assumed by an indemnitor by its indemnity. ISO CG 21 39 10 93 Contractual Liability

(a) For purposes of a liability insurance policy that covers occurrences of damage or injury during the policy period and that insures a construction professional for liability arising from construction-related work, the meaning of the term "occurrence" shall be construed in accordance with the law as it existed at the time that the insurance policy was issued.

⁵⁸ Federal Guesses. For a discussion of these cases see Iwamoto, Ray, Construction Defects and "Occurrence" under the Commercial General Liability Policy, THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER 19 - 24 (July 2015); Iwamoto, Ray, The Uninsured Risks of Development (Part 2). THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER Vol. 27, No. 4 (July 2011).

⁵⁹ Differences of Opinion. Ray Iwamoto notes:

Simply stated, these federal cases and the Hawaii state case precedent described there do not, per Group Builders, require the conclusion that construction defects are never occurrences under the CGL policies. Instead, they support the narrower conclusion that when defective workmanship is the basis for a breach of contract claim, that defective workmanship, if it is the result of the insured's intentional act or omission, then the resulting consequences are the reasonably foreseeable results of such intentional acts or omissions and there is no accident and no "occurrence" under the CGL policy. These cases do not address bodily injury or death ("personal injury") or collateral property damage resulting from construction defects and do not stand for the proposition that in those cases the construction defect cannot form the basis for an occurrence under the CGL policy. Also, the Hawaii case law precedent is to focus on the acts of the insured and do not apply when there are more than one insured under a wrap policy or under an additional insured endorsement.

Iwamoto, Ray, Construction Defects and "Occurrence" under the Commercial General Liability Policy, THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER 19, 20 (July 2015). This commentator calls attention to two Hawaii Supreme Court cases decided before, but not cited in, Group Builders that may support the conclusion that the Hawaii Supreme Court will approach the question by reviewing the CGL policy both as a whole and as applied to the facts and circumstances of a particular property damage claim, not merely declaring that CGL policies cannot insure a contractor for property damage claims arising out of construction defects. See dicta in Sturla, Inc. v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Co., 67 Haw. 203, 684 P.2d 960 (Haw. 1984) - while not deciding that a claim for defective carpet was not an "occurrence", the court reviewed the CGL policy and found that coverage was excluded by several policy exclusions; and Hurtig v. Terminix Wood Treatment & Contracting Co., 67 Haw. 480, 692 P.2d 1153 (Haw. 1984) - the court ruled that the policy exclusions excluded losses confined to the insured's own work or work product and since the house was property beyond the insured's own termite inspection treatment work product, the standard liability policy required the insurer to indemnify the insured.

In addressing the effect of the Act, Dina Bernardelli concludes at 44 WTR BRIEF 34, 39 Legislating "Occurrence" in Construction Defect Coverage (Winter 2015):

Hawaii's legislation creates a different kind of predictability that, ultimately, falls short of the original goal and does not create a presumption of coverage for faulty construction as an occurrence. To the contrary, Group Builders, which determined that defective construction is not an occurrence, would guide coverage for faulty workmanship for policies issued in 2010 and later. Assumedly, construction professionals purchasing insurance in 2010 or thereafter know they are not obtaining coverage for faulty construction under their CGL policy.

Limitation is one of the most egregious endorsements in the insurance industry. This form is contained in the Appendix of Forms. As stated above, the provision of contractual liability coverage includes a series of definitions of “insured contract”. The first five definitions are referred to as incidental provisions, but the sixth definition is the provision that provides for the contractual assumption of tort liability. The sixth type of “insured contract” is most frequently the basis of insurance of a Named Insured on its indemnity of third parties (e.g., indemnity for injuries to an employer’s employees; indemnity for injuries to a subcontractor’s employees). The CG 21 39 deletes this sixth definition in its entirety, deleting coverage for an indemnitor’s indemnity of a third party for its negligence. If the indemnifying party’s indemnity is not similarly limited, then the indemnifying party has undertaken a risk beyond its insurance and is acting as naked insurer, unless its indemnity falls within one of the five defined “insured contracts”. Note as discussed in the Endnotes, the Anti-Indemnity Statutes in many states preclude enforcement of indemnities as to a third party’s negligence, sole or even concurrent, except in statutorily limited circumstances.

b. CG 24 26 Amendment of Insured Contract Definition

ISO CG 24 26 04 13 Amendment of Insured Contract Definition modifies the sixth definition to eliminate coverage for the contractual assumption of another party’s sole negligence. If the indemnifying party’s indemnity is not similarly limited, then the indemnifying party has undertaken a risk beyond its insurance and is acting as naked insurer. This form is contained in the Appendix of Forms.

c. CG 22 94 and CG 22 95 Exclusions – Damage to Work Performed by Subcontractors Exclusion 2.1 in the standard CGL policy contains a significant exception (the subcontractor work performed exclusion) to its coverage exclusion. Exclusion 2.1 states:

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to:

1. Damage To Your Work. “Property damage” to “your work” arising out of and included in the “products-completed operations hazard”. This exclusion does not apply if the damaged work or the work out of which the damage arises was performed on your behalf by a subcontractor. (emphasis added.)

Endorsements ISO CG 22 94 10 11 Exclusion – Damage to Work Performed by Subcontractors and ISO CG 22 95 10 01 Exclusion – Damage to Work Performed by Subcontractors on Your Behalf – Designated Sites or Operations delete the exception to the exclusion, thereby eliminating the single most important coverage under which many construction defect claims have historically been paid. A copy of the ISO CG 22 94 is in the Appendix of Forms.

d. CG 21 42 12 04 and CG 21 43 12 04 Exclusions – Explosion, Collapse and Underground Property Damage Hazard

The standard CGL policy does not exclude “explosion, collapse and underground property damage” hazards (commonly referred to as “XCU”). However, XCU coverage is deleted by addition of endorsement ISO CG 21 42 12 04 Exclusion – Explosion, Collapse and Underground Property Damage Hazard (Specified Operations) and CG 21 43 12 04 Exclusion – Explosion, Collapse and Underground Property Damage Hazard (Specified Operations Excepted).

e. Employer’s Liability Manuscript Exclusion

Exclusion 2.e(1) to the standard CGL policy states in part:

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to: ...

e. Employer's Liability. "Bodily injury" to:

(1) An "employee" of the insured arising out of and in the course of:

(a) Employment by the insured; or Performing duties related to the conduct of the insured's business...

This exclusion does not apply to liability assumed by the insured under an "insured contract".

Manuscript endorsements to this provision may change "Employment by the insured" to "Employment by an insured", may delete the exception altogether, or may modify this provision in some other manner. All of these changes are aimed at eliminating coverage for third-party over actions.

f. Construction Defect - Completed Operations Manuscript Exclusion

One of the nation's leading providers of construction insurance sometimes includes the following endorsement:

This insurance excludes coverage for the actual or alleged deficiency in new construction, conversion, reconstruction, rehabilitation, renovation, remodeling, repair, maintenance or demolition.

What's left? Only bodily injury and on-going operations.

g. Classification Limitation Manuscript Exclusions

Classification limitation endorsements can defy logic. Their intent is to state that coverage is provided only for exposures declared to an insurance company, and new types of undeclared operations are not automatically included.⁶⁰

h. Escape Clauses and Manuscript Negligence Exclusions

⁶¹ Escape Clauses and Negligence Manuscripted Exclusions. The decision in Elf Exploration, Inc. v. Cameron Offshore Boats, Inc., 863 F. Supp. 386 (E.D. Tex. 1994) illustrates the risk inherent in not reading the insurance policy of the party obligated to name the prospective additional insured as an additional insured. The court found that a fact issue existed defeating a summary judgment motion as to whether the proposed additional insured had accepted the defendant's insurance policy which contained an additional insured provision that included the plaintiff, but which provision was worded so as to exclude coverage in cases where the proposed additional insured was already insured (a so-called "Escape Clause"). The Named Insured's policy contained the following Escape Clause: "Provided that where the Assured is, irrespective of this insurance, covered or protected against any loss or claim which would otherwise have been paid by the Assurer, under this policy, there shall be no contribution by the Assurer on the basis of double insurance or otherwise." The party providing the insurance provided insurance naming the proposed additional insured as an additional insured and therefore did not violate the covenant to name the plaintiff as an additional insured, but the additional insured provision contained an Escape Clause. Timely review and objection may need to occur to defeat this waiver argument!

The holding in BP Chemicals, Inc. v. First State Ins. Co., 226 F.3d 420 (6th Cir. 2000) emphasizes why it is important to obtain and read a copy of the additional insured endorsement and not to rely either upon a statement in the certificate of insurance that "'x' is an additional insured for liabilities arising out of the work of 'y'" or upon a general statement in the contract that "x" is to be listed as an additional insured on "y's" commercial general liability policy. The court in this case held that the additional insured endorsement meant exactly what it said "the negligence of the additional insured is excluded" and that the certificate of insurance stating that "x" was an additional insured and the contractual provision in the contract between "x" and "y" that "x" be listed as an additional insured did not clearly provide for coverage of the additional insured's negligence. The additional insured endorsement provided "It is agreed that additional insureds are covered under this policy as required by

i. Subsidence Manuscript Exclusion

This is truly a construction defect exclusion aimed at contractors engaged in any type of earth movement work, including but not limited to soil compaction, fill, or installation of storm or sewer drains.

j. Insured vs. Insured Manuscript Exclusion

A “Named Insured vs. Named Insured Exclusion” is acceptable, as it is aimed at preventing coverage for claims between insureds within the same economic family. An “Insured vs. Insured Exclusion” should never be accepted (except in professional liability policies, where it is customary), as it excludes coverage when the additional insured desires to bring claim against the named insured.

k. Controlled Insurance Program ("CIP") or “Wrap” Manuscript Exclusion

All CIP programs include coverage for product-completed operations, but some limit the period for which that coverage is provided to two or three years after completion of the work. The subcontractor working on that project, however still has a liability exposure after the CIP’s completed operations coverage expires for the entire statute of repose.

l. Electronic Data Liability Exclusion

Not an endorsement but a relatively new exclusion in all general liability policies is that of injury to or damage of electronic data. Exclusion 2.p in general liability policies states:

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to:

p. Electronic Data. Damages arising out of the loss of, loss of use of, damage to, corruption of, inability to access, or inability to manipulate electronic data. As used in this exclusion, electronic data means information, facts or programs stored as or on, created or used on, or transmitted to or from computer software, including systems and applications software, hard or floppy disks, CD-ROMS, tapes, drives, cells, data processing devices or any other media which are used with electronically controlled equipment.

Coverage is readily available to cover this gap through an Electronic Data Liability endorsement CG 04 37 04 13 and should be required. Be sure to specify the amount of coverage required, as this endorsement is frequently provided with only a minimal sublimit (e.g., $25,000 coverage).

12. Self-Insurance Is Not Insurance

a. What is Self-Insurance?

"Self-insurance" is not insurance.⁶² Self-insurance is nothing more than a risk retention device (a method of "financing" certain risks), and an indemnity by the “self-insurer”, the indemnifying party. Self-insurance and large self-insured retentions are a popular method for financing certain risks, particularly among very large commercial written contract, but only with respect to liabilities arising out of their operations performed by or for the named insured, but excluding any negligent acts committed by such additional insureds”.

⁶² A "Misnomer". Hertz Corp. v. Robineau, 6 S.W.3d 332 1336 (Tex. App. - Austin 1999, no writ), J. Woodfin Jones, Justice:

To understand why a self-insurer's coverage is not “other insurance,” it is helpful to recognize that the term “self-insurance” is a misnomer; in effect, a self-insurer does not provide insurance at all. “To say that a self-insurer will pay the same judgments and in the same amounts as an insurance company would have had to pay is one thing; while it is obvious that to assume all the obligations that exist under a Standard Automobile Liability Policy is quite another thing.”

businesses⁶³ and public entities.⁶⁴ Self-insurance has the benefit of retaining dollars otherwise payable for insurance for cash flow purposes until needed to pay claims.

The term "self-insurance" is used to describe a range of risk retentions by the self-insurer. Self-insurance can range from no insurance ("going bare"), to a policy deductible, to insurance purchased over a large self-insured retention ("SIR"). A SIR is sometimes referred to as a "retained limit".⁶⁵ In the case of a deductible or SIR it may be designated as a dollar amount or a percentage. A deductible or SIR is the monetary threshold of the insurer's obligation to pay liabilities or losses covered by the policy.

b. Liability Risks: Deductibles, SIRs and Self-Insurance

(1) Deductibles. Deductibles on a liability policy are determined on a per claim or on a per occurrence basis. Generally, a liability policy's aggregate or occurrence limits are not reduced by deductibles. The industry standard liability policy (ISO CG 00 01) does not provide for a deductible, deductibles are added by an endorsement to the policy (e.g., the ISO CG 03 00). The industry standard ISO deductible endorsement obligates the named insured to pay the deductible. Thus, an additional insured on an ISO deductible endorsement is not required to pay the deductible in order to trigger coverage. Manuscript endorsements may, however, require payment of the deductible by the insureds, which would include an additional insured.

(2) Deductibles v. SIRs.⁶⁶ There are four major differences between liability deductibles and SIRs:

		Deductibles	SIRs
1.	Defense Costs	The insurer pays all defense costs from the first dollar.	Insured usually is responsible for defense costs from the first dollar until the full amount of the retention is paid out.
2.	Policy Limits	Amount of the deductible is included in the policy limits.	Policy limits, including defense costs, are on top of the SIR amount. Once the SIR is paid, the insurer is obligated to pay costs above the SIR within the policy limits. ⁶⁷
3.	Payment to the Claimant	The insurer pays the full amount of a judgment against the insured up to policy limits, and then can	Insurer does not pay the portion of the judgment within the retention. The insured pays the SIR. ⁶⁸

⁶⁴ Self-Insurance by Public Entities. Green v. Alford, 274 S.W.3d 5 (Tex. App. Hou. [14th Dist.] 2008, writ den'd) (City of Pasadena).

⁶⁵ Deductibles, SIRs and Self Insurance. 4 BRUNER AND O'CONNOR ON CONSTRUCTION LAW § 11:11 Deductibles and self-insured retentions (2014); Windt, 3 INSURANCE CLAIMS & DISPUTES: REPRESENTATION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES & INSUREDS § 11:31 Self-insured retention (6th ed. 2014); Hermanson and Toren, A Fact of Life - Retained Limits, Deductibles, and Self-Insurance 55 No. 5 DRI FOR THE DEFENSE 64 (May, 2013); Hamilton and Murphy, SIRs and Deductibles - Evolving Policies and Their Impact on Carrier Duties, 78 DEFENSE COUNSEL JOURNAL 411 (Oct. 2011); CONTRACTUAL RISK TRANSFERS Considerations for General Insurance Provisions XIV.B.5 Deductibles and Retentions and XIV.B.6 Self-Insurance (International Risk Management, Inc. 2014).

⁶⁶ Deductibles v. SIRs. Turner, INSURANCE COVERAGE OF CONSTRUCTION DISPUTES § 4:6 Deductibles and Self-Insured Retentions (2d ed. 2014).

⁶⁷ Insurer Pays Above the SIR. Lexington Ins. Co. v. National Oil Well Nov, Inc., 355 S.W.3d 205 (Tex. App. - Hou. [1st Dist.] 2011, no writ) - once self-insured retention paid out in defense costs, insured not required to participate in costs of defense paid out by insurer.

⁶⁸ Payment of SIR as Trigger to Insurer's Payment. Many policies with SIRs provide that the insurer's obligation to pay the policy amount is not triggered until the insured actually pays the portion of the settlement or judgment within the SIR amount. Some courts have held that there is no coverage where the insured does not or cannot pay the SIR amount, for example if the insured is bankrupt. Pak-Mor Mfg. Co. v. Royal Surplus Lines Ins. Co., 2005 WL 3487723 (W.D. Tex. 2005) - insured's bankruptcy and resultant non-payment of the SIR excused the insurer (policy did not include a "bankruptcy of the insured clause"). However, some other courts have held that the standard bankruptcy clause in most liability policies (bankruptcy of the insured does not excuse covered payments by the insurer) results in the insurer not being excused by the bankrupt's nonpayment of the SIR (bankruptcy clause: "Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate will not relieve us of our obligations under this Coverage Part."). See Seaman and Schulze, ALLOCATION OF LOSSES IN COMPLEX INSURANCE COVERAGE CLAIMS § 9:4 The Impact of the Policyholder's Bankruptcy - Impact on self-insured retentions (2013); e.g., Gulf Underwriters Ins. Co. v. McClain Indus., Inc., 2008 WL 3021134 (Mich. Ct. App. 2008). Some SIR provisions are drafted to permit payment of the SIR amount through other insurance available to the insured, such as when the another policy is primary and the policy with a SIR is excess to it.

		seek reimbursement from the insured, if it can.
4.	Certificates of Insurance	A deductible need not be divulged on a certificate of insurance.	An SIR must be divulged on a certificate of insurance, as the insurer has no responsibility to pay claims until the SIR is exhausted.

Unfortunately, courts and insurance industry personnel use the terms "deductible" and "self-insured retention" interchangeably and without care, and the four listed differences are not well understood. The actual operation of a deductible or SIR provision usually can only be determined through a review of the written policy and discussion with the insurer. The scope of a contract's indemnity and the financial ability of the indemnitor may reduce concern as to this distinction.⁶⁹

(3) Settlement. Liability policies with deductibles sometimes contain provisions granting settlement authority to the insurer, even over an insured's objections, and permit the insurer to recover from the insured the portion of the settlement within the deductible. The same settlement right may be granted to the insurer by the SIR insured, but it is more common for an insured with a large self-insured retention to also retain settlement rights, even if the settlement exceeds the SIR amount.⁷⁰ In circumstances where the policy with a SIR grants settlement rights to the insurer, a conflict of interest can exist between the insurer and its insured.⁷¹

(4) Self-Insurance Specification Drafting. If self-insurance is to be considered, consideration should be given to establishing financial means tests and monitoring procedures. See Exhibit A - Insurance Specifications, Spec. A.10 Self-Insurance, Large Deductibles and/or Retentions. A self-insurance right should be limited to the named entity and care should be addressed in the permitted assignment or successor provisions so as to avoid assignment or succession by entities of lesser credit worthiness.

(5) Self-Insurance and Additional Insured Status. Being named as an "additional insured" on a self-insurance program, does not provide any additional insurance to the "additional insured", as the indemnitor is the sole funding entity.⁷²

(6) Funding Self-Insurance. Unless the parties have established a restricted and encumbered fund or a reinsurance program, all that you have is the unsecured indemnity of self-insurer. The term "self-insurance" does not, without further detail, specify what procedures are to be followed and what protection is available.

⁶⁹ SIRs May Apply on a Per Occurrence Basis. Since SIRs may apply on a per occurrence basis under a liability policy, the financial strength of the insured financing risk through its SIR may need to be evaluated by a party permitting the other party to finance a portion of its risk through a SIR. See H.E. Butt Grocery Co. v. National Union Fire Ins. Co., 150 F.3d 526 (5th Cir. 1998) - court held that independent acts of sexual abuse by an H.E.B. employee of two children constituted two "occurrences" subject to separate $1,000,000 SIRs payable by H.E.B.

⁷¹ Conflict of Interest Between Insured and its Insurer Where Settlement Rights Granted SIR Insured to Insurer. As noted in Roehl Transport, Inc. v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 784 N.W.2d 542, 554 (Wis. 2010) "the insurance company might offer an unnecessarily high settlement within the deductible to avoid the expense of diligent investigation and adjustment. Or it might expend insufficient effort to investigate a claim unless and until the insurance company's own money is at risk when the value of the claim approaches or exceeds the deductible."

⁷² Self-Insurance is Not "Other Insurance" to Contribute as Primary Insurance. Also, another question is sometimes raised concerning self-insurance. In a case where a loss is covered by another party's insurance, which insurance provides that it is primary coverage, and the self-insurer also is liable, is the self-insured required to share in the loss payment by the insurer? This question is sometimes stated, is self-insurance "other insurance"? If multiple policies cover a loss, the "other insurance" provisions of each the policies will dictate how the loss is allocated among the policies' proceeds. If both policies state they are primary, then the policies need to be consulted. The standard CGL policy states that its coverage is primary with respect to "other insurance" unless the other insurance is also primary, in which case the policy will pay a share of the loss. See discussion of "other insurance" at Endnote 31 (Primary and Noncontributing) at the end of this article. The majority rule, and the rule in Texas, is that self-insurance is not "other insurance" within the other insurance provision of a primary policy. See Holloway, Annot., Self-Insurance against Liability as Other Insurance with Meaning of Insurance Policy, 46 A.L.R. 4th 707 (1986). Allstate Ins. Co. v. Zellars, 462 S.W.2d 550, 552 (Tex. 1970); Hertz Corp. v. Robineau, 6 S.W.3d 332, 335 (Tex. App. - Austin 1999, no writ) (J. Woodfin Jones).

B. PROPERTY INSURANCE

1. Antiquated, Problematic and Just Plain Wrong Terminology

In 1986 the insurance industry ceased using phrases such as “fire insurance”, “extended coverage”, “vandalism and malicious mischief”, and “special extended coverage”. Introduced to take their place were policies referred to as “basic causes of loss”, “broad causes of loss”, and “special causes of loss”. That said, the vast majority of insurers in the insurance industry no longer describe coverage as “all risk” due to decisions against insurers arising out of the perception created by such terms that the policy did not include the exclusions, conditions, and limitations that all policies have.

Don't Say This	Say This
"fire insurance"	basic, broad or special causes of loss form "extended coverage"
"vandalism and malicious mischief"
"special extended coverage"
"all risk"

A “basic causes of loss” policy is extremely basic in the scope of coverage provided. A “broad causes of loss” policy is broader than a basic form, but is not very broad. A “special causes of loss” policy is what most lawyers, laymen and many insurance professionals think of as an “all risk” form and is by far the most common form of property insurance in use.⁷³

2. Self-Insurance Is Not Insurance

a. Deductibles

Under a property or builder's risk policy, the deductible is subtracted by the insurer from its loss payment. The insured who suffers the loss absorbs the deductible, unless the deductible is allocated between the parties in a different fashion. For example, if a builder's risk policy has a deductible, the party that owns the damaged property absorbs the deductible (absent a contractual provision reallocating the loss within the deductible).⁷⁴

b. The Self-Insured Owner and "Waivers of Subrogation"

The concept of a waiver of subrogation is technically applicable only to an insurer. With a waiver of subrogation, the insurer waives its right to step in to the shoes of its insured and seek to recoup either from a specified person or all persons the policy proceeds paid out to the insured. A waiver of recovery by an insured often effectuates a waiver of an insurer's right of subrogation. In the self-insurance context, parties sometimes use the term "waiver of subrogation," but in reality what is meant is a "waiver of recovery;" the self-insured is waiving its right of recovery as to the other party. A self-insuring property owner may balk at waiving its right of recovery. However, when an owner elects to self-insure it likely has done so for sound economic reasons. By waiving recovery (aka granting a waiver of subrogation) against the other party, the waiving party assumes the risk of loss due to the negligence of the other party. If this waiver is not granted, then the other party might condition doing the transaction on its obtaining property insurance covering the loss, and seeking to pass the premium cost back to the other party. For example, a contractor contracting with a self-insured owner, who does not waive recovery against the contractor, likely will pass the insurance cost back to the self-insuring owner, and will seek to limit its liability to collected insurance proceeds.

⁷⁴ Approaches to the Deductible. One approach to the parties deductibles dealing with deductibles or SIR is to specify the maximum amount of the deductible or SIR. Another approach is to allow the purchaser of the insurance to choose the deductible, and to allocate the deductible to the insurance purchaser, in whole or in part. For example, an owner may purchase the builder's risk policy and choose a high deductible to manage insurance premiums, and allocate the first dollars up to a limit to the contractor, and agree to pick up all dollars above the amount allocated (e.g., $5,000 to the contractor, all dollars above $5,000 up to the $50,000 deductible allocated to owner).

c. The Self-Insured Tenant

If an owner permits its tenant to self-insure losses to its building, in addition to the financial security concerns noted above, the lease should address the following concerns. Like an insurer, the self-insured tenant should be required to produce a "certificate of (self) insurance" to the landlord and its mortgagee specifying the type of casualty coverage (e.g., replacement cost with agreed value endorsement), the amount thereof and policy terms. The self-insurance coverage should name the mortgagee under a standard mortgagee clause providing that the mortgagee is not subject to defenses to coverage that the tenant may otherwise have with respect to payment. Of course, the self-insurance concept needs to be approved by the owner's mortgagee. The self-insured tenant will need to confirm to the owner and its mortgagee that it has waived its right of recovery (subrogation) against the landlord. If the casualty loss may result in lease termination, the lease should address disposition of "self-insurance proceeds," for example, requiring the self-insured tenant to deposit an amount equal to the insurance proceeds otherwise payable to the landlord under the terms of a property insurance policy that was to have been maintained absent self-insurance. The self-insurance provision should address rent loss coverage, while the premises are being restored.

3. Not all Builder's Risk Policies Are the Same

a. No Standard Builder's Risk Policy

There is no standard builder's risk policy, unlike liability insurance there is a commonly recognized standard ISO CGL policy. ISO has a builder's risk policy, but builder's risk policies are considered to be Inland Marine policies and there is a wide divergence in builder's risk coverages insurer to insurer. "Inland Marine" policies are policies that are customized to the loss sought to be insured, and are designed to provide coverage for special exposures typically associated with the type property at which they are directed and the special valuation methods needed to address the exposure. Construction is recognized as a special exposure. A commonly used Inland Marine policy for builder's risk coverage is the Commercial Inland Marine Conditions (Form CM 00 01 09 04).

b. Common Errors and Problems

(1) Exclusions. An unendorsed builder's risk policy includes a long list of exclusions.⁷⁵

(2) Early Occupancy. Most projects have someone that occupies to some limited degree before substantial completion. Any degree of occupancy could invalidate the coverage if the policy isn't properly worded or endorsed.

(3) Review of Policy Delayed Until After Construction Commencement. Like the other insurance products discussed in this article, the builder's risk insurance policy may not, and likely will not, be issued or available prior to commencement of construction! The policy in many cases is not issued and delivered for weeks or months after work has begun. As noted above in the discussion of the perils of reliance on an ACORD Certificate of Property Insurance, an ACORD Evidence of Commercial Property Insurance or even an ACORD Binder, the policy itself is the contract of insurance and contains extensive terms and conditions that should be reviewed and approved prior to commencement of work. A great level of "distress" can occur, if an assumed coverage in fact is not included in the policy, despite the best written insurance specifications, and a loss occurs before issuance of the policy. If construction will commence before issuance and delivery of the policy, one avenue may be to have the insurer deliver a specimen policy and specimen endorsements.

(4) Coverage Amount. Builder's risk can be provided on either an Actual Cash Value or a Replacement Cost basis.⁷⁶ Normally, there is little to no difference between Actual Cash Value and Replacement Cost on a newly constructed structure but the potential exists that an adjuster could allege physical depreciation, especially when covering long-term construction projects. Replacement Cost is the preferred valuation method. Failure of the policy amount to reflect the full loss exposure is a common error. The contractor's contract sum is a guide in setting the coverage amount. In projects involving remodeling (especially if the structure is a historic structure) or improvement to an existing building, limiting the coverage amount to the contractor's contract sum could lead to a significant uninsured loss. Builder's risk policies will not insure the building envelope unless specifically added. When added, some builder's risk policies insure the envelope only on an Actual Cash Value basis.

(5) Deductibles. Builder's risk policies frequently include multiple deductibles. One may apply to most causes of loss, another to wind, yet another to flood, another to earthquake, and another to indirect (delayed completion) costs. A common requirement might be for a $10,000 deductible, but a wind deductible of 1% of the value in place (or even worse, the total insurable value) at the covered property location at the time of loss applies, subject to a flood deductible equal to the maximum amount of coverage available from the national Flood Insurance Program, an earthquake deductible (depending on the location of the insured property) of 5% of the value in place at the covered property location at the time of loss applies, subject to a $500,000 minimum, and a delayed completion deductible of 15 days.

(6) Coverage for Architect's Fees, Owner Supplied Materials, Debris Removal, Full Limit Coverage of Flood and Earthquakes, and Elimination of Ordinance or Law Exclusions. Many commonly expected coverages are available only through policy endorsement and are not part of the issuer's standard policy form. Missing coverages likely may be owner's additional architect's fees arising out of an insured loss; owner supplied materials; costs of demolition of the intact portion of a building when a law or ordinance requires that the entire structure be torn down; full collapse coverage, including collapse resulting from design error.

(7) Soft Costs. Builder's risk policies typically do not cover damages caused by delays arising out of a covered loss. These "soft costs" can be covered by an endorsement. A soft cost endorsement can be tailored to cover loss of expected revenue, additional interest expense, loan fees, property taxes, design fees, insurance premiums, legal and accounting costs and additional commissions arising from the renegotiation of leases. Typical exclusions contained in a soft cost endorsement are for cost to correct construction deficiencies, costs to comply with laws or ordinances, loss caused by adverse weather and loss caused by strikes.

(8) Delay Damages. Another endorsement that may be available to insure against a financial distress risk is a delayed completion and force majeure endorsement. This endorsement supplements the risk of covered loss to cover consequential damage losses due to completion delays and force majeure events not otherwise covered. This endorsement extends coverage for losses due to strikes and labor disputes, changes in law (e.g., building codes, emission standards), acts of God, adverse weather conditions and off-site physical damage to materials or equipment.

(9) Watch Out for Protective Safeguard Warranties. "Protective safeguard warranties" are conditions precedent to coverage sometimes built into a builder's risk policy to assure the insurance company of certain protections being provided at the job site. Their inclusion is justified by the insurer on grounds of reduced premium. However, a violation of a protective safeguard warranty voids coverage, potentially even if the loss is not tied to the violated protective safeguard warranty. Typical protective safeguard warranties address the following: emergency response protocols; fencing surrounding the project (e.g., site must be fenced with a cyclone fence at least 6 foot high which must be locked during non-working hours); project lighting during night hours; site surveillance must be maintained by a licensed and bonded watchperson during non-construction hours; and water for fire suppression must be stored on site, or a working fire hydrant must be within 1,000 feet of the structure being constructed.

4. Not All Casualty Proceeds Clauses Are Equal

Attached in the Appendix of Forms are the casualty provisions of an office lease for a to-be-built office building (aka "first generation space"). These provisions serve as a road map for the issues that should be addressed in casualty loss provisions in leases, including for other types of leases, such as ground leases, build-to-suit leases, single tenant building leases, and leases of spaces in different type facilities, e.g., retail, warehouse and industrial facilities.

The following are questions and topics are addressed in the attached office lease extract:⁷⁷

- What constitutes a casualty loss?
- Who decides if the damaged property is to be rebuilt?
- The party responsible to rebuild in the event of a casualty loss.
- Damage to what portions of the property trigger the election to rebuild or terminate the lease (e.g., common areas, parking; damage that materially adversely affects the tenant's use or access)?
 - What standard to be applied in determining if the degree of damage triggers an election or if rebuilding is mandatory (e.g., landlord's judgment; landlord's judgment that building cannot be operated economically as an integral unit; "substantial damage"; damage such that it will take greater than one year to rebuild if damage occurs prior to the last two years of the lease term, damage such that it will take greater than 60 days to rebuild if damage occurs during the last two years of the lease term)?
 - Relevance of length of time involved in rebuilding (e.g., greater than a year; greater than 60 days if casualty occurs during the last 24 months of the lease term).
 - Period during which casualty occurs as triggering elections (e.g., during last 24 months of lease term).
 - Standards and process for rebuilding (e.g., issues similar to those addressed in the work letter; who builds which portion of the damaged improvement; who funds each portion rebuilt; how is rebuilding coordinated with other tenants and with landlord's work; insurance; contractor approval).
 - How and when is determination/estimation made of the length of time that rebuilding will take (e.g., within 60 days after the date of the casualty)?
 - Notice of election is to be given to other party within what period of time (e.g., by landlord within 60 days of the occurrence, by tenant within 65 days of the occurrence if damage occurs during the last two years of lease term)?
 - What happens if rebuilding takes longer than the estimated period?
 - Effect of force majeure if rebuilding takes longer than estimate period.
 - Extension of rebuilding period if the other party's conduct affects rebuilding period (e.g., tenant delays).
 - Conditions which must be satisfied in order for party to terminate (e.g., landlord must terminate all of the other leases in the project affected by such casualty in a like manner).
- What happens if no election is made or not made within a time period?
- What happens if insurance proceeds are not sufficient to rebuild or fully rebuild?
- Under what circumstances will rent abate or partially abate?
- If rent is to partially abate, what formula is used to determine the portion abated?
- Do other expenses abate (e.g., CAM, operating expense pass-through, taxes, insurance)?

⁷⁷ Annotated Office Lease. Also see Thomas M. Whelan, Texas Annotated Office Lease, 35th ANNUAL ADVANCED REAL ESTATE COURSE, State Bar of Texas (2013).

- Does the rebuilding party's lender have the right to have the insurance proceeds applied to that party's loan? If so, will rebuilding still occur?

b. Mortgagee's Concerns

(1) Right to Insurance Proceeds

One of the primary concerns of the lender is the right to claim insurance proceeds arising from destruction of the mortgaged property.⁷⁸ If the mortgagee does not carry its own insurance, but requires the mortgagor to carry insurance for the benefit of both parties, the mortgagee must also verify that its interests are properly reflected in the policy. There is more than one form of endorsement for this purpose and each provides widely different protection.

(2) Insurable Interest⁷⁹

Both the mortgagor and mortgagee have insurable interests in mortgaged property. Either mortgagor or mortgagee can purchase a property insurance policy on the mortgaged property. A mortgagor may insure the mortgaged property in an amount equal to the property's value. A mortgagee does not have an insurable interest in the property in excess of its secured debt.⁸⁰ Absent a contractual undertaking to insure the mortgaged property and to insure the interest of the mortgagee, the mortgagor does not have an obligation to do so. However, it is customary in commercial financing to require the mortgagor to carry insurance for the joint interest of both mortgagor and mortgagee. As observed by a well-known commentator on insurance matters,

Rather than have both the borrower and lender buy separate policies of property insurance to protect their respective interests, the lender typically requires the borrower to do two things: First, the borrower covenants in the mortgage that there will be property insurance maintained for the benefit of the mortgagee; and Second, the lender requires the borrower to obtain a property policy with a loss payable clause in favor of the lender.⁸¹

At least three types of mortgagee clauses cover the mortgagee's interest under a hazard insurance policy and the policy's proceeds: the open mortgage clause, the standard mortgage clause, and the assignment of the mortgagor's interest clause.⁸² A standard mortgage clause gives the mortgagee a direct contractual right with the insurer to be paid the policy's proceeds up to the balance owing on the secured debt. In the context of a mortgagor's bankruptcy proceeding, the property policy's proceeds up to the mortgagee's insurable interest are not property of the bankrupt.⁸³ The UCC recognizes that a mortgagee loss payee's interest in mortgaged property policy proceeds takes precedence over claims of a holder of a perfected security interest in collateral that has been damaged or destroyed.⁸⁴

Underwriting Ass'n*, 470 N.Y.S.2d 456, 459 (N.Y. 1983): "The extent of a mortgagee's interest is determined, in the first instance, by the total amount of its lien, including the outstanding principal amount of the debt plus interest, plus any amounts expended to protect its security (i.e., taxes, insurance premiums), all as of the date of the fire."

⁸³ Bankruptcy of the Mortgagor. Paskow v. Calvert Fire Ins. Co., 579 F.2d 949, 951 (5th Cir. 1978) the court states "Because the mortgagee has a contractual right to money payable under the loss payable clause, the mortgagor has no right to that money. Thus the money or right to receive the money is not property or a right to property belonging to the mortgagor."

C. DRAFTING: SPECIFIC SPECIFICATIONS ARE BETTER THAN GENERAL

Included in this article are two approaches to writing insurance specifications, a narrative approach and an exhibit checklist approach. There are drafting advantages and disadvantages to each approach (one's vice is the other's virtue).

Narrative	Exhibit
General	Specific
Brief	Detailed
Paragraph Style	Checklist Style

The authors encourage the use of the exhibit checklist approach. In the authors' experience providing a specific, detailed, checklist style set of insurance specifications facilitates delivery of insurance meeting the parties' insurance requirements. The authors urge "Remember your audience," which we argue is the insurance agents issuing and reviewing the insurance to be obtained.

D. PROTECTING THE OWNER: A CASE STUDY

1. The Project.

The following discussion reviews the risk management objectives and issues that were addressed by one of your authors, William Locke, and an insurance consultant, Elizabeth Lowe, hired by the project owner in the negotiation and documentation of the construction documents for a to-be-built high rise office building⁸⁵ on a prime location.⁸⁶ The project was built under an AIA A133 Construction Manager as Constructor where the basis of payment is the Cost of the Work Plus a Fee with a Guaranteed Maximum Price.

Owner Objectives.

The owner had the following objectives:

- (1) Cost Confirmation: Cost confirmation versus cost savings, but cost savings, if achievable;
- (2) Protection Against Identified Risks: Contractual and insurance protection against identified risks;
- (3) Completion by Deadline: Occupancy by a bona fide relocation deadline; and ⁸⁴ UCC Priorities. 9 Anderson, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE, § 9-306:15.

⁸⁵ The Parties. Owner: The owner was a financial institution with an insurance department. The project was the construction of a building to which the owner would move its regional banking house. Its lease was scheduled to expire in two years from construction contract execution. The owner did not wish to run the risk that it would be holding over past the expiration of the term of its lease. Additionally, the office space market was becoming tight due to the boom of the Texas economy. Contractor: The contractor was a large national contractor with an established local reputation. Architect: The architects were a large national firm. Project manager: Since the owner was not a recurrent building developer, it hired a project manager to manage the project. The project manager was a fee developer (entitlement facilitator, construction manager, and leasing agent). Owner's representative. The owner also hired an owner's representative to interface with all other participants. Insurance consultant: At the recommendation of the project manager, the owner hired an insurance consultant (Elizabeth Lowe) to review the owner's and the contractor's insurance program and make recommendations.

(4) Post-Completion Continued Operations Protection: Protection against the risk of interruption of business after construction completion due to construction defects interrupting operations.

2. Identified Risks and Parties' Approach.

As to these objectives, the parties identified the following risks and insurance or contractual agreements to address the owner's objectives:⁸⁷

Risk	Contractor	Owner
(1) Cost Confirmation	GMP vs. Stipulated Sum ⁸⁸	Budget making process. ⁸⁹
(2) Protection Against Identified Risk
Negligently Caused Injury and Property Damage Liability Risk:	CCIP as to CGL risks (contractor and subcontractors of all tiers) ⁹⁰

See Footnote 96 Builder's Risk Insurance Purchased by Builder noting that contract negotiations resulted in a fixing of the builder's risk cost as a stipulated percentage of the Cost of the Work.

See Footnotes 107 Subguard and 102 Payment and Performance Bonds noting that contract negotiations resulted in fixing the Subguard and Bonds cost.

See Footnote 90 Contractor's CCIP discussing the insurance consultant's negotiation tactics resulting in fixing the CCIP insurance cost to a specified percentage of the Cost of the Work, which percentage reflected a lower premium allocation to the project.

⁸⁹ Budget Making Process. Costs were controlled through an extensive budget and cost verification process.

⁹⁰ Contractor's CCIP. The Guaranteed Maximum Price included an allocation of a portion of the contractor's insurance program costs under its "master rolling" Contractor Controlled Insurance Program ("CCIP"). The contractor sought to specify the portion of its liability coverage limits to be available to the project and to limit its liability to Owner to these specified limits. This allocation was reviewed by the insurance consultant. In the absence of an insurance consultant, the contractor's allocations likely would have been accepted by the owner as a "Cost of the Work" without analysis.

Insurance Consultant's Tactics. In the case study, the Insurance Consultant approached the liability insurance cost confirmation and cost savings objective employing the following tactics:

- Bids were obtained from third party insurers both using the "traditional approach" (see Item A.9 Controlled Insurance Programs discussed previously) and as an OCIP and compared to the CCIP.
- The specific coverages and limits of the CCIP were analyzed to determine if the allocated CCIP premium was for coverages and limits in excess of the size of the Project.

In order to do this analysis the insurance consultant needed to review the contractor's loss history and insurance pricing structure. Understandably the contractor was reluctant to "open its books". The contractor insisted on the insurance consultant signing a confidentiality agreement. The contractor argued that time spent auditing the contractor's premium allocation to the project would result in delay in starting the project and might translate into losing its fixed bid prices from its subcontractors and suppliers. The insurance consultant advised that this tactic is sometimes employed by contractors to stall an insurance consultant's auditing a contractor's CCIP.

Based on the insurance consultant's tactics, she succeeded in (a) getting a post-completion cost audit clause added to the CCIP. The audit clause provided that the insurance premium for the project would not be back billed to the project until the increased hard costs exceeded the swing %;

Job site injuries to workers and third parties arising out of the operations or work of the contractor and its subcontractors and injuries arising out of the use by these forces of automobiles	with owner as an additional insured on CCIP and BAP ⁹¹ Workers compensation insurance/employer's liability insurance ⁹² with waiver of subrogation as to claims against owner Business auto policy ⁹³ with owner as additional insured Indemnification of owner ⁹⁴	Owner's CGL ⁹⁵

and (b) obtaining a reduction in the CCIP premium allocation to the project to 1.06% of the Cost Sum. See Appendix of Forms - A133 § 6.6.1(1) (Miscellaneous Costs - Insurance and Bonds). The insurance consultant determined that the CCIP premium was significantly higher than if the owner placed the liability insurance through an OCIP. The insurance consultant also determined that the insurance cost allocated to the project by the contractor included a .21% charge (or $80,000) to reimburse the contractor for a share of its premium for its $25,000,000 pollution policy and its $300,000,000 CGL excess liability policy, each of which risk limit coverages were beyond the levels that the insurance consultant would have recommended to the owner be bound by the contractor for a project of this size. The contractor argued that, if the owner adopted an OCIP, that this .21% portion of the contractor's insurance program premium had to be allocated to the Cost of the Work payable by the owner as those coverages would not be part of the owner's OCIP. The contractor took the position that when it bid the job, its contractor's fee was lower than otherwise because it would make up for the lower fee by allocating these non-CCIP costs to the project. The contractor agreed to a further lowering of its contractor's fee as a result of these examination of cost allocations.

CCIP Limits. The CCIP put in place for the project had the following limits: $5,000,000 primary coverage, with two umbrella tiers: a first tier of $40,000,000; and a second tier of up to an additional $300,000,000. The primary coverage had a $500,000 deductible. Owner accepted the liability insurance carrying this large of a deductible due to the financial strength of the contractor. Also, the amount was a deductible not a self-insured retention. See Appendix of Forms - Exhibit A Insurance Specs. §§ A.1.1 and A.3.1.

The Insurance Specs. specified the form of the additional insured endorsements, ISO CG 20 10 07 04 (as to ongoing operations) and ISO CG 20 37 07 04 (as to completed operations). The Insurance Specs. provided for the CCIP primary and umbrella policies to provide a waiver of subrogation as to the owner and the additional insureds, and a notice of cancellation to the owner. See Exhibit A – Insurance. Specs. §§ 1.9, 1.11, 4.4 and 4.7.

⁹² Contractors/Subcontractors' Workers Compensation and Employer's Liability. See AIA A201 §§ 11.1.1.1, 11.1.1.2 and 11.1.1.3 and Exhibit A Insurance Spec. § A.3. Workers Compensation coverage for contractor's and its subcontractors' employees was not included as part of the CCIP in the Case Study. The contractor was required to maintain workers compensation insurance in an amount not less than the statutory limits and employers liability insurance in an amount not less than $1,000,000. The contract did not require subcontractors carry workers compensation or employers liability insurance.

⁹⁴ Contractor Limited Form Indemnification of Owner. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201 § 3.18.1 (Contractor's Indemnity of Owner Parties) is a limited form indemnity by the contractor. The contractor indemnifies the owner for liabilities arising from the acts or omissions of the contractor and its subcontractors and from the negligence of contractor and such contractor-related persons, provided the claim as to bodily injury or death or property damage is caused in whole or in part by the negligent acts or omissions of the contractor or the contractor-related persons. This indemnity expressly excludes liabilities to the extent that they are caused in whole or in part by the negligence of an Owner Party, and thus is neither a "broad form" nor an "intermediate form" indemnity. Obtaining a "limited form" written indemnity by the contractor is important as it overcomes the "workers comp" bar as to injuries to employees of the contractor as required by TEX. LABOR CODE § 417.004 and results in the passing back to the contractor the contractor's comparative share of the negligently caused injury. See Varela v. American Petrofina Co. of Texas, Inc., 658 S.W.2d 561 (Tex. 1983). It also passes back to the contractor liability for injuries or deaths of employees of its subcontractors to the extent caused by the contractor's or subcontractor's negligence as permitted by the Texas Anti-Indemnity Act, Chapter 151 of the TEXAS INSURANCE CODE. See discussion at Endnote 79 Additional Insured Coverage in the Construction Context - Anti-Indemnity Statute.

⁹⁶ Builder's Risk Insurance Purchased by Builder. See Item B.3 Not All Builder's Risk Policies Are The Same; and the Commentary on Insurance Forms, Endnotes K (Builder's Risk) for a discussion of builder's risk insurance. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201 § 11.3 Property Insurance and Exhibit A Insurance Spec. § B.1 Builder's Risk Insurance. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A133 § 6.6.1(2) charging the Cost of Work for the builder's risk insurance at the rate of .145% of the Contract Sum. The contractor scheduled the project on its master builder's risk policy. The parties added to the policy a "business income/rental value" loss coverage endorsement with a coverage sublimit of $7,113,570. The insurance consultant assisted the owner in completing a worksheet to substantiate the sublimit. This endorsement provided insurance against late delivery of the completed project. The parties discussed the relative advantages and disadvantages of the contractor or the owner placing the builder's risk insurance. The insurance consultant advised owner that if the builder's risk policy was owner-purchased, the owner would be the negotiation-party for losses. If liability insurance was placed through an OCIP, then the it would be best for the owner to be the purchaser of the builder's risk insurance.

⁹⁷ Owner Named Insured on Builder's Risk Policy. See Appendix of Forms: Exhibit A Insurance Spec. § B.1. The owner, contractor, subcontractors and suppliers were Named Insureds on the builder's risk policy. The contractor was the "first Named Insured" and the other insureds were designated as "Additional Named Insureds". The builder's risk policy provided:

The first Named Insured shown in 3.A above shall be deemed the sole and irrevocable agent of each and every Insured hereunder for the purpose of giving and receiving notices to/from the Company, giving instructions to or agreeing with the Company as respects Policy alteration, for making or receiving payments of premium or adjustments to premium and as respects the payment for claims. All owners, all contractors and subcontractors of every tier, and tenants at the project location, except as named in A. above, as required by any contract, subcontract or oral agreement for the Insured Project, and then only as their respective interests may appear are recognized as Additional Named Insureds hereunder. As respects architects, engineers, manufacturers and suppliers, their interest is limited to their site activities only. Additional Named Insureds as provided above, may be shown on any Project Certificate issued to this Master Policy or ACORD Certificates of Insurance (or equivalent) issued by Lockton Companies, LLC, copies of which will be forwarded, if requested, to the Company.

An ACORD Evidence of Property Insurance was issued by Lockton Companies, LLC to owner certifying the existence of the builder's risk policy and the inclusion of owner as an Additional Named Insured, and a copy of the ACORD certificate was sent to the Company at owner's request.

⁹⁹ Contractor's Environmental Liability Insurance. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201, Exhibit A Insurance Spec. § A.6 (Construction Manager's Pollution Liability Insurance). The policy was written with limits of $2,000,000 per incident and $2,000,000 aggregate; the policy's term was one year, requiring annual renewal; the policy was endorsed with a waiver of subrogation as to the Owner Parties; mold was added as a covered "pollutant".

¹⁰⁰ Owner's Environmental Liability Indemnification of Contractor. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201 § 10.3.3 (Owner Indemnity of Contractor and Others). The contract retained the AIA owner indemnity of the contractor for hazardous materials, if any, at the project site (the "affected area"), except to extent liability arose due to fault or negligence of the party seeking indemnity. The parties limited owner's indemnification liability to the $2,000,000 "coverage available to the owner under owner's pollution liability insurance, including any deductible required under such policy."

¹⁰¹ Owner's Pollution Legal Liability Insurance. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201 § 10.3.3 the construction contract required the owner to purchase a pollution liability insurance policy for this project with project-specific limits of $2,000,000 each loss and a $2,000,000 policy aggregate. The contract provided that the policy was to be written on an occurrence basis and include contractual liability coverage. A certificate of insurance evidencing such coverage and copy of such policy was to be provided to the contractor prior to commencement of construction. The contract required the owner to maintain the pollution liability insurance in effect until substantial completion of the construction. The contract also required the policy to be endorsed to provide contractor with at 30 days' notice of cancellation. In order to obtain this insurance, the owner provided the insurer with the site-specific environmental reports generated during the owner's pre-purchase due diligence on the property. The insurance consultant obtained proposals for 3 yrs. and 5 yrs., with limits of $ 3 MM, $5 MM, and $10 MM. The owner purchased a policy the following specifications: a 5 year term; $5,000,000 incident/aggregate limit, with coverage for Emergency Response Costs of up to $250,000 per incident, $1,000,000 aggregate; a $50,000 deductible. The premium was $60,000.

¹⁰³ Retainage. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201 §§ 9.10.2 and 9.107 provided for 10% retainage to be withheld from periodic payments which was to be paid out as the final payment 31 days after final completion unless the payment bond surety approved an earlier payment or a reduction in the percent retained.

¹⁰⁴ Periodic Waivers and Releases of Lien. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A201 § 9.3.3.1 was added to the A201 to require the delivery of conditional waivers and releases as to currently requested progress payments and unconditional waivers and lien releases for previously paid progress payments by first-tier subcontractors in the forms prescribed by TEXAS PROPERTY CODE § 53.284.

¹⁰⁷ Subguard and Performance Bond. See Appendix of Forms: AIA A133 § 6.6.1(4). The contractor recommended that the project not be bonded with payment and performance bonds, arguing that its financial size and track record would justify the owner not paying for payment and performance bonds. However, the contractor proposed including within the Contract Sum its costs in enrolling the subcontractors into a subcontractor's insurance default program ("Subguard"). The owner insisted on the project being bonded, and after extensive negotiations, the owner agreed to a cost splitting with the contractor of the Subguard premium (see AIA A133, § 6.6.1(4)). The parties entered into a compromise as to including in the Cost of Work the premium payable by the contractor for Subguard insurance. Owner agreed that the lesser of 55% of the

APPENDIX OF FORMS

A. Lease and Construction Forms

The following forms set out insurance specifications for landlords and tenants. The second form has a checklist-style set of insurance specifications, including insurance specifications tenant or its contractor to maintain during the tenant's construction of tenant improvements or alterations. The insurance specifications set out for the tenant improvements are adaptable for owner-contractor construction projects. Following these lease forms are provisions from the construction contract discussed above as Item D Protecting The Owner: A Case Study.

1. Lease Insurance Provisions with Narrative Insurance Specifications

The following insurance provisions are adapted from lease provisions drafted by American Bar Association, Section of Real Property Probate and Trust Law, Leasing Committee. These provisions are only samples and must be reviewed by an attorney and tailored for any particular situation. Substantive edits by the authors of this paper are indicated by underlining or ~~strikethroughs~~.

A. Landlord's Insurance. Landlord shall take out and maintain, at its own cost and expense (subject, however to reimbursement as set forth herein below), (i) Workers' Compensation, (ii) comprehensive automobile liability insurance; (iii) general liability for bodily injury and property damage arising from Landlord's ownership, management, use and/or operation of the Common Areas and/or the Shopping Center with coverage limits equal to those Tenant is required to maintain in accordance with Section B below; and (iv) insurance covering all ~~perils causes of loss~~ insurable under a "Causes of Loss - Special Form" policy, ~~including, but not limited to, fire and such other risks as are from time to time included in standard extended coverage endorsements~~, insuring in an amount, after completion of construction, of not less than 80% of the full insurable value, or such greater coverage as may be required by Landlord's mortgage. Insurance provided for in this Section A may be carried by inclusion within the coverage of any blanket policy or policies of insurance maintained by Landlord; provided, however, that the coverage afforded will not be reduced or diminished by reason of the use of such blanket policies of insurance. If the insurance policies maintained by Landlord with respect to the Shopping Center contain any nature of deductible feature, then Landlord shall be solely responsible for the payment of any such deductible in the event of a loss to the Leased Premises and/or the Shopping Center.¹¹⁰ premium or $160,000 would be reimbursed as a Cost of Work. The actual premium for Subguard was 1% of subcontract and supplier values (i.e., approximately $320,000). The contractor argued that Subguard was a legitimate Cost of Work as it assured performance by subcontractors and suppliers. Owner argued that the contractor chose the subcontractors and suppliers and performance was a contractor risk. Also, owner argued that only a statutory payment bond (and not Subguard) provided statutory protection of the project from mechanics and materialman's liens due to non-payment by subcontractors of lower tier subcontractors. The owner negotiated for and obtain endorsement of the Subguard policy to make it a third party beneficiary with rights of enforcement.

¹¹⁰ Deductible Allocated to Landlord. Note the approach taken by this provision is to place the risk of loss within the deductible solely on the Landlord and thus without pass through to the Tenants of the Shopping Center. Ok? For example, windstorm deductibles can be quite high.

B. Tenant's Insurance Payment. ...

C. Tenant's Insurance. Tenant shall take out and maintain, at its own cost and expense, commercial general liability insurance coverage of $1,000,000-~~combined single limit~~,¹¹¹ which commercial general liability policy shall be on an ISO form CG 00 01, or a substitute providing equivalent coverage, and shall include (i) coverage for bodily injury and death, property damage and personal injury-~~products liability coverage~~,¹¹² and (ii) contractual liability coverage ~~insuring the obligations of Tenant under the terms of this Lease~~. Such policy shall name Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee, ~~as their respective interests may appear~~,¹¹³ as additional insureds, on an ISO form CG 20 11 01 96, or equivalent form. The liability policy shall be endorsed to include a waiver of subrogation by the insurer as to Landlord (the Landlord Parties). This insurance shall be endorsed to provide primary and not requiring contribution by any insurance maintained by the Landlord (or the Landlord Parties). It is the specific intent of the parties to this Lease that all insurance held by Landlord (or the Landlord Parties) shall be excess above the insurance required to be obtained by Tenant by this Lease. The personal injury contractual liability exclusion shall be deleted from the contractual liability coverage. The following exclusions/limitations (or their equivalents) are not permitted: (a) Contractual Liability Limitation, ISO CG 21 39 or its equivalent; (b) Amendment of Insured Contract Definition, ISO CG 24 26 or its equivalent; (c) Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project, ISO CG 21 44; (d) any endorsement modifying or deleting the exception to the Employer's Liability exclusion; (e) any "insured vs. Insured" exclusion; and (f) any type of punitive, exemplary or multiplied damages exclusion. All such insurance required to be maintained by Tenant shall be with an insurance company qualified to do business in the state where the Leased Premises is located. Within 30 days following a written request therefore, Tenant shall provide Landlord with an ACORD certificate of all policies required herein, including an endorsement providing that such insurance shall not be canceled or not renewed¹¹⁴ except after 30 days' notice in writing to Landlord. Should Tenant fail to maintain such policies as hereinabove provided, Tenant will be deemed to be in default of the provisions of this Section C, and shall, within 30 days following receipt of a written notice of such default, obtain such insurance. Tenant's obligation to carry the insurance provided for above may be satisfied by inclusion of the Leased Premises within the coverage of so-called "blanket" policies of insurance carried and maintained by Tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for the safety and personal well-being of Tenant's agents, servants, employees, customers and invitees within the Leased Premises. Tenant agrees that Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to Tenant or those claiming under Tenant (including, without limitation, Tenant's agents, servants, employees, customers and invitees) for (i) injury, death or damage or loss occasioned by the acts or omissions of persons occupying any other part of the Shopping Center; or (ii) occasioned by the property of any other occupant of any part of the Shopping Center; or (iii) the acts or omissions of any other person or persons present at the Shopping Center who are not occupants of any part thereof, whether or not such persons are present with the knowledge or consent of Landlord.¹¹⁵ If Tenant is engaged in any way in the manufacture, sale or distribution of alcoholic ¹¹¹ Combined Single Limit - Antiquated Terminology. An antiquated term that is often used is "Combined Single Limit". Versions of the CGL form used prior to 1986, and many other types of liability policies, had what were called "split limits." Split limits applied different limits to property damage liability and bodily injury liability. There was a "combined single limit endorsement" that could be added to the policy to make both bodily injury and property damage liability coverage subject to the same occurrence limit. This has been incorporated into the commercial liability form but without the terminology "Combined Single Limit." Therefore, this term conveys no meaning and should generally be avoided.

¹¹³ ATIMA Language Not Applicable to Liability Policies. The "as their interest may appear" language has been deleted in this reference to additional insured coverage for additional insureds under the Tenant's CGL policy as such language is solely applicable to multiple insureds under property policies.

¹¹⁵ Contractual Disclaimer – Exclusions from Landlord's Responsibility – Injuries or Damages Incurred by Occupants of the Shopping Center and Other Persons Present at the Shopping Center. This broad form contractual disclaimer appears to eliminate Landlord's liability to tenants for injuries and damage at the Shopping Center. The disclaimer is for (i) all injuries, damages or loss occasioned by the acts or omission of persons occupying any other part of the Shopping Center; (ii) occasioned by the property of any other occupant of any part of the Shopping Center; or (iii) the acts or omissions of any other person or persons present at the Shopping Center who are not occupants of any part beverages, either for consumption of alcoholic beverages on or off the Leased Premises, Tenant will also maintain liquor liability insurance on an occurrence basis with the limits of not less than $2,000,000 each common cause and $3,000,000 aggregate. If written on a separate policy from the commercial general liability policy, such policy shall name Landlord and Landlord's mortgagee, ~~as their respective interests may appear~~, as additional insured.

(To the extent relevant, insert the following additional insurance specifications for Tenant as set out in Checklist-Style Insurance Specifications: the General Insurance Requirements; Business Auto Liability, Workers' Compensation and Employer's Liability, and Environmental Liability; Property Insurance, Business Income and Extra Expense, Boiler & Machinery coverage; Other Insurance; and Tenant's Contractors specifications).

thereof. Questions: What is left? Does the disclaimer disclaim liability for injuries or property damage to the extent caused in part by the acts or omissions, including negligence, of the Landlord and the persons as to which it would have legal responsibility? Does this disclaimer conflict with the Landlord indemnity in Insurance Specifications in Narrative Format?

2. Lease Insurance and Casualty Loss Provisions with Checklist-Style Insurance Specifications as an Exhibit

Section 11.1 is a casualty loss provision contained in an office building lease. See the discussion of this provision in Item B.4 – Not All Casualty Proceeds Clauses Are Equal. The Insurance Specifications referenced in Section 11.2 below have been crafted to be a standalone exhibit attachment to a lease. These specifications were not attached to the Lease. Inserted in brackets are variable specifications. One variable shown as a bracketed spec addresses allocation of property insurance on tenant improvements to the tenant. This variable allocation is appropriate for a ground lease where the tenant has constructed the building, a single tenant building where the tenant is responsible for reconstruction, or where the tenant is leasing shell space and is responsible at its sole expense to reconstruct the tenant improvements after a casualty loss.

§ 11.1. Insurance. The parties agree to maintain the property and liability insurance policies specified for the party to maintain in Exhibit A to this Lease.

§ 11.2. Destruction.

§ 11.2.1. Reconstruction.

If the Leased Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, the same shall be repaired or rebuilt as speedily as practical under the circumstances at the expense of the Landlord [subject to Section 11.2.3 below], unless this Lease is terminated as provided in this Section 11.2, and during the period required for restoration, a just and proportionate part of Base Rental shall be abated until the Leased Premises are repaired or rebuilt.

§ 11.2.2. Termination Rights.

a. Landlord's Termination Rights. If the Leased Premises and/or any portion of the Project which materially adversely affects Tenant's use of or access to the Leased Premises are (i) damaged to such an extent that repairs cannot, in Landlord's judgment (after consultation, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of the related damage, with an architect and general contractor of recognized good reputation selected by Landlord), be completed within one year after the date of the casualty or (ii) damaged or destroyed as a result of a risk which is not insured under an ISO causes of loss - special form insurance policy, or (iii) damaged or destroyed during the last 24 months of the Lease Term or the Renewal Term if Tenant exercised or exercises (within 30 days of the date of such casualty) its option to extend, or if the Building is damaged in whole or in part (whether or not the Leased Premises are damaged), to such an extent that the Building cannot, in Landlord's judgment, be operated economically as an integral unit, and Landlord terminates all of the other leases in the Project affected by such casualty in a like manner, then but only in such events, Landlord may at its option terminate this Lease by notice in writing to the Tenant within 60 days after the date of such occurrence.

b. Tenant's Termination Rights. If the Leased Premises are damaged to such an extent that repairs cannot, in Landlord's judgment, be completed within one year after the date of the casualty or if the Leased Premises are substantially damaged during the last 24 months of the Lease Term or the Renewal Term if Tenant exercised or exercises (within 30 days of the date of such casualty) its option to extend, then in any of such events, Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease by notice in writing to Landlord within 65 days after the date of such casualty. If the Leased Premises are not materially restored by Landlord to the extent required of Landlord hereunder on or before the date that is one year after the date of the related casualty (as extended because of Tenant Delays or Force Majeure), then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by giving written notice thereof to Landlord on or before the earlier to occur of (i) the date that is one year after the date of the related casualty (as extended because of Tenant Delays or Force Majeure), or (ii) the date that Landlord has substantially completed the restoration of the Leased Premises, as the case may be; provided, however, that if construction or reconstruction is delayed because of changes, deletions or additions in constructions requested by Tenant or other Tenant Delays or Force Majeure, the one year period for restoration, repair or rebuilding shall be extended for the amount of such delay.

c. Failure to Terminate. Unless Landlord or Tenant elects to terminate this Lease as hereinabove provided, this Lease will remain in full force and effect and Landlord shall repair or rebuild such damage at its expense to the extent required in this Section as expeditiously as possible under the circumstances substantially in accordance with the Base Building Plans and the Plans and Specifications for the Leased Premises (subject to the limitations in Section 11.2.3 below), except to the extent not possible under then applicable law.

§ 11.2.3. Extent of Landlord's Expense to Reconstruct.

If Landlord should elect or be obligated pursuant to Section 11.2.1 above to repair or rebuild because of any damage or destruction, Landlord's obligation shall be limited to the original Building and the leasehold improvements in the Leased Premises (to the extent such leasehold improvements can be restored for the amount of the Construction Allowance applicable thereto) and shall not extend to any furniture, equipment, supplies or other personal property owned or leased by Tenant, its employees, contractors, invitees or licensees. If the cost of performing such repairs and restoration exceeds the actual proceeds of insurance paid or payable to Landlord on account of such casualty, or if Landlord's mortgagee or the lessor under a ground or underlying lease shall require that any insurance proceeds from a casualty loss be paid to it, and if Landlord terminates all of the other leases, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Tenant not later than 120 days after the date of the casualty or other occurrence.

6. Tenant Insurance Representations to Landlord Parties.

a. Minimum Requirements. It is expressly understood and agreed that the insurance coverages required herein (a) represent Landlord Parties' minimum requirements and are not to be construed to void or limit the Tenant's indemnity obligations as contained in this Lease nor represent in any manner a determination of the insurance coverages the Tenant should or should not maintain for its own protection; and (b) are being, or have been, obtained by the Tenant in support of the Tenant's liability and indemnity obligations under this Lease. Irrespective of the requirements as to insurance to be carried as provided for herein, the insolvency, bankruptcy or failure of any insurance company carrying insurance of the Tenant, or the failure of any insurance company to pay claims accruing, shall not be held to affect, negate or waive any of the provisions of this Lease.

b. Defaults. Failure to obtain and maintain the required insurance shall constitute a material breach of, and default under, this Lease. If the Tenant shall fail to remedy such breach within five business days after notice by the Landlord, the Tenant will be liable for any and all costs, liabilities, damages and penalties resulting to the Landlord Parties from such breach, unless a written waiver of the specific insurance requirement is provided to the Tenant by the Landlord. In the event of any failure by the Tenant to comply with the provisions of this Lease, the Landlord may, without in any way compromising or waiving any right or remedy at law or in equity, on notice to the Tenant, purchase such insurance, at the Tenant's expense, provided that the Landlord shall have no obligation to do so and if the Landlord shall do so, the Tenant shall not be relieved of or excused from the obligation to obtain and maintain such insurance amounts and coverages.

a. Subtenant Coverage. If Tenant is permitted by the Lease to sublease any space, insurance similar to that required of the Tenant shall be provided by all subtenants (or provided by the Tenant on behalf of subtenants) to cover operations performed under any sublease agreement. The Tenant shall be held responsible for any modification in these insurance requirements as they apply to subtenants. The Tenant shall maintain certificates of insurance from all subtenants containing provisions similar to those listed herein (modified to recognize that the certificate is from subtenants) enumerating, among other things, the waivers of subrogation, additional insured status, and primary liability as required herein, and make them available to the Landlord upon request.

b. Subtenant's Waiver of Recovery; Subtenant's Waiver of Subrogation. Tenant is fully responsible for loss and damage to its property on the site, including tools and equipment, and shall take necessary precautions to prevent damage to or vandalism, theft, burglary, pilferage and unexplained disappearance of property. Any insurance covering the Tenant's or its subtenant's property shall be the Tenant's and its subtenant's sole and complete means or recovery for any such loss. To the extent any loss is not covered by said insurance or subject to any deductible or co-insurance, the Tenant shall not be reimbursed for same. Should the Tenant or its subtenants choose to self-insure this risk, it is expressly agreed that the Tenant hereby waives, and shall cause its subtenants to waive, any claim for damage or loss to said property in favor of the Landlord Parties.

8. Use of the Landlord's Property.

Tenant, its agents, employees, subtenants or suppliers shall use the Landlord's property only with express written permission of the Landlord's designated representative and in accordance with the Landlord's terms and conditions for such use. As noted in Section 2.1.4, some phases of the Work may be ready for construction before it is appropriate to arrive at an overall Guaranteed Maximum Price for the entire Project. If the Owner elects to proceed with any packages of the Work before the parties arrive at an overall Guaranteed Maximum Price, the Construction Manager shall develop Guaranteed Maximum Price proposals for any phases of the Work identified by the Owner.

NEW: § 2.2.10.1 Work Authorization Amendments. Until a Guaranteed Maximum Price for the entire Project has been established and accepted by the Owner, the Construction Manager and Owner agree to use the Work Authorization Amendment in a mutually acceptable format to authorize work to begin based on a specified scope and a specified "not to exceed" price. The price, Contract Time, scope of Work and other terms identified in each previously approved Work Authorization Amendment will be included in the Guaranteed Maximum Price Amendment for the entire Project at the time the Contract Documents are sufficiently complete to establish the overall Guaranteed Maximum Price ("GMP"), subject to any limitation on the Construction Manager's contingency as provided in Section 2.2.4 above. Prior to the Owner's acceptance of the Guaranteed Maximum Price for the entire Project, Construction Manager shall not incur any cost to be reimbursed as part of the Cost of the Work for Construction Phase services, except as the Owner may specifically authorize in an executed Work Authorization Amendment as required herein.

NEW: § 2.2.10.2 Aggregating Approved Proposals into the GMP Amendment. Except as otherwise agreed by Owner and Construction Manager, when a Guaranteed Maximum Price proposal for any portion of the Work is agreed upon by the parties pursuant to a Work Authorization Amendment, the Guaranteed Maximum Price amounts, including any of the Construction Manager's General Conditions (if segregated from the other Cost of the Work), for those portions which have been previously approved by the Owner shall be combined and shall be used to develop the overall Guaranteed Maximum Price proposal for the entire Project, subject to any limitation on the Construction Manager's contingency as provided in Section 2.2.4 above, and all separate Work Authorization Amendments previously agreed to by the parties shall be of no further force and effect. Notwithstanding any provision of the Contract Documents to the contrary, each Work Authorization Amendment and the final GMP Amendment shall be cumulative, incorporating and building upon the price, scope and other terms of each preceding Amendment, such that there shall at no time be more than one GMP and Contract Time for the Work of this Contract.

NEW: § 2.2.11 Milestones. Except to the extent that Owner and Construction Manager agree otherwise in a Work Authorization Amendment or Guaranteed Maximum Price Amendment, the Work shall be substantially completed as follows, as such Contract Time may be amended from time to time in accordance with the Contract Documents:

Milestones	Substantial Completion Dates (From Commencement of the Construction Phase)
Building Dry-In (“MS 1”)	On or before 359 days from commencement
TCO (including Fire, Life and Safety inspections) for the	On or before 433 days from commencement

Garage, Lobby and Floors 7-9 (“MS 2”)
TCO (including Fire, Life and Safety inspections) for Floors 1 and 10-13 (“MS 3”)	On or before 472 days from commencement
Substantial Completion of the entire Work	On or before 487 days from commencement

The Guaranteed Maximum Price Proposal shall include an Add/Alternate of $244,233.24 (which includes a $50,000.00 allowance for Subcontractor production loss and premium cost, such production loss and premium to be verified by Subcontractors once under contract to perform the Work) to reduce the overall Contract Time from 487 days to 454 days from the commencement of the Construction Phase. If this Add/Alternate is not accepted prior to the parties’ execution of the Guaranteed Maximum Price Amendment and included in the Guaranteed Maximum Price at that time, it shall be deemed rejected. In the event Owner accepts this Add/Alternate prior to execution of the Guaranteed Maximum Price Amendment, the above-referenced Substantial Completion Dates shall be adjusted accordingly.

NEW: § 2.3.3.2 Timely Completion. Time is the essence of this Agreement. The Construction Manager shall diligently prosecute the Work and achieve Substantial Completion of the Work within the Contract Time requirements set forth in the applicable Work Authorization Amendment or GMP Amendment (as the case may be), subject to adjustments as provided in the Contract Documents. After Substantial Completion, the Construction Manager shall diligently continue to prosecute the Work to final completion and shall achieve final completion of the punch list within 30 days of Substantial Completion and final completion of all other requirements of the Contract Documents within 60 days of Substantial Completion, subject to adjustments as provided in the Contract Documents.

NEW: § 2.3.3.3 Identification of Critical Milestones. Owner retains the right to identify specific areas for early Substantial Completion sufficient to allow for installation of Owner's equipment, phased use or partial occupancy of the facility, or providing access to tenants' construction managers for tenant finish-out. The parties acknowledge that a Work Authorization Amendment or Modification of the Agreement may create milestones requiring certain phases or scopes of work to be substantially performed or completed at certain specified times. Collectively, the times required for early Substantial Completion and the milestones described above are referred to in the Contract Documents as "Critical Milestones". The Critical Milestones made a part of the Agreement are critical elements of the Contract Time requirements under the Agreement and are "of the essence" of the Agreement.

NEW: § 2.3.3.4 Owner's Modification of Milestones. The Owner reserves the right to modify or revise the Critical Milestones and any agreed construction schedule by written notice to Construction Manager. In the event that Construction Manager intends to request an increase in the Contract Sum or Contract Time as a result of such modification or revision of the Critical Milestones or the construction schedule, the Construction Manger shall comply with the notice requirements set forth in Section 15.1.2 of A201-2007.

NEW: § 2.3.3.5 Recovery of Contractor's Schedule. In the event Construction Manager shall fall behind schedule for any reason which does not justify an extension under Section 8.3 of A201-2007 of the Substantial Completion Date, Construction Manager shall, within 10 days after written request of Owner, develop and deliver a recovery plan to the Owner with a recovery schedule and a program describing the additional manpower, overtime, material expediting, re-sequencing of the Work and other steps Construction Manager shall meet the requirements of the Contract with regard to the Contract Time. Construction Manager shall not be entitled to compensation from the Owner or any increase in the Contract Sum for the schedule recovery efforts, except as to causes of delay for which a time extension is allowed under Section 8.3 of A201-2007. No approval or consent by the Owner or any plan for re-sequencing or acceleration of the Work submitted by Construction Manager pursuant to this Section shall constitute a waiver by Owner of any damages or losses which Owner may suffer by reason of such re-sequencing or the failure of the Construction Manager to meet the Substantial Completion Date.

NEW: § 2.3.3.5.1 Owner Directed Acceleration. Owner shall additionally be entitled to direct the acceleration or re-sequencing of the Work in order to achieve completion prior to the required date for Substantial Completion, and Construction Manager shall be reimbursed for all additional costs actually incurred in respect thereto plus Construction Manager’s Fee, and Construction Manager shall be entitled to an increase adjustment to the GMP therefor. Before proceeding with any such Owner-directed acceleration plan under this subsection, the Construction Manager shall have received a Change Order equitably adjusting the GMP in accordance with this Section 2.3.3.5.1.

NEW: § 2.3.3.5.2 Simultaneously Caused Delays. Notwithstanding any provision of the Contract Documents to the contrary, to the extent the Work is simultaneously delayed by a cause of delay for which Construction Manager is responsible and a cause of delay for which a time extension is allowed under Section 8.3 of the A201-2007, Construction Manager’s sole remedy will be an extension of the Contract Time.

NEW: §2.3.3.6 Adverse Weather Days. The Substantial Completion Dates set forth in Section 2.2.11 hereof anticipate that the Work will be delayed by the following number of days each month due to adverse weather and/or resulting site conditions:

JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
4	4	4	4	6	4	3	3	4	4	3	4

Work shall be considered delayed due to adverse weather and/or resulting site conditions only if Construction Manager is prevented from performing critical path activities for 50% or more of a day on which Construction Manager had scheduled to perform Work. Construction Manager will record on a daily basis whether its job progress has been materially affected by such conditions or resulting site conditions. Any such day lost due to adverse weather conditions or resulting site conditions shall, if reasonably possible, be made up by Construction Manager performing work on the ensuing Saturday or by extended hours during that week, and treating such as a work day for the purpose of complying with and meeting Construction Manager’s construction schedule, it being understood that no application for extension of time will be made unless the critical path of the Project is affected. The Construction Manager will provide written explanation and CPM schedule evidencing such impact has occurred. Construction Manager will notify Owner of any such delay in writing, and on a monthly basis submit a report to the Owner substantiating any days claimed to have been lost, over and above those allotted for in in this Section 2.3.3.6, due to adverse weather conditions and resulting site conditions. Each month, the parties shall execute a Change Order equitably adjusting the Contract Time for the delay.

NEW: § 2.3.3.7 Liquidated Damages. The Construction Manager acknowledges and agrees that, if the Construction Manager fails to achieve Substantial Completion of a Milestone or the entire Work in accordance Section 2.2.11, as such dates may be amended from time to time in accordance with the Contract Documents, the Owner will sustain extensive damages and serious loss as a result of such failure. The exact amount of such damages will be difficult to ascertain. Therefore, the Owner and Construction Manager agree that, if the Construction Manager shall neglect, fail or refuse to achieve Substantial Completion of a Milestone or the entire Work by the date required by the Contract Documents for Substantial Completion of such Milestone or the entire Work, subject to adjustments in the Contract Time as provided in the Contract Documents, then the Construction Manager (and the Construction Manager's surety in the case of default) agrees to pay to the Owner as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty or forfeiture, the sum(s) set forth in the table below per calendar day for each day of such delay, subject to the limitations and potential reductions set forth in this Section 2.3.3.7. Such liquidated damages are hereby agreed to be a reasonable pre-estimate of damages the Owner will incur as a result of delayed completion of the Work. The Owner may deduct liquidated damages described in this Subsection from any unpaid amounts then or thereafter due the Construction Manager under this Agreement. Any liquidated damages not so deducted from any unpaid amounts due the Construction Manager shall be payable to the Owner at the demand of the Owner, together with interest from the date of the demand at a rate equal to the highest lawful rate of interest payable by the Construction Manager. The liquidated damages established in this Section 2.3.3.7 shall be the Construction Manager’s sole liability for delay in achieving Substantial Completion of the Work by the date required by the Contract Documents. In no event shall Construction Manager be liable for aggregate liquidated damages in excess of $2,000,000.

Milestone	Liquidated Damages
MS 1	$10,000 per day
MS 2	$10,000 per day
MS 3	$5,000 per day
Substantial Completion of the Entire Work	$3,000 per day

Notwithstanding any provision of the Contract Documents to the contrary, in the event multiple Milestones are subject to an unexcused delay, the Construction Manager shall only be assessed liquidated damages in connection with the Milestone for which the highest total liquidated damages are owed. For example, if MS 1 is delayed by 6 days and MS 2 is delayed by 5 days, Construction Manager shall be assessed $60,000 in liquidated damages (i.e. 6 days x $10,000). MS 1, MS 2 and MS 3 shall have the meanings assigned to them in Section 2.2.11 herein.

NEW: § 2.2.3.8 Discretionary Bonus. Owner may, in its sole and absolute discretion, award a bonus not to exceed $240,000 (“Discretionary Bonus”) based on the performance of Construction Manager and others in connection with the Project. Owner’s decision to award such bonus shall be based 50% on the degree to which the Work was substantially completed ahead of schedule, and 50% on following criteria:

- Collaboration and cooperative partnership between Construction Manager, Subcontractors, Owner and the Owner’s design team;
- Presentation of problems or issues with solutions in mind;
- Accurate and timely submission of change order pricing with appropriate breakdowns; and
- Timely submission of other documentation.

The Owner may pay 10% of any Discretionary Bonus to its Architect, and the balance of any such Discretionary Bonus shall be paid to Construction Manager. Construction Manager shall distribute to its “Key Subcontractors” a total of 50% of any Discretionary Bonus paid to Construction Manager (“Key Subcontractor Discretionary Bonus”). The term “Key Subcontractors” refers to those Subcontractors performing the following scope(s) of Work: concrete, structural steel, pre-cast, metal studs, drywall, curtain-wall, mechanical, plumbing and electrical. COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE FORM

Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage. Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured shown in the Declarations, and any other person or organization qualifying as a Named Insured under this policy. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the company providing this insurance.

The word "insured" means any person or organization qualifying as such under Section II - Who Is An Insured.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to Section V -Definitions.

SECTION I - COVERAGES

1. Insuring Agreement

a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any "occurrence" and settle any claim or "suit" that may result. But:

- (1) The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Section III - Limits Of Insurance; and
- (2) Our right and duty to defend ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under Coverages A or

B or medical expenses under Coverage C.

No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services is covered unless explicitly provided for under Supplementary Payments - Coverages A and B.

b. This insurance applies to "bodily injury" and "property damage" only if:

(1) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" is caused by an "occurrence" that takes place in the "coverage territory";

(2) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs during the policy period; and

(3) Prior to the policy period, no insured listed under Paragraph 1. of Section II - Who Is An Insured and no "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim, knew that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" had occurred, in whole or in part. If such a listed insured or authorized "employee" knew, prior to the policy period, that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurred, then any continuation, change or resumption of such "bodily injury" or "property damage" during or after the policy period will be deemed to have been known prior to the policy period.

c. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" which occurs during the policy period and was not, prior to the policy period, known to have occurred by any insured listed under Paragraph 1. of Section II - Who Is An Insured or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim, includes any continuation, change or resumption of that "bodily injury" or "property damage" after the end of the policy period.

- d. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" will be deemed to have been known to have occurred at the earliest time when any insured listed under Paragraph 1. of Section II - Who Is An Insured or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim:

- (1) Reports all, or any part, of the "bodily injury" or "property damage" to us or any other insurer;
- (2) Receives a written or verbal demand or claim for damages because of the "bodily injury" or "property damage"; or
- (3) Becomes aware by any other means that "bodily injury" or "property damage" has occurred or has begun to occur.

- e. Damages because of "bodily injury" include damages claimed by any person or organization for care, loss of services or death resulting at any time from the "bodily injury".

2. Exclusions

This insurance does not apply to:

a. Expected Or Intended Injury

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. This exclusion does not apply to "bodily injury" resulting from the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property.

b. Contractual Liability ²⁰⁰

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" for which the insured is obligated to pay damages by reason of the assumption of liability in a contract or agreement. This exclusion does not apply to liability for damages:

- (1) That the insured would have in the absence of the contract or agreement; or
- (2) Assumed in a contract or agreement that is an "insured contract", provided the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs subsequent to the execution of the contract or agreement. Solely for the purposes of liability assumed in an "insured contract", reasonable attorneys' fees and necessary litigation expenses incurred by or for a party other than an insured are deemed to be damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage", provided:

- (a) Liability to such party for, or for the cost of, that party's defense has also been assumed in the same "insured contract" and
- (b) Such attorneys' fees and litigation expenses are for defense of that party against a civil or alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which damages to which this insurance applies are alleged.

c. Liquor Liability ²⁰¹

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" for which any insured may be held liable by reason of:

- (1) Causing or contributing to the intoxication of any person;
- (2) The furnishing of alcoholic beverages to a person under the legal drinking age or under the influence of alcohol; or
- (3) Any statute, ordinance or regulation relating to the sale, gift, distribution or use of alcoholic beverages.

This exclusion applies even if the claims against any insured allege negligence or other wrongdoing in:

- (a) The supervision, hiring, employment, training or monitoring of others by that insured; or
- (b) Providing or failing to provide transportation with respect to any person that may be under the influence of alcohol; if the "occurrence" which caused the "bodily injury" or "property damage", involved that which is described in Paragraph (1), (2) or (3) above.

However, this exclusion applies only if you are in the business of manufacturing, distributing, selling, serving or furnishing alcoholic beverages. For the purposes of this exclusion, permitting a person to bring alcoholic beverages on your premises, for consumption on your premises, whether or not a fee is charged or a license is required for such activity, is not by itself considered the business of selling, serving or furnishing alcoholic beverages.

d. Workers' Compensation And Similar Laws²⁰²

Any obligation of the insured under a workers' compensation, disability benefits or unemployment compensation law or any similar law.

e. Employer's Liability

"Bodily injury" to:

- (2) The spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that "employee" as a consequence of Paragraph (1) above.

This exclusion applies whether the insured may be liable as an employer or in any other capacity and to any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury.

This exclusion does not apply to liability assumed by the insured under an "insured contract".

- (ii) "Bodily injury" or "property damage" for which you may be held liable, if you are a contractor and the owner or lessee of such premises, site or location has been added to your policy as an additional insured with respect to your ongoing operations performed for that additional insured at that premises, site or location and such premises, site or location is not and never was owned or occupied by, or rented or loaned to, any insured, other than that additional insured; or

(iii) "Bodily injury" or "property damage" arising out of heat, smoke or fumes from a "hostile fire"

This exception does not apply if the "bodily injury" or "property damage" arises out of the intentional discharge, dispersal or release of the fuels, lubricants or other operating fluids, or if such fuels, lubricants or other operating fluids are brought on or to the premises, site or location with the intent that they be discharged, dispersed or released as part of the operations being performed by such insured, contractor or subcontractor;
- (ii) "Bodily injury" or "property damage" sustained within a building and caused by the release of gases, fumes or vapors from materials brought into that building in connection with operations being performed by you or on your behalf by a contractor or subcontractor; or

- (e) At or from any premises, site or location on which any insured or any contractors or subcontractors working directly or indirectly on any insured's behalf are performing operations if the operations are to test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of, "pollutants".

(2) Any loss, cost or expense arising out of any:

- (a) Request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement that any insured or others test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of, "pollutants" or monitoring of others by that insured, if the "occurrence" which caused the "bodily injury" or "property damage" involved the ownership, maintenance, use or entrustment to others of any aircraft, "auto" or watercraft that is owned or operated by or rented or loaned to any insured.

1. We will pay, with respect to any claim we investigate or settle, or any "suit" against an insured we defend:

- a. All expenses we incur.
- b. Up to $250 for cost of bail bonds required because of accidents or traffic law violations arising out of the use of any vehicle to which the Bodily Injury Liability Coverage applies. We do not have to furnish these bonds.
- c. The cost of bonds to release attachments, but only for bond amounts within the applicable limit of insurance. We do not have to furnish these bonds.
- d. All reasonable expenses incurred by the insured at our request to assist us in the investigation or defense of the claim or "suit", including actual loss of earnings up to $250 a day because of time off from work.
- e. All court costs taxed against the insured in the "suit". However, these payments do not include attorneys' fees or attorneys' expenses taxed against the insured.
- f. Prejudgment interest awarded against the insured on that part of the judgment we pay. If we make an offer to pay the applicable limit of insurance, we will not pay any prejudgment interest based on that period of time after the offer.
- g. All interest on the full amount of any judgment that accrues after entry of the judgment and before we have paid, offered to pay, or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within the applicable limit of insurance.

These payments will not reduce the limits of insurance.

2. If we defend an insured against a "suit" and an indemnitee of the insured is also named as a party to the "suit", we will defend that indemnitee if all of the following conditions are met:

- a. The "suit" against the indemnitee seeks damages for which the insured has assumed the liability of the indemnitee in a contract or agreement that is an "insured contract";
- b. This insurance applies to such liability assumed by the insured;
- c. The obligation to defend, or the cost of the defense of, that indemnitee, has also been assumed by the insured in the same "insured contract";
- d. The allegations in the "suit" and the information we know about the "occurrence" are such that no conflict appears to exist between the interests of the insured and the interests of the indemnitee;
- e. The indemnitee and the insured ask us to conduct and control the defense of that indemnitee against such "suit" and agree that we can assign the same counsel to defend the insured and the indemnitee; and
- f. The indemnitee:
 - (1) Agrees in writing to:
 - (a) Cooperate with us in the investigation, settlement or defense of the "suit"
 - (b) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the "suit"
 - (c) Notify any other insurer whose coverage is available to the indemnitee; and
 - (d) Cooperate with us with respect to coordinating other applicable insurance available to the indemnitee; and
 - (2) Provides us with written authorization to:
 - (a) Obtain records and other information related to the "suit" and
 - (b) Conduct and control the defense of the indemnitee in such "suit".

So long as the above conditions are met, attorneys' fees incurred by us in the defense of that indemnitee, necessary litigation expenses incurred by us and necessary litigation expenses incurred by the indemnitee at our request will be paid as Supplementary Payments. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 2.b.(2) of Section I - Coverage A - Bodily Injury And Property Damage Liability, such payments will not be deemed to be damages for "bodily injury" and "property damage" and will not reduce the limits of insurance.

Our obligation to defend an insured's indemnitee and to pay for attorneys' fees and necessary litigation expenses as Supplementary Payments ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements or the conditions set forth above, or the terms of the agreement described in Paragraph f. above, are no longer met.

SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED ²⁰⁸

1. If you are designated in the Declarations as:
 - a. An individual, you and your spouse are insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of a business of which you are the sole owner.
 - b. A partnership or joint venture, you are an insured. Your members, your partners, and their spouses are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business.
 - c. A limited liability company, you are an insured. Your members are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business. Your managers are insureds, but only with respect to their duties as your managers.
 - d. An organization other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company, you are an insured. Your "executive officers" and directors are insureds, but only with respect to their duties as your officers or directors. Your stockholders are also insureds, but only with respect to their liability as stockholders.
 - e. A trust, you are an insured. Your trustees are also insureds, but only with respect to their duties as trustees.
2. Each of the following is also an insured:

- a. Your "volunteer workers" only while performing duties related to the conduct of your business, or your "employees", other than either your "executive officers" (if you are an organization other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company) or your managers (if you are a limited liability company), but only for acts within the scope of their employment by you or while performing duties related to the conduct of your business. However, none of these "employees" or "volunteer workers" are insureds for:

(1) "Bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury":

(a) To you, to your partners or members (if you are a partnership or joint venture), to your members (if you are a limited liability company), to a co-"employee" while in the course of his or her employment or performing duties related to the conduct of your business, or to your other "volunteer workers" while performing duties related to the conduct of your business;

(b) To the spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that co-"employee" or "volunteer worker" as a consequence of Paragraph (1)(a) above;

- b. Any person (other than your "employee" or "volunteer worker"), or any organization while acting as your real estate manager.

 - (1) With respect to liability arising out of the maintenance or use of that property; and
 - (2) Until your legal representative has been appointed.

3. Any organization you newly acquire or form, other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company, and over which you maintain ownership or majority interest, will qualify as a Named Insured if there is no other similar insurance available to that organization. However:
- a. Coverage under this provision is afforded only until the 90th day after you acquire or form the organization or the end of the policy period, whichever is earlier;
 - b. Coverage A does not apply to "bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurred before you acquired or formed the organization; and
 - c. Coverage B does not apply to "personal and advertising injury" arising out of an offense committed before you acquired or formed the organization.

No person or organization is an insured with respect to the conduct of any current or past partnership, joint venture or limited liability company that is not shown as a Named Insured in the Declarations.

SECTION III - LIMITS OF INSURANCE

1. The Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations and the rules below fix the most we will pay regardless of the number of:
 - a. Insureds;
 - b. Claims made or "suits" brought; or

- c. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing "suits".
2. The General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of:
 - a. Medical expenses under Coverage C;
 - b. Damages under Coverage A, except damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard" and
 - c. Damages under Coverage B.
 3. The Products-Completed Operations Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage A for damages because of "bodily injury" and "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard".
 4. Subject to Paragraph 2. above, the Personal And Advertising Injury Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage B for the sum of all damages because of all "personal and advertising injury" sustained by any one person or organization.
 5. Subject to Paragraph 2. or 3. above, whichever applies, the Each Occurrence Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of:
 - a. Damages under Coverage A; and
 - b. Medical expenses under Coverage C because of all "bodily injury" and "property damage" arising out of any one "occurrence".
 6. Subject to Paragraph 5. above, the Damage To Premises Rented To You Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage A for damages because of "property damage" to any one premises, while rented to you, or in the case of damage by fire, while rented to you or temporarily occupied by you with permission of the owner.
 7. Subject to Paragraph 5. above, the Medical Expense Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage C for all medical expenses because of "bodily injury" sustained by any one person.

The Limits of Insurance of this Coverage Part apply separately to each consecutive annual period and to any remaining period of less than 12 months, starting with the beginning of the period shown in the Declarations, unless the policy period is extended after issuance for an additional period of less than 12 months. In that case, the additional period will be deemed part of the last preceding period for purposes of determining the Limits of Insurance.

SECTION IV - COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITIONS

1. Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate will not relieve us of our obligations under this Coverage Part.

2. Duties In The Event Of Occurrence, Offense, Claim Or Suit

a. You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an "occurrence" or an offense which may result in a claim. To the extent possible, notice should include:

- (1) How, when and where the "occurrence" or offense took place;
- (2) The names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses; and
- (3) The nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the "occurrence" or offense.

b. If a claim is made or "suit" is brought against any insured, you must:

- (1) Immediately record the specifics of the claim or "suit" and the date received; and
- (2) Notify us as soon as practicable.

You must see to it that we receive written notice of the claim or "suit" as soon as practicable.

c. You and any other involved insured must:

- (1) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the claim or "suit"
- (2) Authorize us to obtain records and other information;
- (3) Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim or defense against the "suit" and
- (4) Assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization which may be liable to the insured because of injury or damage to which this insurance may also apply.

d. No insured will, except at that insured's own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense, other than for first aid, without our consent.

3. Legal Action Against Us

No person or organization has a right under this Coverage Part:

- a. To join us as a party or otherwise bring us into a "suit" asking for damages from an insured; or
- b. To sue us on this Coverage Part unless all of its terms have been fully complied with.

A person or organization may sue us to recover on an agreed settlement or on a final judgment against an insured; but we will not be liable for damages that are not payable under the terms of this Coverage Part or that are in excess of the applicable limit of insurance. An agreed settlement means a settlement and release of liability signed by us, the insured and the claimant or the claimant's legal representative.

4. Other Insurance ²⁰⁹

If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the insured for a loss we cover under Coverages A or B of this Coverage Part, our obligations are limited as follows:

a. Primary Insurance

This insurance is primary except when Paragraph b. below applies. If this insurance is primary, our obligations are not affected unless any of the other insurance is also primary. Then, we will share with all that other insurance by the method described in Paragraph c. below.

b. Excess Insurance

(1) This insurance is excess over:

- (a) Any of the other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis:
 - (i) That is Fire, Extended Coverage, Builder's Risk, Installation Risk or similar coverage for "your work"
 - (ii) That is Fire insurance for premises rented to you or temporarily occupied by you with permission of the owner;

(iii) That is insurance purchased by you to cover your liability as a tenant for "property damage" to premises rented to you or temporarily occupied by you with permission of the owner; or

(iv) If the loss arises out of the maintenance or use of aircraft, "autos" or watercraft to the extent not subject to Exclusion g. of Section I - Coverage A - Bodily Injury And Property Damage Liability.

(b) Any other primary insurance available to you covering liability for damages arising out of the premises or operations, or the products and completed operations, for which you have been added as an additional insured.²¹⁰

(2) When this insurance is excess, we will have no duty under Coverages A or B to defend the insured against any "suit" if any other insurer has a duty to defend the insured against that "suit". If no other insurer defends, we will undertake to do so, but we will be entitled to the insured's rights against all those other insurers.

(3) When this insurance is excess over other insurance, we will pay only our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of:

(a) The total amount that all such other insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this insurance; and

(b) The total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

(4) We will share the remaining loss, if any, with any other insurance that is not described in this Excess Insurance provision and was not bought specifically to apply in excess of the Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations of this Coverage Part.

c. Method Of Sharing

If all of the other insurance permits contribution by equal shares, we will follow this method also. Under this approach each insurer contributes equal amounts until it has paid its applicable limit of insurance or none of the loss remains, whichever comes first.

If any of the other insurance does not permit contribution by equal shares, we will contribute by limits. Under this method, each insurer's share is based on the ratio of its applicable limit of insurance to the total applicable limits of insurance of all insurers.

5. Premium Audit

a. We will compute all premiums for this Coverage Part in accordance with our rules and rates.

b. Premium shown in this Coverage Part as advance premium is a deposit premium only. At the close of each audit period we will compute the earned premium for that period and send notice to the first Named Insured. The due date for audit and retrospective premiums is the date shown as the due date on the bill. If the sum of the advance and audit premiums paid for the policy period is greater than the earned premium, we will return the excess to the first Named Insured.

c. The first Named Insured must keep records of the information we need for premium computation, and send us copies at such times as we may request.

6. Representations

By accepting this policy, you agree:

a. The statements in the Declarations are accurate and complete;

b. Those statements are based upon representations you made to us; and

c. We have issued this policy in reliance upon your representations.

7. Separation Of Insureds²¹¹

Except with respect to the Limits of Insurance, and any rights or duties specifically assigned in this Coverage Part to the first Named Insured, this insurance applies:

- a. As if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured; and
- b. Separately to each insured against whom claim is made or "suit" is brought.

8. Transfer Of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us²¹²

If the insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this Coverage Part, those rights are transferred to us. The insured must do nothing after loss to impair them. At our request, the insured will bring "suit" or transfer those rights to us and help us enforce them.

9. When We Do Not Renew²¹³

If we decide not to renew this Coverage Part, we will mail or deliver to the first Named Insured shown in the Declarations written notice of the nonrenewal not less than 30 days before the expiration date.

If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

THIS ENDORSEMENT CHANGES THE POLICY. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

DESIGNATED LOCATION(S) GENERAL AGGREGATE LIMIT

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE PART

SCHEDULE

Designated Location(s):

Information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

- A. For all sums which the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages caused by "occurrences" under Section I – Coverage A, and for all medical expenses caused by accidents under Section I – Coverage C, which can be attributed only to operations at a single designated "location" shown in the Schedule above:
1. A separate Designated Location General Aggregate Limit applies to each designated "location", and that limit is equal to the amount of the General Aggregate Limit shown in the Declarations.
 2. The Designated Location General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of all damages under Coverage A, except damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard", and for medical expenses under Coverage C regardless of the number of:
 - a. Insureds;
 - b. Claims made or "suits" brought; or
 - c. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing "suits".
 3. Any payments made under Coverage A for damages or under Coverage C for medical expenses shall reduce the Designated Location General Aggregate Limit for that designated "location". Such payments shall not reduce the General Aggregate Limit shown in the Declarations nor shall they reduce any other Designated Location General Aggregate Limit for any other designated "location" shown in the Schedule above.
 4. The limits shown in the Declarations for Each Occurrence, Damage To Premises Rented To You and Medical Expense continue to apply. However, instead of being subject to the General Aggregate Limit shown in the Declarations, such limits will be subject to the applicable Designated Location General Aggregate Limit.
- B. For all sums which the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages caused by "occurrences" under Section I – Coverage A, and for all medical expenses caused by accidents under Section I – Coverage C, which cannot be attributed only to operations at a single designated "location" shown in the Schedule above:

1. Any payments made under Coverage A for damages or under Coverage C for medical expenses shall reduce the amount available under the General Aggregate Limit or the Products-completed Operations Aggregate Limit, whichever is applicable; and
 2. Such payments shall not reduce any Designated Location General Aggregate Limit.
- C. When coverage for liability arising out of the "products-completed operations hazard" is provided, any payments for damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard" will reduce the Products-completed Operations Aggregate Limit, and not reduce the General Aggregate Limit nor the Designated Location General Aggregate Limit.
- D. For the purposes of this endorsement, the Definitions Section is amended by the addition of the following definition:
"Location" means premises involving the same or connecting lots, or premises whose connection is interrupted only by a street, roadway, waterway or right-of-way of a railroad.
- E. The provisions of Section III – Limits Of Insurance not otherwise modified by this endorsement shall continue to apply as stipulated.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to Section H.

Definitions.

A. Coverage

We will pay for direct physical loss of or damage to Covered Property at the premises described in the Declarations caused by or resulting from any Covered Cause of Loss.

1. Covered Property

Covered Property, as used in this Coverage Part, means the type of property described in this section, A.1., and limited in A.2. Property Not Covered, if a Limit Of Insurance is shown in the Declarations for that type of property.

a. Building, meaning the building or structure described in the Declarations, including:

- (1) Completed additions;
- (2) Fixtures, including outdoor fixtures;
- (3) Permanently installed:
 - (a) Machinery; and
 - (b) Equipment;
- (4) Personal property owned by you that is used to maintain or service the building or structure or its premises, including:
 - (a) Fire-extinguishing equipment;
 - (b) Outdoor furniture;
 - (c) Floor coverings; and
 - (d) Appliances used for refrigerating, ventilating, cooking, dishwashing or laundering;

(5) If not covered by other insurance:

(a) Additions under construction, alterations and repairs to the building or structure;

(b) Materials, equipment, supplies and temporary structures, on or within 100 feet of the described premises, used for making additions, alterations or repairs to the building or structure.

b. Your Business Personal Property consists of the following property located in or on the building or structure described in the Declarations or in the open (or in a vehicle) within 100 feet of the building or structure or within 100 feet of the premises described in the Declarations, whichever distance is greater:

- (1) Furniture and fixtures;
- (2) Machinery and equipment;
- (3) "Stock"
- (4) All other personal property owned by you and used in your business;
- (5) Labor, materials or services furnished or arranged by you on personal property of others;

- (6) Your use interest as tenant in improvements and betterments. Improvements and betterments are fixtures, alterations, installations or additions:
 - (a) Made a part of the building or structure you occupy but do not own; and
 - (b) You acquired or made at your expense but cannot legally remove;
- (7) Leased personal property for which you have a contractual responsibility to insure, unless otherwise provided for under Personal Property Of Others.
- c. Personal Property Of Others that is:
 - (1) In your care, custody or control; and
 - (2) Located in or on the building or structure described in the Declarations or in the open (or in a vehicle) within 100 feet of the building or structure or within 100 feet of the premises described in the Declarations, whichever distance is greater.

However, our payment for loss of or damage to personal property of others will only be for the account of the owner of the property.

2. Property Not Covered

Covered Property does not include:

- a. Accounts, bills, currency, food stamps or other evidences of debt, money, notes or securities. Lottery tickets held for sale are not securities;
- b. Animals, unless owned by others and boarded by you, or if owned by you, only as "stock" while inside of buildings;
- c. Automobiles held for sale;
- d. Bridges, roadways, walks, patios or other paved surfaces;
- e. Contraband, or property in the course of illegal transportation or trade;
- f. The cost of excavations, grading, backfilling or filling;
- g. Foundations of buildings, structures, machinery or boilers if their foundations are below:
 - (1) The lowest basement floor; or
 - (2) The surface of the ground, if there is no basement;
- h. Land (including land on which the property is located), water, growing crops or lawns (other than lawns which are part of a vegetated roof);
- i. Personal property while airborne or waterborne;
- j. Bulkheads, pilings, piers, wharves or docks;
- k. Property that is covered under another coverage form of this or any other policy in which it is more specifically described, except for the excess of the amount due (whether you can collect on it or not) from that other insurance;
- l. Retaining walls that are not part of a building;
- m. Underground pipes, flues or drains;
- n. Electronic data, except as provided under the Additional Coverage²⁵⁵, Electronic Data. Electronic data means information, facts or computer programs stored as or on, created or used on, or transmitted to or from computer software (including systems and applications software), on hard or floppy disks, CD-ROMs, tapes, drives, cells, data processing devices or any other repositories of computer software which are used with electronically controlled equipment. The term computer programs, referred to in the foregoing description of electronic data, means a set of related electronic instructions which direct the operations and functions of a computer or device connected to it, which enable the computer or device to receive, process, store, retrieve or send data. This paragraph, n., does not apply to your "stock" of prepackaged software, or to electronic data which is integrated in and operates or controls the building's elevator, lighting, heating, ventilation, air conditioning or security system;

- o. The cost to replace or restore the information on valuable papers and records, including those which exist as electronic data. Valuable papers and records include but are not limited to proprietary information, books of account, deeds, manuscripts, abstracts, drawings and card index systems. Refer to the Coverage Extension for Valuable Papers And Records (Other Than Electronic Data) for limited coverage for valuable papers and records other than those which exist as electronic data;

- p. Vehicles or self-propelled machines (including aircraft or watercraft) that:

- (1) Are licensed for use on public roads; or
- (2) Are operated principally away from the described premises.

This paragraph does not apply to:

- (a) Vehicles or self-propelled machines or autos you manufacture, process or warehouse;
- (b) Vehicles or self-propelled machines, other than autos, you hold for sale;
- (c) Rowboats or canoes out of water at the described premises; or
- (d) Trailers, but only to the extent provided for in the Coverage Extension for Non-owned Detached Trailers; or

- q. The following property while outside of buildings:

- (1) Grain, hay, straw or other crops;
- (2) Fences, radio or television antennas (including satellite dishes) and their lead-in wiring, masts or towers, trees, shrubs or plants (other than trees, shrubs or plants which are "stock" or are part of a vegetated roof), all except as provided in the Coverage Extensions.

3. Covered Causes Of Loss²⁵⁶

See applicable Causes Of Loss form as shown in the Declarations.

4. Additional Coverages

a. Debris Removal²⁵⁷

- (1) Subject to Paragraphs (2), (3) and (4), we will pay your expense to remove debris of Covered Property and other debris that is on the described premises, when such debris is caused by or results from a Covered Cause of Loss that occurs during the policy period. The expenses will be paid only if they are reported to us in writing within 180 days of the date of direct physical loss or damage.

- (2) Debris Removal does not apply to costs to:

- (a) Remove debris of property of yours that is not insured under this policy, or property in your possession that is not Covered Property;

- (b) Remove debris of property owned by or leased to the landlord of the building where your described premises are located, unless you have a contractual responsibility to insure such property and it is insured under this policy;

- (c) Remove any property that is Property Not Covered, including property addressed under the Outdoor Property Coverage Extension;

- (d) Remove property of others of a type that would not be Covered Property under this Coverage Form;

- (e) Remove deposits of mud or earth from the grounds of the described premises;
- (f) Extract "pollutants" from land or water; or
- (g) Remove, restore or replace polluted land or water.

(3) Subject to the exceptions in Paragraph (4), the following provisions apply:

(a) The most we will pay for the total of direct physical loss or damage plus debris removal expense is the Limit of Insurance applicable to the Covered Property that has sustained loss or damage.

(b) Subject to (a) above, the amount we will pay for debris removal expense is limited to 25% of the sum of the deductible plus the amount that we pay for direct physical loss or damage to the Covered Property that has sustained loss or damage. However, if no Covered Property has sustained direct physical loss or damage, the most we will pay for removal of debris of other property (if such removal is covered under this Additional Coverage) is $5,000 at each location.

(4) We will pay up to an additional $25,000 for debris removal expense, for each location, in any one occurrence of physical loss or damage to Covered Property, if one or both of the following circumstances apply:

(a) The total of the actual debris removal expense plus the amount we pay for direct physical loss or damage exceeds the Limit of Insurance on the Covered Property that has sustained loss or damage.

(b) The actual debris removal expense exceeds 25% of the sum of the deductible plus the amount that we pay for direct physical loss or damage to the Covered Property that has sustained loss or damage.

Therefore, if (4)(a) and/or (4)(b) applies, our total payment for direct physical loss or damage and debris removal expense may reach but will never exceed the Limit of Insurance on the Covered Property that has sustained loss or damage, plus $25,000.

(5) Examples

The following examples assume that there is no Coinsurance penalty.

EXAMPLE 1

Limit of Insurance:	$ 90,000
Amount of Deductible:	$ 500
Amount of Loss:	$ 50,000
Amount of Loss Payable:	$ 49,500
	($50,000 - $500)
Debris Removal Expense:	$ 10,000
Debris Removal Expense Payable:	$ 10,000
	($10,000 is 20% of $50,000.)

The debris removal expense is less than 25% of the sum of the loss payable plus the deductible. The sum of the loss payable and the debris removal expense ($49,500 + $10,000 = $59,500) is less than the Limit of Insurance. Therefore, the full amount of debris removal expense is payable in accordance with the terms of Paragraph (3).

EXAMPLE 2

Limit of Insurance:	$ 90,000
Amount of Deductible:	$ 500
Amount of Loss:	$ 80,000
Amount of Loss Payable:	$ 79,500
	($80,000 - $500)
Debris Removal Expense:	$ 40,000
Debris Removal Expense Payable
Basic Amount:	$ 10,500
Additional Amount:	$ 25,000

The basic amount payable for debris removal expense under the terms of Paragraph (3) is calculated as follows: $80,000 ($79,500 + $500) x .25 = $20,000, capped at $10,500. The cap applies because the sum of the loss payable ($79,500) and the basic amount payable for debris removal expense ($10,500) cannot exceed the Limit of Insurance ($90,000).

The additional amount payable for debris removal expense is provided in accordance with the terms of Paragraph (4), because the debris removal expense ($40,000) exceeds 25% of the loss payable plus the deductible ($40,000 is 50% of $80,000), and because the sum of the loss payable and debris removal expense ($79,500 + $40,000 = $119,500) would exceed the Limit of Insurance ($90,000). The additional amount of covered debris removal expense is $25,000, the maximum payable under Paragraph (4). Thus, the total payable for debris removal expense in this example is $35,500; $4,500 of the debris removal expense is not covered.

b. Preservation Of Property

If it is necessary to move Covered Property from the described premises to preserve it from loss or damage by a Covered Cause of Loss, we will pay for any direct physical loss or damage to that property:

- (1) While it is being moved or while temporarily stored at another location; and
- (2) Only if the loss or damage occurs within 30 days after the property is first moved.

c. Fire Department Service Charge

When the fire department is called to save or protect Covered Property from a Covered Cause of Loss, we will pay up to $1,000 for service at each premises described in the Declarations, unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations. Such limit is the most we will pay regardless of the number of responding fire departments or fire units, and regardless of the number or type of services performed. This Additional Coverage applies to your liability for fire department service charges:

- (1) Assumed by contract or agreement prior to loss; or
- (2) Required by local ordinance.

No Deductible applies to this Additional Coverage.

d. Pollutant Clean-up And Removal

We will pay your expense to extract "pollutants" from land or water at the described premises if the discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of the "pollutants" is caused by or results from a Covered Cause of Loss that occurs during the policy period. The expenses will be paid only if they are reported to us in writing within 180 days of the date on which the Covered Cause of Loss occurs. This Additional Coverage does not apply to costs to test for, monitor or assess the existence, concentration or effects of "pollutants". But we will pay for testing which is performed in the course of extracting the "pollutants" from the land or water. The most we will pay under this Additional Coverage for each described premises is $10,000 for the sum of all covered expenses arising out of Covered Causes of Loss occurring during each separate 12-month period of this policy.

e. Increased Cost Of Construction

- (1) This Additional Coverage applies only to buildings to which the Replacement Cost Optional Coverage applies.
- (2) In the event of damage by a Covered Cause of Loss to a building that is Covered Property, we will pay the increased costs incurred to comply with the minimum standards of an ordinance or law in the course of repair, rebuilding or replacement of damaged parts of that property, subject to the limitations stated in e.(3) through e.(9) of this Additional Coverage.

(3) The ordinance or law referred to in e.(2) of this Additional Coverage is an ordinance or law that regulates the construction or repair of buildings or establishes zoning or land use requirements at the described premises and is in force at the time of loss.

(4) Under this Additional Coverage, we will not pay any costs due to an ordinance or law that:

(a) You were required to comply with before the loss, even when the building was undamaged; and

(b) You failed to comply with.

(5) Under this Additional Coverage, we will not pay for:

(a) The enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law which requires demolition, repair, replacement, reconstruction, remodeling or remediation of property due to contamination by "pollutants" or due to the presence, growth, proliferation, spread or any activity of "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria; or

(b) Any costs associated with the enforcement of or compliance with an ordinance or law which requires any insured or others to test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of "pollutants", "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria.

(6) The most we will pay under this Additional Coverage, for each described building insured under this Coverage Form, is $10,000 or 5% of the Limit of Insurance applicable to that building, whichever is less. If a damaged building is covered under a blanket Limit of Insurance which applies to more than one building or item of property, then the most we will pay under this Additional Coverage, for that damaged building, is the lesser of $10,000 or 5% times the value of the damaged building as of the time of loss times the applicable Coinsurance percentage.

The amount payable under this Additional Coverage is additional insurance.

(7) With respect to this Additional Coverage:

(a) We will not pay for the Increased Cost of Construction:

(i) Until the property is actually repaired or replaced at the same or another premises; and

(ii) Unless the repair or replacement is made as soon as reasonably possible after the loss or damage, not to exceed two years. We may extend this period in writing during the two years.

(b) If the building is repaired or replaced at the same premises, or if you elect to rebuild at another premises, the most we will pay for the Increased Cost of Construction, subject to the provisions of e.(6) of this Additional Coverage, is the increased cost of construction at the same premises.

(c) If the ordinance or law requires relocation to another premises, the most we will pay for the Increased Cost of Construction, subject to the provisions of e.(6) of this Additional Coverage, is the increased cost of construction at the new premises.

- (8) This Additional Coverage is not subject to the terms of the Ordinance Or Law Exclusion to the extent that such Exclusion would conflict with the provisions of this Additional Coverage.
- (9) The costs addressed in the Loss Payment and Valuation Conditions and the Replacement Cost Optional Coverage, in this Coverage Form, do not include the increased cost attributable to enforcement of or compliance with an ordinance or law. The amount payable under this Additional Coverage, as stated in e.(6) of this Additional Coverage, is not subject to such limitation.

f. Electronic Data ²⁵⁹

- (1) Under this Additional Coverage, electronic data has the meaning described under Property Not Covered, Electronic Data. This Additional Coverage does not apply to your "stock" of prepackaged software, or to electronic data which is integrated in and operates or controls the building's elevator, lighting, heating, ventilation, air conditioning or security system.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Additional Coverage, we will pay for the cost to replace or restore electronic data which has been destroyed or corrupted by a Covered Cause of Loss. To the extent that electronic data is not replaced or restored, the loss will be valued at the cost of replacement of the media on which the electronic data was stored, with blank media of substantially identical type.
- (3) The Covered Causes of Loss applicable to Your Business Personal Property apply to this Additional Coverage, Electronic Data, subject to the following:

- (a) If the Causes Of Loss - Special Form applies, coverage under this Additional Coverage, Electronic Data, is limited to the "specified causes of loss" as defined in that form and Collapse as set forth in that form.
- (b) If the Causes Of Loss - Broad Form applies, coverage under this Additional Coverage, Electronic Data, includes Collapse as set forth in that form.
- (c) If the Causes Of Loss form is endorsed to add a Covered Cause of Loss, the additional Covered Cause of Loss does not apply to the coverage provided under this Additional Coverage, Electronic Data.
- (d) The Covered Causes of Loss include a virus, harmful code or similar instruction introduced into or enacted on a computer system (including electronic data) or a network to which it is connected, designed to damage or destroy any part of the system or disrupt its normal operation. But there is no coverage for loss or damage caused by or resulting from manipulation of a computer system (including electronic data) by any employee, including a temporary or leased employee, or by an entity retained by you or for you to inspect, design, install, modify, maintain, repair or replace that system.
- (4) The most we will pay under this Additional Coverage, Electronic Data, is $2,500 (unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations) for all loss or damage sustained in any one policy year, regardless of the number of occurrences of loss or damage or the number of premises, locations or computer systems involved. If loss payment on the first occurrence does not exhaust this amount, then the balance is available for subsequent loss or damage sustained in but not after that policy year. With respect to an occurrence which begins in one policy year and continues or results in additional loss or damage in a subsequent policy year(s), all loss or damage is deemed to be sustained in the policy year in which the occurrence began.

5. Coverage Extensions

Except as otherwise provided, the following Extensions apply to property located in or on the building described in the Declarations or in the open (or in a vehicle) within 100 feet of the described premises. If a Coinsurance percentage of 80% or more, or a Value Reporting period symbol, is shown in the Declarations, you may extend the insurance provided by this Coverage Part as follows:

a. Newly Acquired Or Constructed Property

(1) Buildings

If this policy covers Building, you may extend that insurance to apply to:

- (a) Your new buildings while being built on the described premises; and
- (b) Buildings you acquire at locations, other than the described premises, intended for:
 - (i) Similar use as the building described in the Declarations; or
 - (ii) Use as a warehouse.

The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $250,000 at each building.

(2) Your Business Personal Property

(a) If this policy covers Your Business Personal Property, you may extend that insurance to apply to:

(i) Business personal property, including such property that you newly acquire, at any location you acquire other than at fairs, trade shows or exhibitions; or

(ii) Business personal property, including such property that you newly acquire, located at your newly constructed or acquired buildings at the location described in the Declarations. The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $100,000 at each building.

(b) This Extension does not apply to:

(i) Personal property of others that is temporarily in your possession in the course of installing or performing work on such property; or

(ii) Personal property of others that is temporarily in your possession in the course of your manufacturing or wholesaling activities.

(3) Period Of Coverage

With respect to insurance provided under this Coverage Extension for Newly Acquired Or Constructed Property, coverage will end when any of the following first occurs:

- (a) This policy expires;
- (b) 30 days expire after you acquire the property or begin construction of that part of the building that would qualify as covered property; or
- (c) You report values to us.

We will charge you additional premium for values reported from the date you acquire the property or begin construction of that part of the building that would qualify as covered property.

b. Personal Effects And Property Of Others

You may extend the insurance that applies to Your Business Personal Property to apply to:

- (1) Personal effects owned by you, your officers, your partners or members, your managers or your employees. This Extension does not apply to loss or damage by theft.
- (2) Personal property of others in your care, custody or control. The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $2,500 at each described premises. Our payment for loss of or damage to personal property of others will only be for the account of the owner of the property.

c. Valuable Papers And Records (Other Than Electronic Data)

- (1) You may extend the insurance that applies to Your Business Personal Property to apply to the cost to replace or restore the lost information on valuable papers and records for which duplicates do not exist. But this Extension does not apply to valuable papers and records which exist as electronic data. Electronic data has the meaning described under Property Not Covered, Electronic Data.
- (2) If the Causes Of Loss - Special Form applies, coverage under this Extension is limited to the "specified causes of loss" as defined in that form and Collapse as set forth in that form.

- (3) If the Causes Of Loss - Broad Form applies, coverage under this Extension includes Collapse as set forth in that form.
- (4) Under this Extension, the most we will pay to replace or restore the lost information is $2,500 at each described premises, unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations. Such amount is additional insurance. We will also pay for the cost of blank material for reproducing the records (whether or not duplicates exist) and (when there is a duplicate) for the cost of labor to transcribe or copy the records. The costs of blank material and labor are subject to the applicable Limit of Insurance on Your Business Personal Property and, therefore, coverage of such costs is not additional insurance.

d. Property Off-premises

- (1) You may extend the insurance provided by this Coverage Form to apply to your Covered Property while it is away from the described premises, if it is:
 - (a) Temporarily at a location you do not own, lease or operate;
 - (b) In storage at a location you lease, provided the lease was executed after the beginning of the current policy term; or
 - (c) At any fair, trade show or exhibition.
- (2) This Extension does not apply to property:
 - (a) In or on a vehicle; or
 - (b) In the care, custody or control of your salespersons, unless the property is in such care, custody or control at a fair, trade show or exhibition.

- (3) The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $10,000.

e. Outdoor Property

You may extend the insurance provided by this Coverage Form to apply to your outdoor fences, radio and television antennas (including satellite dishes), trees, shrubs and plants (other than trees, shrubs or plants which are "stock" or are part of a vegetated roof), including debris removal expense, caused by or resulting from any of the following causes of loss if they are Covered Causes of Loss:

- (1) Fire;
- (2) Lightning;
- (3) Explosion;
- (4) Riot or Civil Commotion; or
- (5) Aircraft.

The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $1,000, but not more than $250 for any one tree, shrub or plant. These limits apply to any one occurrence, regardless of the types or number of items lost or damaged in that occurrence. Subject to all aforementioned terms and limitations of coverage, this Coverage Extension includes the expense of removing from the described premises the debris of trees, shrubs and plants which are the property of others, except in the situation in which you are a tenant and such property is owned by the landlord of the described premises.

f. Non-owned Detached Trailers

- (1) You may extend the insurance that applies to Your Business Personal Property to apply to loss or damage to trailers that you do not own, provided that:
- (a) The trailer is used in your business;
 - (b) The trailer is in your care, custody or control at the premises described in the Declarations; and

- (c) You have a contractual responsibility to pay for loss or damage to the trailer.

- (2) We will not pay for any loss or damage that occurs:

(a) While the trailer is attached to any motor vehicle or motorized conveyance, whether or not the motor vehicle or motorized conveyance is in motion;

(b) During hitching or unhitching operations, or when a trailer becomes accidentally unhitched from a motor vehicle or motorized conveyance.

- (3) The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $5,000, unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations.

- (4) This insurance is excess over the amount due (whether you can collect on it or not) from any other insurance covering such property.

g. Business Personal Property Temporarily In Portable Storage Units

- (1) You may extend the insurance that applies to Your Business Personal Property to apply to such property while temporarily stored in a portable storage unit (including a detached trailer) located within 100 feet of the building or structure described in the Declarations or within 100 feet of the premises described in the Declarations, whichever distance is greater.

- (2) If the applicable Covered Causes of Loss form or endorsement contains a limitation or exclusion concerning loss or damage from sand, dust, sleet, snow, ice or rain to property in a structure, such limitation or exclusion also applies to property in a portable storage unit.

(3) Coverage under this Extension:

- (a) Will end 90 days after the business personal property has been placed in the storage unit;
- (b) Does not apply if the storage unit itself has been in use at the described premises for more than 90 consecutive days, even if the business personal property has been stored there for 90 or fewer days as of the time of loss or damage.

(4) Under this Extension, the most we will pay for the total of all loss or damage to business personal property is $10,000 (unless a higher limit is indicated in the Declarations for such Extension) regardless of the number of storage units. Such limit is part of, not in addition to, the applicable Limit of Insurance on Your Business Personal Property. Therefore, payment under this Extension will not increase the applicable Limit of Insurance on Your Business Personal Property.

(5) This Extension does not apply to loss or damage otherwise covered under this Coverage Form or any endorsement to this Coverage Form or policy, and does not apply to loss or damage to the storage unit itself. Each of these Extensions is additional insurance unless otherwise indicated. The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, does not apply to these Extensions.

B. Exclusions And Limitations

See applicable Causes Of Loss form as shown in the Declarations.

C. Limits Of Insurance

The most we will pay for loss or damage in any one occurrence is the applicable Limit Of Insurance shown in the Declarations. The most we will pay for loss or damage to outdoor signs, whether or not the sign is attached to a building, is $2,500 per sign in any one occurrence. The amounts of insurance stated in the following Additional Coverages apply in accordance with the terms of such coverages and are separate from the Limit(s) Of Insurance shown in the Declarations for any other coverage:

1. Fire Department Service Charge;
2. Pollutant Clean-up And Removal;
3. Increased Cost Of Construction; and
4. Electronic Data.

Payments under the Preservation Of Property Additional Coverage will not increase the applicable Limit of Insurance.

D. Deductible

In any one occurrence of loss or damage (hereinafter referred to as loss), we will first reduce the amount of loss if required by the Coinsurance Condition or the Agreed Value Optional Coverage. If the adjusted amount of loss is less than or equal to the Deductible, we will not pay for that loss. If the adjusted amount of loss exceeds the Deductible, we will then subtract the Deductible from the adjusted amount of loss and will pay the resulting amount or the Limit of Insurance, whichever is less. When the occurrence involves loss to more than one item of Covered Property and separate Limits of Insurance apply, the losses will not be combined in determining application of the Deductible. But the Deductible will be applied only once per occurrence.

EXAMPLE 1

(This example assumes there is no Coinsurance penalty.)

Deductible:	$ 250
Limit of Insurance - Building 1:	$ 60,000
Limit of Insurance - Building 2:	$ 80,000
Loss to Building 1:	$ 60,100
Loss to Building 2:	$ 90,000

The amount of loss to Building 1 ($60,100) is less than the sum ($60,250) of the Limit of Insurance applicable to Building 1 plus the Deductible.

The Deductible will be subtracted from the amount of loss in calculating the loss payable for Building 1:

$ 60,100
- 250
$ 59,850 Loss Payable - Building 1

The Deductible applies once per occurrence and therefore is not subtracted in determining the amount of loss payable for Building 2. Loss payable for Building 2 is the Limit of Insurance of $80,000.

Total amount of loss payable:

EXAMPLE 2

(This example, too, assumes there is no Coinsurance penalty.)

The Deductible and Limits of Insurance are the same as those in Example 1.

(Exceeds Limit of Insurance plus Deductible)
Loss to Building 2:	$ 90,000
(Exceeds Limit of Insurance plus Deductible)
Loss Payable - Building 1:	$ 60,000
(Limit of Insurance)
Loss Payable - Building 2:	$ 80,000
(Limit of Insurance)
Total amount of loss payable:	$ 140,000

E. Loss Conditions

The following conditions apply in addition to the Common Policy Conditions and the Commercial Property Conditions:

1. Abandonment

There can be no abandonment of any property to us.

2. Appraisal

If we and you disagree on the value of the property or the amount of loss, either may make written demand for an appraisal of the loss. In this event, each party will select a competent and impartial appraiser. The two appraisers will select an umpire. If they cannot agree, either may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. The appraisers will state separately the value of the property and amount of loss. If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding. Each party will:

- a. Pay its chosen appraiser; and
- b. Bear the other expenses of the appraisal and umpire equally.

If there is an appraisal, we will still retain our right to deny the claim.

3. Duties In The Event Of Loss Or Damage

- a. You must see that the following are done in the event of loss or damage to Covered Property:

(1) Notify the police if a law may have been broken.

(2) Give us prompt notice of the loss or damage. Include a description of the property involved.

(3) As soon as possible, give us a description of how, when and where the loss or damage occurred.

(4) Take all reasonable steps to protect the Covered Property from further damage, and keep a record of your expenses necessary to protect the Covered Property, for consideration in the settlement of the claim. This will not increase the Limit of Insurance. However, we will not pay for any subsequent loss or damage resulting from a cause of loss that is not a Covered Cause of Loss. Also, if feasible, set the damaged property aside and in the best possible order for examination.

(5) At our request, give us complete inventories of the damaged and undamaged property. Include quantities, costs, values and amount of loss claimed.

(6) As often as may be reasonably required, permit us to inspect the property proving the loss or damage and examine your books and records. Also, permit us to take samples of damaged and undamaged property for inspection, testing and analysis, and permit us to make copies from your books and records.

- (7) Send us a signed, sworn proof of loss containing the information we request to investigate the claim. You must do this within 60 days after our request. We will supply you with the necessary forms.
- (8) Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim.
- b. We may examine any insured under oath, while not in the presence of any other insured and at such times as may be reasonably required, about any matter relating to this insurance or the claim, including an insured's books and records. In the event of an examination, an insured's answers must be signed.

4. Loss Payment

- a. In the event of loss or damage covered by this Coverage Form, at our option, we will either:
 - (1) Pay the value of lost or damaged property;
 - (2) Pay the cost of repairing or replacing the lost or damaged property, subject to b. below;
 - (3) Take all or any part of the property at an agreed or appraised value; or
 - (4) Repair, rebuild or replace the property with other property of like kind and quality, subject to b. below. We will determine the value of lost or damaged property, or the cost of its repair or replacement, in accordance with the applicable terms of the Valuation Condition in this Coverage Form or any applicable provision which amends or supersedes the Valuation Condition.

- b. The cost to repair, rebuild or replace does not include the increased cost attributable to enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law regulating the construction, use or repair of any property.
- c. We will give notice of our intentions within 30 days after we receive the sworn proof of loss.
- d. We will not pay you more than your financial interest in the Covered Property.
- e. We may adjust losses with the owners of lost or damaged property if other than you. If we pay the owners, such payments will satisfy your claims against us for the owners' property. We will not pay the owners more than their financial interest in the Covered Property.
- f. We may elect to defend you against suits arising from claims of owners of property. We will do this at our expense.
- g. We will pay for covered loss or damage within 30 days after we receive the sworn proof of loss, if you have complied with all of the terms of this Coverage Part, and:
 - (1) We have reached agreement with you on the amount of loss; or
 - (2) An appraisal award has been made.
- h. A party wall is a wall that separates and is common to adjoining buildings that are owned by different parties. In settling covered losses involving a party wall, we will pay a proportion of the loss to the party wall based on your interest in the wall in proportion to the interest of the owner of the adjoining building. However, if you elect to repair or replace your building and the owner of the adjoining building elects not to repair or replace that building, we will pay you the full value of the loss to the party wall, subject to all applicable policy provisions including Limits of Insurance, the Valuation and Coinsurance

Conditions and all other provisions of this Loss Payment Condition. Our payment under the provisions of this paragraph does not alter any right of subrogation we may have against any entity, including the owner or insurer of the adjoining building, and does not alter the terms of the Transfer Of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us Condition in this policy.

5. Recovered Property

If either you or we recover any property after loss settlement, that party must give the other prompt notice. At your option, the property will be returned to you. You must then return to us the amount we paid to you for the property. We will pay recovery expenses and the expenses to repair the recovered property, subject to the Limit of Insurance.

6. Vacancy²⁶⁰

a. Description Of Terms

(1) As used in this Vacancy Condition, the term building and the term vacant have the meanings set forth in (1)(a) and (1)(b) below:

(a) When this policy is issued to a tenant, and with respect to that tenant's interest in Covered Property, building means the unit or suite rented or leased to the tenant. Such building is vacant when it does not contain enough business personal property to conduct customary operations.

(b) When this policy is issued to the owner or general lessee of a building, building means the entire building. Such building is vacant²⁶¹ unless at least 31% of its total square footage is:

(i) Rented to a lessee or sublessee and used by the lessee or sublessee to conduct its customary operations;²⁶² and/or

(ii) Used by the building owner to conduct customary operations.

(2) Buildings under construction or renovation are not considered vacant.²⁶³

b. Vacancy Provisions

If the building where loss or damage occurs has been vacant for more than 60 consecutive days²⁶⁴ before that loss or damage occurs:

(1) We will not pay for any loss or damage caused by any of the following, even if they are Covered Causes of Loss:

(a) Vandalism;

(b) Sprinkler leakage, unless you have protected the system against freezing;

(c) Building glass breakage;

(d) Water damage;

(e) Theft; or

(f) Attempted theft.

(2) With respect to Covered Causes of Loss other than those listed in b.(1)(a) through b.(1)(f) above, we will reduce the amount we would otherwise pay for the loss or damage by 15%.²⁶⁵

7. Valuation

We will determine the value of Covered Property in the event of loss or damage as follows:

a. At actual cash value as of the time of loss or damage, except as provided in b., c., d. and e. below.

b. If the Limit of Insurance for Building satisfies the Additional Condition, Coinsurance, and the cost to repair or replace the damaged building property is $2,500 or less, we will pay the cost of building repairs or replacement. The cost of building repairs or replacement does not include the increased cost attributable to enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law regulating the construction, use or repair of any property. However, the following property will be valued at the actual cash value, even when attached to the building:

- (1) Awnings or floor coverings;
 - (2) Appliances for refrigerating, ventilating, cooking, dishwashing or laundering; or
 - (3) Outdoor equipment or furniture.
- c. "Stock" you have sold but not delivered at the selling price less discounts and expenses you otherwise would have had.
- d. Glass at the cost of replacement with safety-glazing material if required by law.
- e. Tenants' Improvements and Betterments at:
- (1) Actual cash value of the lost or damaged property if you make repairs promptly.
 - (2) A proportion of your original cost if you do not make repairs promptly. We will determine the proportionate value as follows:
 - (a) Multiply the original cost by the number of days from the loss or damage to the expiration of the lease; and
 - (b) Divide the amount determined in (a) above by the number of days from the installation of improvements to the expiration of the lease.

If your lease contains a renewal option, the expiration of the renewal option period will replace the expiration of the lease in this procedure.

- (3) Nothing if others pay for repairs or replacement.

F. Additional Conditions

The following conditions apply in addition to the Common Policy Conditions and the Commercial Property Conditions:

1. Coinsurance

If a Coinsurance percentage is shown in the Declarations, the following condition applies:

- a. We will not pay the full amount of any loss if the value of Covered Property at the time of loss times the Coinsurance percentage shown for it in the Declarations is greater than the Limit of Insurance for the property. Instead, we will determine the most we will pay using the following steps:

- (1) Multiply the value of Covered Property at the time of loss by the Coinsurance percentage;
- (2) Divide the Limit of Insurance of the property by the figure determined in Step (1);
- (3) Multiply the total amount of loss, before the application of any deductible, by the figure determined in Step (2); and
- (4) Subtract the deductible from the figure determined in Step (3).

We will pay the amount determined in Step (4) or the Limit of Insurance, whichever is less. For the remainder, you will either have to rely on other insurance or absorb the loss yourself.

EXAMPLE 1 (UNDERINSURANCE)

When: The value of the property is: $ 250,000
The Coinsurance percentage for it is: 80%
The Limit of Insurance for it is: $ 100,000
The amount of loss is: $ 40,000

Step (1): $$250,000 \times 80\% = $200,000$
(the minimum amount of insurance to meet your Coinsurance requirements)

Step (2): $$100,000 \div $200,000 = .50$

Step (3): $$40,000 \times .50 = $20,000$

Step (4): $$20,000 - $250 = $19,750$

We will pay no more than $19,750. The remaining $20,250 is not covered.

EXAMPLE 2 (ADEQUATE INSURANCE)

When: The value of the property is: $ 250,000
The Coinsurance percentage for it is: 80%
The Limit of Insurance for it is: $ 200,000

The Deductible is: $ 250
 The amount of loss is: $ 40,000
 The minimum amount of insurance to meet your Coinsurance requirement is $200,000 ($250,000 x 80%). Therefore, the Limit of Insurance in this example is adequate, and no penalty applies. We will pay no more than $39,750 ($40,000 amount of loss minus the deductible of $250).

- b. If one Limit of Insurance applies to two or more separate items, this condition will apply to the total of all property to which the limit applies.

EXAMPLE 3

When: The value of the property is:
 Building at Location 1: $ 75,000
 Building at Location 2: $ 100,000
 Personal Property at Location 2: $ 75,000
 $ 250,000

The Coinsurance percentage for it is: 90%
 The Limit of Insurance for Buildings and Personal Property at Locations 1 and 2 is: $ 180,000
 The Deductible is: $ 1,000
 The amount of loss is:
 Building at Location 2: $ 30,000
 Personal Property at Location 2: $ 20,000
 $ 50,000

- Step (1): $$250,000 \times 90\% = $225,000$
 (the minimum amount of insurance to meet your Coinsurance requirements and to avoid the penalty shown below)
- Step (2): $$180,000 - $225,000 = .80$
- Step (3): $$50,000 \times .80 = $40,000$
- Step (4): $$40,000 - $1,000 = $39,000$

We will pay no more than $39,000. The remaining $11,000 is not covered.

2. Mortgageholders²⁶⁶

- a. The term mortgageholder includes trustee.
- b. We will pay for covered loss of or damage to buildings or structures to each mortgageholder shown in the Declarations in their order of precedence, as interests may appear.

- c. The mortgageholder has the right to receive loss payment even if the mortgageholder has started foreclosure or similar action on the building or structure.
- d. If we deny your claim because of your acts or because you have failed to comply with the terms of this Coverage Part, the mortgageholder will still have the right to receive loss payment if the mortgageholder:

- (1) Pays any premium due under this Coverage Part at our request if you have failed to do so;
- (2) Submits a signed, sworn proof of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us of your failure to do so; and
- (3) Has notified us of any change in ownership, occupancy or substantial change in risk known to the mortgageholder. All of the terms of this Coverage Part will then apply directly to the mortgageholder.

- e. If we pay the mortgageholder for any loss or damage and deny payment to you because of your acts or because you have failed to comply with the terms of this Coverage Part:

- (1) The mortgageholder's rights under the mortgage will be transferred to us to the extent of the amount we pay; and
- (2) The mortgageholder's right to recover the full amount of the mortgageholder's claim will not be impaired. At our option, we may pay to the mortgageholder the whole principal on the mortgage plus any accrued interest. In this event, your mortgage and note will be transferred to us and you will pay your remaining mortgage debt to us.

f. If we cancel this policy, we will give written notice to the mortgageholder at least:

- (1) 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for your nonpayment of premium; or
- (2) 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for any other reason.

g. If we elect not to renew this policy, we will give written notice to the mortgageholder at least 10 days before the expiration date of this policy.

G. Optional Coverages

If shown as applicable in the Declarations, the following Optional Coverages apply separately to each item:

1. Agreed Value ²⁶⁷

a. The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, does not apply to Covered Property to which this Optional Coverage applies. We will pay no more for loss of or damage to that property than the proportion that the Limit of Insurance under this Coverage Part for the property bears to the Agreed Value shown for it in the Declarations.

b. If the expiration date for this Optional Coverage shown in the Declarations is not extended, the Additional Condition, Coinsurance, is reinstated and this Optional Coverage expires.

c. The terms of this Optional Coverage apply only to loss or damage that occurs:

- (1) On or after the effective date of this Optional Coverage; and
- (2) Before the Agreed Value expiration date shown in the Declarations or the policy expiration date, whichever occurs first.

2. Inflation Guard ²⁶⁸

a. The Limit of Insurance for property to which this Optional Coverage applies will automatically increase by the annual percentage shown in the Declarations.

b. The amount of increase will be:

(1) The Limit of Insurance that applied on the most recent of the policy inception date, the policy anniversary date, or any other policy change amending the Limit of Insurance, times

(2) The percentage of annual increase shown in the Declarations, expressed as a decimal (example: 8% is .08), times

(3) The number of days since the beginning of the current policy year or the effective date of the most recent policy change amending the Limit of Insurance, divided by 365.

EXAMPLE

If: The applicable Limit of Insurance is: $100,000

The annual percentage increase is: 8%

The number of days since the beginning of the policy year (or last policy change) is: 146

The amount of increase is: $$100,000 \times .08 \times 146 \div 365 = $ 3,200$

3. Replacement Cost ²⁶⁹

a. Replacement Cost (without deduction for depreciation) replaces Actual Cash Value in the Valuation Loss Condition of this Coverage Form.

b. This Optional Coverage does not apply to:

- (1) Personal property of others;
- (2) Contents of a residence;
- (3) Works of art, antiques or rare articles, including etchings, pictures, statuary, marbles, bronzes, porcelains and bric-a-brac; or
- (4) "Stock", unless the Including "Stock" option is shown in the Declarations.

Under the terms of this Replacement Cost Optional Coverage, tenants' improvements and betterments are not considered to be the personal property of others.

- c. You may make a claim for loss or damage covered by this insurance on an actual cash value basis instead of on a replacement cost basis. In the event you elect to have loss or damage settled on an actual cash value basis, you may still make a claim for the additional coverage this Optional Coverage provides if you notify us of your intent to do so within 180 days after the loss or damage.

- d. We will not pay on a replacement cost basis for any loss or damage:

(1) Until the lost or damaged property is actually repaired or replaced; and

(2) Unless the repair or replacement is made as soon as reasonably possible after the loss or damage. With respect to tenants' improvements and betterments, the following also apply:

(3) If the conditions in d.(1) and d.(2) above are not met, the value of tenants' improvements and betterments will be determined as a proportion of your original cost, as set forth in the Valuation Loss Condition of this Coverage Form; and

(4) We will not pay for loss or damage to tenants' improvements and betterments if others pay for repairs or replacement.

- e. We will not pay more for loss or damage on a replacement cost basis than the least of (1), (2) or (3), subject to f. below:

(1) The Limit of Insurance applicable to the lost or damaged property;

(2) The cost to replace the lost or damaged property with other property:

(a) Of comparable material and quality; and

(b) Used for the same purpose; or

(3) The amount actually spent that is necessary to repair or replace the lost or damaged property. If a building is rebuilt at a new premises, the cost described in e.(2) above is limited to the cost which would have been incurred if the building had been rebuilt at the original premises.

- f. The cost of repair or replacement does not include the increased cost attributable to enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law regulating the construction, use or repair of any property.

4. Extension Of Replacement Cost To Personal Property Of Others

a. If the Replacement Cost Optional Coverage is shown as applicable in the Declarations, then this Extension may also be shown as applicable. If the Declarations show this Extension as applicable, then Paragraph 3.b.(1) of the Replacement Cost Optional Coverage is deleted and all other provisions of the Replacement Cost Optional Coverage apply to replacement cost on personal property of others.

b. With respect to replacement cost on the personal property of others, the following limitation applies: If an item(s) of personal property of others is subject to a written contract which governs your liability for loss or damage to that item(s), then valuation of that item (s) will be based on the amount for which you are liable under such contract, but not to exceed the lesser of the replacement cost of the property or the applicable Limit of Insurance.

SAMPLE

BUSINESS INCOME (AND EXTRA EXPENSE) COVERAGE FORM²⁷⁰

Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage. Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy, the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured shown in the Declarations. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the company providing this insurance.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to Section F. Definitions.

A. Coverage

1. Business Income

Business Income means the:

- a. Net Income (Net Profit or Loss before income taxes) that would have been earned or incurred; and
- b. Continuing normal operating expenses incurred, including payroll.

For manufacturing risks, Net Income includes the net sales value of production.

Coverage is provided as described and limited below for one or more of the following options for which a Limit Of Insurance is shown in the Declarations:

- (1) Business Income Including "Rental Value".
- (2) Business Income Other Than "Rental Value".
- (3) "Rental Value".

If option (1) above is selected, the term Business Income will include "Rental Value". If option (3) above is selected, the term Business Income will mean "Rental Value" only.

If Limits of Insurance are shown under more than one of the above options, the provisions of this Coverage Part apply separately to each.

We will pay for the actual loss of Business Income you sustain due to the necessary "suspension" of your "operations" during the "period of restoration". The "suspension" must be caused by direct physical loss of or damage to property at premises which are described in the Declarations and for which a Business Income Limit Of Insurance is shown in the Declarations. The loss or damage must be caused by or result from a Covered Cause of Loss. With respect to loss of or damage to personal property in the open or personal property in a vehicle, the described premises include the area within 100 feet of such premises.

With respect to the requirements set forth in the preceding paragraph, if you occupy only part of a building, your premises means:

- (a) The portion of the building which you rent, lease or occupy;
- (b) The area within 100 feet of the building or within 100 feet of the premises described in the Declarations, whichever distance is greater (with respect to loss of or damage to personal property in the open or personal property in a vehicle); and

- (c) Any area within the building or at the described premises, if that area services, or is used to gain access to, the portion of the building which you rent, lease or occupy.

2. Extra Expense

- a. Extra Expense Coverage is provided at the premises described in the Declarations only if the Declarations show that Business Income Coverage applies at that premises.
- b. Extra Expense means necessary expenses you incur during the "period of restoration" that you would not have incurred if there had been no direct physical loss or damage to property caused by or resulting from a Covered Cause of Loss.

We will pay Extra Expense (other than the expense to repair or replace property) to:

- (1) Avoid or minimize the "suspension" of business and to continue operations at the described premises or at replacement premises or temporary locations, including relocation expenses and costs to equip and operate the replacement location or temporary location.
- (2) Minimize the "Suspension" of business if you cannot continue "operations".

We will also pay Extra Expense to repair or replace property, but only to the extent it reduces the amount of loss that otherwise would have been payable under this Coverage Form.

3. Covered Causes Of Loss, Exclusions And Limitations

See applicable Causes Of Loss form as shown in the Declarations.

4. Additional Limitation - Interruption Of Computer Operations

- a. Coverage for Business Income does not apply when a "suspension" of "operations" is caused by destruction or corruption of electronic data, or any loss or damage to electronic data, except as provided under the Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations.
- b. Coverage for Extra Expense does not apply when action is taken to avoid or minimize a "suspension" of "operations" caused by destruction or corruption of electronic data, or any loss or damage to electronic data, except as provided under the Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations.
- c. Electronic data means information, facts or computer programs stored as or on, created or used on, or transmitted to or from computer software (including systems and applications software), on hard or floppy disks, CD-ROMs, tapes, drives, cells, data processing devices or any other repositories of computer software which are used with electronically controlled equipment. The term computer programs, referred to in the foregoing description of electronic data, means a set of related electronic instructions which direct the operations and functions of a computer or device connected to it, which enable the computer or device to receive, process, store, retrieve or send data.
- d. This Additional Limitation does not apply when loss or damage to electronic data involves only electronic data which is integrated in and operates or controls a building's elevator, lighting, heating, ventilation, air conditioning or security system.

5. Additional Coverages

a. Civil Authority

In this Additional Coverage, Civil Authority, the described premises are premises to which this Coverage Form applies, as shown in the Declarations.

When a Covered Cause of Loss causes damage to property other than property at the described premises, we will pay for the actual loss of Business Income you sustain and necessary Extra Expense caused by action of civil authority that prohibits access to the described premises, provided that both of the following apply:

- (1) Access to the area immediately surrounding the damaged property is prohibited by civil authority as a result of the damage, and the described premises are within that area but are not more than one mile from the damaged property; and
- (2) The action of civil authority is taken in response to dangerous physical conditions resulting from the damage or continuation of the Covered Cause of Loss that caused the damage, or the action is taken to enable a civil authority to have unimpeded access to the damaged property.

Civil Authority Coverage for Business Income will begin 72 hours after the time of the first action of civil authority that prohibits access to the described premises and will apply for a period of up to four consecutive weeks from the date on which such coverage began.

Civil Authority Coverage for Extra Expense will begin immediately after time of the first action of civil authority that prohibits access to the described premises and will end:

- (1) Four consecutive weeks after the date of that action; or
- (2) When your Civil Authority Coverage for Business Income ends; whichever is later.

b. Alterations And New Buildings

We will pay for the actual loss of Business Income you sustain and necessary Extra Expense you incur due to direct physical loss or damage at the described premises caused by or resulting from any Covered Cause of Loss to:

- (1) New buildings or structures, whether complete or under construction;
- (2) Alterations or additions to existing buildings or structures; and
- (3) Machinery, equipment, supplies or building materials located on or within 100 feet of the described premises and:
 - (a) Used in the construction, alterations or additions; or
 - (b) Incidental to the occupancy of new buildings.

If such direct physical loss or damage delays the start of "operations", the "period of restoration" for Business Income Coverage will begin on the date "operations" would have begun if the direct physical loss or damage had not occurred.

c. Extended Business Income

(1) Business Income Other Than "Rental Value"

If the necessary "suspension" of your "operations" produces a Business Income loss payable under this policy, we will pay for the actual loss of Business Income you incur during the period that:

- (a) Begins on the date property (except "finished stock") is actually repaired, rebuilt or replaced and "operations" are resumed; and
- (b) Ends on the earlier of:
 - (i) The date you could restore your "operations", with reasonable speed, to the level which would generate the business income amount that would have existed if no direct physical loss or damage had occurred; or

- (ii) 60 consecutive days after the date determined in (1)(a) above.

However, Extended Business Income does not apply to loss of Business Income incurred as a result of unfavorable business conditions caused by the impact of the Covered Cause of Loss in the area where the described premises are located.

Loss of Business Income must be caused by direct physical loss or damage at the described premises caused by or resulting from any Covered Cause of Loss.

(2) "Rental Value"

If the necessary "suspension" of your "operations" produces a "Rental Value" loss payable under this policy, we will pay for the actual loss of "Rental Value" you incur during the period that:

- (a) Begins on the date property is actually repaired, rebuilt or replaced and tenantability is restored; and
- (b) Ends on the earlier of:
 - (i) The date you could restore tenant occupancy, with reasonable speed, to the level which would generate the "Rental Value" that would have existed if no direct physical loss or damage had occurred; or
 - (ii) 60 consecutive days after the date determined in (2)(a) above.

However, Extended Business Income does not apply to loss of "Rental Value" incurred as a result of unfavorable business conditions caused by the impact of the Covered Cause of Loss in the area where the described premises are located.

Loss of "Rental Value" must be caused by direct physical loss or damage at the described premises caused by or resulting from any Covered Cause of Loss.

d. Interruption Of Computer Operations

- (1) Under this Additional Coverage, electronic data has the meaning described under Additional Limitation - Interruption Of Computer Operations.
- (2) Subject to all provisions of this Additional Coverage, you may extend the insurance that applies to Business Income and Extra Expense to apply to a "suspension" of "operations" caused by an interruption in computer operations due to destruction or corruption of electronic data due to a Covered Cause of Loss. However, we will not provide coverage under this Additional Coverage when the Additional Limitation - Interruption Of Computer Operations does not apply based on Paragraph A.3.c. therein.
- (3) With respect to the coverage provided under this Additional Coverage, the Covered Causes of Loss are subject to the following:
 - (a) If the Causes Of Loss - Special Form applies, coverage under this Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations, is limited to the "specified causes of loss" as defined in that form and Collapse as set forth in that form.

- (b) If the Causes Of Loss - Broad Form applies, coverage under this Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations, includes Collapse as set forth in that form.
 - (c) If the Causes Of Loss form is endorsed to add a Covered Cause of Loss, the additional Covered Cause of Loss does not apply to the coverage provided under this Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations.
 - (d) The Covered Causes of Loss include a virus, harmful code or similar instruction introduced into or enacted on a computer system (including electronic data) or a network to which it is connected, designed to damage or destroy any part of the system or disrupt its normal operation. But there is no coverage for an interruption related to manipulation of a computer system (including electronic data) by any employee, including a temporary or leased employee, or by an entity retained by you or for you to inspect, design, install, maintain, repair or replace that system.
- (4) The most we will pay under this Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations, is $2,500 (unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations) for all loss sustained and expense incurred in any one policy year, regardless of the number of interruptions or the number of premises, locations or computer systems involved. If loss payment relating to the first interruption does not exhaust this amount, then the balance is available for loss or expense sustained or incurred as a result of subsequent interruptions in that policy year. A balance remaining at the end of a policy year does not increase the amount of insurance in the next policy year. With respect to any interruption which begins in one policy year and continues or results in additional loss in a subsequent policy year(s), all loss and expense is deemed to be sustained or incurred in the policy year in which the interruption began.

- (5) This Additional Coverage, Interruption Of Computer Operations, does not apply to loss sustained or loss incurred after the end of the "period of restoration", even if the amount of insurance stated in (4) above has not been exhausted.

6. Coverage Extension

If a Coinsurance percentage of 50% or more is shown in the Declarations, you may extend the insurance provided by this Coverage Part as follows:

NEWLY ACQUIRED LOCATIONS

- a. You may extend your Business Income and Extra Expense Coverages to apply to property at any location you acquire other than fairs or exhibitions.
- b. The most we will pay under this Extension, for the sum of Business Income loss and Extra Expense incurred, is $100,000 at each location, unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations.
- c. Insurance under this Extension for each newly acquired location will end when any of the following first occurs:
 - (1) This policy expires;
 - (2) 30 days expire after you acquire or begin to construct the property; or

(3) You report values to us.

We will charge you additional premium for values reported from the date you acquire the property.

The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, does not apply to this Extension.

B. Limits Of Insurance

The most we will pay for loss in any one occurrence is the applicable Limit Of Insurance shown in the Declarations.

Payments under the following Additional Coverages will not increase the applicable Limit of Insurance:

1. Alterations And New Buildings;
2. Civil Authority;
3. Extra Expense; or
4. Extended Business Income.

The amounts of insurance stated in the Interruption Of Computer Operations Additional Coverage and the Newly Acquired Locations Coverage Extension apply in accordance with the terms of those coverages and are separate from the Limit(s) Of Insurance shown in the Declarations for any other coverage.

C. Loss Conditions

The following conditions apply in addition to the Common Policy Conditions and the Commercial Property Conditions:

1. Appraisal

If we and you disagree on the amount of Net Income and operating expense or the amount of loss, either may make written demand for an appraisal of the loss. In this event, each party will select a competent and impartial appraiser.

The two appraisers will select an umpire. If they cannot agree, either may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. The appraisers will state separately the amount of Net Income and operating expense or amount of loss. If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding. Each party will:

- a. Pay its chosen appraiser; and

- b. Bear the other expenses of the appraisal and umpire equally.

If there is an appraisal, we will still retain our right to deny the claim.

2. Duties In The Event Of Loss

- a. You must see that the following are done in the event of loss:

- (1) Notify the police if a law may have been broken.

- (2) Give us prompt notice of the direct physical loss or damage. Include a description of the property involved.

- (3) As soon as possible, give us a description of how, when and where the direct physical loss or damage occurred.

- (4) Take all reasonable steps to protect the Covered Property from further damage, and keep a record of your expenses necessary to protect the Covered Property, for consideration in the settlement of the claim. This will not increase the Limit of Insurance. However, we will not pay for any subsequent loss or damage resulting from a cause of loss that is not a Covered Cause of Loss. Also, if feasible, set the damaged property aside and in the best possible order for examination.

- (5) As often as may be reasonably required, permit us to inspect the property proving the loss or damage and examine your books and records.

Also permit us to take samples of damaged and undamaged property for inspection, testing and analysis, and permit us to make copies from your books and records.

- (6) Send us a signed, sworn proof of loss containing the information we request to investigate the claim. You must do this within 60 days after our request. We will supply you with the necessary forms.

- (7) Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim.
- (8) If you intend to continue your business, you must resume all or part of your "operations" as quickly as possible.

- b. We may examine any insured under oath, while not in the presence of any other insured and at such times as may be reasonably required, about any matter relating to this insurance or the claim, including an insured's books and records. In the event of an examination, an insured's answers must be signed.

3. Loss Determination

- a. The amount of Business Income loss will be determined based on:

- (1) The Net Income of the business before the direct physical loss or damage occurred;
- (2) The likely Net Income of the business if no physical loss or damage had occurred, but not including any Net Income that would likely have been earned as a result of an increase in the volume of business due to favorable business conditions caused by the impact of the Covered Cause of Loss on customers or on other businesses;
- (3) The operating expenses, including payroll expenses, necessary to resume "operations" with the same quality of service that existed just before the direct physical loss or damage; and
- (4) Other relevant sources of information, including:
 - (a) Your financial records and accounting procedures;
 - (b) Bills, invoices and other vouchers; and
 - (c) Deeds, liens or contracts.

- b. The amount of Extra Expense will be determined based on:

- (1) All expenses that exceed the normal operating expenses that would have been incurred by "operations" during the "period of restoration" if no direct physical loss or damage had occurred. We will deduct from the total of such expenses:

- (a) The salvage value that remains of any property bought for temporary use during the "period of restoration", once "operations" are resumed; and

- (b) Any Extra Expense that is paid for by other insurance, except for insurance that is written subject to the same plan, terms, conditions and provisions as this insurance; and

- (2) Necessary expenses that reduce the Business Income loss that otherwise would have been incurred.

c. Resumption Of Operations

We will reduce the amount of your:

- (1) Business Income loss, other than Extra Expense, to the extent you can resume your "operations", in whole or in part, by using damaged or undamaged property (including merchandise or stock) at the described premises or elsewhere.

- (2) Extra Expense loss to the extent you can return "operations" to normal and discontinue such Extra Expense.

- d. If you do not resume "operations", or do not resume "operations" as quickly as possible, we will pay based on the length of time it would have taken to resume "operations" as quickly as possible.

4. Loss Payment

We will pay for covered loss within 30 days after we receive the sworn proof of loss, if you have complied with all of the terms of this Coverage Part, and:

- a. We have reached agreement with you on the amount of loss; or
- b. An appraisal award has been made.

D. Additional Condition

COINSURANCE

If a Coinsurance percentage is shown in the Declarations, the following condition applies in addition to the Common Policy Conditions and the Commercial Property Conditions.

We will not pay the full amount of any Business Income loss if the Limit of Insurance for Business Income is less than:

- 1. The Coinsurance percentage shown for Business Income in the Declarations; times
- 2. The sum of:
 - a. The Net Income (Net Profit or Loss before income taxes); and
 - b. Operating expenses, including payroll expenses; that would have been earned or incurred (had no loss occurred) by your "operations" at the described premises for the 12 months following the inception, or last previous anniversary date, of this policy (whichever is later).

Instead, we will determine the most we will pay using the following steps:

- Step (1): Multiply the Net Income and operating expense for the 12 months following the inception, or last previous anniversary date, of this policy by the Coinsurance percentage;
- Step (2): Divide the Limit of Insurance for the described premises by the figure determined in Step (1); and
- Step (3): Multiply the total amount of loss by the figure determined in Step (2).

We will pay the amount determined in Step (3) or the Limit of Insurance, whichever is less. For the remainder, you will either have to rely on other insurance or absorb the loss yourself.

In determining operating expenses for the purpose of applying the Coinsurance condition, the following expenses, if applicable, shall be deducted from the total of all operating expenses:

- (1) Prepaid freight - outgoing;
- (2) Returns and allowances;
- (3) Discounts;
- (4) Bad debts;
- (5) Collection expenses;
- (6) Cost of raw stock and factory supplies consumed (including transportation charges);
- (7) Cost of merchandise sold (including transportation charges);
- (8) Cost of other supplies consumed (including transportation charges);
- (9) Cost of services purchased from outsiders (not employees) to resell, that do not continue under contract;
- (10) Power, heat and refrigeration expenses that do not continue under contract (if Form CP 15 11 is attached);
- (11) All payroll expenses or the amount of payroll expense excluded (if Form CP 15 10 is attached); and
- (12) Special deductions for mining properties (royalties unless specifically included in coverage; actual depletion commonly known as unit or cost depletion - not percentage depletion; welfare and retirement fund charges based on tonnage; hired trucks).

Example 1 (Underinsurance)

When: The Net Income and operating expenses for the 12 months following the inception, or last previous anniversary date, of this policy at the described premises would have been: $ 400,000

The Coinsurance percentage is: 50%

The Limit of Insurance is: $ 150,000

The amount of loss is: $ 80,000

Step (1): $400,000 x 50% = $200,000
 (the minimum amount of insurance to meet your Coinsurance requirements)

Step (2) $150,000 ÷ $200,000 = .75

Step (3) $80,000 x .75 = $60,000

We will pay no more than $60,000. The remaining $20,000 is not covered.

Example 2 (Adequate Insurance)

When: The Net Income and operating expenses for the 12 months following the inception, or last previous anniversary date, of this policy at the described premises would have been: $ 400,000

The Coinsurance percentage is: 50%

The Limit of Insurance is: $ 200,000

The amount of loss is: $ 80,000

Step (1): $400,000 x 50% = $200,000
 (the minimum amount of insurance to meet your Coinsurance requirements)

Step (2) $150,000 ÷ $200,000 = .75

Step (3) $80,000 x .75 = $60,000

The minimum amount of insurance to meet your Coinsurance requirement is $200,000 ($400,000 x 50%). Therefore, the Limit of Insurance in this example is adequate and no penalty applies. We will pay no more than $80,000 (amount of loss).

E. Optional Coverages

If shown as applicable in the Declarations, the following Optional Coverages apply separately to each item.

1. Maximum Period Of Indemnity

- a. The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, does not apply to this Coverage Form at the described premises to which this Optional Coverage applies.
- b. The most we will pay for the total of Business Income loss and Extra Expense is the lesser of:
 - (1) The amount of loss sustained and expenses incurred during the 120 days immediately following the beginning of the "period of restoration" or

- (2) The Limit Of Insurance shown in the Declarations.

2. Monthly Limit Of Indemnity

- a. The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, does not apply to this Coverage Form at the described premises to which this Optional Coverage applies.
- b. The most we will pay for loss of Business Income in each period of 30 consecutive days after the beginning of the "period of restoration" is:
 - (1) The Limit of Insurance, multiplied by
 - (2) The fraction shown in the Declarations for this Optional Coverage.

Example

When: The Limit of Insurance is: $120,000

The fraction shown in the Declarations for this Optional Coverage is: 1/4

The most we will pay for loss in each period of 30 consecutive days is: $30,000
 ($120,000 x 1/4 = $30,000)

If, in this example, the actual amount of loss is:

Days 1-30	$ 40,000
Days 31-60	$ 20,000
Days 61-90	$ 30,000
	$ 90,000

We will pay:

Days 1-30	$ 30,000
Days 31-60	$ 20,000
Days 61-90	$ 30,000
	$ 80,000

The remaining $10,000 is not covered.

3. Business Income Agreed Value

- a. To activate this Optional Coverage:
 - (1) A Business Income Report/Work Sheet must be submitted to us and must show financial data for your "operations":

- (a) During the 12 months prior to the date of the Work Sheet; and
 - (b) Estimated for the 12 months immediately following the inception of this Optional Coverage.
- (2) The Declarations must indicate that the Business Income Agreed Value Optional Coverage applies, and an Agreed Value must be shown in the Declarations. The Agreed Value should be at least equal to:
- (a) The Coinsurance percentage shown in the Declarations; multiplied by
 - (b) The amount of Net Income and operating expenses for the following 12 months you report on the Work Sheet.
- b. The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, is suspended until:
- (1) 12 months after the effective date of this Optional Coverage; or
 - (2) The expiration date of this policy;
- whichever occurs first.
- c. We will reinstate the Additional Condition, Coinsurance, automatically if you do not submit a new Work Sheet and Agreed Value:
- (1) Within 12 months of the effective date of this Optional Coverage; or
 - (2) When you request a change in your Business Income Limit of Insurance.
- d. If the Business Income Limit of Insurance is less than the Agreed Value, we will not pay more of any loss than the amount of loss multiplied by:
- (1) The Business Income Limit of Insurance; divided by
 - (2) The Agreed Value.

Example

When: The Limit of Insurance is: $ 100,000
 The Agreed Value is: $ 200,000
 The amount of loss is: $ 80,000

Step (1): $100,000 ÷ $200,000 = .50

Step (2) .50 x $80,000 = $ 40,000

We will pay $40,000. The remaining $40,000 is not covered.

4. Extended Period Of Indemnity

Under Paragraph A.4.d., Extended Business Income, the number 60 in Subparagraphs (1)(b) and (2)(b) is replaced by the number shown in the Declarations for this Optional Coverage.

F. Definitions

1. "Finished stock" means stock you have manufactured.

"Finished stock" also includes whiskey and alcoholic products being aged, unless there is a Coinsurance percentage shown for Business Income in the Declarations.

"Finished stock" does not include stock you have manufactured that is held for sale on the premises of any retail outlet insured under this Coverage Part.

2. "Operations" means:

a. Your business activities occurring at the described premises; and a. Begins 72 hours after the time of direct physical loss or damage for Business Income Coverage; or

b. Ends on the earlier of:

- (1) The date when the property at the described premises should be repaired, rebuilt or replaced with reasonable speed and similar quality; or

- (2) The date when business is resumed at a new permanent location.

"Period of restoration" does not include any increased period required due to the enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law that:

- (1) Regulates the construction, use or repair, or requires the tearing down, of any property; or
- (2) Requires any insured or others to test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of "pollutants".

The expiration date of this policy will not cut short the "period of restoration".

- 4. "Pollutants" means any solid, liquid, gaseous or thermal irritant or contaminant, including smoke, vapor, soot, fumes, acids, alkalis, chemicals and waste. Waste includes materials to be recycled, reconditioned or reclaimed.
- 5. "Rental Value" means Business Income that consists of:

- a. Net Income (Net Profit or Loss before income taxes) that would have been earned or incurred as rental income from tenant occupancy of the premises described in the Declarations as furnished and equipped by you, including fair rental value of any portion of the described premises which is occupied by you; and

- b. Continuing normal operating expenses incurred in connection with that premises, including:

- (1) Payroll; and

- (2) The amount of charges which are the legal obligation of the tenant(s) but would otherwise be your obligations.

- 6. "Suspension" means:

- b. That a part or all of the described premises is rendered untenable, if coverage for Business Income Including "Rental Value" or "Rental Value" applies.

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY CONDITIONS²⁷¹

This Coverage Part is subject to the following conditions, the Common Policy Conditions and applicable Loss Conditions and Additional Conditions in Commercial Property Coverage Forms.

A. CONCEALMENT, MISREPRESENTATION OR FRAUD

This coverage part is void in any case of fraud by you as it relates to this coverage part at any time. It is also void if you or any other insured, at any time, intentionally conceal or misrepresent a material fact concerning:

1. This coverage part;
2. The covered property
3. Your interest in the covered property; or
4. A claim under this coverage part.

B. CONTROL OF PROPERTY

Any act or neglect of any person other than you beyond your direction or control will not affect this insurance.

The breach of any condition of this coverage part at any one or more locations will not affect coverage at any location where, at the time of loss or damage, the breach of condition does not exist.

I. TRANSFER OF RIGHTS OF RECOVERY AGAINST OTHERS TO US

If any person or organization to or for whom we make payment under this coverage part has rights to recover damages from another, those rights are transferred to us to the extent of our payment. That person or organization must do everything necessary to secure our rights and must do nothing after loss to impair them. But you may waive your rights against another party in writing:

1. Prior to a loss to your covered property or covered income.
2. After a loss to your covered property or covered income only if, at time of loss, that party is one of the following:
 - a. Someone insured by this insurance;
 - b. A business firm:
 - (1) Owned or controlled by you; or
 - (2) That owns or controls you; or
 - c. Your tenant.

This will not restrict your insurance.

POLICY NUMBER:

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY
CP 04 05 10 12

THIS ENDORSEMENT CHANGES THE POLICY. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

ORDINANCE OR LAW COVERAGE²⁷²

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

BUILDING AND PERSONAL PROPERTY COVERAGE FORM
CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION COVERAGE FORM

SCHEDULE

Building Number/ Premises Number	Coverage A	Coverage B Limit Of Insurance	Coverage C Limit Of Insurance	Coverage B And C Combined Limit Of Insurance
/	<input type="checkbox"/>	$	$	$ *
/	<input type="checkbox"/>	$	$	$ *
/	<input type="checkbox"/>	$	$	$ *

Information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

*Do not enter a Blanket Limit of Insurance if individual Limits of Insurance are selected for Coverages B and C, or if one of these Coverages is not applicable.

A. Each Coverage - Coverage A, Coverage B and Coverage C - is provided under this endorsement only if that Coverage(s) is chosen by entry in the above Schedule and then only with respect to the building identified for that Coverage(s) in the Schedule.

B. Application Of Coverage(s)

The Coverage(s) provided by this endorsement applies only if both B.1. and B.2. are satisfied and are then subject to the qualifications set forth in B.3.

1. The ordinance or law:

- a. Regulates the demolition, construction or repair of buildings, or establishes zoning or land use requirements at the described premises; and

b. Is in force at the time of loss.

But coverage under this endorsement applies only in response to the minimum requirements of the ordinance or law. Losses and costs incurred in complying with recommended actions or standards that exceed actual requirements are not covered under this endorsement.

2. a. The building sustains direct physical damage that is covered under this policy and as a result of such damage, you are required to comply with the ordinance or law; or

b. The building sustains both direct physical damage that is covered under this policy and direct physical damage that is not covered under this policy, and as a result of the building damage in its entirety, you are required to comply with the ordinance or law.

c. But if the building sustains direct physical damage that is not covered under this policy, and such damage is the subject of the ordinance or law, then there is no coverage under this endorsement even if the building has also sustained covered direct physical damage.

3. In the situation described in B.2.b. above, we will not pay the full amount of loss otherwise payable under the terms of Coverages A, B, and/or C of this endorsement. Instead, we will pay a proportion of such loss, meaning the proportion that the covered direct physical damage bears to the total direct physical damage.

(Section H. of this endorsement provides an example of this procedure.)

However, if the covered direct physical damage, alone, would have resulted in a requirement to comply with the ordinance or law, then we will pay the full amount of loss otherwise payable under the terms of Coverages A, B and/or C of this endorsement.

C. We will not pay under Coverage A, B or C of this endorsement for:

1. Enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law which requires the demolition, repair, replacement, reconstruction, remodeling or remediation of property due to contamination by "pollutants" or due to the presence, growth, proliferation, spread or any activity of "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria; or
2. The costs associated with the enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law which requires any insured or others to test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of "pollutants", "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria.

D. Coverage

1. Coverage A - Coverage For Loss To The Undamaged Portion Of The Building

With respect to the building that has sustained covered direct physical damage, we will pay under Coverage A for the loss in value of the undamaged portion of the building as a consequence of a requirement to comply with an ordinance or law that requires demolition of undamaged parts of the same building.

Coverage A is included within the Limit Of Insurance shown in the Declarations as applicable to the covered building.

Coverage A does not increase the Limit of Insurance.

2. Coverage B - Demolition Cost Coverage

With respect to the building that has sustained covered direct physical damage, we will pay the cost to demolish and clear the site of undamaged parts of the same building as a consequence of a requirement to comply with an ordinance or law that requires demolition of such undamaged property.

The Coinsurance Additional Condition does not apply to Demolition Cost Coverage.

3. Coverage C - Increased Cost Of Construction Coverage

a. With respect to the building that has sustained covered direct physical damage, we will pay the increased cost to:

- (1) Repair or reconstruct damaged portions of that building; and/or
- (2) Reconstruct or remodel undamaged portions of that building, whether or not demolition is required;

when the increased cost is a consequence of a requirement to comply with the minimum standards of the ordinance or law.

However:

- (1) This coverage applies only if the restored or remodeled property is intended for similar occupancy as the current property, unless such occupancy is not permitted by zoning or land use ordinance or law.
- (2) We will not pay for the increased cost of construction if the building is not repaired, reconstructed or remodeled.

The Coinsurance Additional Condition does not apply to Increased Cost of Construction Coverage.

b. When a building is damaged or destroyed and Coverage C applies to that building in accordance with 3.a. above, coverage for the increased cost of construction also applies to repair or reconstruction of the following, subject to the same conditions stated in 3.a.:

- (1) The cost of excavations, grading, backfilling and filling;
- (2) Foundation of the building;
- (3) Pilings; and
- (4) Underground pipes, flues and drains.

The items listed in b.(1) through b.(4) above are deleted from Property Not Covered, but only with respect to the coverage described in this provision, 3.b.

E. Loss Payment

1. All following loss payment provisions, E.2. through E.5., are subject to the apportionment procedures set forth in Section B.3. of this endorsement.
2. When there is a loss in value of an undamaged portion of a building to which Coverage A applies, the loss payment for that building, including damaged and undamaged portions, will be determined as follows:
 - a. If the Replacement Cost Coverage Option applies and the property is being repaired or replaced, on the same or another premises, we will not pay more than the lesser of:
 - (1) The amount you would actually spend to repair, rebuild or reconstruct the building, but not for more than the amount it would cost to restore the building on the same premises and to the same height, floor area, style and comparable quality of the original property insured; or
 - (2) The Limit Of Insurance shown in the Declarations as applicable to the covered building.
 - b. If the Replacement Cost Coverage Option applies and the property is not repaired or replaced, or if the Replacement Cost Coverage Option does not apply, we will not pay more than the lesser of:

- (1) The actual cash value of the building at the time of loss; or
- (2) The Limit Of Insurance shown in the Declarations as applicable to the covered building.

3. Unless Paragraph E.5. applies, loss payment under Coverage B - Demolition Cost Coverage will be determined as follows:

We will not pay more than the lesser of the following:

- a. The amount you actually spend to demolish and clear the site of the described premises; or
- b. The applicable Limit Of Insurance shown for Coverage B in the Schedule above.

4. Unless Paragraph E.5. applies, loss payment under Coverage C - Increased Cost Of Construction Coverage will be determined as follows:

a. We will not pay under Coverage C:

- (1) Until the property is actually repaired or replaced, at the same or another premises; and
- (2) Unless the repair or replacement is made as soon as reasonably possible after the loss or damage, not to exceed two years. We may extend this period in writing during the two years.

b. If the building is repaired or replaced at the same premises, or if you elect to rebuild at another premises, the most we will pay under Coverage C is the lesser of:

- (1) The increased cost of construction at the same premises; or
- (2) The applicable Limit Of Insurance shown for Coverage C in the Schedule above.

c. If the ordinance or law requires relocation to another premises, the most we will pay under Coverage C is the lesser of:

- (1) The increased cost of construction at the new premises; or

- (2) The applicable Limit Of Insurance shown for Coverage C in the Schedule above.
5. If a Combined Limit Of Insurance is shown for Coverages B and C in the Schedule above, Paragraphs E.3. and E.4. of this endorsement do not apply with respect to the building that is subject to the Combined Limit, and the following loss payment provisions apply instead:

The most we will pay, for the total of all covered losses for Demolition Cost and Increased Cost of Construction, is the Combined Limit Of Insurance shown for Coverages B and C in the Schedule above. Subject to this Combined Limit of Insurance, the following loss payment provisions apply:

- a. For Demolition Cost, we will not pay more than the amount you actually spend to demolish and clear the site of the described premises.
- b. With respect to the Increased Cost of Construction:
- (1) We will not pay for the increased cost of construction:
- (a) Until the property is actually repaired or replaced, at the same or another premises; and
- (b) Unless the repair or replacement is made as soon as reasonably possible after the loss or damage, not to exceed two years. We may extend this period in writing during the two years.
- (2) If the building is repaired or replaced at the same premises, or if you elect to rebuild at another premises, the most we will pay for the increased cost of construction is the increased cost of construction at the same premises.
- (3) If the ordinance or law requires relocation to another premises, the most we will pay for the increased cost of construction is the increased cost of construction at the new premises.

- F. The terms of this endorsement apply separately to each building to which this endorsement applies.
- G. Under this endorsement we will not pay for loss due to any ordinance or law that:
1. You were required to comply with before the loss, even if the building was undamaged; and
 2. You failed to comply with.
- H. Example of proportionate loss payment for Ordinance Or Law Coverage Losses (procedure as set forth in Section B.3. of this endorsement).

Assume:

- Wind is a Covered Cause of Loss; Flood is an excluded Cause of Loss
- The building has a value of $200,000
- Total direct physical damage to building: $100,000
- The ordinance or law in this jurisdiction is enforced when building damage equals or exceeds 50% of the building's value
- Portion of direct physical damage that is covered (caused by wind): $30,000
- Portion of direct physical damage that is not covered (caused by flood): $70,000
- Loss under Ordinance Or Law Coverage C of this endorsement: $60,000

Step 1: Determine the proportion that the covered direct physical damage bears to the total direct physical damage.

$$$30,000 \div $100,000 = .30$$

Step 2: Apply that proportion to the Ordinance or Law loss.

$$$60,000 \times .30 = $18,000$$

In this example, the most we will pay under this endorsement for the Coverage C loss is $18,000, subject to the applicable Limit of Insurance and any other applicable provisions.

Note: The same procedure applies to losses under Coverages A and B of this endorsement.

1. The following definition is added:
"Fungus" means any type or form of fungus, including mold or mildew, and any mycotoxins, spores, scents or by-products produced or released by fungi.

CAUSES OF LOSS - SPECIAL FORM²⁷³

Words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to Section G. Definitions.

A. Covered Causes Of Loss

When Special is shown in the Declarations, Covered Causes of Loss means direct physical loss unless the loss is excluded or limited in this policy.

B. Exclusions

1. We will not pay for loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by any of the following. Such loss or damage is excluded regardless of any other cause or event that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the loss.

- a. Ordinance Or Law²⁷⁴

The enforcement of or compliance with any ordinance or law:

- (1) Regulating the construction, use or repair of any property; or
- (2) Requiring the tearing down of any property, including the cost of removing its debris.

This exclusion, Ordinance Or Law, applies whether the loss results from:

- (a) An ordinance or law that is enforced even if the property has not been damaged; or
- (b) The increased costs incurred to comply with an ordinance or law in the course of construction, repair, renovation, remodeling or demolition of property, or removal of its debris, following a physical loss to that property.

b. Earth Movement

- (1) Earthquake, including tremors and aftershocks and any earth sinking, rising or shifting related to such event;
- (2) Landslide, including any earth sinking, rising or shifting related to such event;
- (3) Mine subsidence, meaning subsidence of a man-made mine, whether or not mining activity has ceased;
- (4) Earth sinking (other than sinkhole collapse), rising or shifting including soil conditions which cause settling, cracking or other disarrangement of foundations or other parts of realty. Soil conditions include contraction, expansion, freezing, thawing, erosion, improperly compacted soil and the action of water under the ground surface.

But if Earth Movement, as described in b.(1) through(4) above, results in fire or explosion, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire or explosion.

- (5) Volcanic eruption, explosion or effusion. But if volcanic eruption, explosion or effusion results in fire, building glass breakage or Volcanic Action, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire, building glass breakage or Volcanic Action.

Volcanic Action means direct loss or damage resulting from the eruption of a volcano when the loss or damage is caused by:

- (a) Airborne volcanic blast or airborne shock waves;
- (b) Ash, dust or particulate matter; or
- (c) Lava flow.

With respect to coverage for Volcanic Action as set forth in (5)(a), (5)(b) and (5)(c), all volcanic eruptions that occur within any 168-hour period will constitute a single occurrence.

Volcanic Action does not include the cost to remove ash, dust or particulate matter that does not cause direct physical loss or damage to the described property.

This exclusion applies regardless of whether any of the above, in Paragraphs (1) through (5), is caused by an act of nature or is otherwise caused.

c. Governmental Action

Seizure or destruction of property by order of governmental authority.

But we will pay for loss or damage caused by or resulting from acts of destruction ordered by governmental authority and taken at the time of a fire to prevent its spread, if the fire would be covered under this Coverage Part.

d. Nuclear Hazard

Nuclear reaction or radiation, or radioactive contamination, however caused.

But if nuclear reaction or radiation, or radioactive contamination, results in fire, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire.

e. Utility Services

The failure of power, communication, water or other utility service supplied to the described premises, however caused, if the failure:

- (1) Originates away from the described premises; or
- (2) Originates at the described premises, but only if such failure involves equipment used to supply the utility service to the described premises from a source away from the described premises.

Failure of any utility service includes lack of sufficient capacity and reduction in supply.

Loss or damage caused by a surge of power is also excluded, if the surge would not have occurred but for an event causing a failure of power.

But if the failure or surge of power, or the failure of communication, water or other utility service, results in a Covered Cause of Loss, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that Covered Cause of Loss.

Communication services include but are not limited to service relating to Internet access or access to any electronic, cellular or satellite network.

f. War And Military Action

- (1) War, including undeclared or civil war;
- (2) Warlike action by a military force, including action in hindering or defending against an actual or expected attack, by any government, sovereign or other authority using military personnel or other agents; or
- (3) Insurrection, rebellion, revolution, usurped power, or action taken by governmental authority in hindering or defending against any of these.

g. Water²⁷⁵

- (1) Flood, surface water, waves (including tidal wave and tsunami), tides, tidal water, overflow of any body of water, or spray from any of these, all whether or not driven by wind (including storm surge);

- (2) Mudslide or mudflow;
- (3) Water that backs up or overflows or is otherwise discharged from a sewer, drain, sump, sump pump or related equipment;
- (4) Water under the ground surface pressing on, or flowing or seeping through:
 - (a) Foundations, walls, floors or paved surfaces;
 - (b) Basements, whether paved or not; or
 - (c) Doors, windows or other openings; or
- (5) Waterborne material carried or otherwise moved by any of the water referred to in Paragraph (1), (3) or (4), or material carried or otherwise moved by mudslide or mudflow.

This exclusion applies regardless of whether any of the above, in Paragraphs (1) through (5), is caused by an act of nature or is otherwise caused. An example of a situation to which this exclusion applies is the situation where a dam, levee, seawall or other boundary or containment system fails in whole or in part, for any reason, to contain the water.

But if any of the above, in Paragraphs (1) through (5), results in fire, explosion or sprinkler leakage, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire, explosion or sprinkler leakage (if sprinkler leakage is a Covered Cause of Loss).

h. "Fungus", Wet Rot, Dry Rot And Bacteria

Presence, growth, proliferation, spread or any activity of "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria.

But if "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria result in a "specified cause of loss", we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that "specified cause of loss".

This exclusion does not apply:

- (1) When "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria result from fire or lightning; or
- (2) To the extent that coverage is provided in the Additional Coverage, Limited Coverage For "Fungus", Wet Rot, Dry Rot And Bacteria, with respect to loss or damage by a cause of loss other than fire or lightning.

Exclusions B.1.a. through B.1.h. apply whether or not the loss event results in widespread damage or affects a substantial area.

2. We will not pay for loss or damage caused by or resulting from any of the following:

a. Artificially generated electrical, magnetic or electromagnetic energy that damages, disturbs, disrupts or otherwise interferes with any:

- (1) Electrical or electronic wire, device, appliance, system or network; or
- (2) Device, appliance, system or network utilizing cellular or satellite technology.

For the purpose of this exclusion, electrical, magnetic or electromagnetic energy includes but is not limited to:

- (a) Electrical current, including arcing;
- (b) Electrical charge produced or conducted by a magnetic or electromagnetic field;
- (c) Pulse of electromagnetic energy; or
- (d) Electromagnetic waves or microwaves.

But if fire results, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire.

- b. Delay, loss of use or loss of market.
- c. Smoke, vapor or gas from agricultural smudging or industrial operations.
- d. (1) Wear and tear;

- (2) Rust or other corrosion, decay, deterioration, hidden or latent defect or any quality in property that causes it to damage or destroy itself;
- (3) Smog;
- (4) Settling, cracking, shrinking or expansion;
- (5) Nesting or infestation, or discharge or release of waste products or secretions, by insects, birds, rodents or other animals.
- (6) Mechanical breakdown, including rupture or bursting caused by centrifugal force. But if mechanical breakdown results in elevator collision, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that elevator collision.
- (7) The following causes of loss to personal property:
 - (a) Dampness or dryness of atmosphere;
 - (b) Changes in or extremes of temperature; or
 - (c) Marring or scratching.

But if an excluded cause of loss that is listed in 2.d.(1) through (7) results in a "specified cause of loss" or building glass breakage, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that "specified cause of loss" or building glass breakage.

- e. Explosion of steam boilers,²⁷⁶ steam pipes, steam engines or steam turbines owned or leased by you, or operated under your control. But if explosion of steam boilers, steam pipes, steam engines or steam turbines results in fire or combustion explosion, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire or combustion explosion. We will also pay for loss or damage caused by or resulting from the explosion of gases or fuel within the furnace of any fired vessel or within the flues or passages through which the gases of combustion pass.
- f. Continuous or repeated seepage or leakage of water, or the presence or condensation of humidity, moisture or vapor, that occurs over a period of 14 days or more.

- g. Water, other liquids, powder or molten material that leaks or flows from plumbing, heating, air conditioning or other equipment (except fire protective systems) caused by or resulting from freezing, unless:
 - (1) You do your best to maintain heat in the building or structure; or
 - (2) You drain the equipment and shut off the supply if the heat is not maintained.
- h. Dishonest or criminal act (including theft) by you, any of your partners, members, officers, managers, employees (including temporary employees and leased workers), directors, trustees or authorized representatives, whether acting alone or in collusion with each other or with any other party; or theft by any person to whom you entrust the property for any purpose, whether acting alone or in collusion with any other party.

This exclusion:

- (1) Applies whether or not an act occurs during your normal hours of operation;
- (2) Does not apply to acts of destruction by your employees (including temporary employees and leased workers) or authorized representatives; but theft by your employees (including temporary employees and leased workers) or authorized representatives is not covered.
- i. Voluntary parting with any property by you or anyone else to whom you have entrusted the property if induced to do so by any fraudulent scheme, trick, device or false pretense.
- j. Rain, snow, ice or sleet to personal property in the open.

k. Collapse, including any of the following conditions of property or any part of the property:

- (1) An abrupt falling down or caving in;
- (2) Loss of structural integrity, including separation of parts of the property or property in danger of falling down or caving in; or
- (3) Any cracking, bulging, sagging, bending, leaning, settling, shrinkage or expansion as such condition relates to (1) or (2) above.

But if collapse results in a Covered Cause of Loss at the described premises, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that Covered Cause of Loss.

This exclusion, k., does not apply:

- (a) To the extent that coverage is provided under the Additional Coverage, Collapse; or
- (b) To collapse caused by one or more of the following:
 - (i) The "specified causes of loss"
 - (ii) Breakage of building glass;
 - (iii) Weight of rain that collects on a roof; or
 - (iv) Weight of people or personal property.

l. Discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of "pollutants" unless the discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape is itself caused by any of the "specified causes of loss". But if the discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of "pollutants" results in a "specified cause of loss", we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that "specified cause of loss".

This exclusion, l., does not apply to damage to glass caused by chemicals applied to the glass.

m. Neglect of an insured to use all reasonable means to save and preserve property from further damage at and after the time of loss.

3. We will not pay for loss or damage caused by or resulting from any of the following, 3.a. through 3.c. But if an excluded cause of loss that is listed in 3.a. through 3.c. results in a Covered Cause of Loss, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that Covered Cause of Loss.

a. Weather conditions. But this exclusion only applies if weather conditions contribute in any way with a cause or event excluded in Paragraph 1. above to produce the loss or damage.

b. Acts or decisions, including the failure to act or decide, of any person, group, organization or governmental body.

c. Faulty, inadequate or defective:

(1) Planning, zoning, development, surveying, siting;

(2) Design, specifications, workmanship, repair, construction, renovation, remodeling, grading, compaction;

The following provisions apply only to the specified Coverage Forms:

a. Business Income (And Extra Expense) Coverage Form, Business Income (Without Extra Expense) Coverage Form, Or Extra Expense Coverage Form

We will not pay for:

(1) Any loss caused by or resulting from:

(a) Damage or destruction of "finished stock" or

- (b) The time required to reproduce "finished stock".

This exclusion does not apply to Extra Expense.

- (2) Any loss caused by or resulting from direct physical loss or damage to radio or television antennas (including satellite dishes) and their lead-in wiring, masts or towers.

- (3) Any increase of loss caused by or resulting from:

- (a) Delay in rebuilding, repairing or replacing the property or resuming "operations", due to interference at the location of the rebuilding, repair or replacement by strikers or other persons; or

- (b) Suspension, lapse or cancellation of any license, lease or contract. But if the suspension, lapse or cancellation is directly caused by the "suspension" of "operations", we will cover such loss that affects your Business Income during the "period of restoration" and any extension of the "period of restoration" in accordance with the terms of the Extended Business Income Additional Coverage and the Extended Period Of Indemnity Optional Coverage or any variation of these.

- (4) Any Extra Expense caused by or resulting from suspension, lapse or cancellation of any license, lease or contract beyond the "period of restoration".

We will not defend any claim or "suit", or pay damages that you are legally liable to pay, solely by reason of your assumption of liability in a contract or agreement ²⁷⁷. But this exclusion does not apply to a written lease agreement in which you have assumed liability for building damage resulting from an actual or attempted burglary or robbery, provided that:

- (i) Your assumption of liability was executed prior to the accident; and
- (ii) The building is Covered Property under this Coverage Form.

(b) Nuclear Hazard

We will not defend any claim or "suit", or pay any damages, loss, expense or obligation, resulting from nuclear reaction or radiation, or radioactive contamination, however caused.

5. Additional Exclusion

The following provisions apply only to the specified property:

Loss Or Damage To Products

We will not pay for loss or damage to any merchandise, goods or other product caused by or resulting from error or omission by any person or entity (including those having possession under an arrangement where work or a portion of the work is outsourced) in any stage of the development, production or use of the product, including planning, testing, processing, packaging, installation, maintenance or repair. This exclusion applies to any effect that compromises the form, substance or quality of the product. But if such error or omission results in a Covered Cause of Loss, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that Covered Cause of Loss.

C. Limitations

The following limitations apply to all policy forms and endorsements, unless otherwise stated:

1. We will not pay for loss of or damage to property, as described and limited in this section. In addition, we will not pay for any loss that is a consequence of loss or damage as described and limited in this section.
 - a. Steam boilers, steam pipes, steam engines or steam turbines caused by or resulting from any condition or event inside such equipment. But we will pay for loss of or damage to such equipment caused by or resulting from an explosion of gases or fuel within the furnace of any fired vessel or within the flues or passages through which the gases of combustion pass.
 - b. Hot water boilers or other water heating equipment caused by or resulting from any condition or event inside such boilers or equipment, other than an explosion.

- c. The interior of any building or structure, or to personal property in the building or structure, caused by or resulting from rain, snow, sleet, ice, sand or dust, whether driven by wind or not, unless:

- (1) The building or structure first sustains damage by a Covered Cause of Loss to its roof or walls through which the rain, snow, sleet, ice, sand or dust enters; or
- (2) The loss or damage is caused by or results from thawing of snow, sleet or ice on the building or structure.

- d. Building materials and supplies not attached as part of the building or structure, caused by or resulting from theft.

However, this limitation does not apply to:

- (1) Building materials and supplies held for sale by you, unless they are insured under the Builders Risk Coverage Form; or
- (2) Business Income Coverage or Extra Expense Coverage.

- e. Property that is missing, where the only evidence of the loss or damage is a shortage disclosed on taking inventory, or other instances where there is no physical evidence to show what happened to the property.
- f. Property that has been transferred to a person or to a place outside the described premises on the basis of unauthorized instructions.
- g. Lawns, trees, shrubs or plants which are part of a vegetated roof, caused by or resulting from:
 - (1) Dampness or dryness of atmosphere or of soil supporting the vegetation;
 - (2) Changes in or extremes of temperature;
 - (3) Disease;

- (4) Frost or hail; or

 - (2) To Business Income Coverage or to Extra Expense Coverage.
3. The special limit shown for each category, a. through d., is the total limit for loss of or damage to all property in that category. The special limit applies to any one occurrence of theft, regardless of the types or number of articles that are lost or damaged in that occurrence. The special limits are (unless a higher limit is shown in the Declarations):
- a. $2,500 for furs, fur garments and garments trimmed with fur.
 - b. $2,500 for jewelry, watches, watch movements, jewels, pearls, precious and semiprecious stones, bullion, gold, silver, platinum and other precious alloys or metals. This limit does not apply to jewelry and watches worth $100 or less per item.

These special limits are part of, not in addition to, the Limit of Insurance applicable to the Covered Property.

This limitation, C.3., does not apply to Business Income Coverage or to Extra Expense Coverage.

4. We will not pay the cost to repair any defect to a system or appliance from which water, other liquid, powder or molten material escapes. But we will pay the cost to repair or replace damaged parts of fire-extinguishing equipment if the damage:

 - b. Is directly caused by freezing.

However, this limitation does not apply to Business Income Coverage or to Extra Expense Coverage.

D. Additional Coverage - Collapse

The coverage provided under this Additional Coverage, Collapse, applies only to an abrupt collapse as described and limited in D.1. through D.7.

- 1. For the purpose of this Additional Coverage, Collapse, abrupt collapse means an abrupt falling down or caving in of a building or any part of a building with the result that the building or part of the building cannot be occupied for its intended purpose.
- 2. We will pay for direct physical loss or damage to Covered Property, caused by abrupt collapse of a building or any part of a building that is insured under this Coverage Form or that contains Covered Property insured under this Coverage Form, if such collapse is caused by one or more of the following:
 - a. Building decay that is hidden from view, unless the presence of such decay is known to an insured prior to collapse;
 - b. Insect or vermin damage that is hidden from view, unless the presence of such damage is known to an insured prior to collapse;

- c. Use of defective material or methods in construction, remodeling or renovation if the abrupt collapse occurs during the course of the construction, remodeling or renovation.
 - d. Use of defective material or methods in construction, remodeling or renovation if the abrupt collapse occurs after the construction, remodeling or renovation is complete, but only if the collapse is caused in part by:
 - (1) A cause of loss listed in 2.a. or 2.b.;
 - (2) One or more of the "specified causes of loss"
 - (3) Breakage of building glass;
 - (4) Weight of people or personal property; or
 - (5) Weight of rain that collects on a roof.
3. This Additional Coverage - Collapse does not apply to:
- a. A building or any part of a building that is in danger of falling down or caving in;
 - b. A part of a building that is standing, even if it has separated from another part of the building; or
 - c. A building that is standing or any part of a building that is standing, even if it shows evidence of cracking, bulging, sagging, bending, leaning, settling, shrinkage or expansion.
4. With respect to the following property:
- a. Outdoor radio or television antennas (including satellite dishes) and their lead-in wiring, masts or towers;
 - b. Awnings, gutters and downspouts;
 - c. Yard fixtures;
 - d. Outdoor swimming pools;
 - e. Fences;
 - f. Piers, wharves and docks;
 - g. Beach or diving platforms or appurtenances;
 - h. Retaining walls; and
- i. Walks, roadways and other paved surfaces;
- if an abrupt collapse is caused by a cause of loss listed in 2.a. through 2.d., we will pay for loss or damage to that property only if:
- (1) Such loss or damage is a direct result of the abrupt collapse of a building insured under this Coverage Form; and
 - (2) The property is Covered Property under this Coverage Form.
5. If personal property abruptly falls down or caves in and such collapse is not the result of abrupt collapse of a building, we will pay for loss or damage to Covered Property caused by such collapse of personal property only if:
- a. The collapse of personal property was caused by a cause of loss listed in 2.a. through 2.d.;
 - b. The personal property which collapses is inside a building; and
 - c. The property which collapses is not of a kind listed in 4., regardless of whether that kind of property is considered to be personal property or real property.
- The coverage stated in this Paragraph 5. does not apply to personal property if marring and/or scratching is the only damage to that personal property caused by the collapse.
6. This Additional Coverage, Collapse, does not apply to personal property that has not abruptly fallen down or caved in, even if the personal property shows evidence of cracking, bulging, sagging, bending, leaning, settling, shrinkage or expansion.
7. This Additional Coverage, Collapse, will not increase the Limits of Insurance provided in this Coverage Part.
8. The term Covered Cause of Loss includes the Additional Coverage, Collapse, as described and limited in D.1. through D.7.

E. Additional Coverage - Limited Coverage For "Fungus", Wet Rot, Dry Rot And Bacteria

1. The coverage described in E.2. and E.6. only applies when the "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria are the result of one or more of the following causes that occur during the policy period and only if all reasonable means were used to save and preserve the property from further damage at the time of and after that occurrence:

- a. A "specified cause of loss" other than fire or lightning; or
- b. Flood, if the Flood Coverage Endorsement applies to the affected premises.

This Additional Coverage does not apply to lawns, trees, shrubs or plants which are part of a vegetated roof.

2. We will pay for loss or damage by "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria. As used in this Limited Coverage, the term loss or damage means:

- a. Direct physical loss or damage to Covered Property caused by "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria, including the cost of removal of the "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria;
- b. The cost to tear out and replace any part of the building or other property as needed to gain access to the "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria; and
- c. The cost of testing performed after removal, repair, replacement or restoration of the damaged property is completed, provided there is a reason to believe that "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria are present.

3. The coverage described under E.2. of this Limited Coverage is limited to $15,000. Regardless of the number of claims, this limit is the most we will pay for the total of all loss or damage arising out of all occurrences of "specified causes of loss" (other than fire or lightning) and Flood which take place in a 12-month period (starting with the beginning of the present annual policy period). With respect to a particular occurrence of loss which results in "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria, we will not pay more than a total of $15,000 even if the "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria continue to be present or active, or recur, in a later policy period.

4. The coverage provided under this Limited Coverage does not increase the applicable Limit of Insurance on any Covered Property. If a particular occurrence results in loss or damage by "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria, and other loss or damage, we will not pay more, for the total of all loss or damage, than the applicable Limit of Insurance on the affected Covered Property.

If there is covered loss or damage to Covered Property, not caused by "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria, loss payment will not be limited by the terms of this Limited Coverage, except to the extent that "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria cause an increase in the loss. Any such increase in the loss will be subject to the terms of this Limited Coverage.

5. The terms of this Limited Coverage do not increase or reduce the coverage provided under Paragraph F.2. (Water Damage, Other Liquids, Powder Or Molten Material Damage) of this Causes Of Loss form or under the Additional Coverage, Collapse.

6. The following, 6.a. or 6.b., applies only if Business Income and/or Extra Expense Coverage applies to the described premises and only if the "suspension" of "operations" satisfies all terms and conditions of the applicable Business Income and/or Extra Expense Coverage Form:

- a. If the loss which resulted in "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria does not in itself necessitate a "suspension" of "operations", but such "suspension" is necessary due to loss or damage to property caused by "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria, then our payment under Business Income and/or Extra Expense is limited to the amount of loss and/or expense sustained in a period of not more than 30 days. The days need not be consecutive.
- b. If a covered "suspension" of "operations" was caused by loss or damage other than "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria but remediation of "fungus", wet or dry rot or bacteria prolongs the "period of restoration", we will pay for loss and/or expense sustained during the delay (regardless of when such a delay occurs during the "period of restoration"), but such coverage is limited to 30 days. The days need not be consecutive.

F. Additional Coverage Extensions

1. Property In Transit

This Extension applies only to your personal property to which this form applies.

- a. You may extend the insurance provided by this Coverage Part to apply to your personal property (other than property in the care, custody or control of your salespersons) in transit more than 100 feet from the described premises. Property must be in or on a motor vehicle you own, lease or operate while between points in the coverage territory.
- b. Loss or damage must be caused by or result from one of the following causes of loss:
 - (1) Fire, lightning, explosion, windstorm or hail, riot or civil commotion, or vandalism.
 - (2) Vehicle collision, upset or overturn. Collision means accidental contact of your vehicle with another vehicle or object. It does not mean your vehicle's contact with the roadbed.
 - (3) Theft of an entire bale, case or package by forced entry into a securely locked body or compartment of the vehicle. There must be visible marks of the forced entry.
- c. The most we will pay for loss or damage under this Extension is $5,000.

This Coverage Extension is additional insurance. The Additional Condition, Coinsurance, does not apply to this Extension.

2. Water Damage, Other Liquids, Powder Or Molten Material Damage

If loss or damage caused by or resulting from covered water or other liquid, powder or molten material damage loss occurs, we will also pay the cost to tear out and replace any part of the building or structure to repair damage to the system or appliance from which the water or other substance escapes. This Coverage Extension does not increase the Limit of Insurance.

3. Glass

- a. We will pay for expenses incurred to put up temporary plates or board up openings if repair or replacement of damaged glass is delayed.
- b. We will pay for expenses incurred to remove or replace obstructions when repairing or replacing glass that is part of a building. This does not include removing or replacing window displays.

This Coverage Extension F.3. does not increase the Limit of Insurance.

G. Definitions

1. "Fungus" means any type or form of fungus, including mold or mildew, and any mycotoxins, spores, scents or by-products produced or released by fungi.
2. "Specified causes of loss" means the following: fire; lightning; explosion; windstorm or hail; smoke; aircraft or vehicles; riot or civil commotion; vandalism; leakage from fire-extinguishing equipment; sinkhole collapse; volcanic action; falling objects; weight of snow, ice or sleet; water damage.
 - a. Sinkhole collapse means the sudden sinking or collapse of land into underground empty spaces created by the action of water on limestone or dolomite. This cause of loss does not include:
 - (1) The cost of filling sinkholes; or
 - (2) Sinking or collapse of land into man-made underground cavities.
 - b. Falling objects does not include loss or damage to:

- (1) Personal property in the open; or
- (2) The interior of a building or structure, or property inside a building or structure, unless the roof or an outside wall of the building or structure is first damaged by a falling object.

c. Water damage means:

- (1) Accidental discharge or leakage of water or steam as the direct result of the breaking apart or cracking of a plumbing, heating, air conditioning or other system or appliance (other than a sump system including its related equipment and parts), that is located on the described premises and contains water or steam; and
- (2) Accidental discharge or leakage of water or waterborne material as the direct result of the breaking apart or cracking of a water or sewer pipe that is located off the described premises and is part of a municipal potable water supply system or municipal sanitary sewer system, if the breakage or cracking is caused by wear and tear.

But water damage does not include loss or damage otherwise excluded under the terms of the Water Exclusion. Therefore, for example, there is no coverage under this policy in the situation in which discharge or leakage of water results from the breaking apart or cracking of a pipe which was caused by or related to weather-induced flooding, even if wear and tear contributed to the breakage or cracking. As another example, and also in accordance with the terms of the Water Exclusion, there is no coverage for loss or damage caused by or related to weather-induced flooding which follows or is exacerbated by pipe breakage or cracking attributable to wear and tear.

To the extent that accidental discharge or leakage of water falls within the criteria set forth in c.(1) or c.(2) of this definition of "specified causes of loss," such water is not subject to the provisions of the Water Exclusion which preclude coverage for surface water or water under the surface of the ground.

The following is added to the Loss Payment Loss Condition, as indicated in the Declarations or in the Schedule:

C. Loss Payable Clause

For Covered Property in which both you and a Loss Payee shown in the Schedule or in the Declarations have an insurable interest, we will:

1. Adjust losses with you; and
2. Pay any claim for loss or damage jointly to you and the Loss Payee, as interests may appear.

D. Lender's Loss Payable Clause

1. The Loss Payee shown in the Schedule or in the Declarations is a creditor, including a mortgageholder or trustee, whose interest in Covered Property is established by such written instruments as:

- a. Warehouse receipts;
- b. A contract for deed;
- c. Bills of lading;

- b. The Loss Payee has the right to receive loss payment even if the Loss Payee has started foreclosure or similar action on the Covered Property.

c. If we deny your claim because of your acts or because you have failed to comply with the terms of the Coverage Part, the Loss Payee will still have the right to receive loss payment if the Loss Payee:

- (1) Pays any premium due under this Coverage Part at our request if you have failed to do so;
- (2) Submits a signed, sworn proof of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us of your failure to do so; and

ADDITIONAL INSURED – BUILDING OWNER²⁷⁹

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY COVERAGE PART

SCHEDULE

Premises Number:		Building Number:
Building Description:
Building Owner Name:
Building Owner Address:
Information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

The building owner identified in this endorsement is a Named Insured, but only with respect to the coverage provided under this Coverage Part or Policy for direct physical loss or damage to the building(s) described in the Schedule.

LEASEHOLD INTEREST COVERAGE FORM²⁸⁰

Throughout this policy the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured shown in the Declarations. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the Company providing this insurance.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to SECTION F. – DEFINITIONS.

A. COVERAGE

We will pay for loss of Covered Leasehold Interest you sustain due to the cancellation of your lease. The cancellation must result from direct physical loss of or damage to property at the premises described in the Declarations caused by or resulting from any Covered Cause of Loss.

1. Covered Leasehold Interest

Covered Leasehold Interest means the following for which an amount of "net leasehold interest" at inception is shown in the Leasehold Interest Coverage Schedule:

a. Tenants' Lease Interest, meaning the difference between the:

- (1) Rent you pay at the described premises; and
- (2) Rental value of the described premises that you lease.

b. Bonus Payments, meaning the unamortized portion of a cash bonus that will not be refunded to you. A cash bonus is money you paid to acquire your lease. It does not include:

- (1) Rent, whether or not prepaid; or
- (2) Security.

c. Improvements and Betterments, meaning the unamortized portion of payments made by you for improvements and betterments. It does not include the value of improvements and betterments recoverable under any other insurance, but only to the extent of such other insurance.

Improvements and betterments are fixtures, alterations, installations or additions:

(1) Made a part of the building or structure you occupy but do not own; and

(2) You acquired or made at your expense but cannot legally remove.

d. Prepaid Rent, meaning the unamortized portion of any amount of advance rent you paid that will not be refunded to you. This does not include the customary rent due at:

- (1) The beginning of each month; or
- (2) Any other rental period.

2. Covered Causes Of Loss

See applicable Causes of Loss Form as shown in the Declarations.

B. EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

See applicable Causes of Loss Form as shown in the Declarations.

C. LIMITS OF INSURANCE1. Applicable to Tenants' Lease Interest

a. The most we will pay for loss because of the cancellation of any one lease is your "net leasehold interest" at the time of loss.

But, if your lease is cancelled and your landlord lets you continue to use your premises under a new lease or other arrangement, the most we will pay for loss because of the cancellation of any one lease is the lesser of:

- (1) The difference between the rent you now pay and the rent you will pay under the new lease or other arrangement; or
- (2) Your "net leasehold interest" at the time of loss.

- b. Your "net leasehold interest" decreases automatically each month. The amount of "net leasehold interest" at any time is your "gross leasehold interest" times the leasehold interest factor for the remaining months of your lease. A proportionate share applies for any period of time less than a month.

Refer to the end of this form for a table of leasehold interest factors.

2. Applicable to Bonus Payments, Improvements and Betterments and Prepaid Rent

- a. The most we will pay for loss because of the cancellation of any one lease is your "net leasehold interest" at the time of loss.

But, if your lease is cancelled and your landlord lets you continue to use your premises under a new lease or other arrangement, the most we will pay for loss because of the cancellation of any one lease is the lesser of:

- (1) The loss sustained by you; or
- (2) Your "net leasehold interest" at the time of loss.

- b. Your "net leasehold interest" decreases automatically each month. The amount of each decrease is your "monthly leasehold interest". A proportionate share applies for any period of time less than a month.

D. LOSS CONDITIONS

The following conditions apply in addition to the Common Policy Conditions and the Commercial Property Conditions.

1. Appraisal

If we and you disagree on the amount of loss, either may make written demand for an appraisal. In this event, each party will select a competent and impartial appraiser. The two appraisers will select an umpire. If they cannot agree, either may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. The appraisers will state the amount of loss. If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two will be binding. Each party will:

- a. Pay its chosen appraiser; and

- b. Bear the other expenses of the appraisal and umpire equally.

If there is an appraisal, we will still retain our right to deny the claim.

2. Duties In The Event Of Loss Of Covered Leasehold Interest

- a. You must see that the following are done in the event of loss of Covered Leasehold Interest:

- (1) Notify the police if a law may have been broken.
- (2) Give us prompt notice of the direct physical loss or damage. Include a description of the property involved.
- (3) As soon as possible, give us a description of how, when and where the direct physical loss or damage occurred.
- (4) Take all reasonable steps to protect the property at the described premises from further damage by a Covered Cause of Loss. However, we will not pay for any subsequent loss or damage resulting from a cause of loss that is not a Covered Cause of Loss. Also, if feasible, set the damaged property aside and in the best possible order for examination.
- (5) As often as may be reasonably required, permit us to inspect the property proving the loss or damage and examine your books and records.

Also permit us to take samples of damaged and undamaged property for inspection, testing and analysis, and permit us to make copies from your books and records.

- (6) Send us a signed, sworn proof of loss containing the information we request to investigate the claim. You must do this within 60 days after our request. We will supply you with the necessary forms.
- (7) Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim.

- b. We may examine any insured under oath, while not in the presence of any other insured and at such times as may be reasonably required, about any matter relating to this insurance or the claim, including an insured's books and records. In the event of an examination, an insured's answers must be signed.

3. Loss Payment

We will pay for covered loss within 30 days after we receive the sworn proof of loss, if:

- a. You have complied with all of the terms of this Coverage Part; and
- b.(1) We have reached agreement with you on the amount of loss; or
- (2) An appraisal award has been made.

4. Vacancy

a. Description of Terms

- (1) As used in this Vacancy Condition, with respect to the tenant's interest in Covered Property, building means the unit or suite rented or leased to the tenant. Such building is vacant when it does not contain enough business personal property to conduct customary operations.
- (2) Buildings under construction or renovation are not considered vacant.

b. Vacancy Provisions – Subleased Premises

The following provisions apply if the building where direct physical loss or damage occurs has been vacant for more than 60 consecutive days before that loss or damage occurs, provided you have entered into an agreement to sublease the described premises as of the time of loss or damage:

- (1) We will not pay for any loss or damage caused by any of the following even if they are Covered Causes of Loss:
 - (a) Vandalism;
 - (b) Sprinkler leakage, unless you have protected the system against freezing;
 - (c) Building glass breakage;

- (d) Water damage;
- (e) Theft; or
- (f) Attempted theft.

- (2) With respect to a Covered Cause of Loss not listed in (1)(a) through (1)(f) above, we will reduce the amount we would otherwise pay for the loss or damage by 15%.

- c. If you have not entered into an agreement to sublease the described premises as of the time of loss or damage, we will not pay for any loss of Covered Leasehold Interest.

E.ADDITIONAL CONDITION

The following condition replaces the Cancellation Common Policy Condition:

CANCELLATION

- 1. The first Named Insured shown in the Declarations may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to us advance notice of cancellation.
- 2. We may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to the first Named Insured written notice of cancellation at least:
 - a. 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for nonpayment of premium; or
 - b. 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for any other reason.
- 3. We will mail or deliver our notice to the first Named Insured's last mailing address known to us.
- 4. Notice of cancellation will state the effective date of cancellation. The policy will end on that date.
- 5. If this policy is cancelled, we will send the first Named Insured any premium refund due. The cancellation will be effective even if we have not made or offered a refund.
- 6. If this coverage is cancelled, we will calculate the earned premium by:
 - a. Computing the average of the "net leasehold interest" at the:
 - (1) Inception date, and
 - (2) Cancellation date, of this coverage.

- b. Multiplying the rate for the period of coverage by the average "net leasehold interest".
 - c. If we cancel, we will send you a premium refund based on the difference between the:
 - (1) Premium you originally paid us; and
 - (2) Proportion of the premium calculated by multiplying the amount in paragraph a. times the rate for the period of coverage for the expired term of the policy.
 - d. If you cancel, your refund may be less than the refund calculated in paragraph c.
7. If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

F. DEFINITIONS

1. "Gross Leasehold Interest" means the difference between the:
- a. Monthly rental value of the premises you lease; and
 - b. Actual monthly rent you pay including taxes, insurance, janitorial or other service that you pay for as part of the rent.

This amount is not changed:

- (1) Whether you occupy all or part of the premises; or
- (2) If you sublet the premises.

Example:

Rental value of your leased premises	$5,000
Monthly rent including taxes, insurance, janitorial or other service that you pay for as part of the rent	-4,000
"Gross Leasehold Interest"	$1,000

2. "Monthly Leasehold Interest" means the monthly portion of covered Bonus Payments, Improvements and Betterments and Prepaid Rent. To find your "monthly leasehold interest", divide your original costs of Bonus Payments, Improvements and Betterments or Prepaid Rent by the number of months left in your lease at the time of the expenditure.

Example:

Original cost of Bonus Payment	$12,000
With 24 months left in the lease at time of Bonus Payment	÷ 24
"Monthly Leasehold Interest"	$500

3. "Net Leasehold Interest":

- a. Applicable to Tenants' Lease Interest.

"Net Leasehold Interest" means the present value of your "gross leasehold interest" for each remaining month of the term of the lease at the rate of interest shown in the Leasehold Interest Coverage Schedule.

The "net leasehold interest" is the amount that, placed at the rate of interest shown in the Leasehold Interest Coverage Schedule, would be equivalent to your receiving the "Gross Leasehold Interest" for each separate month of the unexpired term of the lease.

To find your "net leasehold interest" at any time, multiply your "gross leasehold interest" by the leasehold interest factor found in the table of leasehold interest factors attached to this form.

Example:

(20 months left in lease, 10% effective annual rate of interest)

"Gross Leasehold Interest"	$ 1,000
Leasehold Interest Factor	× 18.419
"Net Leasehold Interest"	$18,419

- b. Applicable to Bonus Payments, Improvements and Betterments or Prepaid Rent.

"Net Leasehold Interest" means the unamortized amount shown in the Schedule. Your "net leasehold interest" at any time is your "monthly leasehold interest" times the number of months left in your lease.

Example:

"Monthly Leasehold Interest"	$ 500
With 10 months left in lease	× 10
"Net Leasehold Interest"	$5,000

When this form is used to provide insurance in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more, the title of the form is changed from "Insurance Binder" to "Cover Note".

Applicable in Colorado

With respect to binders issued to renters of residential premises, home owners, condo unit owners and mobile home owners, the insurer has thirty (30) business days, commencing from the effective date of coverage, to evaluate the issuance of the insurance policy.

Applicable in Delaware

The mortgagee or Obligee of any mortgage or other instrument given for the purpose of creating a lien on real property shall accept as evidence of insurance a written binder issued by an authorized insurer or its agent if the binder includes or is accompanied by: the name and address of the borrower; the name and address of the lender as loss payee; a description of the insured real property; a provision that the binder may not be canceled within the term of the binder unless the lender and the insured borrower receive written notice of the cancellation at least ten (10) days prior to the cancellation; except in the case of a renewal of a policy subsequent to the closing of the loan, a paid receipt of the full amount of the applicable premium, and the amount of insurance coverage.

Chapter 21 Title 25 Paragraph 2119

Applicable in Florida

Except for Auto Insurance coverage, no notice of cancellation or nonrenewal of a binder is required unless the duration of the binder exceeds 60 days. For auto insurance, the insurer must give 5 days prior notice, unless the binder is replaced by a policy or another binder in the same company.

Applicable in Maryland

The insurer has 45 business days, commencing from the effective date of coverage to confirm eligibility for coverage under the insurance policy.

Applicable in Michigan

The policy may be cancelled at any time at the request of the insured.

Applicable in Nevada

Any person who refuses to accept a binder which provides coverage of less than $1,000,000.00 when proof is required: (A) Shall be fined not more than $500.00, and (B) is liable to the party presenting the binder as proof of insurance for actual damages sustained therefrom.

Applicable in the Virgin Islands

This binder is effective for only ninety (90) days. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of this binder, you should request an insurance policy or certificate (if applicable) from your agent and/or insurance company.

1. Insurance

¹ ISO. “ISO” refers to Insurance Service Office, Inc., a public company that acts as a source of information about property/casualty insurance risk. ISO provides statistical, actuarial, underwriting, and claims information; policy language; information about specific locations; fraud-identification tools; and technical services for a broad spectrum of commercial and personal lines of insurance. The form policies and endorsements ISO produces are used in whole or in part by many insurers when preparing their form policies. ISO’s forms are considered the standard form for most insurance forms and its liability policy and property policy and the endorsements thereto are referred to herein as the “standard form”. Number designations for ISO’s standard endorsements follow a pattern that classifies the endorsement according to the kind of change it effects and the edition date that differentiates earlier versions of an endorsement from later, revised versions. ISO introduced its commercial general liability policy in 1985 to replace its earlier policy form, the comprehensive general liability policy. ISO also introduced beginning in 1986 endorsement forms for use in connection with its commercial general liability policy. Endorsement is the term given to forms, either ISO or manuscripted forms, used to modify or add to the provisions of the policy to which they are attached. An endorsement supersedes a conflicting provision in the basic policy in most cases. Endorsements are identified under the ISO system, by four components, one of which is the endorsement’s promulgation date. Since the ISO forms are intended for national use, the promulgation date is not the date the form was adopted in a particular jurisdiction. Each ISO designation is composed of four elements. The following is an example for the additional insured endorsement form appearing in the Appendix as ISO Form CG 20 26 04 13 Additional Insured–Designated Person or Organization:

CG	20	26	04 13
The “CG” prefix in the endorsement’s designation identifies it as part of the ISO commercial general liability form series, introduced in 1986. Prior to this time, ISO designated this series as “GL” in connection with its comprehensive general liability forms.	The first set of numbers identifies the “group” to which the endorsement form belongs. ISO endorsements are grouped according to their function. In this case the number “20” refers to group 20 which are all of the ISO endorsements that confer additional insured status on particular persons or organizations.	The second set of numbers identifies this endorsement within its group—in this case it indicates which additional insured endorsement is being dealt with. Endorsement 26 within Group 20 adds as additional insureds to the CGL policy a designated person or organization. For this reason, this Endorsement is titled “Additional Insured–Designated Person or Organization.”	The final four numbers in the endorsement designation identify the endorsement’s edition date. ISO has revised most of its standard endorsements at one time or another. Endorsements with the same function and numerical designation may go through several editions. In the referenced endorsement, the edition date is “04 13” or April 2013. November 1985 is the initial date of all ISO forms for the “CG” system. The coverage forms have been revised a number of times since then and currently bear an edition date of 04 13. Many of the endorsement forms were revised at the same time as the coverage forms and also bear a 04 13 edition date.

² Insurer Ratings. BEST’S KEY RATING GUIDE published by A.M. Best Company assigns to insurance companies one of three types of rating opinions, a “Best’s Rating,” a “Financial Performance Rating” or a “Qualified Rating.” In addition Best’s assigns all companies to “Financial Size Categories.” More information concerning Best’s and its ratings is available at Best’s website, <http://www.ambest.com>. Insurance specifications in real estate documents will typically specify both the minimum acceptable Best Rating and minimum Financial Size Category for the insurance issuer. For example, “the insurer will be at least a Best’s A: VIII.”

⁴ Primary Policy. This specification permits the required minimum limit of liability to be insured either by a single policy or by a combination of a primary (first level) policy and an excess policy or policies. This leaves to the insured the opportunity to negotiate an efficient means of policy limit allocation. Sometimes specifications are written specifying that the primary policy shall be of a stated amount with the balance covered by the excess policy. That approach unduly limits the insured’s flexibility.

⁷ Self-Insurance. See discussion at Item A.12, *Self-Insurance is Not Insurance at the beginning of this article. “Self-insurance” is a system whereby a firm sets aside an amount of its monies to provide for any losses that occur - losses that could ordinarily be covered under an insurance program. The monies that would normally be used for premium payments are added to this special fund for payment of losses incurred. Self-insurance is a means of capturing the cash flow benefits of unpaid loss reserves and also offers the possibility of reducing expenses typically incorporated within a traditional insurance program. It involves a formal decision to retain risk rather than insure it and is distinguished from noninsurance, or retention of risks through deductibles, by a formalized plan or system to pay losses as they occur.

“Self-Insured Retention (‘SIR’)” is defined as a dollar amount specified in an insurance policy (usually a liability insurance policy) that the insured elects to self-insure prior to the attachment of the limits of a liability insurance policy. An SIR is generally considerably larger than a deductible and may be utilized to moderate the costs of the purchase of insurance. SIRs generally create no obligation on the Insurer to respond to loss on the Insured’s behalf until the SIR level has been paid. SIRs typically apply to both the amount of the loss and related costs (e.g., defense costs), but some apply only to amounts payable in damages (e.g., settlements, awards, and judgments). An SIR differs from a true deductible in at least two important ways. Most importantly, a liability policy’s limit stacks on top of an SIR while the amount of a liability insurance deductible is subtracted from the policy’s limit. As contrasted with its responsibility under a deductible, the insurer is not obligated to pay the SIR amount and then seek reimbursement from the insured; the insured pays the SIR directly to the claimant. While these are the theoretical differences between SIRs and deductibles, they are not well understood, and the actual policy provisions should be reviewed to ascertain the actual operation of specific provisions.

2. Certificates of Insurance

⁸ ACORD Certificates - Not Reasonable To Rely Upon. See discussion at Item A.2, *Certificates of Insurance Are Not Insurance at the beginning of this article. An ACORD 25 Certificate of Liability Insurance and ACORD 28 Evidence of Commercial Property Insurance should not be relied on as being accurate or as properly defining coverages, exclusions, and deductibles. W. Rodney Clement, Jr., Is a Certificate of Commercial Property Insurance a Worthless Document? PROBATE & PROPERTY 46 (May/June 2010); and Alfred S. Joseph III and Arthur E. Pape, Certificates of Insurance: The Illusion of Protection, PROBATE & PROPERTY 54 (Jan./Feb. 1995).

Sample of Cases Finding Reliance Unreasonable. Alabama. Alabama Elec. Co-Op Bailey, 950 So.2d 280, 284 (Ala. 2006).

Illinois. National Union Fire Ins. Co. v. Glenview Park Dist., 594 N.E.2d 1300 (1st Dist. 1992) and judgment aff’d in part, rev’d in part, 632 N.E.2d 1039 (1994) court held the fact that certificate of liability insurance did not contain notation that the additional insured endorsement did not cover the additional insured’s negligence did not obligate the insurer to cover the additional insured’s negligence; the certificate was issued “for information only”; Lezak & Levy Wholesale Meats v. Illinois Employers Ins. Co., 460 N.E.2d 475 (Ill. 1984) the certificate’s disclaimer notice protected the insurer from claims by a meat packing company falling within the exclusion in the cold storage company’s liability policy for loss caused by failure of refrigeration equipment.

New York. In Greater NY Mut. Ins. Co. v. White Kansas, 776 N.Y.S.2d 257, 258 (N.Y. 2004) the court held that a broker was under no duty to an owner and contractor to provide them with additional insured coverage as was stated in the certificates of insurance, as disclaimers in the certificate made it unreasonable to rely on the certificate.

Washington. Postlewait Construction, Inc. v. Great American Ins. Co., 106 Wash.2d 96, 720 P.2d 805 (1986) finding that an erroneous certificate of insurance listing lessor and certificate holder as an insured did not create a cause of action by lessor against insurer for breach of an insurance contract.

In TIG Ins. Co v. Sedgwick James of Washington, 276 F.3d 754 (5th Cir. 2002), aff’g 184 F.Supp. 2d 591 (S.D. Tex. 2001), the client (Safety Lights) of a delivery service (U. S. Delivery) and the client’s insurer (TIG) sued an insurance broker (Sedgwick James of Washington), alleging that the broker had misrepresented on an insurance certificate that Safety Lights was an additional insured on U.S. Delivery’s liability insurance policy issued by Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Co. The suit arose after Wright, an independent contractor hired by U. S. Delivery, was injured delivering a steel plate to Safety Light’s facility. TIG, Safety Light’s liability insurer, defended the claim by Wright and sought reimbursement for the settlement and the costs of defending the suit after Lumbermens denied that Safety Lights was an additional insured on its liability policy. The certificate of insurance certified that Safety Lights was an additional insured on the Lumbermens CGL policy. The Fifth Circuit found that Sedgwick did not have authority, either actual or apparent, to make Safety Lights an additional insured on Lumbermens CGL policy. The court found that the disclaimer on the certificate of insurance (the first ACORD disclaimer discussed above) effectively negated reliance by Safety Lights on the express statement of additional insured coverage in the certificate of insurance, absent the existence of proof of Sedgwick’s apparent authority to alter the terms of Lumbermens CGL policy to add Safety Lights as an additional insured. The district court held as a matter of law that Safety Lights could not have reasonably relied on the insurance certificate. The court made the following statements:

An insured has a duty to read the insurance policy and is charged with knowledge of its provisions.... The Court concludes that (the party to be protected), claiming to be an additional “insured” under (the policy) should be held to the same obligation as a named insured to review a policy of insurance on which it seeks to rely, and its reliance solely on the agent’s certificate of insurance is not reasonable under the circumstances presented by the admissible evidence. [T]here is no admissible evidence to suggest that (the party to be protected), had it made the request, would have been unable to obtain and read the insurance policy in issue.... Moreover, (the party to be protected), the holder of a certificate of insurance, was warned it was not entitled to rely on the certificate itself for coverage. The certificate stated to the holder that the certificate did not create coverage.... The certificate issued by (the insurance broker) prominently stated that it was “issued as a matter of information only” and did not “amend, extend or alter” coverage provided by the listed policies. Had Plaintiffs taken the reasonable step of obtaining a copy of (the policy) ... Plaintiffs would have learned that there was no additional insured coverage in the policy at all. Thus, the Court finds that the Plaintiffs’ reliance upon (the insurance broker’s) representation of (the party to be protected’s) additional insured status was not reasonable. Accordingly, as a matter of law, Plaintiffs’ claims for negligent and fraudulent misrepresentation fail.

184 F.Supp.2d at 603-04 (footnotes omitted).

⁹ Timing on Providing Evidence of Insurance. Evidence of insurance is often stated as being required to be provided within 30 days prior to the expiration of the current policy. So stating likely creates a technical breach, as coverage is rarely procurable 30 days in advance of a policy's term end.

¹¹ Benefits From Obtaining A Certificate. Even though it may not be reasonable to rely upon a certificate of insurance which contains disclaimers, there are benefits to having a certificate and potential detriments from a failure to obtain a certificate. Some courts have held that the party to be protected has waived the protecting party's obligation to procure contractually specified insurance by failing to insist upon being furnished the contractually required certificate. There are benefits arising from the standard certificate, even though it contains disclaimers, which will not obtain in the absence of a certificate. Some of the benefits are the following: (1) the standard certificate sets out important information, which in the event of a claim, may provide a quick means of resolution (e.g., agent and insurer contact information, policy numbers); (2) under particular circumstances a court may be willing to disregard the certificate's disclaimers and find coverage for the party to be protected; (3) an erroneous certificate may provide a basis for recovery on the issuing agent's E & O policy or establish a contractual undertaking by the agent to provide the certificated coverage.

Commercial General Liability Policies. The following is terminology used in CGL Policies and their endorsements to describe various types of insured parties, each with varying rights and obligations under the CGL Policy:

Named Insureds. The Declarations Page of a liability policy names the person or organization who is the insured and such person or organization is the named insured. If more than one person or organization is named in the Declarations Page as an insured, the first person or organization named is the first named insured.

Automatic Insureds. Additionally, the liability policy may identify other persons or organizations who qualify as insureds on the basis of their relationship to the named insured. For example, a liability policy on which an organization is the named insured, may provide that the organization's employees are automatically covered and are automatic insureds. The standard CGL policy designates the following persons as automatic insureds: the spouse of an individual named insured; partners and joint venturers in a named insured partnership or joint venture; members and managers of a named insured limited liability company; officers, directors, and stockholders of a named insured corporation or other named insured organization; trustees of a named insured trust; employees and volunteer workers of the named insured business; the named insured's real estate manager; any person having proper temporary custody of a deceased named insured's property; the deceased named insured's legal representative; and newly acquired or formed organizations.

Additional Insureds. An "additional insured" is a person other than the named insured who is protected under the terms of the contract. Usually, additional insureds are added by endorsement or referred to in the wording of the definition of "insured" in the policy itself. The reason for including another person might be to protect the other person because of the named insured's close relationship with that person or to comply with a contractual obligation that requires the named insured to do so (e.g., owners of property leased by the named insured -landlords). Under a CGL policy many types of persons or organizations may be added by endorsement as an additional insured, upon approval of the insurer. Many liability insurers issue blanket endorsements specifying certain parties that are "automatic additional insureds" under their liability policies without the need for further endorsement to actually name the person or organization as an additional insured on the policies if the contract between the insured and the additional insured contractually obligates the insured to cause its insurer to add the person or organization as an additional insured on the insured's liability policy. Persons or organizations are routinely added to a CGL policy as additional insureds by endorsement. There are standard additional insured endorsements to the standard liability policy. A common error in liability insurance specifications is to specify that a party is to be added to the named insured's policy as an "additional named insured".

Property Policies. The following is terminology used in Property Policies and their endorsements to describe various types of insured parties, each with varying rights and obligations under the Property Policy:

Insured. In a property policy, the insured is the party identified on the Declarations Page as having an insurable interest in the covered property and to whom loss payments will be paid if the property is damaged or destroyed.

Additional Insured. Third parties may be designated by endorsement to the property policy as an additional insured to protect their additional interests.

Additional Named Insured. Unlike liability insurance policies, there may be "additional named insureds" on a property policy. The following definition of "additional named insured" is found in the on-line IRMI Glossary of Insurance and Management Terms <http://www.irmi.com/online/insurance-glossary/default.aspx>. "(1) A person or organization, other than the first named insured, identified as an insured in the policy declarations or an addendum to the policy declarations. (2) A person or organization added to a policy after the policy is written with the status of named insured. This entity would have the same rights and responsibilities as an entity named as an insured in the policy declarations (other than those rights and responsibilities reserved to the first named insured). In this sense, the term can be contrasted with additional insured, a person or organization added to a policy as an insured but not as a named insured. The term has not acquired a uniformly agreed upon meaning within the insurance industry, and use of the term in the two different senses defined above often produces confusion in requests for additional insured status between contracting parties."

Mortgageholder. Similarly, the standard commercial property policy contains the standard mortgage clause providing that loss payments will be made to the insured and the mortgageholder as their interests may appear.

¹³ Additional Insureds. An "additional insured" is a person or organization not automatically included as an insured under an insurance policy but for who insured status is arranged, usually by endorsement. A named insured's impetus for providing additional insured status to others may be a desire to protect the other party because of a close relationship with that party (e.g., employees or members of an insured club) or to comply with a contractual agreement requiring the named insured to do so (e.g., customers or owners of property leased by the named insured).

¹⁴ Self-Insured Retentions. See Endnote 7 - Self-Insurance.

¹⁵ Cancellation Notice Statement. The ACORD 24 Certificate of Property Insurance, ACORD 25 Certificate of Liability Insurance and ACORD 28 Evidence of Commercial Property Insurance were revised in late 2009 and early 2010 to change the Cancellation notice language to read as follows:

Should any of the above described policies be cancelled before the expiration date thereof, notice will be delivered in accordance with the policy provisions.

The prior version of these certificates and evidence contained the following statement concerning advance notice to be given by the Insurer to the Additional Interest holder:

Should any of the above described policies be canceled before the expiration date thereof, the issuing insurer will endeavor to mail ___ days written notice to the [certificate holder named to the left/additional interest named below], but failure to mail such notice shall impose no obligation or liability of any kind upon the insurer, its agents or representatives.

Similar language appeared in the ACORD Certificate of Property Insurance. A New York appeals court has held that the presence of an ACORD "endeavor"-type notice of cancellation provision in the certificate does not impose on the insurer a contractual obligation to give the certificate holder notice of cancellation of the policy for the insured's premium non-payment. The court held that the insurer satisfied its contract obligations by complying with the contract's requirement of giving notice to the "first Named Insured" (the insurer's customer). The court pointed to a New York statute which required notice to the first named insured but did not also specify that notice be given to additional insureds. The court dismissed the additional insured/certificate holder's arguments as follows:

Charlew contends that it reasonably relied, to its detriment, upon the certificate of insurance which named it as an additional insured and, therefore, under our decision in [citation omitted], Merchants Mutual was equitably estopped from denying coverage. Notably, however, the situation presented herein is distinguishable because the Merchants Mutual insurance policy was not in existence at the time of (the employee's) accident. "Where there is no coverage under an insurance policy because the policy was not in existence at the time of the accident, estoppel cannot be used to create coverage." (Citations omitted.) Furthermore, Charlew argues that the policy was not properly cancelled because it was not notified of such action, as an additional insured.... Even assuming that Merchants Mutual received the policy change request from Weller-Marcil, we disagree with that argument. Since Merchants Mutual strictly complied with the notice of cancellation provisions set forth in ... (reference to NY statute omitted) by mailing a timely notice of cancellation to the "first-named insured" (Regels) and "such insured's authorized agent or broker" (Weller-Mercil), the policy was effectively cancelled ... (citation omitted), irrespective of its failure to comply with its "courtesy" policy of notifying additional insureds of a cancellation. Charlew's (the additional insured's) argument is further belied by the unambiguous disclaimer contained in the certificate of insurance ... (quotation of the ACORD language is omitted.). Id. at 753-54.

¹⁶ Status as a Certificate Holder Does Not Create Rights. As noted below in the review of the disclaimers contained in the ACORD Certificate of Insurance, it "confers no rights upon the certificate holder" but is issued "as a matter of information only". See for example the case, Bender Square Partners v. Factory Mutual Insurance Co., 2012 WL 208347 (S. D. Tex. – Hou. Div.) holding that the landlord was not entitled to its tenant's property insurance proceeds in a case where the lease did not provide that the landlord was an insured on the tenant's policy and did not provide for the landlord to be a loss payee. Prior to Hurricane Ike destroying the premises, a Big Lots retail store, tenant had provided its landlord with a certificate of insurance showing that the tenant had property insurance. The landlord was the certificate holder on the certificate of insurance, but was neither shown on the certificate of insurance as an insured or loss payee. The court rejected the landlord's argument that it was either an intended or implied third-party beneficiary of the policy. The court noted that the property policy contained the following seemingly positive provision:

Additional insured interests are automatically added to this Policy as their interest may appear when named as additional named insured, lender, mortgagee, and/or loss payee in the Certificates of Insurance on a schedule on file with the Company. Such interests become effective on the date shown in the Certificate of Insurance and will not amend, extend, or alter the terms, conditions, provisions, and limits of this Policy.

However, neither the policy nor the certificate of insurance named the landlord as an insured. Further, the court determined that the following interlineations following the liability insurance specification in the lease did not also apply to the property insurance specification:

[s]uch policies of insurance shall be issued in the name of tenant and landlord and for the mutual and joint benefit and protection of said parties; and such policies of insurance or copies thereof, shall be delivered to the landlord.

¹⁸ Signed By An "Authorized Representative"? ACORD Certificates or Evidences of Insurance are issued by a "Producer" and are signed by an "Authorized Representative". Neither of these terms is defined on the face of the standard ACORD form. Except for the multiple disclaimers of authority and accuracy, the ACORD Certificate of Insurance and the Evidence of Insurance are silent on the authority of the Authorized Representative to bind the listed Insurers. The ACORD Certificate of Insurance and Evidence of Insurance do not identify whether the Producer is the agent for the Insured, the agent for the Insurer, or a dual agent for both the Insured and the Insurer. Some courts in determining whether an ACORD form may be relied on despite the disclaimers have drawn a distinction on whether the Authorized Representative is a "broker"; a "soliciting agent"; a "recording agent"; a "dual agent"; a "special agent"; or an "insurer's agent". Other courts have held that the insurer is estopped from denying the coverage stated in the certificate or evidence of insurance, if the insurer or a person with apparent authority from the issuer issued the certificate, especially if the certificate does not contain ACORD-type disclaimers. See discussion at 43 AM. JUR.2d Insurance §§ 128 Brokers – Generally; 129 Brokers – Status While and After Procuring Policy. 4 BRUNER AND O'CONNOR ON CONSTRUCTION LAW §11:171 Certificates of Insurance – Generally; COUCH ON INSURANCE §§ 27:20 Act of Soliciting Agent – Insufficient to Justify Reformation; 45:1 Brokers Versus Agents; Definitions and Distinctions; 48:61 Soliciting and Collecting Agents; 48:62 Recording Agents.

Certificate Issued by "Soliciting Agent". In TIG Ins. Co v. Sedgwick James of Washington, 276 F.3d 754 (5th Cir. 2002) the Fifth Circuit agreed with the district court's determination that the issuing agent (Sedgwick) was a "soliciting agent" as opposed to a "recording agent", and thus did not have actual authority to amend the policy to add Safety Lights as an additional insured. The court noted that the agency agreement between Sedgwick and Lumbermens authorized Sedgwick to solicit insurance on behalf of Lumbermens but permitted Sedgwick to bind Lumbermens only "to the extent specific authority (was) granted in the schedule(s) attached". Sedgwick had the authority to issue certificates of insurance and binders but lacked the authority to modify the policy itself. Also see for example, Benjamin Shapiro Realty Co., LLC v. Kemper Nat'l Ins. Cos., 303 A.D.2d 245 (N.Y. – 1st Dept. 2003) where the court held that a tenant's insurance broker, which issued certificate of insurance to a landlord which erroneously stated that the tenant's insurance policy, naming landlord as an additional insured, contained rental coverage insurance for landlord's benefit, had no liability to landlord on ground that the broker and the landlord had no contractual relationship, privity, requisite to the imposition of liability for negligent misrepresentation.

Certificate Issued by "Recording Agent". The court in United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co. v. Travis Eckert Agency, Inc., 824 S.W.2d 628 (Tex. App. – Austin 1991, writ denied) held that USF&G was bound by an additional insured endorsement issued by its recording agent even though the endorsement form was not an authorized form.

Certificate Issued by Insurer. Another court, Horn v. Transcon Lines, Inc., 7 F.3d 1305 (7th Cir. 1993), faced with an insurer-issued certificate certifying to a certificate holder that the insured had business auto liability insurance, held that the certificate bound the insurer to cover an injury that occurred before the policy was issued, where the list of covered trucking companies did not include the certificate holder. The court concluded that as of the date of the accident, the certificate was the policy and the insurer could not rely on the policy's disclaimer that "the insurance afforded by the listed policy(ies) is subject to all their terms, exclusions, conditions" as there was no policy at the time of the certificate's issuance.

¹⁹ Survival of Insurance Covenant After Lease Term. The insurance covenants call for certain liability insurance coverages to be maintained after the expiration or termination of the Lease. This provision is included to further confirm that these covenants continue independently of the expiration or termination of the lease. The parties' risk managers need to be aware of the post-lease insurance requirements and monitor compliance.

²⁰ Contractual Waivers of Claims; Contractual Waivers of Insurer's Subrogation Rights. "Waiver of claims" is the landlord or tenant waiving its rights or recovery for the acts of the other. "Waiver of subrogation" is the landlord or tenant or both waiving the right of its insurer to be subrogated to the landlord's or tenant's claim. While a waiver of recovery also is a waiver of subrogation (because the insurer has no rights left to which to be subrogated), a waiver of subrogation alone is not a waiver of recovery. Leases may provide that the party whose property is damaged waives claims against the other negligent party and that the damaged party will look to the property insurance for recovery. Further the lease may provide that the right of subrogation of the insurer is waived or that the party obtaining the insurance will also obtain an endorsement to the property policy whereby the insurer waives its rights of subrogation to recovering its insurance proceeds against the negligent party.

Lease Silent on Waiver of Insurer's Right of Subrogation. In circumstances where the lease does not contain a waiver of claims and a waiver of subrogation, the insurer's right to recover against a person other than its insured rests on the basic principle of law, equitable subrogation.

Insurer's Right of Subrogation. Upon payment by the landlord's insurer for an insured property loss, the landlord's insurer is subrogated to the landlord's rights and claims against its tenant and can sue the tenant to recoup the insurance proceeds. In Wichita City Lines, Inc. v. Puckett, 295 S.W.2d 894 (Tex. 1956), the Texas Supreme Court held that where the lease merely provided that the landlord agreed to carry fire and extended coverage insurance on the building, part of which was occupied by the landlord, there was no duty on the landlord to procure insurance for the benefit of the tenant, and the landlord's insurers were not precluded from obtaining a subrogated cause of action to recoup its policy proceeds on account of fire caused by tenant's negligence. The court rejected the tenant's contention that the intent of the parties for including a covenant of the landlord to insure its own building (presumably the cost of which was built into the rent) was to exculpate the tenant for its own negligence.

Majority Rule. A majority of courts follow the rule that a lessor's property insurer may not subrogate against a lessee whose negligence has caused damage to the lessor's property. These courts have found that the lessee is an implied coinsured. Some of these courts have concluded that the landlord's agreement to procure property insurance covering the building implies an obligation by the landlord to insure the building for the benefit of both the landlord and the tenant. Others of these courts have reasoned that the tenant has indirectly paid for the insurance, either through rent or through expense pass through. The better practice is to address this risk in the lease. See FRIEDMAN ON LEASES (5th ed. 2011), § 9.11. INSURANCE LAW, Keeton and Widiss, §4.4(b). Metal Works, Inc. v. North Star Reinsurance Corp. v. Continental Ins. Co., 624 N.E.2d 647 (1993); Cook Paint & Varnish Co., 418 F.Supp 56 (N.D. Tex. 1976); Sutton v. Jondahl, 532 P.2d 478 (Okla. 1975).

Minority Rule. Texas follows the minority rule. Wichita City Lines, Inc. v. Puckett, 295 S.W.2d 894 (Tex. 1956); FRIEDMAN ON LEASES (5th ed. 2011), § 9.12 No Implication of Co-Insured Status Unless Explicitly and Unambiguously Stated Otherwise in the Lease. The minority jurisdiction rule is based on the common-law presumption that a tenant is liable for the tenant's own negligence and the equitable principle of subrogation.

Covenant Requiring Tenant To Pay For Insurance And Name Landlord As An Insured Equivalent To Waiver of Recovery By Landlord Against Tenant. In Publix Theatres Corp. v. Powell, 71 S.W.2d 237 (Tex. Comm. App. 1934), the lessee agreed in the lease to carry fire insurance on the leased building, at the lessee's expense, naming the landlord as the insured. The insurer paid, but the landlord still sued the tenant for the loss. The court declared that to permit the lessor to keep the insurance money and also to collect from the lessee would be a double recovery. In Interstate Fire Ins. Co. v. First Tape, Inc., 817 S.W.2d 142 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1991, writ denied), the court of appeals refused to limit the waiver of subrogation contained in the lease to claims against the current tenant so as to permit the otherwise subrogated insurer to pursue the former tenant after assignment. The assigning tenant, First Tape, therefore, was able to retain the protection of the waiver of subrogation clause even after it had assigned its lease.

No Standard Property Policy. Since there is no recognized standard property policy form, like the ISO liability form, it is prudent to examine the property policy in connection with drafting the lease and to condition the lease, if necessary, on obtaining a subrogation waiver from the insurer. The ISO property policy for leased premises allows the parties to waive the insurer's rights in advance by a waiver of claims in the lease. The ISO property policy also allows the landlord to waive the insurer's subrogation right even after a loss. See the ISO CP 00 09 07 88 Commercial Property Conditions ¶ I. Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others To Us (form attached to this Article).

Rationale for a Waiver of Insurer's Right of Subrogation. Many commercial property policies and inland marine policies include subrogation clauses that imply permission to grant pre-loss waiver. However, some forms may specifically deny the insured the right to waive subrogation. The ISO form expressly recognizes the right of the insured to waive subrogation. Since the landlord's primary interest is insuring the landlord's improvements, and the tenant's primary interest is in insuring the tenant's property, why make the other party liable for a risk that is already insured? Because both parties can be protected by insurance, neither is particularly interested in imposing liability on the other. The issue is how to allocate the risk of loss or, more precisely, which party should pay the property insurance premiums. To require each party to carry coverage for negligently causing damage to another party's property forces the landlord and the tenant to insure both the landlord's and the tenant's property, which results in each insuring its own and the other party's property. To avoid this need for double coverage each party can agree to look to its own insurance carrier for property loss caused by the acts or omissions of the other party and waive rights of recovery and subrogation against each other. If both landlord and tenant are to be liable for the risk of negligently caused loss to the property of the other, then the landlord and every tenant in a multi-tenant project must not only be sure to have a policy for its own property but must be sure that their liability insurance is sufficient to cover the replacement cost of the entire building and all of tenants' property therein. A more sensible approach is to have the landlord take out a casualty policy and have the premium costs paid by the tenants in the building under an operating cost pass-through provision in the lease. A waiver of subrogation clause assures that the insurance carrier for the property owner pays for the property loss as opposed to the other party's (the negligent landlord's or tenant's, as the case may be) liability insurance carrier. See Hagan, Using Waivers and Indemnities in Commercial Leases, THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER 11 (1993), also repeated at ALI-ABA'S PRACTICE CHECKLIST MANUAL FOR DRAFTING LEASES: Checklists, Forms, and Drafting Advice from THE PRACTICAL LAWYER and THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER 149 (1994), for the rationale that the appropriate allocation of risk is to require each party to insure its own property and waive recovery, and waive subrogation against the other for damages to each other's property due to the negligence of either party. Why is this the best approach? This question incorrectly assumes that there is adequate liability insurance to cover the loss. Many times there will be no liability insurance because the party self-insures. The more likely situation is that the liability insurance policy of the negligent party will have limits far short of the loss involved (for example, where a negligent employee of the tenant leaves the coffee pot on at night which results in a large office building burning down). In a large multi-tenant building, the loss could easily exceed the liability insurance coverage of a small tenant. Even if there is sufficient property loss coverage under the liability policy, there usually is a large deductible and dissipation of the time and energy in a contest between the insurance companies and the parties over the issue of who negligently caused the fire. Also, more importantly, is the fact that claims against property insurance are much less likely to result in higher premiums or loss of coverage than claims against the liability insurance. The property insurance carrier has more than likely already calculated its premium based on the assumption that it will not be able to recoup its costs via subrogation against a negligent tenant.

Tenant's FF & E. Care should be taken in drafting the scope of the waiver of subrogation. A waiver of subrogation as to "the premises" does not include the tenant's furniture, equipment, machinery, goods or supplies which the tenant might bring on to the premises. See International Medical Sales, Inc. v. Prudential Ins. Co. of America, 690 S.W.2d 84 (Tex. Civ. App. - Dallas 1985, no writ).

Verification of Effect of Waivers on Insurance Coverage and Cost of Insurance Coverage. Before the parties agree to waivers of recovery or subrogation, they should verify that their respective insurance policies will not be voided due to the waiver. Also, the parties should determine, in advance, if the waivers will impact the cost of coverage. Confirmation of endorsement reflecting contractual indemnity, waiver of subrogation and additional insured/loss payee should be verified as a condition of extending the waivers. "Waiver of claims" is the landlord or tenant waiving its rights or recovery for the acts of the other. "Waiver of subrogation" is the landlord or tenant or both waiving the right of its insurer to be subrogated to the landlord's or tenant's claim. While a waiver of recovery also is a waiver of subrogation (because the insurer has no rights left to which to be subrogated), a waiver of subrogation alone is not a waiver of recovery. Leases may provide that the party whose property is damaged waives claims against the other negligent party and that the damaged party will look to the property insurance for recovery. Further the lease may provide that the right of subrogation of the insurer is waived or that the party obtaining the insurance will also obtain an endorsement to the property policy whereby the insurer waives its rights of subrogation to recovering its insurance proceeds against the negligent party.

Lease Silent on Waiver of Insurer's Right of Subrogation. In circumstances where the lease does not contain a waiver of claims and a waiver of subrogation, the insurer's right to recover against a person other than its insured rests on the basic principle of law, equitable subrogation.

Insurer's Right of Subrogation. Upon payment by the landlord's insurer for an insured property loss, the landlord's insurer is subrogated to the landlord's rights and claims against its tenant and can sue the tenant to recoup the insurance proceeds. In Wichita City Lines, Inc. v. Puckett, 295 S.W.2d 894 (Tex. 1956), the Texas Supreme Court held that where the lease merely provided that the landlord agreed to carry fire and extended coverage insurance on the building, part of which was occupied by the landlord, there was no duty on the landlord to procure insurance for the benefit of the tenant, and the landlord's insurers were not precluded from obtaining a subrogated cause of action to recoup its policy proceeds on account of fire caused by tenant's negligence. The court rejected the tenant's contention that the intent of the parties for including a covenant of the landlord to insure its own building (presumably the cost of which was built into the rent) was to exculpate the tenant for its own negligence.

Majority Rule. A majority of courts follow the rule that a lessor's property insurer may not subrogate against a lessee whose negligence has caused damage to the lessor's property. These courts have found that the lessee is an implied coinsured. Some of these courts have concluded that the landlord's agreement to procure property insurance covering the building implies an obligation by the landlord to insure the building for the benefit of both the landlord and the tenant. Others of these courts have reasoned that the tenant has indirectly paid for the insurance, either through rent or through expense pass through. The better practice is to address this risk in the lease. See FRIEDMAN ON LEASES (5th ed. 2011), § 9.11. INSURANCE LAW, Keeton and Widiss, §4.4(b). Metal Works, Inc. v. North Star Reinsurance Corp. v. Continental Ins. Co., 624 N.E.2d 647 (1993); Cook Paint & Varnish Co., 418 F.Supp 56 (N.D. Tex. 1976); Sutton v. Jondahl, 532 P.2d 478 (Okla. 1975).

Minority Rule. Texas follows the minority rule. Wichita City Lines, Inc. v. Puckett, 295 S.W.2d 894 (Tex. 1956); FRIEDMAN ON LEASES (5th ed. 2011), § 9.12 No Implication of Co-Insured Status Unless Explicitly and Unambiguously Stated Otherwise in the Lease. The minority jurisdiction rule is based on the common-law presumption that a tenant is liable for the tenant's own negligence and the equitable principle of subrogation.

Covenant Requiring Tenant To Pay For Insurance And Name Landlord As An Insured Equivalent To Waiver of Recovery By Landlord Against Tenant. In Publix Theatres Corp. v. Powell, 71 S.W.2d 237 (Tex. Comm. App. 1934), the lessee agreed in the lease to carry fire insurance on the leased building, at the lessee's expense, naming the landlord as the insured. The insurer paid, but the landlord still sued the tenant for the loss. The court declared that to permit the lessor to keep the insurance money and also to collect from the lessee would be a double recovery. In Interstate Fire Ins. Co. v. First Tape, Inc., 817 S.W.2d 142 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1991, writ denied), the court of appeals refused to limit the waiver of subrogation contained in the lease to claims against the current tenant so as to permit the otherwise subrogated insurer to pursue the former tenant after assignment. The assigning tenant, First Tape, therefore, was able to retain the protection of the waiver of subrogation clause even after it had assigned its lease.

No Standard Property Policy. Since there is no recognized standard property policy form, like the ISO liability form, it is prudent to examine the property policy in connection with drafting the lease and to condition the lease, if necessary, on obtaining a subrogation waiver from the insurer. The ISO property policy for leased premises allows the parties to waive the insurer's rights in advance by a waiver of claims in the lease. The ISO property policy also allows the landlord to waive the insurer's subrogation right even after a loss. See the ISO CP 00 09 07 88 Commercial Property Conditions ¶ I. Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others To Us (form attached to this Article).

Rationale for a Waiver of Insurer's Right of Subrogation. Many commercial property policies and inland marine policies include subrogation clauses that imply permission to grant pre-loss waiver. However, some forms may specifically deny the insured the right to waive subrogation. The ISO form expressly recognizes the right of the insured to waive subrogation. Since the landlord's primary interest is insuring the landlord's improvements, and the tenant's primary interest is in insuring the tenant's property, why make the other party liable for a risk that is already insured? Because both parties can be protected by insurance, neither is particularly interested in imposing liability on the other. The issue is how to allocate the risk of loss or, more precisely, which party should pay the property insurance premiums. To require each party to carry coverage for negligently causing damage to another party's property forces the landlord and the tenant to insure both the landlord's and the tenant's property, which results in each insuring its own and the other party's property. To avoid this need for double coverage each party can agree to look to its own insurance carrier for property loss caused by the acts or omissions of the other party and waive rights of recovery and subrogation against each other. If both landlord and tenant are to be liable for the risk of negligently caused loss to the property of the other, then the landlord and every tenant in a multi-tenant project must not only be sure to have a policy for its own property but must be sure that their liability insurance is sufficient to cover the replacement cost of the entire building and all of tenants' property therein. A more sensible approach is to have the landlord take out a casualty policy and have the premium costs paid by the tenants in the building under an operating cost pass-through provision in the lease. A waiver of subrogation clause assures that the insurance carrier for the property owner pays for the property loss as opposed to the other party's (the negligent landlord's or tenant's, as the case may be) liability insurance carrier. See Hagan, Using Waivers and Indemnities in Commercial Leases, THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER 11 (1993), also repeated at ALI-ABA'S PRACTICE CHECKLIST MANUAL FOR DRAFTING LEASES: Checklists, Forms, and Drafting Advice from THE PRACTICAL LAWYER and THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER 149 (1994), for the rationale that the appropriate allocation of risk is to require each party to insure its own property and waive recovery, and waive subrogation against the other for damages to each other's property due to the negligence of either party. The more likely situation is that the liability insurance policy of the negligent party will have limits far short of the loss involved (for example, where a negligent employee of the tenant leaves the coffee pot on at night which results in a large office building burning down). In a large multi-tenant building, the loss could easily exceed the liability insurance coverage of a small tenant. Even if there is sufficient property loss coverage under the liability policy, there usually is a large deductible and dissipation of the time and energy in a contest between the insurance companies and the parties over the issue of who negligently caused the fire. Also, more importantly, is the fact that claims against property insurance are much less likely to result in higher premiums or loss of coverage than claims against the liability insurance. The property insurance carrier has more than likely already calculated its premium based on the assumption that it will not be able to recoup its costs via subrogation against a negligent tenant.

Tenant's FF & E. Care should be taken in drafting the scope of the waiver of subrogation. A waiver of subrogation as to "the premises" does not include the tenant's furniture, equipment, machinery, goods or supplies which the tenant might bring on to the premises. See International Medical Sales, Inc. v. Prudential Ins. Co. of America, 690 S.W.2d 84 (Tex. Civ. App. - Dallas 1985, no writ).

Verification of Effect of Waivers on Insurance Coverage and Cost of Insurance Coverage. Before the parties agree to waivers of recovery or subrogation, they should verify that their respective insurance policies will not be voided due to the waiver. Also, the parties should determine, in advance, if the waivers will impact the cost of coverage. Confirmation of endorsement reflecting contractual indemnity, waiver of subrogation and additional insured/loss payee should be verified as a condition of extending the waivers.

3. Commercial General Liability Insurance

²² Self-Insurance. See Endnote 7 - Self-Insurance.

²³ Commercial General Liability Insurance (CGL). CGL insurance is termed "third party coverage" insurance as it covers liabilities incurred by the named insured to third parties and excludes injuries and damage to the insured (e.g., it excludes coverage for damage to property "owned, occupied or controlled by the named insured." Covered liabilities or damages arise from an "occurrence" during the policy period which is not excluded by the Exclusions of the policy.

CGL Insurance provides protection to the insured for amounts the insured is legally obligated to pay that are caused by physical injury, personal injury (libel or slander), advertising injury and property damage as a result of the insured's products, premises, or operations, and can be offered as a package policy with other coverages. CGL policies also provide coverage for the cost to defend and settle claims. Commercial general liability policies typically and the ISO general liability policy form, which is the industry standard, is divided into Sections, Coverages, Exclusions, Definitions and Endorsements. The ISO CG policy is set up in the following parts:

- Declarations.
- Section I - Coverages
 - Coverage A. Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability. (Note "Bodily Injury" and "Personal Injury" are different terms)
 - 1. Insuring Agreement
 - 2. Exclusions
 - Coverage B. Personal and Advertising Injury Liability
 - 1. Insuring Agreement
 - 2. Exclusions
 - Coverage C. Medical Payments
 - 1. Insuring Agreement
 - 2. Exclusions
 - Supplementary Payments - Coverages A and B
- Section II - Who Is An Insured
- Section III - Limits of Insurance
- Section IV - Commercial General Liability Conditions
- Section V - Definitions
- Endorsements

The ISO commercial general liability policy categorizes liabilities into three categories: Coverage A for "Bodily Injury" and "Property Damage", Coverage B for "Personal and Advertising Injury Liability" and Coverage C for "Medical Payments." ISO defines each of these terms in the policy as follows: "Bodily Injury" is "bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time." "Property Damage" is "physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use of that property ... or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured." "Personal and Advertising Injury" is injury, including consequential bodily injury, arising out of one or more of the following offenses: false arrest, detention or imprisonment; malicious prosecution; wrongful eviction from, wrongful entry into, or invasion of the right of private occupancy of a room, dwelling or premises that a person occupies, committed by or on behalf of its owner, landlord or lessor; oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that slanders or libels a person or organization or disparages a person's or organization's goods, products or services; oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that violates a person's right of privacy; the use of another's advertising idea in the insured's advertisement; infringing upon another's copyright, trade dress or slogan in the insured's advertisement. "Medical Payments" is coverage for medical expenses for bodily injury caused by an accident (a) on the premises owned or rented by the insured, (b) on the ways next to the owned or rented premises, or (c) because of the insured's operations.

²⁴ Occurrence Policy vs. Claims Made Policy. - An "Occurrence Policy" provides liability coverage only for injury or damage that occurs during the policy term, regardless of when a claim is actually made. A claim made in the current policy year could be charged against a prior policy period, or may not be covered, if it arises from an Occurrence prior to the effective date of the policy. A policy written on a "Claims Made" basis covers claims made while the policy is in effect, rather than at the time the event causing the injury or damage occurred. Thus, once a policy period has passed without a claim, if the policy is not renewed or a new policy is not issued, the insured will have no coverage for a claim filed after the policy period even if it arose prior to the end of the policy period unless "tail" coverage is purchased to cover claims made after the policy expires and within a specified number of years after the policy expires.

²⁶ SIR. See Endnote 7 - Self-Insurance.

²⁷ General Aggregate Per Project. If the liability policy covers multiple locations, its limits may be exhausted by claims at the other locations. If the limits have been negotiated between the parties as the minimum coverages for this transaction, the policies will need to be endorsed to make them applicable in full to this location or a separate policy purchased for this location.

²⁹ Contractual Liability Coverage - An Exception To An Exclusion From Coverage. See ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I – Coverages, Coverage A, Par. 2 Exclusions, Par. 2.b Contractual Liability. "Contractual Liability Coverage" (referred to by this author as "indemnity insurance") is contained in the CGL policy as an exception to an exclusion from coverage. The exclusion provides:

2. Exclusions. This insurance does not apply to:

b. Contractual Liability

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" for which the insured is obligated to pay damages by reason of the assumption liability in a contract or agreement. This exclusion does not apply to liability for damages:

- (1) That the insured would have in the absence of the contract or agreement; or
- (2) Assumed in a contract or agreement that is an "Insured Contract", provided the "Bodily Injury" or "Property Damage" occurs subsequent to the execution of the contract or agreement. Solely for the purposes of liability assumed in an "insured contract", reasonable attorney fees and necessary litigation expenses incurred by or for a party other than an insured are deemed to be damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage", provided:
 - (a) Liability to such party for, or for the cost of, that party's defense has also been assumed in the same "insured contract"; and
 - (b) Such attorney fees and litigation expenses are for defense of that party against a civil or alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which damages to which this insurance applies are alleged.

An "Insured Contract" is defined in the standard CGL policy as:

9. "Insured contract" means:

- a. A contract for a lease of premises. However, that portion of the contract for a lease of premises that indemnifies any person or organization for damage by fire to premises while rented to you or temporarily occupied by you with permission of the owner is not an "insured contract";
- b. A sidetrack agreement;
- c. Any easement or license agreement, except in connection with construction or demolition operations on or within 50 feet of a railroad;
- d. An obligation, as required by ordinance, to indemnify a municipality, except in connection with work for a municipality;
- e. An elevator maintenance agreement;
- f. That part of any other contract or agreement pertaining to your business (including an indemnification of a municipality in connection with work for a municipality) under which you assume the tort liability of another party to pay for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to a third person or organization. Tort liability means a liability that would be imposed by law in the absence of any contract or agreement.

See ISO CG 24 26 04 13 Amendment of Insured Contract Definition, which when added to the standard CGL policy amends definition “f” to add the following qualifier at the end of the first clause:

, provided the “bodily injury” or “property damage” is caused, in whole or in part, by you or by those acting on your behalf.

Also see ISO CG 21 39 Contractual Liability Limitation (form attached to this Article), which when added to the standard CGL policy by endorsement deletes “f” altogether from the definition of an insured contract; and discussion in the article at Item A.11 Exclusions May Be Invisible.

Coverage For Named Insured As Indemnifying Party. Contractual liability coverage does not make the indemnified person an insured under the policy. Alex Robertson Co. v. Imperial Casualty & Indemnity Co., 8 Cal. App. 4th 338, 10 Cal. Rptr. 2d 165 (1992); Jefferson v. Sinclair Ref.g Co., 10 N.Y.2d 422, 223 N.Y.S.2d 863, 179 N.E.2d 706 (1961); Davis Constructors & Engineers, Inc. v. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co., 308 F. Supp. 792 (M.D. Ala. 1968); and Hartford Ins. Group v. Royal - Globe Co., 21 Ariz. App. 224, 517 P.2d 1117 (1974). Instead it expands coverage for the named insured. See e.g., Gibson & Associates, Inc. v. Home Ins. Co., 966 F.Supp. 468, 475-77 (N. D. Tex. 1997).

Named Insured Not Insured For All Contractually Assumed Liabilities. CGL policies place conditions precedent that must be satisfied by an indemnified person prior to providing it defense under the indemnifying person’s CGL policy. For example, the ISO CGL standard policy form provides

If we defend an insured against a “suit” and an indemnitee of the insured is also named as a party to the “suit”, we will defend that indemnitee if all of the following conditions are met:

- The “suit” against the indemnitee seeks damages for which the insured has assumed the liability of the indemnitee in a contract or agreement that is an “insured contract”;
- This insurance applies to such liability assumed by the insured;
- The obligation to defend, or the cost of the defense of, that indemnitee, has also been assumed by the insured in the same “insured contract”.

The insured contract provisions of ISO’s CG 00 01 requires as a condition to providing the indemnified person a defense under the contractually assumed liability coverage that the indemnified person and the named insured - indemnifying person are parties to the same suit. An example of a common suit in which this is not the case is suit by an injured employee of the indemnifying party against the indemnified party.

Under the 1996 and later editions of the standard ISO form CGL policy, the cost to defend an indemnified person under the indemnifying person’s CGL policy will be provided within the limit of the proceeds available under the policy as opposed to being on top of the limits as a supplementary payment, unless the indemnified person complies with a lengthy list of conditions precedent.

Named Insured Not Insured For All Contractually Assumed Liabilities. Indemnity insurance does not expand the scope of the liability policy beyond the coverage provided, nor does it extend the limits of liability. Coverage is limited by the policy’s other exclusions (e.g., pollution liability, insured’s breach of contract, and breach of product warranty). Indemnity insurance does not insure the performance of the business aspects of the contract. Musgrove v. Southland Corp., 898 F.2d 1041 (5th Cir. 1990). The court held Contractual liability has a definite meaning. It is coverage of the insured’s contractual assumption of the liability of another party. It typically is in the form of an indemnity agreement.... The assumption by contract of the liability of another is distinct conceptually from the breach of one’s contract with another.... Liability on the part of the insured for the former is triggered by contractual performance; for the latter liability is triggered by contractual breach....CITGO (the owner) concedes that LCE (the contractor) made no indemnification agreement applicable to the loss herein; rather, it complains of LCE’s breach of contract. LCE’s contractual liability insurance is thus not applicable. LCE did not insure its commitment to secure insurance coverage for CITGO. Id. at 1044.

Contractually assumed liability coverage under the standard policy covers “bodily injury” and “property damage” but does not cover “personal injury or advertising injury” liability, unless such coverage is endorsed as additional coverage on to the insured’s CGL policy. “Personal and Advertising Injury” is defined in Coverage B to standard CGL policies as “injury, including consequential bodily injury, arising out of one or more of the following offenses:

(i) false arrest, detention or imprisonment; (ii) malicious prosecution; (iii) the wrongful eviction from, wrongful entry into, or invasion of the right of private occupancy of a room, dwelling or premises that a person occupies, committed by or on behalf of its owner, landlord or lessor; (iv) oral or written publication of material that slanders or libels a person or organization or disparages a person’s or organization’s goods, products or services; (v) oral or written publication of material that violates a person’s right of privacy; (vi) the use of another’s advertising idea in your “advertisement”; or (vii) infringing upon another’s copyright, trade dress or slogan in your “advertisement.”

For example, guard service contracts typically contain a provision requiring the owner to indemnify the guard service from liability for the types of liabilities that are embraced by the term “Personal Injury” (libel, slander, defamation of character, false arrest, wrongful eviction, and invasion of privacy). In such case unless the owner has its CGL policy endorsed to cover this indemnity, the owner is uninsured for this contractually assumed liability. Alternatively, the owner could require that it be listed as an additional insured on the guard service’s CGL policy.

No Coverage for Indemnified Person's Sole Negligence. Until 2004, the standard CGL policy form published by ISO insured its named insured for its contractual assumption of liability for the indemnified person's sole negligence. ISO issued in 2004 an endorsement, CG 24 26 06 04 (form attached to this Article), which modifies the definition of "insured contract" to eliminate coverage for the sole negligence of an indemnified person. Thus, an indemnifying person should review its CGL policy to determine whether it will extend to protect it should it decide to indemnify the other party to its contract for the other party's sole negligence.

³⁰ Separation of Insureds. A feature of some requests for additional insured status is the stipulation that the indemnifying person's policy, to which the indemnified person is being added as an additional insured, be modified to provide "cross-liability" coverage. Cross-liability refers to the loss exposure created when one insured under a policy sues another. Standard general liability policies in use today provide "cross-liability" coverage—without the need for any modification by virtue of the "separation of insureds" condition. This condition of the policy states that coverage will apply "separately to each insured against whom claim is made or suit is brought." For this reason, it may be a legitimate precaution to include in contract language a stipulation that liability insurance as required by the contract provide cross-liability coverage, but not a demand for a cross-liability endorsement, which is unnecessary when the standard CGL form is being used. This severability of interests clause, as it is also known, establishes separate coverage for each insured under the policy, except as respects the policy limits. Policies containing this provision do not require a separate endorsement to effect cross-liability coverage, and ISO has no "cross-liability endorsements" in its forms portfolio because they are not needed with ISO policy forms. For this reason, contracts should generally not require cross-liability endorsements. Most endorsements that go by that name exclude liability of one insured to another. To handle the unlikely, but possible, contingency that a policy does not include a severability of interests clause, it is prudent to specify that the required liability policies provide cross-liability coverage as would be achieved under the standard ISO separation of insureds clause. See Paragraph 7 Separation of Insureds to Section IV - Commercial General Liability Conditions to ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form. (Form attached to this article).

³¹ Primary and Noncontributing. See Endnote 217 – (ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Primary and Noncontributory -- The "Other Insurance" Condition). See the following: (1) Section IV, Paragraph 4.a Other Insurance – Primary Insurance and 4.b – Excess Insurance to the ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form for provisions in the standard CGL policy establishing that coverage to the Named Insured under the CGL is provided on a primary basis and co-contributing with other insurance available to the Named Insured but is excess under specified circumstances, including if the Named Insured's other insurance is an additional insured provided on a primary basis; and (2) ISO CG 20 01 04 13 Primary and Noncontributory – Other Insurance Condition.

The use of additional insured status as a risk transfer device is aimed at procuring insurance protection under someone else's policy rather than having to rely upon one's own policy. Additional insured indemnified persons must verify that any "other insurance" coverage to which they have access will not interfere with payment by the indemnifying person's policy on a primary and noncontributing basis. This is the interplay of the indemnifying person's CGL policy with the additional insured's own CGL policy. Assuming both the indemnifying person's CGL policy and the additional insured indemnified person's policies are standard form policies, both will declare themselves to be primary insurance unless some modification is effected to eliminate this dual coverage. Texas Employers Ins. v. Underwriting Members, 836 F.Supp. 398, 404 (S. D. Tex. 1993). Note that endorsing the indemnifying person's policy to provide that it is primary does not solve the problem. In fact, most CGL policies already provide that they are primary in virtually all cases in which the additional insured would bring a claim on that CGL policy. The standard ISO form policy also provides for proration when other insurance is available to the additional insured. Hardware Dealers Mutual Fire Ins. Co. v. Farmers Ins. Exchange, 444 S.W.2d 583 (Tex. 1969). Without more, in such cases the additional insured's desire to have the named insured's policy respond prior to the additional insured's own policy is thwarted.

Whether the limits of the Named Insured's umbrella or excess policy contribute prior to calling upon the additional insured's "other insurance", is a question addressed by case law in each jurisdiction. The so-called "Horizontal Exhaustion" rule applies in some jurisdictions and declares a party's excess coverage to be excess over all "primary" coverages. See e.g., Kajima Constr. Servs. V. St. Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co., 856 N.E.2d 452 (Ill. App. 2006) – court held that Illinois' horizontal exhaustion rule required the additional insured's (general contractor) CGL policy pay prior to the subcontractor's umbrella policy. Also, the courts of some jurisdictions (Alaska, Arizona, Delaware, Idaho, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, Oregon, Tennessee, Rhode Island and West Virginia) follow the so-called Lamb-Weston rule (named after the first case in which the rule was applied) and hold that all "other insurance" clauses are repugnant to each other. When more than one policy is triggered by a loss, all policies automatically share the loss on a pro rata basis.

The following are common means employed to avoid the protected party's own policy contributing to the loss covered to the extent of the additional insurance coverage afforded on the protecting party's policy:

(1) Endorse the protecting party's policy to be primary. The above stated approach of endorsing the protecting party's CGL policy to state that it is primary with respect to other insurance maintained by the additional insured (as noted above most standard CGL policies state they are primary).

(2) Endorse the protecting party's policy to be primary and noncontributory. In addition to requiring that the protecting party's insurance be endorsed to state that it is primary, also requiring that the protecting party's policy be endorsed to state that it is "noncontributory" (an example of this approach is to endorse the protecting party's policy with an endorsement reading "Coverage as provided by this endorsement shall apply on a primary and noncontributory basis with any other insurance available to the insured named above.") The meaning of the word "noncontributory" in this insurance context is not intuitive. "Noncontributory" does not mean that the coverage afforded by protecting party's CGL policy will not contribute to cover the additional insured's liability, but it means that the protecting party's CGL carrier will not seek contribution from any other "applicable" insurance (e.g., the additional insured's own CGL policy). What is being said is that the protecting party's CGL coverage is primary but contributory—it will respond on a primary basis to pay a covered claim, but will seek contribution from any other insurance structured to respond on a similar primary basis. Unfortunately, the phrase "primary and noncontributory" does not have an established legal meaning in many jurisdictions. Reliance on this approach opens the protected party to litigation with the protecting party's carrier as to what was meant by this endorsement. A protecting party's carrier may balk at endorsing its named insured's policy to be "primary and noncontributory" due to concerns not that it is waiving contribution from the protected party's CGL policy but that it might inadvertently be eliminating contribution by other carriers that have issued additional insurance coverage to additional insured on the protecting party's policy (for example, a general contractor with additional insured status under multiple subcontractors' policies or a building owner that is an additional insured under each of its tenants' policies).

ISO CG 20 01 04 13 Primary and Noncontributory – Other Insurance Condition has been introduced in 2013 by ISO to address this approach of endorsing the protecting parties policy to reiterate that it provides “primary” coverage and “will not seek contribution from any other insurance available to an additional insured”; but Provision (2) of this endorsement requires that the written agreement of the Additional Insured (the protected party) and the Named Insured (the protecting party) must provide that the Named Insured's insurance is primary and will not seek contribution from the additional insured's other insurance. Requiring in the written agreement between the Named Insured and the Additional Insured that ISO CG 20 01 endorsement be added to the Named Insured's policy may not achieve the Additional Insured's objective if the written agreement itself does not specify that the additional insured coverage on the Named Insured's policy is “primary and noncontributory” plus contain language defining what is meant by primary and noncontributory.

(3) Endorse the protected party's policy to be excess. The third approach is for the protected party (the additional insured) to have its own carrier endorse the protected party's CGL policy to state that coverage under the protected party's policy is excess to coverage available to the protected party as an additional insured on another person's policy. This works unless the additional insured endorsement has also been issued on a excess liability basis. Because of this possibility, option (3) is not recommended.

In April 1997 ISO revised its “other insurance” clause in its standard CGL policy form to do just that. ISO added in Paragraph 4.b(2) an exception to the declared primary coverage in Paragraph 4.a for additional insurance coverage of the named insured. Thus, ISO revised its standard policy to provide that in a case where the protected party has both its own CGL policy and is an additional insured on the protecting party's CGL policy, then the protected party's CGL insurance states that its coverage is excess to the coverage available through being covered under the additional insured endorsement on the protecting party's insurance.

4. Other Insurance

b. Excess Insurance. This insurance is excess over: ...

- (2) Any other primary insurance available to you covering liability for damages arising out of the premises or operations, or the products and completed operations, for which you have been added as an additional insured by attachment of an endorsement.

Note, however, the 1997 language does not apply where additional insured status is not obtained by an endorsement to the protecting party's CGL policy. This provision is not triggered if the additional insured is automatically an additional insured on another insured's CGL policy. In 2013 the “by attachment of an endorsement” language was deleted. The 2013 revision thus ends concern under the standard CGL policy as to whether an additional insured's own CGL policy would be primary and co-contributing with automatic additional insured coverages. Note that the protected party's policy may not contain the 1997 language. If this is the case then the protected party's policy should be endorsed to make it excess over all other coverage available to the protected party in order to achieve the elimination of overlapping coverage and contribution. The following are traps to be avoided by the party seeking protection:

(1) Do not assume that the protecting party's insurance contains standard wording. It might not contain the standard wording that the policy affords primary coverage over other insurance available to the additional insured. In such case reliance on the 1997 ISO language or other endorsement to the additional insured's own policy to state that it is excess over other coverage available to the additional insured may be misplaced. A policy maintained by a protecting party may provide that its coverage of the additional insured is not primary but on an excess basis. In such case, endorsing the protected party's policy to provide that it is excess coverage creates a case where both policies declare them to be excess.

Also, if the protected party's own insurance does not provide (e.g., the pre-1997 ISO policies) for an exception to its contributing with all other policies available to the protected party, nonstandard language in the protecting party's to the effect that it provides excess coverage to an additional insured in cases where the additional insured has available insurance will result in the protected party's insurance being primary and the protecting party's coverage of the protected party as an additional insured being excess. If this is the situation, then the protecting party should insist on the protecting party's policy being endorsed to provide that it affords primary and noncontributory coverage with respect to the additional insured's own policy coverage.

(2) Do not assume that the protecting party's additional insured endorsement does not have a provision in it stating that the additional insured's coverage is on excess or contributory basis. Even though the protecting party's policy may have standard language to the effect that coverage for insureds is primary and noncontributory for other insurance coverage available to the insured, the additional insured endorsement may have overriding language. The protected party should require in the contract with the protected party that the additional insured coverage to be provided to the protected party will be on a primary, noncontributory basis. Failure of the protecting party to provide such coverage will be a breach of this insurance covenant. Note, some CGL policies provide that they automatically provide primary coverage when required by the contract between the parties (a “primary-when-required” provision). For example the following is a “primary-when-required” provision contained in some CGL policies:

The insurance provided to the additional insured is excess over any other insurance naming the additional insured as an insured, whether primary, excess, contingent, or on any other basis; unless you have agreed in a written contract that such coverage will apply on a primary basis.

(3) Do not forget that umbrella insurance is not primary insurance and that to avoid the protected party's insurance becoming contributing with umbrella coverage or becoming primary to the umbrella policy some additional action is required. In order to ensure that the protected party's own CGL policy is excess and noncontributory to the protecting party's umbrella policy, the protected party should consider (a) having its own CGL policy endorsed to provide that it is not only excess to other primary coverage available to it as an additional insured but also excess over umbrella insurance provided by the protecting party (excess over any insurance available to it as an additional insured, whether primary, excess, contingent, or on any other basis) or (b) striking from the "other insurance" provision in the protected party's CGL policy the word "primary" from the 4.b(2) exception to primary coverage of the protected party's own policy, or (c) having the protecting party's umbrella insurance endorsed to state that it affords primary and noncontributory coverage to the additional insured.

³⁷ Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project. See the ISO CG 21 44 Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project.

³⁸ Severability of Interest Clause. A "severability of interest clause" is a policy provision clarifying that, except with respect to the coverage limits, the insurance applies to each insured as though a separate policy were issued to each. Thus, a policy containing such a clause will cover a claim made by one insured against another insured.

4. Automobile Liability Insurance

³⁹ Business Auto Liability. A "business auto policy" or "BAP" is a commercial auto policy that includes auto liability and auto physical damage coverages arising from "covered autos"; other coverages are available by endorsement. Except for auto-related businesses and motor carrier or trucking firms, the business auto policy (BAP) addresses the needs of most commercial entities as respects auto insurance. What autos are "covered autos" is identified by a designation on the BAP's Declaration page called a "symbol". There are the following 10 symbols:

Symbol 1	Any Auto
Symbol 2	Owned Autos Only
Symbol 3	Owned Private Passenger Autos Only
Symbol 4	Owned Autos Other Than Private Passenger Autos Only
Symbol 5	Owned Autos Subject to No Fault
Symbol 6	Owned Autos Subject to Compulsory UM Law
Symbol 7	Specifically Described Autos
Symbol 8	Hired Autos Only
Symbol 9	Nonowned Autos Only
Symbol 19	Mobile Equipment Subject to Motor Vehicle Insurance Law Only

⁴⁰ "Any Auto". If the insured does not own an auto, the insurer may not agree to cover liability from "any auto", but limit coverage to hired and nonowned autos.

5. Workers Compensation Insurance

⁴¹ Workers Compensation Limits Required by Law. Leases and construction contracts frequently require that a party "maintain Workers Compensation and Employers Liability coverage as required by law." Does this verbiage really require coverage? With few exceptions, Texas does not require an insured to carry Workers Compensation insurance. A statement that coverage shall be provided "as required by law" does not require that the coverage be provided.

"Workers Compensation" insurance is the system by which no-fault statutory benefits prescribed by state law are provided by an employer to an employee (or the employee's family) due to a job-related injury (including death) resulting from an accident or occupational disease. The standard workers compensation and employers liability policy used in most states was substantially revised in 1984 and again to a lesser extent in 1992. As compared to the previous 1954 policy, these revisions included some slight changes in terminology and coverage approaches that should be reflected in contract insurance requirements. One of these was a change in the name from “workmen’s compensation” to “Workers Compensation.” Another more important change was the inclusion of “other states coverage” in the basic Form and the elimination of the “broad Form all states” endorsement, which was previously used to provide this coverage. Workers compensation coverage is usually written in tandem with an employers liability coverage policy. A “Workers Compensation and Employers Liability Policy” is an insurance policy that provides coverage for an employer’s two key exposures arising out of injuries sustained by employees. Part One of the policy covers the employer’s statutory liabilities under workers compensation laws, and Part Two of the policy covers liability arising out of employees’ work-related injuries that do not fall under the workers compensation statute. In most states, the standard Workers Compensation and Employers Liability Policy published by the National Council on Compensation Insurance (NCCI) is the required policy form.

Employers Liability Coverage. “Employers Liability Coverage” provides coverage against common law liability of an employer for accidents to employees, as distinguished from liability imposed by a workers compensation law. This is provided by Part 2 of the basic workers compensation policy and pays on behalf of the insured (employer) all sums the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of bodily injury by accident or disease sustained by any employee of the insured arising out of and in the course of his employment by the insured. Typically triggered by a third party after the insured’s employee (who is barred by workers compensation laws from suing his or her employer) sues a third party for bodily injury suffered while performing duties of his or her employment (e.g., contractor’s employee injured on the premises of that third party).

⁴² Bodily Injury by Accident Limit (Workers Compensation). The specified amount is the limit the insurer will pay under Part Two, Employers Liability, for all claims arising out of any one accident, regardless of how many employee claims or how many related claims (such as a loss of consortium suit brought by the injured worker’s spouse) arise out of the accident.

⁴³ Employer’s Liability Insurance - Bodily Injury by Disease. “Bodily Injury by Disease, Each Employee” - A policy limit within Part Two, Employers Liability, establishing the most the insurer will pay for damages due to bodily injury by disease to any one employee. “Bodily Injury by Disease, Policy Limit” - An aggregate limit of Part Two, Employers Liability, stipulating the most the insurer will pay for employee bodily injury by disease claims during the policy period (normally a year) regardless of the number of employees who make such claims. In the event the policy is for a period longer than 1 year, the limit is reinstated for each subsequent 12-month period.

⁴⁴ USL&H. The United States Longshore and Harbor Workers’ Compensation Act (USL&H) of 1927 is a federal law that provides no-fault workers compensation benefits to employees other than masters or crew members of a vessel injured in maritime employment—generally, in loading, unloading, repairing, or building a vessel. Employers can obtain coverage under a standard workers compensation policy by purchasing an USL&H coverage endorsement. The USL&H law applies to persons working on, over, or adjacent to a navigable waterway. The term “adjacent to” has been ruled to have widely variant definitions.

6. Liquor Liability Insurance

⁴⁵ Liquor Law Liability (Dram Shop). Liquor law liability (also called dram shop liability) is a common law liability imposed on those selling alcoholic beverages, as well as a statutory liability established in some states. The risk of liquor law liability is excluded from commercial general liability policies. For coverage, a party must specify that the other party obtain a liquor legal liability policy that specifically provides coverage for bodily injury or property damage for which the insured may become legally liable as a result of contributing to a person’s intoxication. This type of liability policy only covers insureds “in the business of” manufacturing, selling, distributing, serving alcoholic beverages for charge or no charge if a license is required for the activity.”

Coverage for bodily injury or property damage is excluded from the standard CGL coverage, but the exclusion applies only if the insured is “in the business of manufacturing, distributing, selling, serving or furnishing alcoholic beverages”, e.g., the typical taverns, liquor stores and other commercial establishments that serve alcoholic beverages (dram shop) to patrons. The standard policy was amended in 2013 to narrow coverage by adding clarifications expanding the exclusion. The 2013 revisions added the (a) and (b) exclusions addressing cases that had found certain conduct as falling outside of the exclusion and thus covered under the CGL policy (e.g., Penn-America Insurance v. Peccadillos, 27 A.3d 259 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2011) (en banc), petition for allowance of appeal denied by, Penn-Am. Ins. Co. v. Peccadillos, Inc., 34 A.3d 832 (Pa. 2011).- failing to provide transportation to a drunk patron) and McGuire v. Curry, 766 N.W.2d 501 (S.D. 2009) - negligent supervision of an employee – underage employee of a race track - that while drunk injured a third party). The 2013 revisions also revised the Liquor Liability Exclusion to provide that a “BYO” establishment is not considered to be in the business of selling, serving or furnishing alcoholic beverages! Question 1: Is the Liquor Liability Exclusion applicable to a company’s annual party if the company provides its employee and the employee’s guest with two free drink tickets? The company would argue that it is not “in the business” of providing alcohol and that its CGL policy should cover its host liability. Advice: The better practice is to confirm with the insurer that the event and activity is covered or, if necessary, purchase special events coverage (aka laser coverage). Question 2: What if the business regularly furnishes free drinks as a draw to marketing events? Advice: Same as Question 1.

7. Umbrella And Excess Liability Insurance

⁴⁶ Umbrella and Excess Policies. The following definitions are found in the on-line IRMI Glossary of Insurance and Management Terms <http://www.irmi.com/online/insurance-glossary/default.aspx>. “Umbrella policy”: “A policy designed to provide protection against catastrophic losses. It generally is written over various primary liability policies, such as the business auto policy (BAP), commercial general liability (CGL) policy, watercraft and aircraft liability policies, and employers liability coverage. The umbrella policy serves three purposes: it provides excess limits when the limits of underlying liability policies are exhausted by the payment of claims; it drops down and picks up where the underlying policy leaves off when the aggregate limit of the underlying policy in question is exhausted by the payment of claims; and it provides protection against some claims not covered by the underlying policies, subject to the assumption by the named insured of a self-insured retention (SIR).” “Excess policy”: “A policy issued to provide limits in excess of an underlying liability policy. The underlying liability policy can be, and often is, an umbrella liability policy. An excess liability policy is no broader than the underlying liability policy; its sole purpose is to provide additional limits of insurance.”

⁴⁷ Allocation of Limits Between Primary and Excess/Umbrella Policy. Permitting both primary and umbrella policies to satisfy the liability limits affords the insurance purchaser the opportunity to choose the most cost-effective combination of policies.

8. Property Insurance

⁴⁸ Landlord and Tenant Relationship – Risk of Loss to the Shopping Center and the Leased Premises. At common law, neither the landlord nor the tenant is obligated to repair the premises after casualty damage unless it caused the damage; the lease continues in effect, and the rent is not reduced or abated. In order to use the premises, the tenant is put to the burden of restoring the premises to useful condition. Absent a tenant’s fault in causing damage to the premises or provision in the lease, the tenant’s common law obligation is not to commit waste. The tenant is liable to the landlord if the tenant negligently destroys the premises (e.g., a negligently caused fire) absent a provision in the lease to the contrary. Nagorny v. Gray, 261 S.W.2d 741 (Tex. Civ. App.—Galveston 1953, no writ). If the lease does not obligate the landlord or the tenant to restore the premises after a casualty loss and the loss is not caused by the negligence of either party, the landlord bears the risk of the decline in value of the property if either it or the tenant does not restore the property.

As opposed to leaving the rebuilding obligation to common law rules, the parties customarily will address this topic in the lease. The lease may provide that the tenant is obligated to return the premises at the expiration of the lease term and make no exception for casualty losses; the lease may allocate the responsibility of rebuilding to landlord or to tenant, or parts to landlord and parts to tenant; and the lease will address funding of the rebuilding obligation by requiring one or the other of the parties to maintain property insurance, including setting out specifications for the property insurance.

⁵⁰ Property Insurance – “Causes of Loss”. Outdated terminology requiring that the policy provide “all risks” or “fire and extended coverage” is often used in contracts. “All risks” denoted property insurance covering losses arising from any fortuitous cause except those that are specifically excluded and is currently called “Special Form” or “Special Causes of Loss Form.” “Extended coverage” refers to an endorsement that was once added to a standard fire policy to cover the perils now insured under ISO’s Basic Causes of Loss Form. Since the extended coverage endorsement is no longer used, a better approach to requiring this coverage is to refer to the ISO “Basic,” “Broad,” or “Special” Causes of Loss Form. Prior property insurance forms used the terms “risk” and “perils.” Pre-“causes of loss” property insurance was written either on a “named peril” basis which insured property against loss or damage from causes of loss expressly enumerated in the policy or an “all risks” basis, which insured property against loss or damage from all causes of loss except those which were expressly excluded. “Fire and extended coverage” insurance was a named peril property insurance.

ISO Special Causes of Loss. The most comprehensive ISO property policy is called “Special Form” or “Special Causes of Loss Form.” This is in contrast to “Named Perils Coverage” which applies only to loss arising out of causes that are listed as covered.

Exclusion from Causes of Loss. The following are excluded perils from Causes of Loss coverage, including from Special Causes of Loss:

- Law and Ordinance;
- Earth Movement, Governmental Action;
- Nuclear Hazard;
- Utility Service;
- War and Military Action;
- Water (see below);
- Fungus, Wet Rot, Dry Rot, and Bacteria, Boiler and Machinery Failure;
- Wear and Tear or Lack of Maintenance;
- Continuous Seepage or Leakage Over a Period of 154 Days or More;
- Dishonest Acts;
- Pollutants; and
- Faulty Design or Workmanship.

Also, in special hazard areas certain causes of loss may be excluded from coverage by endorsement with specialty insurance being required to cover the hazard (e.g., windstorm).

Water Exclusion. The Water exclusion excludes damage caused by: (1) flood, surface water, waves, tides; (2) mudslide or mudflow; (3) water that backs up or overflows from a sewer, drain, or sump; and (4) water underground pressing on, or flowing or seeping through foundations, walls, floors, or paved surfaces, basements, doors, windows, or other openings.

Windstorm. For an interesting example of how a windstorm exclusion may come into play is illustrated by Great American Ins. Co. of N.Y. v. Lowry Dev., LLC, 576 F.3d 251 (5th Cir. 2009). This case involved a builder’s risk policy. Although the policy as originally issued did not exclude wind damage, subsequent to its issuance the issuer endorsed the policy with a windstorm exclusion and notified the developer's broker that the original policy was to have excluded wind damage. The developer's broker did not respond and did not notify the developer. The policy was reissued the next policy year and excluded wind damage. Of course, Hurricane Katrina demolished the project. The Fifth Circuit held that the developer's broker was the developer's agent with authority to handle the developer's insurance matters and therefore notice to the broker was notice to the developer.

Flood. See Endnote 59 - Flood for a discussion of flood insurance.

Difference in Conditions Insurance. “Difference in Conditions Insurance” is the industry term for property policies purchased in addition to the Causes of Loss policy to cover perils not covered by the property policy (usually, flood, wind and earthquake).

Coverage under Each Causes of Loss. The following are the perils covered by each of the “Causes of Loss” Forms:

PERILS COVERED UNDER ISO CAUSES OF LOSS FORMS
Basic Causes of loss Form (CP 10 10) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fire • Lightning • Explosion • Windstorm or hail • Smoke • Aircraft or vehicles • Riot or civil commotion • Vandalism • Sprinkler leakage • Sinkhole collapse • Volcanic action 	Broad Causes of Loss Form (CP 10 20) Basic causes of loss form perils, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Breakage of glass • Falling objects • Weight of snow, ice, or sleet • Water damage from leaking appliances • Collapse from specified causes
	Special Causes of Loss Form (CP 10 30) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All perils except as excluded • Collapse from specified causes

⁵¹ Valuation Terminology – Replacement Cost or Actual Cash Value. Whether the policy is a “Replacement Cost” policy or an “Actual Cash Value” policy, the loss paid will be limited to the policy limits.

“Replacement Cost” is the cost of repairing or replacing insured property at time of the occurrence of the loss, without reduction for loss of value through depreciation or age. Recovery is limited to the lesser of (a) the policy limit, (b) the cost to replace the lost or damaged property with other property of comparable material and quality and used for the same purpose, or (c) the amount actually spent to repair or replace the damaged or lost property. The policy proceeds are not paid until the property is actually repaired or replaced, and only if replacement occurs as soon as reasonably possible after the loss or damage. Notice of intent to replace must be given to the insurer within 180 days of loss. Replacement cost coverage does not prohibit recovery if the insured rebuilds at a new location, but the coverage is limited to what it would have cost to replace the improvements at the original premises. Replacement cost coverage does not cover the added costs of construction due to changes in laws and ordinances except if the policy is endorsed with an Ordinance or Law Coverage Endorsement (See Endnote 61). In the past replacement cost coverage was an option provided by endorsement. Now it is an optional coverage built into the ISO form policy. The option coverage is selected by notation on the Declarations Page. See ISO CP DS 10 00 Declarations Page at Optional Coverages.

“Actual Cash Value” or “ACV”. The ISO policy does not define “actual cash value”. The definition of this term is left up to case law. The term has generally been defined by cases to mean replacement cost of the covered property at the time of loss with like-kind and quality less physical depreciation. Depreciation may be determined by consideration of age, condition at time of loss, obsolescence and other factors causing deterioration. The term is seldom defined in the policy, but is used in property and automobile physical damage insurance and is generally considered in the industry to be the cost to repair or replace the damaged property with materials of like kind and quality, less depreciation of the damaged property. In other words, the sum of money required to pay for damages or lost property, computed on the basis of replacement value less its depreciation by obsolescence or general wear and tear (i.e., physical depreciation). This is one of several possible methods of establishing the value of insured property in order to calculate the premium and determine the amount the insurer will pay in the event of a loss. ACV coverage applies if Replacement Cost coverage is not affirmatively selected on the Declarations Page of the policy.

“Inflation guard” is an optional endorsement designed to offset potential inflation by specifying a percentage in the Declarations Page by which the coverage will increase annually as to the portion of the covered property specified.

⁵² Valuation Terminology – Agreed Value Endorsement. An “agreed value endorsement” is an optional endorsement used where the named insured and the insurer agree upon the actual cash value or the replacement cost of the covered property before the policy is written and agree that co-insurance will not apply.

⁵³ Designation of Landlord as Additional Insured on Tenant’s Property Policy. See Endnote 108 - Tenant Betterments, Alterations and Improvements. See Insurance Spec. B.1.1 where insurance for Tenant Improvements and Betterments is placed on the landlord. Some commentators have questioned whether a tenant has an insurable interest in improvements and betterments installed at the landlord’s expense. A similar issue arises if the lease provides that the tenant is to “insure all leasehold improvements” and there are significant leasehold improvements preexisting in the leased premises. Tenant may not have an insurable interest in improvements it did not install and pay for. But see ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form stating that coverage is provided the tenant for:

(6) Your use interest as tenant in improvements and betterments. Improvements and betterments are fixtures, alterations, installations or additions:

- (a) Made a part of the building or structure you occupy but do not own; and
- (b) You acquired or made at your expense but cannot legally remove;

⁵⁶ Property Insurance – Special Causes of Loss. See Endnote 50 for a discussion of Causes of Loss Form property insurance policies, including Special Causes of Loss.

⁵⁷ Designation of Landlord as Additional Insured on Tenant’s Property Policy. A landlord may take on the status of a “loss payee” or sometimes an “additional insured” on a tenant’s property policy.

Loss Payable Clause. A “Loss Payable Clause” is an insurance provision authorizing payment in the event of loss to a person or entity (a “loss payee”) other than the named insured having an insurable interest in the covered property. See ISO CP 12 18 06 07 Loss Payable Provisions, Optional Clause F Building Owner Loss Payable Clause (form attached to this Article). In November 2008 ISO amended its CP 12 18 Loss Payable Provisions endorsement to permit a building owner to be designated as a loss payee under a Building Owner Loss Payable option, as an alternative to using the CP 12 19. Under the Building Owner Loss Payable option, covered loss to the building is adjusted with the building owner and loss to betterments is adjusted with the tenant, unless the lease stipulates otherwise. Notice of cancellation is not granted to the building owner.

Additional Insured. Generally, to be eligible for insured status under a property policy, the insured must have an insurable interest in the insured property. The assumption by a tenant of liability for damage to leased premises is recognized as creating an insurable interest in the tenant. Leases for single tenant buildings sometime require the tenant to insure the improvements and to name the owner-landlord as an additional insured. Unlike the standard mortgagee coverage, other additional insurable interests endorsements do not provide coverage despite the acts of the insured, whether the first named insured (e.g., tenant) or the additional insured or loss payee (e.g., landlord). Under current ISO commercial property forms, intentional concealment or misrepresentation of a material fact by any insured voids coverage for the additional insured. In November 2008 ISO issued its form CP 12 19 Additional Insured – Building Owner endorsement to designate a building owner as a “Named Insured” for damage to the building on a tenant’s property policy covering the building. It is the “insureds” who receive the loss payment under a property policy. Thus, it is unnecessary to specify that the building owner also be designated as a loss payee when it is designated as an insured.

ATIMA. The phrase “as their interests may appear” (an ATIMA clause) often is added in a property additional insured endorsement. This is done in order to limit the additional insured’s recovery rights to covered property with respect to which the additional insured has an interest. Without these limiting words, if the policy covers multiple properties, the insurer could include the additional insured on all policy proceeds checks. Under the CP 12 19 the building owner is an additional insured with respect to the coverage provided for direct physical damage to the building and covered loss is adjusted with and payable to both the tenant, as the “First Named Insured” (the insured whose name is listed first in the Declarations), and to the building owner, as additional insured. The ISO CP 12 19 Building Owner Additional Insured Endorsement (form attached to this Article) does not provide for notice of cancellation to be given to the landlord/additional insured. Further, the cancellation provision in the ISO Common Policy Conditions (form attached to this Article) states that notice of cancellation is given only to the first Named Insured. Thus, the tenant’s property policy provides notice of cancellation will only be given to the tenant.

Caveat: To assure notice of cancellation by the insurer, the landlord must obtain a notification endorsement to the policy. Additionally, note that the notification endorsement likely will not address notification as to cancellations by the tenant and will need to be manuscripted to include notice to the landlord of tenant cancellations. In Scottsdale Ins. Co. v. Mason Park Partners, LP, 2007 WL 2710735 (5th Cir. – Tex. 2007) the landlord learned the hard way that it needed to follow up and obtain a corrected additional insured endorsement on the tenant’s property policy. Although the landlord was designated as an additional insured on the liability portion of the package policy, the additional insured endorsement on the property policy stated that the name and address of the loss payee was “to follow”. It never did and the insurance company did not send notice of cancellation of the property portion of the policy prior to the fire that destroyed the Taste of Katy restaurant. The court found “Nothing in the loss payable provision or anywhere else gave Scottsdale notice that (landlord) was the intended loss payee”. In addition to issuing the additional insured endorsement to the property policy, the landlord should also have obtained an endorsement to the property policy requiring notice of cancellation be given to it of policy cancellation. The standard property policy only requires notice of cancellation be sent to the first named insured.

⁵⁸ Antennas. See ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form, Paragraph A.2.q(2) Property Not Covered. Antennas (including satellite dishes) and their lead-in wiring, masts or towers are excluded from coverage under the ISO property policy, except as provided in a limited manner in the Coverage Extensions (fire, lightning, explosion, riot, civil commotion and aircraft). Coverage may be increased and extended by an ISO CP 14 50 endorsement.

⁶¹ Ordinance or Law Coverage. Ordinance or Law Coverage is available by endorsement to a standard property policy to insure against loss caused by enforcement of ordinances or laws regulating construction and repair of damaged buildings. Many communities have building ordinances that require that a building that has been damaged to a specified extent (typically, 50 percent) be demolished and rebuilt in accordance with current building codes rather than simply repaired. Unendorsed, standard property insurance forms do not cover the loss of the undamaged portion of the building, the cost of demolishing that undamaged portion of the building, or the increased cost of rebuilding the entire structure in accordance with current building codes. Ordinance or law coverage may be purchased using ISO CP 04 05 to cover the cost above the limit available under the ISO property insurance for cost of construction incurred to comply with an ordinance or law. The base form ISO property insurance limits such coverage to the lesser of $10,000 or 5% of the policy limits.

⁶² Terrorism. Before September 11, 2001 (“9-11”) most property damage policies included coverage for terrorism. After 9-11 most were rewritten to exclude or significantly limit coverage for future acts of terrorism. After 9-11 it became apparent that insurers were not willing to take on the potential of high levels of terrorism risk. The Terrorism Risk Protection Act of 2002 (“TRIA”) was enacted to provide a safety net for businesses to obtain terrorism insurance at reasonable prices. Thus, the backstop, as a government-supported pool to cover the most catastrophic losses, facilitated the development of the market for terrorism insurance. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2007 (“TRIPRA”) extend the TRIA program through December 31, 2014 with some significant changes. Among other changes TRIPRA revised the definition of a “certified act of terrorism.” TRIPRA was modified and renewed through December 31, 2020 by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2014, Pub. L. No. 114-1 (Jan. 12, 2015). The new act provides for the increase The Treasury Department still has to develop rules for the new law. Under TRIPRA an insured loss is one resulting from an “Act of Terrorism” that is covered by primary or excess property insurance. An “Act of Terrorism”, which must be certified as such by the Secretary of the Treasury in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security and U.S. Attorney General is:

- (i) A violent act or an act dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure;
- (ii) That resulted in damage within the U.S. or outside the U.S. (in the case of an air carrier or outside the U.S. in the case of an air carrier or vessel or a U.S. mission); and
- (iii) Was committed by an individual or individuals, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the U.S. or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the U.S. Government by coercion.

No act can be certified as an Act of Terrorism (i) if it is committed in the course of a war, or (ii) if property insurance losses resulting from the act do not exceed $5 million in the aggregate. Excluded are chemical, nuclear, biological, and radiological events unless and until a study of the availability of insurance coverage for losses caused by terrorist attacks involving such materials is completed and recommendations regarding actions to expand the coverage to include these events are made. To date there has not been a certified Act of Terrorism and no insurance proceeds have been paid out under this program.

⁶⁴ Debris Removal. See the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form ¶A.4.a Coverage – Additional Coverages – Debris Removal. The ISO Commercial Property Policy provides coverage for debris removal as “additional coverage” and is limited to 25% of the sum of the paid loss plus the deductible. An additional limit of $10,000 is made available for debris removal if (1) the amount payable under the policy to reconstruct or repair plus the amount payable under the policy for debris removal exceeds the entire policy limit, or (2) the cost of debris removal exceeds 25% of the paid loss plus deductible. Higher limits for debris removal is provided by using the ISO CP 04 15 10 12 Debris Removal Additional Limit of Insurance endorsement.

⁶⁵ Waiver of Claims; Waiver of Subrogation. See Endnote 20 - Contractual Waiver of Claims; Contractual Waiver of Insurer's Subrogation Rights.

⁶⁶ Business Income and Additional Expense. This form of insurance (ISO CP 00 30) covers two types of loss: (1) loss of business income/earnings - covers losses suffered by a business as a result of not being able to use property damaged by a covered cause of loss under a property insurance policy during the time required to repair or replace it (formerly called “business interruption insurance”) and/or (2) extraordinary additional expenses (“Extra Expense Coverage”) incurred due to a necessary suspension of operations during a period of restoration caused by direct physical loss of or damage to property at the premises described in the policy. This coverage is available with no co-insurance or monthly limitation. Frequently recovery is limited to the length of time required to rebuild or repair the damaged property, plus an additional 30 days for recovering business that may have been lost to competitors (typically limited to an aggregate of 120 days unless policy is endorsed to provide for extended time period coverage). Business income insurance may be purchased without the Extra Expense Coverage (ISO Form CP 00 32) and extra expense coverage can be purchased without business income insurance (ISO Form CP 00 50). Extra Expense Coverage covers expenses in excess of normal operating expenses incurred by a business that remains in operation following a direct damage property loss. Extra Expense Coverage is appropriate for service businesses whose property is not essentially income-producing (attorneys, banks, insurance agencies, and doctors’ offices), and for businesses that would find it imperative to continue operating regardless of cost (newspapers, dairies).

“Business Income Rental Value” is included under both forms of business income forms (ISO CP 00 32 and CP 00 30) if the attached declaration so provides. Rental value protects the landlord against loss of rents during reconstruction and abatement of rentals if the abatement results from a loss under a named cause of loss in the property insurance.

ISO has recently promulgated an additional insured endorsement form. This endorsement to the tenant’s property policy adds the person identified in the endorsement (the landlord) as an insured for loss of “rental value” and thus meets lease requirements that the tenant obtain coverage for loss of the additional insured’s rental income. The ISO CP 15 03 provides that notice of insurer cancellation will be provided by the insurer to the additional insured, landlord.

⁶⁷ Agreed Value Basis. “Agreed Value Basis” is coverage under a property insurance policy whereby the coinsurance clause is suspended until a specified expiration date. Insurers usually require a statement of property values signed by the insured as a condition of activating or including an agreed value provision in a commercial property policy.

⁶⁸ Boiler and Machinery Coverage. Boiler and machinery coverage is added by endorsement or by a separate policy. Property insurance typically excludes damages due to explosion of pressure vessels and sudden and accidental, mechanical or electrical breakdown of machinery. Boiler and machinery coverage includes damages arising out of pressure vessels, hot water heaters, air conditioning and heating equipment, and electrical switchgear. If a separate policy is to be written to cover boiler and machinery caused damages, then there needs to be added to both the primary policy and the boiler and machinery policy an ISO CP 12 72 Joint or Disputed Loss Agreement.

⁷⁰ Other Insurance. For example, the following specification is to be added if there is a hazardous waste hauler:

Pollution Liability. CA 99 48 pollution liability coverage at least as broad as that provided by the ISO pollution liability – broadened coverage for covered autos endorsement, and with the Motor Carrier Act endorsement (MCS 90) attached.

Other insurance can include such issues as flood, earthquake, earthquake sprinkler leakage, volcanic eruption, terrorism, sinkhole collapse, etc.

9. Construction Liability Insurance

The following is an endorsement to a contractor controlled insurance program on a recently completed office tower that provided post-completion coverage to the contractor:

COMPLETED OPERATIONS EXTENSION CONTROLLED INSURANCE PROGRAM (MULTIPLE PROJECTS)

This Endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE PART

SCHEDULE:

All (____) Projects with construction values $15,000,000 and above.

Coverage of the "products-completed operations hazard" is extended for the Projects described in the above Schedule for a period of TEN (10) years or the Statute of Repose, whichever is less ("Extended Completed Operations Period"). The Extended Completed Operations Period will commence when that portion of the project is put to its intended use, or a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy is issued. The Extended Completed Operations limit of insurance is $4,000,000 per project and in the aggregate for all projects listed above, which includes the term of the Extended Completed Operations Period.

All terms and conditions remain unchanged.

⁷² General Aggregate Per Premises or Project. See the ISO CG 25 04 05 09 Designated Location(s) General Aggregate Limit.

⁷⁵ Incidental Design Liability. The list of prohibited endorsements includes the ISO CG 22 34 04 13 Exclusion – Construction Management Errors and Omissions and the ISO CG 22 79 04 13 Exclusion – Contractors – Professional Liability. These endorsements are designed to deflect from the CGL policy liabilities perhaps more properly covered by a professional liability policy. However, a contractor's service likely includes an element of professional services, including incidental design services. Before accepting the additions of these exclusions, consideration should be given to requiring the contractor to carry professional liability insurance or tailoring the exclusions to exclude known professional liability services being provided by the contractor in its scope of its work. The ISO CG 22 79 states that scope of "professional services" excluded by the endorsement "do not include services within construction means, methods, techniques, sequences and procedures employed by (the contractor) in connection with (its) operations in (its) capacity as a construction contractor." Even though the ISO endorsement sets out this understanding of what is and is not excluded by the endorsement, the bounds of the exception are not bright lines. The limits of a CGL policy are generally greater than a professional liability policy and the time to submit claims is longer because CGL policies are generally occurrence-based, unlike professional liability policies.

⁷⁶ Additional Insureds on Contractor's CGL Policy. Care should be taken in reviewing the additional insured coverage proffered on behalf of the tenant's contractor. Agents may insist that the additional insured coverage requirement is met by the blanket automatic additional insured provisions in a blanket additional insured endorsement to the contractor's policy. The standard contractor's CGL policy endorsed with an ISO CG 71 57 09 10 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees Or Contractors Automatic Status When Required In Construction Contract Primary And Non-Contributory provides

Commercial General Liability
CG 71 57 09 10

Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees Or Contractors Automatic Status When Required In Construction Contract Primary And Non-Contributory

A. Section II - Who is An Insured is amended to include as an additional insured any person or organization for whom you are performing operations when you and such person or organization have agreed in a written contract that such person or organization be added as an additional insured on your policy. (Bold italics emphasis added.)

Since the landlord does not have a contract with the contractor, this language does not extend additional insured coverage to the landlord. In Westfield Insurance Co. v. FCL Builders, Inc., 948 N.E.2d 115, 350 Ill. Dec. 46 (Ill. App. Ct. – First Dist., 2nd Div. 2011) an Illinois appellate court faced an analogous situation. A second tier subcontractor's commercial general liability (CGL) insurer brought a declaratory judgment action that it was not obligated to defend or indemnify a general contractor (FCL Builders, Inc.), in a tort action brought by an injured employee of a second tier subcontractor (JAK). FCL contracted with Suburban Ironworks, Inc., which in turn subcontracted with JAK. JAK erected steel on the job site. Unfortunately, about a month into the job, JAK's employee was severely injured when he fell off of a steel beam. The employee filed a tort suit against FCL and Suburban, alleging the breach of various duties of care regarding job site safety that they allegedly owed to the employee. FCL had been furnished with a certificate of insurance issued by JAK's insurance agent that listed FCL as an additional insured under JAK's policy with Westfield. The appellate court held that the general contractor was not an additional insured under the CGL policy purchased by the second tier subcontractor. The Westfield CGL additional insured policy contained an endorsement that amended the definition of "insured" under the CGL policy to include as additional insureds "any person or organization for whom you are performing operations when you and such a person or organization have agreed in writing in a contract or agreement that such person or organization be added as an additional insured on your policy". The court held

Even assuming, without deciding, that JAK was "performing operations" for FCL within the meaning of the policy, there is no evidence in the record that JAK had agreed in writing with FCL for FCL to be an additional insured. The policy explicitly and unambiguously requires a direct, written agreement to that effect in order to cover anyone other than JAK under the policy. Because no such written agreement ever existed between FCL and JAK, FCL cannot be an additional insured under the policy and Westfield is not obligated to furnish FCL with a defense or indemnification The plain and ordinary meaning of the term "such person or organization" in this provision is that it refers back to the same person or organization for whom JAK is performing operations, which was mentioned earlier in the same provision, and it does not encompass any other entity...Notably, the provision does not refer to any person or organization. By repeatedly using the term "such" instead of "any," the provision necessarily requires that, in order to qualify as an additional insured, an entity must enter into a direct written agreement with JAK listing them as an additional insured.

Id. at 118-119. But cf. Ryan Companies US, Inc. v. Secura Insurance Co., 2011 WL 2940985 which declined to follow the FCL case, concluding that there was an agreement other than the policy showing that the parties intended by some implication that the general contractor in Ryan be an additional insured.

⁷⁷ Additional Insureds – ISO CG 20 10 07 04 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person or Organization. The July 2004 version of this CGL endorsement, ISO CG 20 10 07 04, which is the revision immediately preceding the most recent version of April 2013, "includes as an additional insured the person or organization shown in the Schedule, but only with respect to liability caused in whole or in part by [the Named Insured's] acts or omissions; or the acts or omission of those acting on [the Named Insured's] behalf in the performance of on-going operations." The July 2004 endorsement revision (1) carries forward the major change introduced by the October 2001 revision to this endorsement, the CG 20 10 10 01, that eliminated from the scope of additional insured coverage liabilities arising out of completed operations; and (2) changes from the previously used language "arising out of the [Named Insured's ongoing operations]" to the "caused in whole or in part by [the named insured's acts or omissions acts or omissions]", thus eliminating coverage for the additional insured's sole negligence.

⁷⁸ Additional Insureds – ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person or Organization. See ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person Or Organization. This, the most recent revision to the CG 20 10 Additional Insured endorsement, introduces as additional limitation of coverage the following: "the insurance afforded to such additional insured will not be broader than that which you are required by the contract or agreement to provide for such additional insured." and "the most we will pay on behalf of the additional insured is the amount of insurance: 1. Required by the contract or agreement; or 2. Available under the applicable Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations." Thus, in order to avoid the minimum limit becoming the maximum limit of coverage, the insurance specifications will need to clearly specify that the specification of the minimum limit does not result in capping the limit but that any additional limits provided by the policy will be fully available to respond to protect the additional insured.

⁷⁹ Additional Insured Coverage in the Construction Context – Anti-Indemnity Statutes. Most state anti-indemnity statutes apply exclusively in the construction context. Some states, have adopted statutes voiding as against public policy any indemnity by one person of another person's negligence in the context of construction and additionally voiding any insured coverage to the extent it provides insurance coverage the scope of which is prohibited for an indemnity agreement. Care should be taken in drafting insurance specifications applicable to tenants and their contractors to avoid violating such prohibitions and to require additional insured endorsements in states that have adopted anti-indemnity or anti-additional insured endorsement law.

The "Texas Anti-Indemnity Act", Chapter 151 of the Texas Insurance Code provides as to indemnification:

§151.102 Agreement Void and Unenforceable. Except as provided by Section 151.103, a provision in a construction contract ... is void and unenforceable as against public policy to the extent that it requires an indemnitor to indemnify, hold harmless, or defend a party, including a third party, against a claim caused by the negligence or fault, the breach or violation of a statute, ordinance, governmental regulation, standard, or rule, or the breach of contract of the indemnitee, its agent or employee, or any third party under the control or supervision of the indemnitee, other than the indemnitor or its agent, employee, or subcontractor of any tier.

§151.103 Exception for Employee Claim. Section 151.102 does not apply to a provision in a construction contract that requires a person to indemnify, hold harmless, or defend another party to the construction contract or a third party against a claim for the bodily injury or death of an employee of the indemnitor, its agent, or its subcontractor of any tier.

Also note that Chapter 151 of the Texas Insurance Code provides as to additional insured coverage:

§151.104 Unenforceable Additional Insurance Provision. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b), a provision in a construction contract that requires the purchase of additional insured coverage, or any coverage endorsement, or provision within in an insurance policy providing additional insured coverage, is void and unenforceable to the extent that it requires or provides coverage the scope of which is prohibited under this subchapter for an indemnity agreement to indemnify, hold harmless, or defend.

(b) This section does not apply to a provision in an insurance policy, or an endorsement to an insurance policy, issued under a consolidated insurance program to the extent that the provision or endorsement lists, adds, or deletes named insureds to the policy.

⁸² Contractor’s Pollution Liability. See the ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I, Coverage A, Par. 2.f – Exclusions – Pollution. Par. 2.f is known as the “absolute pollution exclusion” and excludes environmental pollution claims from the CGL policy’s coverage. See Porterfield v. Audubon Indem. Co., 856 So.2d 789, 793 (Ala. 2002) for a discussion of the history of CGL policy’s absolute pollution exclusion.

10. Builder’s Risk Insurance

⁸³ No Standard Builder’s Risk Policy. There is no standard builder’s risk policy, unlike liability insurance there is a commonly recognized standard ISO CGL policy. ISO has a builder’s risk policy, but builder’s risk policies are considered to be Inland Marine policies and there is a wide divergence in builder’s risk coverages insurer to insurer. “Inland Marine” policies are policies that are customized to the loss sought to be insured, and are designed to provide coverage for special exposures typically associated with the type property at which they are directed and the special valuation methods needed to address the exposure. Construction is recognized as a special exposure. A commonly used Inland Marine policy for builder’s risk coverage is the Commercial Inland Marine Conditions (Form CM 00 01 09 04).

Common Errors and Problems

Early Occupancy. Most projects have someone that occupies to some limited degree before substantial completion. Any degree of occupancy could invalidate the coverage if the policy isn’t properly worded or endorsed.

Review of Policy Delayed Until After Construction Commencement. Like the other insurance products discussed in this article, the actual builder’s risk insurance policy may not, and likely will not, be issued or available prior to commencement of construction! The actual policy in many cases is not issued and delivered for weeks or months after work has begun. As noted above in the discussion of the perils of reliance on an ACORD Certificate of Property Insurance, an ACORD Evidence of Insurance or even an ACORD Binder, the policy itself is the contract of insurance and contains extensive terms and conditions that should be reviewed and approved prior to commencement of work. A great level of “distress” can occur, if an assumed coverage in fact is not included in the policy, despite the best written insurance specifications, and a loss occurs before issuance of the policy. If construction will commence before issuance and delivery of the policy, one avenue may be to have the insurer deliver a specimen policy and specimen endorsements.

Coverage Amount. Failure of the policy amount to reflect the full loss exposure is a common error. The contractor’s contract sum is a guide in setting the coverage amount. In projects involving remodeling (especially if the structure is a historic structure) or improvement to an existing building, limiting the coverage amount to the contractor’s contract sum could lead to a significant uninsured loss. Builder’s risk policies will not insure the building envelope unless specifically added. When added, some builder’s risk policies insure the envelope only on an actual cash value, or depreciated, basis.

Coverage for Architect’s Fees, Owner Supplied Materials, Debris Removal, Full Limit Coverage of Flood and Earthquakes, and Elimination of Ordinance or Law Exclusions. Many commonly expected coverages are available only through policy endorsement and are not part of the issuer’s standard policy form, such as coverage for the owner’s additional architect’s fees arising out of an insured loss; coverage for owner supplied materials; amending the Ordinance or Law exclusion to cover costs of demolition of the intact portion of a building when a law, ordinance or regulation requires that the entire structure be torn down; endorsement to include full collapse coverage, including collapse resulting from design error; and verification that sublimits (e.g., sublimits for flood and earthquake coverage) are adequate or eliminated.

Delay Damages. See BRUNER AND O’CONNOR ON CONSTRUCTION LAW §§ 11:116 Builder’s risk soft cost coverage; Delayed completion and force majeure insurance. Builder’s risk policies typically do not cover damages caused by delays arising out of a covered loss. These “soft costs” can be covered by an endorsement. A soft cost endorsement can be tailored to cover loss of expected revenue, additional interest expense, loan fees, property taxes, design fees, insurance premiums, legal and accounting costs and additional commissions arising from the renegotiation of leases. Typical exclusions contained in a soft cost endorsement are for cost to correct construction deficiencies, costs to comply with laws or ordinances, loss caused by adverse weather and loss caused by strikes. Another endorsement that may be available to insure against a financial distress risk is a delayed completion and force majeure endorsement. This endorsement supplements the risk of covered loss to cover consequential damage losses due to completion delays and force majeure events not otherwise covered. This endorsement extends coverage for losses due to strikes and labor disputes, changes in law (e.g., building codes, emission standards), acts of God, adverse weather conditions and off-site physical damage to materials or equipment.

⁸⁴ Replacement Cost. Builder's risk can be provided on either an Actual Cash Value basis or a Replacement Cost basis. Normally, there is little to no difference between ACV and Replacement Cost on a newly constructed structure but the potential exists that an adjuster could allege physical depreciation, especially when covering long-term construction projects. Replacement Cost is the preferred valuation method.

⁸⁵ Builder's Risk – Deductibles. Builder's risk policies frequently include multiple deductibles. One may apply to most causes of loss, another to wind, yet another to flood, another to earthquake, and another to indirect (delayed completion) costs. A common requirement might be for a $10,000 deductible, but a wind deductible of 1% of the value in place (or even worse, the total insurable value) at the covered property location at the time of loss applies subject to a $100,000 minimum, a flood deductible equal to the maximum amount of coverage available from the national Flood Insurance Program, an earthquake deductible (depending on the location of the insured property) of 5% of the value in place at the covered property location at the time of loss applies subject to a $500,000 minimum, and a delayed completion deductible of 15 days.

⁸⁶ Builder's Risk – Insureds. The owner and all contractors and major subcontractors should be named as named insureds under a builder's risk policy. Employers' Fire Ins. Co. v. Behunin, 275 F.Supp. 399 (Colo. 1967); McBroome-Bennett Plumbing, Inc. v. Villa France, Inc., 515 S.W.2d 32 (Tex. 1974); LeMaster Steel Erectors, Inc. v. Reliance Ins. Co., 546 N.E.2d 313 (Ind. 1989); and Tri-State Ins. Co. v. Commercial Group W., LLC, 698 N.W.2d 483 (N.D. 2005). Phrases like "as their interests may appear" should not be included either in contractual specifications, insurance certificates or the policy, as this qualification has been the source of subrogation claims by insurers against an insured under builder's risk policies in cases where there has not been an express waiver of subrogation. Paul Tishman Co., Inc. v. Carney & Del Guidice, Inc., 320 N.Y.S.2d 396 (1971), aff'd 359 N.Y.S.2d 561 (N.Y. 1974); Turner Constr. v. John B. Kelly Co., 442 F.Supp. 551 (Penn. 1976) subrogation against named insured subcontractor permitted even though policy contained a waiver of subrogation endorsement. But see St. Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. F. D. Sprinkler, Inc., No. 119 021/06, N.Y. Sup. Ct. (Aug. 2009) where the court rejected the insurer's argument that ATIMA language limited the insurable interest of the sprinkler subcontractor to its work as opposed to the consequential damages to 21 floors of the building which arose out of an accidental discharge from a sprinkler head located in a temporary bathroom on the 21st floor.

⁸⁷ Insureds – Subcontractors. While the authors believe that subcontractors should be named insureds on the builder's risk policy along with the owner and contractor, some owners or general contractors decline to do so in order to protect their construction insurance program from loss that could be passed back onto the subcontractor. This stance contradicts the fundamental purposes of builder's risk insurance, which is first-party coverage and therefore not fault based. Although the general rule is that an insurer cannot sue its insured, some courts have made an exception in builder's risk policies where the words "as their interest may appear" follow designation of one of multiple insureds. In OPI Int'l, Inc. v. Gan Minster Ins. Co., 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22959, 20-21 (S.D. Tex. 1996), the court stated:

An insurer retains the right to subrogate against a subcontractor even where a subcontractor is an insured for a limited purpose, to the limited extent of his own property in the project or "as his interests may appear" in the project. The subcontractor is not protected from his negligence which causes loss to other property beyond his interest and covered by the policy.... The waiver of subrogation rights in the policy only applies to assureds "whose interests are covered by the policy," which was limited in the definition of "other assureds" to contractors and subcontractors with whom [Named Insureds] have entered into agreements or contracts "in connection with the subject matters of Insurance, as their interests may appear." This waiver does not protect [Plaintiff], as a subcontractor, for claims arising from its negligence in causing damage to property owned by the general contractor, unrelated to [Plaintiff's] contract work.

Installation Floaters. An "installation floater" usually covers only the work performed by a single contractor, providing protection on that contractor's work as it is being installed, in contrast to builder's risk which covers the project. It is most often utilized by subcontractors who are performing work where there is no builder's risk coverage in place. Even where builder's risk coverage is provided, however, an installation floater is recommended. Should a subcontractor be subrogated against by the builder's risk carrier, the subcontractor's liability insurance will not be responsive for the portion of the subrogated claim that arises out of the subcontractor's own work. Properly designed, an installation floater should be responsive to this exposure. Additionally, should the builder's risk have a large deductible, a well-designed installation floater will provide protection to the subcontractor for the difference between the builder's risk deductible and that of the installation floater.

⁸⁸ Special Form. See Endnote 50 – Property Insurance – "Causes of Loss" and Endnote 51 – Valuation Terminology – Replacement Cost or Actual Cash Value. Most builder's risk policies are provided on an "all risk" basis. Of course, no policy truly covers all risks of loss. Like other insurance policies, builder's risk policies are subject to a variety of conditions, limitations, exclusions, and deductibles. This form does, however, cover all causes of loss not excluded in the policy. This has the advantage of transferring to the insurance company the burden to prove that a cause of loss was specifically excluded by the policy in order for them to deny coverage.

⁸⁹ Typical Exclusions. An unendorsed builder's risk policy includes a long list of excluded causes of loss, potentially but not limited to:

Exclusions Regarding Causes of Loss:

- Asbestos removal or other loss arising out of the presence of asbestos
- Changes required by ordinance or law
- Collapse
- Consequential loss, damage, or expenses of any kind

- Demolition, increased cost of construction, repair, debris removal or loss of use necessitated by enforcement of law or ordinance regulating asbestos
- Earthquake, volcanic activity, and other earth movement
- Electrical or magnetic injury to or errors and omission in creating, processing or copying electronic records

- Signs
- Transmission and distribution lines upon energization at the completion of testing
- Vehicles or equipment licensed for highway use, rolling stock, aircraft or watercraft
- Water, animals, standing timber and growing crops
- Waterborne property

⁹² Prohibition of Protective Safeguard Warranty. "Protective safeguard warranties" are conditions precedent to coverage sometimes built into a builder's risk policy to assure the insurance company of certain protections being provided at the job site. Their inclusion is justified by the insurer on grounds of reduced premium. However, a violation of a protective safeguard warranty voids coverage, potentially even if the loss is not tied to the violated protective safeguard warranty. Typical protective safeguard warranties address the following: emergency response protocols; fencing surrounding the project (e.g., site must be fenced with a cyclone fence at least 6 foot high which must be locked during non-working hours); project lighting during night hours; site surveillance must be maintained by a licensed and bonded watchperson during non-construction hours; and water for fire suppression must be stored on site, or a working fire hydrant must be within 1,000 feet of the structure being constructed. See David S. Gordon, Insurance Redux: Reprise and Update on the Protective Safeguards Endorsement ACREL NEWS Vol. 30, No. 1 pp. 10 – 12 (April 2012).

⁹⁴ Agreed Value. See Endnote 52 – Valuation Terminology - Agreed Value Endorsement.

⁹⁵ Collapse Additional Coverage Endorsement. The list of the causes of loss covered by the builder’s risk policy should be examined. Many causes of loss are not included and have to be added by endorsement, e.g., many policies exclude collapse and require a Collapses Additional Coverage Endorsement to extend coverage to this cause of loss. See the following cases for discussions of this cause of loss and coverage issues: Malco Holdings, LLC. v. Amco Ins. Co., 629 F.Supp. 2d 1195 (D. Or. 2009); Hennessy v. Mutual of Enumclaw Ins. Co., 206 P.3d 1184 (Or. Ct. App. 2009) and 130 Slade Condominium Ass’n, Inc. v. Millers Capital Ins. Co., 2008 WL 2331048 (D. Md. 2008).

⁹⁶ Debris Removal. See the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form Paragraph A.4.a Coverage – Additional Coverages – Debris Removal (this form in an annotated format is posted on ACREL Website – Insurance Committee webpage). The ISO Commercial Property Policy provides coverage for debris removal as “additional coverage” and is limited to 25% of the sum of the paid loss plus the deductible. An additional limit of $10,000 is made available for debris removal if (1) the amount payable under the policy to reconstruct or repair plus the amount payable under the policy for debris removal exceeds the entire policy limit, or (2) the cost of debris removal exceeds 25% of the paid loss plus deductible. Higher limits for debris removal is provided by using the ISO CP 04 15 10 12 Debris Removal Additional Limit of Insurance endorsement.

⁹⁷ Occupancy Pre-Completion Clause. If the property will be occupied, or arguably occupied (e.g., a tenant building out its premises), the builder’s risk policy should be reviewed to confirm that pre-completion occupancy is permitted and under what conditions. It may be necessary, to have the policy endorsed to permit pre-completion occupancy.

⁹⁸ Ordinance or Law. See Endnote 61 - Ordinance or Law Coverage.

⁹⁹ Replacement Cost. See Endnote 51 - Valuation Terminology - Replacement Cost or Actual Cash Value.

¹⁰⁰ Soft Costs Coverage Added to Builder’s Risk Policy. See Endnote 83 - No Standard Builder’s Risk Policy for a discussion of delay damages and builder’s risk policy endorsements. Builder’s risk policies typically do not cover damages caused by delays arising out of a covered loss. These “soft costs” can be covered by an endorsement. A soft cost endorsement can be tailored to cover loss of expected revenue, additional interest expense, loan fees, property taxes, design fees, insurance premiums, legal and accounting costs and additional commissions arising from the renegotiation of leases. These are time element exposures, similar in many respects to business interruption exposures on a completed project, in that the extent of the loss is impacted by the length of the delay. Soft cost coverage responds to additional expenses made necessary by the delay in completion. Coverage is widely variable and it is incumbent upon the insured to describe what is needed. A thorough understanding of the project, contract documents, financing terms, materials and supply agreements, leasing agreements and construction regulations is needed. Coverage is provided on an actual loss sustained basis (i.e., the insured can recover only for the actual loss of income or the actual additional expenses incurred regardless of the limit of coverage purchased). The period of indemnity usually begins a specified number of days after the date when construction is actually completed. The maximum time period commonly ranges up to 12 months. Typical exclusions contained in a soft cost endorsement are for cost to correct construction deficiencies, costs to comply with laws or ordinances, loss caused by adverse weather and loss caused by strikes. The following is a manuscripted soft cost endorsement to a builder’s risk policy:

ADDITIONAL EXPENSE – SOFT COST COVERAGE

BUILDERS’ RISK COVERAGE FORM

A. The following is added to Additional Coverages:

We cover your additional expenses as indicated below which result from a delay in the completion of the Project beyond the date it would have been completed had no loss occurred. The delay must be due to direct physical loss to Covered Property and be caused by or result from a Covered Cause of Loss. We will pay covered expenses when they are incurred.

Coverage and Limits of Insurance

Rents and Rental Value Coverage. We will pay the actual “loss” of net rental income which results from delay beyond the projected completion date. But we will not pay more than the reduction in rental income less charges and expenses which do not necessarily continue.

Additional Advertising and Promotional Expenses. We will pay the necessary additional advertising and promotional expenses which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional Insurance Expense. We will pay the necessary additional insurance expense for extending or renewing coverage which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional Interest Expense. We will pay the cost of necessary additional interest on money you borrow to finance construction or repair which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project. This expense may arise from obligations to the interim financier or from cancellation of the permanent financing arrangements, including loan closing costs and remarketing of bonds.

Additional Leasing/Commission Expenses. We will pay the necessary additional costs of renegotiating and pre-leasing of the Project, including costs of additional commissions incurred upon renegotiating leases that result from the renegotiation of leases which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional Legal and Accounting Fees. We will pay the necessary additional legal and accounting fees you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional License, Building Inspection and Permit Fees. We will pay the necessary additional license, building inspection and permit fees which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional Real Estate Taxes/Ground Rents or Other Assessments. We will pay the necessary additional real estate taxes, ground rents or other assessments which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional Professional Fees. We will pay the necessary additional architectural, engineering, and other professional fees which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

Additional Project Administration Expense/General Overhead. We will pay the necessary additional project administration expenses which you incur as a result of a delay in the completion date of the Project.

The most we will pay for “loss” for all coverages provided by this endorsement is $ _____ in any one occurrence.

¹⁰¹ Waivers of Subrogation on a Builder’s Risk Policy. Subrogation can impact coverage and frustrate the objective of avoiding liability disputes between contractors, subcontractors and the owner. In St. Paul Fire and Marine Ins. Co. v. Universal Bldg. Supply, 409 F.3d 73, 84 (2d. Cir. 2005), the court said:

A waiver of subrogation is useful because it avoids disruption and disputes among the parties to the project. It thus eliminates the need for lawsuits and yet protects the contracting parties from loss by bringing all property damage under the all risks builder’s risk property insurance. ... These “waiver of subrogation” provisions are intended to cut down the amount of litigation that might otherwise arise due to the existence of an insured loss.

Builder’s risk policies include a provision entitled “Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others to Us” or similar wording. The most common language is:

If the insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this Coverage Part, those rights are transferred to us. The insured must do nothing after the loss to impair them. At our request, the insured will bring “suit” or transfer those rights to us.

Note that in this example, the insured is prohibited from relinquishing its rights after a loss. Beware: some builder’s risk policies prohibit the insured from relinquishing its rights at any time. An endorsement to the builder’s risk policy may be necessary to delete a pre-loss prohibition on the waiver of subrogation in the construction contract.

¹⁰² Flood. See Endnote 59 - Flood.

¹⁰³ When Does Coverage Begin and End? Coverage should be purchased for more time than the construction is anticipated to take. It may be difficult and/or expensive to obtain an extension if coverage expires when the project is nearing completion. If, on the other hand, completion is accomplished prior to expiration, most builder’s risk policy permit a pro-rata cancellation. Most builder’s risk policies state that coverage ceases upon the first to occur of a variety of circumstances. A significant problem arises when one of those circumstances is occupancy. The typical builder’s risk policy does not include an occupancy loading. That said, no definition of “occupancy” is provided. Preferably, the provision governing when coverage ceases should not include a reference to occupancy or there should be a specific grant for occupancy.

¹⁰⁴ Other Insurance. The key exposures not listed above are workers compensation and professional liability. Contractor’s professional liability exposures arise out of the provision of shop drawings, “value engineering”, failure to achieve LEED goals, design/build work, or construction management.

11. Tenant's Property Insurance

¹⁰⁵ Property Insurance - Causes of Loss. See Endnote 50 – Property Insurance - Causes of Loss for an explanation of the coverages of the three forms of ISO Causes of Loss forms.

¹⁰⁸ Tenant Betterments, Alterations and Improvements. See Endnote 53 - Designation of Landlord as Additional Insured on Tenant’s Property Policy, Endnote 54 - Risk Allocation – Tenant’s Property Losses Allocated to Tenant’s Property Insurance. See Staltz, Insuring Tenant Alterations, PROBATE & PROPERTY 45 (Jan./Feb. 2006) articulating the rationale supporting this allocation; Millea and Geyen, Insurance Coverage For Tenant Improvements, <http://www.mondaq.com/unitedstates/article.asp?articleid=125396>. Also see Nusbaum, The “Three-Legged Stool”: The Interplay Of Property Insurance, Mutual Waivers And Waivers Of Subrogation In Commercial Leases (Feb. 3, 2011) <http://www.mondaq.com/unitedstates/article.asp?articleid=121948> and Hannan, Using Property Insurance, Mutual Waiver, and Waiver of Subrogation Clauses in Commercial Leases (with Model Clauses), THE PRACTICAL REAL ESTATE LAWYER (Mar. 2001), at p. 23.

See the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building And Commercial Property Coverage Form ¶ A.1.b(6) specifying that a tenant’s “use interest as tenant in improvements and betterments” are part of the Covered Property of tenant’s ISO property insurance policy. A landlord’s ownership interest in tenant improvements and betterments are part of the Landlord’s Covered Property. ¶A.1.a(5). See the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form stating that coverage is provided the tenant for:

- (6) Your use interest as tenant in improvements and betterments. Improvements and betterments are fixtures, alterations, installations or additions:
- (a) Made a part of the building or structure you occupy but do not own; and
 - (b) You acquired or made at your expense but cannot legally remove;

Some commentators have questioned whether a tenant has an insurable interest in Improvements and betterments installed at the landlord’s expense. A similar issue arises if the lease provides that the tenant is to “insure all leasehold improvements” and there are significant leasehold improvements preexisting in the leased premises. Tenant may not have an insurable interest in improvements it did not install and pay for.

Not all property policies are worded the same as the ISO property insurance policy. (1) A tenant’s property policy may state that it covers tenant’s personal property and be silent as to its use interest in tenant improvements that are owned by the landlord pursuant to a lease provision that transfers ownership of tenant alterations and improvements to the landlord. In cases of policy silence as to tenant improvements as to which tenant only has a “use interest”, the insurer may deny coverage. A New York court held for the tenant under such circumstances in Sigola Mf., Inc. v. Dairyland Ins. Co., 124 A.D.2d 654 (N. Y. App. Div. 1986). (2) A landlord’s property policy may explicitly state that improvements and betterments are covered under the landlord’s policy only if they are located within property occupied by the landlord and not within a tenant’s premises. (3) Even if both landlord’s and tenant’s policies state that they cover tenant improvements (the landlord’s ownership interest and the tenant’s use interest), the policies may provide that they do not cover except on an excess basis the property if there is “other insurance”. The language in such “other insurance” provisions vary, but they typically require that in the event of a loss, any other applicable policy must respond first. The court in Travelers Lloyds Ins. Co. v. Pacific Employers Ins. Co., 602 F.3d 677 (5th Cir. 2010) held that in such case both the tenant’s insurer and the landlord’s insurer must share the cost.

¹⁰⁹ Waiver of Claims; Waiver of Subrogation. See Endnote 20 - for a discussion of waivers of claims and waivers of subrogation. The tenant has an interest in setting out insurance specifications for the landlord’s insurance. Tenants should insist that the landlord’s property policy contain a waiver of subrogation. Tenants should also carve out of their indemnity risks covered by the insurance contractually required to be carried by their landlord. This issue was raised in Travelers Indemnity Co. of Ill. a/s/o Partnership 1995 LLP v. F 7 S London Pub., Inc., 270 F. Supp. 330 (E.D. N.Y. 2003) discussed in A. Glickman, J. Johnson and J. Marzullo, What Did I Just Draft? Understanding How Insurance Really Works 2011 ICSC LAW CONFERENCE as Case Study 4 “Casualty and Indemnification Provisions in Lease, but no Waiver of Subrogation.” In this case the landlord’s insurer sued the tenant on its broad form indemnity for a fire loss to the shopping center. The court held that although the tenant had broadly indemnified the landlord, since the cause of the fire was not determined, the court looked to the lease’s fire damage provision and held that it controlled with the result that the loss was borne by landlord and its insurer. This litigation could have been avoided had the lease expressly excluded from the tenant's indemnity fire damage covered by the landlord's property policy.

¹⁹⁶ ISO CG DS 01 10 01 Commercial General Liability Declarations – Retroactive Date. The following definition of the “Retroactive Date” of a CGL policy is found in the online IRMI Glossary of Insurance and Management Terms <http://www.irmi.com/online/insurance-glossary/default.aspx>. “A provision found in many (although not all) claims-made policies that eliminates coverage for claims produced by wrongful acts that took place prior to a specified date, even if the claim is first made during the policy period. For example, a January 1, 2015, retroactive date in a policy written with a January 1, 2015-2016, term, would bar coverage for claims resulting from wrongful acts that took place prior to January 1, 2015, even if claims (resulting from such acts) are made against the insured during the January 1, 2015-2016, policy period. There are two purposes of retroactive dates: (1) to eliminate coverage for situations or incidents known to insureds that have the potential to give rise to claims in the future and (2) to preclude coverage for "stale" claims that arise from events far in the past, even if such events are unknown to the insured. In the former case, the retroactive date preserves the principle of "fortuity"—that is, the insurer should not be called upon to cover the so-called burning building. In the latter instance, the retroactive date makes policies more affordable by precluding coverage for events that, while insurable, are remote in time.”

¹⁹⁷ ISO CG DS 01 10 01 Commercial General Liability Declarations – Form of Business. See the ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section II, Who Is An Insured, Par. 1 as to automatic insureds covered by the standard CGL policy based on the form of business. Following is a discussion of automatic insureds. Different “insured” terminology is used to define the insured in liability policies and property policies.

Commercial General Liability Policies. The following is terminology used in CGL Policies and their endorsements to describe various types of insured parties, each with varying rights and obligations under the CGL Policy:

Named Insureds. The Declarations Page of a liability policy names the person or organization who is the insured and such person or organization is the named insured. If more than one person or organization is named in the Declarations Page as an insured, the first person or organization named is the first named insured.

Automatic Insureds. Additionally, the liability policy may identify other persons or organizations who qualify as insureds on the basis of their relationship to the named insured. For example, a liability policy on which an organization is the named insured, may provide that the organization’s employees are automatically covered and are automatic insureds. The standard CGL policy designates the following persons as automatic insureds: the spouse of an individual named insured; partners and joint venturers in a named insured partnership or joint venture; members and managers of a named insured limited liability company; officers, directors, and stockholders of a named insured corporation or other named insured organization; trustees of a named insured trust; employees and volunteer workers of the named insured business; the named insured’s real estate manager; any person having proper temporary custody of a deceased named insured’s property; the deceased named insured’s legal representative; and newly acquired or formed organizations.

Additional Insureds. An “additional insured” is a person other than the named insured who is protected under the terms of the contract. Usually, additional insureds are added by endorsement or referred to in the wording of the definition of “insured” in the policy itself. The reason for including another person might be to protect the other person because of the named insured’s close relationship with that person or to comply with a contractual obligation that requires the named insured to do so (e.g., owners of property leased by the named insured -landlords). Under a CGL policy many types of persons or organizations may be added by endorsement as an additional insured, upon approval of the insurer. Many liability insurers issue blanket endorsements specifying certain parties that are “automatic additional insureds” under their liability policies without the need for further endorsement to actually name the person or organization as an additional insured on the policies if the contract between the insured and the additional insured contractually obligates the insured to cause its insurer to add the person or organization as an additional insured on the insured’s liability policy. Persons or organizations are routinely added to a CGL policy as additional insureds by endorsement. There are standard additional insured endorsements to the standard liability policy. A common error in insurance specifications is to specify that a party is to be added to the named insured’s policy as an additional named insured.

Property Policies. The following is terminology used in Property Policies and their endorsements to describe various types of insured parties, each with varying rights and obligations under the Property Policy:

Insured. In a property policy, the insured is the party identified on the Declarations Page as having an insurable interest in the covered property and to whom loss payments will be paid if the property is damaged or destroyed.

Additional Insured. Third parties may be designated by endorsement to the property policy as an additional insured to protect their additional interests.

Mortgageholder. Similarly, the standard commercial property policy contains the standard mortgage clause providing that loss payments will be made to the insured and the mortgageholder as their interests may appear.

¹⁹⁹ ISO CG DS 01 10 01 Commercial General Liability Declarations – Endorsements To This Policy. The various endorsements to the CGL policy are listed on the Declarations Page. If you are not provided with a copy of the policy, including its endorsements, in addition to obtaining a copy of the endorsement, you should obtain the Declarations Page, including this schedule, to confirm that the particular form of endorsement required by the insurance specifications has in fact been issued as part of the policy.

The insured may protect itself for liabilities arising out injuries to its employees by becoming a subscriber under its state’s workers compensation system. It can also obtain Employers Liability Insurance.

²⁰³ ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability – Pollution Exclusion. ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section I, Coverage A, Par. 2.f – Exclusions – Pollution. Par. 2.f is known as the “absolute pollution exclusion” and excludes environmental pollution claims from the CGL policy’s coverage. See Porterfield v. Audubon Indem. Co., 856 So.2d 789, 793 (Ala. 2002) for a discussion of the history of CGL policy’s absolute pollution exclusion.

²⁰⁴ ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability – “Exclusion j” Damage To Property You Own, Rent Or Occupy. This portion of the “damage to property” exclusion, Par. 2.j. (“Exclusion j”) does not apply to premises rented to the Named Insured for 7 or fewer consecutive days, or to the contents of such premises, e.g., damages to a hotel room or its furnishings or to a conference room or special events facility rented to the Named Insured for this short period. See the Fire Damage Legal Liability Exception to exclusion language at the end of Paragraph 2 Exclusions reading as follows (the “Fire Damage Legal Liability Exception”):

Exclusions c. through n. do not apply to damage by fire to premises while rented to you or temporarily occupied by you with permission of the owner. A separate limit of insurance applies to this coverage as described in Section III - Limits Of Insurance.

The Fire Damage Legal Liability Exception creates coverage for fire damage to premises rented to the Named Insured when the damage is caused by the Named Insured’s negligence, sometimes called “fire damage legal liability”. A separate limit of liability applies to this coverage and typically ranges $50,000 - $100,000. This limit can be increased by endorsement to the CGL policy or written for higher limits, but as limits increase they can approximate a property policy’s premium.

²⁰⁵ ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability – Damage To "Your Work" Exclusion – "Subcontractor Exception" for Subcontractor’s Work - Construction Defects Coverage. See discussion in the article at Item A.10 Commercial General Liability Insurance Coverage of Construction Defects!; and Endnote 214 - "Occurrence". Also see W. Locke, CGL Coverage of Defective Work ACREL Fall Program (2009) for further discussion of whether the standard CGL policy covers the risk of property damage as a result of an insured contractor’s defective work occurring during construction or after operations have been completed. Liability insurers have sought to exclude from the coverage of CGL policies so-called “business risks”, those risks thought generally to be under the control of the insured (contractor or subcontractor) and which are not regarded as fortuitous in nature. In crafting policy language (coverage and exclusions) insurers have struggled for decades to draft policy language that clearly and unambiguously covers “accidental” property damage but does not cover uninsurable business risks. The insurance industry has resisted insuring contractor’s for property damage caused by “business risks” within the contractor’s control. This issue has been the subject of considerable litigation. Although the vast majority of cases involve interpretation of the same CGL policy language, there is a marked split of authority. As reviewed below, the recent focus has been on the “property damage” and “occurrence” requirements of the CGL policy, with some courts applying the legal theories of “business risk” and “economic loss” as a means to exclude coverage. In 2007 courts in Texas, Florida and Tennessee courts rejected negligence, foreseeability of damage and natural and probable consequences as grounds to exclude finding that damage to property arising out of a contractor’s performance of work was an “occurrence” possibly triggering coverage under its CGL policy. See Lamar Homes, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 242 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. 2007); U.S. Fire Ins. Co. v. J.S.U.B., Inc. 979 So.2d 871 (Fla. 2007); and Travelers Indem. Co. of America v. Moore & Associates, Inc., 216 S.W.3d 302, 308-09 (Tenn. 2007). Having held that property damage arising out of faulty workmanship may be an occurrence, courts willing to follow this lead are able to interpret Par. 2.I Exclusions – Damage To Your Work to Section I, Coverage A, aka the “subcontractor exception”, as providing coverage if the work is performed by the contractor’s subcontractor. See the following cases and their progeny: Wilshire Ins. Co. v. RJT Constr. Co., 581 F.3d 222 (5th Cir. [Tex.] 2009); Lamar Homes, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 242 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. 2007), answer to certified question conformed to, 501 F.3d 434 (5th Cir. 2007); O’Shaughnessy v. Smuckler Corp., 543 N.W.2d 99 (Minn. Ct. App. 1996); and Mid-Continent Cas. Co. v. Titan Const. Corp., 2008 WL 2340493 (9th Cir. 2008).

²⁰⁶ Electronic Data Liability Exclusion to CGL Coverage – 2013 Revision - CG 00 01 – Coverage A, Exclusion 2.p. Exclusion 2.p excludes from the standard CGL policy damages that “arise out of the loss of, loss of use of, damage to, corruption of, inability to access, or inability to manipulate electronic data”. The standard CGL policy was revised in 2013 to broaden coverage by adding an exception to this exclusion for “bodily injury” (the “However, this exclusion does not apply”). Coverage is readily available to cover this gap through an Electronic Data Liability endorsement, the ISO CG 04 37 04 13 and should be required. Be sure to specify the amount of coverage required, as this endorsement is frequently provided with only a minimal sublimit (e.g., $25,000 coverage). See the Electronic Data Liability endorsement.

²⁰⁷ Recording and Distribution of Material or Information in Violation of Law Exclusions – 2013 Revision - CG 00 01 – Coverage A, Exclusion 2.q. The standard CGL policy was amended in 2013 to incorporate into the exclusions, this exclusion previously handled by a mandatory endorsement, the CG 00 68, excluding coverage for injuries and damages arising out of acts or omissions that violate certain consumer protection laws.

²⁰⁸ “Who Is An Insured” under the CGL Policy - CG 00 01 – Section II, Par. 1 - Entities. Paragraph 1, Section II enumerates a number of persons and entities in addition to the Named Insured as insureds under the CGL policy with respect to the conduct of the Named Insured’s business, e.g., partners and their spouses of a partnership; members and managers of a limited liability company; “executive officers,” directors and shareholders of a corporation; and trustees of a trust.

²⁰⁹ Conditions to Coverage under the CGL Policy – “Other Insurance” - CG 00 01 – Section IV, Par. 4. See Endnote 31 – Primary and Noncontributing. See the following: (1) Section IV, Paragraph 4.a Other Insurance – Primary Insurance and 4.b – Excess Insurance to CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form for provisions in the standard CGL policy establishing that coverage to the Named Insured under the CGL is provided on a primary basis and co-contributing with other insurance available to the Named Insured but is excess under specified circumstances, including if the Named Insured’s other insurance is an additional insured provided on a primary basis; (2) Endnote 210 - 2013 Revision to “Other Insurance” Provision; and (3) CG 20 01 04 13 Primary and Noncontributory - Other Insurance.

²¹⁰ 2013 Revision to “Other Insurance” Provision - CG 00 01 – Section IV, Par. 4(b)(1)(b). Prior to the 2013 revision, the standard policy provided that the CGL coverage was excess over any primary insurance for which the named insured had been added as an additional insured “by attachment of an endorsement”. However, some insurers provide additional insured status directly in their policy as opposed to by endorsement. This raised concerns among commentators that the additional insured’s own insurance was primary and co-contributing with the additional insured coverage if the additional insured coverage was not provided by an endorsement. The 2013 revisions deleted “by attachment of an endorsement”. By this revision the additional insured’s own insurance (its “other insurance”) is revised to state that the additional insured’s own insurance is excess insurance over the additional insurance coverage provided to the additional insured whether by endorsement or other means.

²¹¹ Separation of Insureds – CG 00 01 – Section IV, Par. 7. See Endnote 30 – Separation of Insureds.

²¹² CGL Insurer’s Contractual Right of Subrogation - CG 00 01 – Section IV, Par. 8. The standard CGL policy contains a contractual transfer to the insurer of the Named Insured’s right of recovery against third parties for payments made by the insurer. See in the Appendix of Forms the ISO CG 24 04 05 09 Waiver of Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others To Us.

²¹³ ISO CG 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability – Notice of Nonrenewal. Notice that the notice is sent by the insurer to the “first Named Insured” as opposed to “all insureds”.

²¹⁴ “Occurrence”.

Decisions Finding Faulty Workmanship Not a Basis for an “Occurrence”:

Pa. Millers Capital Ins. Co. v. Gambone Bros. Commercial Union Ins. Co., 589 Pa. 317, 908 A.2d 888 (Pa. 2006) - failure to construct coke oven battery properly such that oven walls spalled, rod housings bowed, and ovens cracked paver bricks was not an accident and, therefore, was not an “occurrence”.

Decisions Finding Faulty Work a Basis for an “Occurrence”:

Ariz. Lennar Corp. v. Auto-Owners Ins. Co., 151 P.3d 538 (Ariz. Ct. App. Div. 1 2007).

Ark. U.S. Fidelity & Guar. Co. v. Continental Cas. Co., 120 S.W.3d 556 (Ark. 2003) - “First, we must consider whether there was an occurrence. Appellants argue that the ‘occurrence’ that gave rise to the property damage was Ray’s defective workmanship on the Wal-Mart projects. The policy defines an 'occurrence' as 'an accident.' We have defined an 'accident' as 'an event that takes place without one's foresight or expectation— an event that proceeds from an unknown cause, or is an unusual effect of a known cause, and therefore not expected.' Because the policy has defined 'occurrence,' and because we have defined 'accident,' we conclude that the remaining fact question which must be resolved in this case before coverage can be determined is whether Ray's workmanship on the Wal-Mart projects constituted an 'accident.'" The court noted that there is a split of authority on whether defective workmanship is an accident and therefore an "occurrence" under a general liability policy.

Cal. McGranahan v. Insurance Corp. of NY, 544 F. Supp.2d 1052 (E.D. Cal. 2008) - "occurrence" alleged where complaint was neutral regarding whether insured intended to install moldy drywall, as it only asserted it installed moldy drywall.

Colo. Hoang v. Monterra Homes (Powderhorn) LLC, 129 P.3d 1028 (Colo. Ct. App. 2005), as modified on denial of reh'g and cert. granted - claim that homebuilder was negligent in constructing homes on unsuitable site containing expansive soils alleged an "occurrence".

Fla. U. S. Fire Ins. Co. v. J.S.U.B., Inc., 979 So.2d 871 (Fla. 2007). See discussion in this Article.

Ga. SawHorse, Inc. v. Southern Guar. Ins. Co. of Georgia, 269 Ga. App. 493, 604 S.E.2d 541 (Ga. 2004) - "Southern Guaranty has cited no Georgia authority supporting its apparent claim that faulty workmanship cannot constitute an 'occurrence' under a general commercial liability policy. And this claim runs counter to case law finding that policies with similar 'occurrence' language provide coverage for 'the risk that . . . defective or faulty workmanship will cause injury to people or damage to other property.' Furthermore, Southern Guaranty has pointed to no evidence that SawHorse intended for the faulty workmanship to occur. Under these circumstances, Southern Guaranty is not entitled to summary judgment based on the 'occurrence' language in the policy."

Ind. Indiana Ins. Co. v. Alloyd Insulation Co., 2002 WL 1770491 (Ohio Ct. App. 2d Dist. Montgomery County 2002) - corrosion and consequential property damage from faulty roof due to defective workmanship constituted an "accident" and thus an "occurrence".

Kan. Lee Builders, Inc. v. Farm Bureau Mut. Ins. Co., 33 Kan. App.2d 504, 104 P.3d 997 (Kan. 2005) - damage that occurs over time as a result of defective materials or workmanship in the construction of a home and leads to structural damage is an "occurrence"; 281 Kan. 844, 137 P.3d 486 (Kan. 2006) - homeowners' claim for property damage from window leaks against general contractor constituted an "occurrence" as there is nothing in the basic coverage language of the CGL policy to support any definitive tort/contract line of demarcation for purposes of determining coverage.

Ky. Bituminous Cas. Corp. v. Kenway Contracting, Inc., 240 S.W.3d 633 (Ky. 2007) - intentional act of contractor's employee in demolishing part of home, allegedly because contractor had not communicated to employee that the project was limited to demolishing the home's carport, constituted an "accident" and therefore was an "occurrence," within the meaning of CGL policy.

La. Broadmoor Anderson v. National Union Fire Ins. Co. of Louisiana, 912 So.2d 400 (La. Ct. App.2d Cir. 2005) - defective ceramic tile and stone work resulting in water infiltration constituted an "occurrence"; North American Treatment Systems, Inc. v. Scottsdale Ins. Co., 943 So.2d 429 (La. Ct. App. [1st Cir.] 2006), writ denied, 2007 WL 781850 and 2007 WL 781854 - claims of negligent work resulting in a collapse at a wastewater treatment plant clearly claimed damages by reason of an "occurrence".

Minn. O'Shaughnessy v. Smuckler Corp., 543 N.W.2d 99 (Minn. Ct. App. 1996) abrogated on other grounds by Gordon v. Microsoft Corp., 645 N.W.2d 393 (Minn. 2002).

Mo. Columbia Mut. Ins. Co. v. Epstein, 239 S.W.3d 667 (Mo. Ct. App. E.D. 2007) - defect in concrete purchased for house foundation was "accident" and, thus, "occurrence"; American States Ins. Co. v. Herman C. Kempker Const. Co., Inc., 71 S.W.3d 232 (Mo. Ct. App. W.D. 2002) - developer's claim that insured contractor negligently misrepresented construction of street in development potentially was an "occurrence" and therefore, insurer had a duty to defend.

Oh. Dublin Bldg. Sys. v. Selective Ins. Co. of South Carolina, 874 N.E.2d 788 (Ohio Ct. App. 10th Dist. Franklin County 2007) - property damage, including mold contamination, caused by exterior stucco subcontractor, who failed to properly seal office building's exterior walls, constituted an insurable "occurrence"; Erie Ins. Exchange v. Colony Dev. Corp. 736 N.E.2d 941 (Ohio Ct. App. 10th Dist. Franklin County 2006); Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc. v. Epstein Contracting, Inc., 2002 WL 723215 (Ohio Ct. App. 10th Dist. Franklin County 2002) - collapse of store's ceiling was an "accident" and, therefore, an "occurrence" within the meaning of contractor's CGL policy, but express contractual liability exclusion applied to shield insurers from liability.

Pa. Kvaerner Metals Div. of Kvaerner U.S., Inc. v. Commercial Union Ins. Co., 2003 Pa Super 149, 825 A.2d 641, 654 (Pa. 2003) - "In the instant case, the damage at issue is not the absence of the grout or the size of the grout spaces but the deformation and deflection of the brick work, tie rods and roof of the battery which occurred after the battery was placed in use. Whether that damage was caused in whole or in part by the torrential rains of October 31st and November 1st, or by some other event during the heatup of the battery, we are not hesitant to conclude that the physical damage to the battery constituted an occurrence for which the policies provide coverage UNLESS otherwise precluded by one of the exclusions set forth in the policy."

N.D. ACUITY v. Burd & Smith Const., Inc., 721 N.W.2d 33, 39-40 (N.D. 2006) - "We agree with the rationale of those courts holding that faulty workmanship causing damage to property other than the work product is an accidental occurrence for purposes of the CGL policy. . . . Here, the Kailliers allege damage to the interior of the apartment building. We conclude that claim is the type of risk covered by a CGL policy and constitutes an 'occurrence' under Acuity's policy."

Neb. Auto-Owners Ins. Co. v. Home Pride Companies, Inc., 268 Neb. 528, 684 N.W.2d 571, 577-78 (Neb. 2004) - "Although it is clear that faulty workmanship, standing alone, is not covered under a standard CGL policy, it is important to realize that there are two different justifications for this rule. On the one hand, the rule has been justified on public policy grounds, primarily on the long-founded notion that the cost to repair and replace the damages caused by faulty workmanship is a business risk not covered under a CGL policy. Today, the business risk rule is part of standard CGL policies in the form of "your work" exceptions to coverage. Therefore, the business risk rule does not serve as an initial bar to coverage, but, rather, as a potential exclusion, via the "your work" exclusions, if an initial grant of coverage is founded. . . . Important here, although faulty workmanship, standing alone is not an occurrence under a CGL policy, an accident caused by faulty workmanship is a covered occurrence. . . . In the instant case, [insureds' subcontractors] negligently installed shingles on a number of apartments, which caused the shingles to fall off. Additionally, the amended petition alleged that as a consequence of the faulty work, the roof structures and buildings have experienced substantial damage. This latter allegation represents an unintended and unexpected consequence of the contractors' faulty workmanship and goes beyond damages to the contractors' own work product. Therefore, the amended petition properly alleged an occurrence within the meaning of the insurance policy."

S.C. Auto Owners Ins. Co., Inc. v. Newman, 2008 WL 648546 (S.C. 2008) - water intrusion and resulting damage was an "occurrence" covered under the policy; L-J, Inc. v. Bituminous Fire and Marine Ins. Co. 350 S.C. 549, 567 S.E.2d 489 (S. C. Ct. App. 2002) - deterioration and failure of roads from repeated water runoff was an "accident" and, therefore, an "occurrence" and subcontractor exception to policy's business risk exclusion restored coverage otherwise excluded under the policy.

S.D. Corner Const. Co. v. U. S. Fidelity and Guar. Co., 2002 S.D. 5, 638 N.W.2d 887 (S.D. 2002) - failure to fill voids between studs with insulation and to securely attach the vapor barrier was an "accident" resulting in property damage.

Tenn. Travelers Indem. Co. of America v. Moore & Associates, Inc., 216 S.W.3d 302, 308-09 (Tenn. 2007) – see discussion in this Article; and State Farm Fire and Cas. Co. v. McGowan, 421 F.3d 433, 2005 FED App. 0374P (6th Cir. 2005) - holding that an insured's negligence was an "occurrence" under an insurance policy because it was unintended and unforeseen.

Tex. Lamar Homes, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 242 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. 2007), answer to certified question conformed to, 501 F.3d 435 (5th Cir. 2007) – see discussion in this Article; and CU Lloyd's of Texas v. Main Street Homes, Inc., 79 S.W.3d 687 (Tex. App.—Austin 2002) - homeowners' allegations that general contractor built homes after learning that foundation designs were inadequate for soil conditions and failed to disclose that knowledge to purchasers stated an "accident" and thus an "occurrence". King v. Dallas Fire Ins. Co. 45 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 715, 2002 WL 1118438 (Tex. 2002), op. withdrawn and superseded on reh'g on other grounds, 85 S.W.3d 185 (Tex. 2002) - liability insurer owed duty to defend employer accused of negligently hiring and supervising employee accused of battery, because the employer's negligent hiring constituted an "occurrence"; Lennar Corp. v. Great American Ins. Co., 2005 WL 1324833 (Tex. App.—Hou. [14th Dist.] 2005) - suit to recover costs paid to repair water damage and replace defective exterior insulation and finish systems on hundreds of homes built in the Houston area in the late 1990s alleged an "occurrence", and 200 S.W.3d 651 (Tex. App. Hou. [14th Dist.] 2006, writ granted) - homebuilder's negligent construction of homes using defective exterior insulation and finish system constituted an "occurrence" within scope of CGL and commercial umbrella liability policies; Mid-Continent Cas. Co. v. JHP Dev., Inc., 2009 WL 189886 (5th Cir. [Tex.] 2009) - faulty workmanship allegations against contractor in the construction of five condominiums that resulted in water leakage was an occurrence; Pine Oak Builders, Inc. v. Great American Lloyds Ins. Co., 2006 WL 1892669 (Tex. App.—Hou. [14th Dist.] 2006) - property damage caused by defective construction may constitute an "occurrence" if it is inadvertent and results in damage to the insured's own work, the result of which is unintended and unexpected, rev'd on other grounds Pine Oak Builders' Inc. v. Great American Lloyds Ins. Co., 279 S.W.3d 650 (Tex. 2009).

Utah. Great American Ins. Co. v. Woodside Homes Corp., 448 F. Supp.2d 1275 (D. Utah 2006) - subcontractor's faulty work causing cracks in building foundation, basement floor, and driveway involved an occurrence such that breach of warranty claim and breach of contract claim were potentially covered.

Wash. Mid-Continent Cas. Co. v. Titan Const. Corp. 281 Fed. Appx. 766 (9th Cir. 2008) - negligent construction of condominium that resulted in breach of contract and breach of warranty claims constituted "occurrence" under CGL policy.

Wis. American Family Mut. Ins. Co. v. American Girl, Inc., 673 N.W.2d 65, 76 (Wis. 2004) - "American Family argues that because Pleasant's claim is for breach of contract/breach of warranty it cannot be an "occurrence," because the CGL is not intended to cover contract claims arising out of the insured's defective work or product, but this is by operation of the CGL's business risk exclusions, not because a loss actionable only in contract can never be the result of an "occurrence" within the meaning of the CGL's initial grant of coverage. This distinction is sometimes overlooked and has resulted in some regrettably overbroad generalizations about CGL policies in our case law."; 1325 North Van Buren, LLC v. T-3 Group, Ltd., 284 Wis.2d 387, 2005 WI. App. 121, 701 N.W.2d 13 (Ct. App. 2005), review granted 2005 WI. 150, 286 Wis.2d 97, 705 N.W.2d 659 (Wis. 2005) - CM-at-risk failures that result in property damage and delays were an occurrence; Glendenning's Limestone & Ready-Mix Co., Inc. v. Reimer, 721 N.W.2d 704 (Wis. Ct. App. 2006) - concluding, after a detailed discussion, that "occurrence" is not equivalent to faulty workmanship, but rather faulty workmanship may result in an "occurrence" and, in this case, where pleading alleges that the rubber mats that subcontractor improperly installed were damaged by a scraper that cleans manure from them is a claim for property damage caused by an occurrence in that the damage was not intended or anticipated and that it was also not intended or anticipated that using the scraper to clean the manure off the mats would damage the mats; Stuart v. Weisflog's Showroom Gallery, Inc., 722 N.W.2d 766 (Wis. Ct. App. 2006, review granted), 727 N.W.2d 34 (Wis. 2006) - insured's misrepresentations that it was a licensed architect and familiar with building code requirements qualified as "occurrences" per its insurance policy because intent to deceive is not a necessary element of homeowners' cause of action.

²¹⁵ Amendment of Cancellation Provisions or Coverage Change. The ACORD 24 Certificate of Property Insurance, ACORD 25 Certificate of Liability Insurance and ACORD 28 Evidence of Commercial Property Insurance were revised in late 2009 and early 2010 to change the Cancellation notice language to read as follows:

should any of the above described policies be cancelled before the expiration date thereof, notice will be delivered in accordance with the policy provisions.

The prior version of these certificates and evidence contained the following statement concerning advance notice to be given by the Insurer to the Additional Interest holder:

should any of the above described policies be canceled before the expiration date thereof, the issuing insurer will endeavor to mail ___ days written notice to the [certificate holder named to the left/additional interest named below], but failure to mail such notice shall impose no obligation or liability of any kind upon the insurer, its agents or representatives.

Similar language appeared in the ACORD Certificate of Property Insurance. A New York appeals court has held that the presence of an ACORD "endeavor"-type notice of cancellation provision in the certificate does not impose on the insurer a contractual obligation to give the certificate holder notice of cancellation of the policy for the insured's premium non-payment. The court held that the insurer satisfied its contract obligations by complying with the contract's requirement of giving notice to the "first named insured" (the insurer's customer). The court pointed to a New York statute which required notice to the first named insured but did not also specify that notice be given to additional insureds. The court dismissed the additional insured/certificate holder's arguments as follows:

Charlew contends that it reasonably relied, to its detriment, upon the certificate of insurance which named it as an additional insured and, therefore, under our decision in [citation omitted], Merchants Mutual was equitably estopped from denying coverage. Notably, however, the situation presented herein is distinguishable because the Merchants Mutual insurance policy was not in existence at the time of (the employee's) accident. "Where there is no coverage under an insurance policy because the policy was not in existence at the time of the accident, estoppel cannot be used to create coverage." (citations omitted). Furthermore, Charlew argues that the policy was not properly cancelled because it was not notified of such action, as an additional insured.... Even assuming that Merchants Mutual received the policy change request from Weller-Marcil, we disagree with that argument. Since Merchants Mutual strictly complied with the notice of cancellation provisions set forth in ... (reference to NY statute omitted) by mailing a timely notice of cancellation to the "first-named insured" (Regels) and "such insured's authorized agent or broker" (Weller-Mercil), the policy was effectively cancelled ... (citation omitted), irrespective of its failure to comply with its "courtesy" policy of notifying additional insureds of a cancellation. Charlew's (the additional insured's) argument is further belied by the unambiguous disclaimer contained in the certificate of insurance ... (quotation of the ACORD language is omitted.). Wainwright v. Charlew Construction Co. Inc., 755 N.Y.S.2d 751, 753-54 (NY [3rd Dept.] 2003).

ISO CG 02 05 12 04 Texas Changes - Amendment of Cancellation Provisions or Coverage Change provides for the insurer to give the designated person advance notice of cancellation or material change to the First Named Insured's CGL policy. Many but not all states have a similar form approved by the state's insurance commissioner for use in their state.

²¹⁶ ISO CG 04 37 04 13 Electronic Data Liability. See Item A.11.I Exclusions May Be Invisible – Electronic Data Liability in beginning of this article for a discussion of Exclusion 2.p - Electronic Data exclusion to the standard CGL policy's coverage. This endorsement to the CGL policy adds a definition for "electronic data" and amends the definition of "property damage" to incorporate the electronic data definition. CG 04 37 was revised in 2013 to add to this exclusionary endorsement the "bodily injury" exception to the exclusion which also is included by the 2013 revisions in Exclusion 2.p. See ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form, Par. 4.f Additional Coverages – Electronic Data for property insurance coverage of loss or damage to electronic data.

²¹⁷ ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Primary and Noncontributory – The "Other Insurance" Condition. See Endnote 31 – Primary and Noncontributing. ISO CG 20 01 04 13 Primary and Noncontributory – Other Insurance Condition has been introduced in 2013 by ISO to provide an endorsement form to be added to the Named Insured's policy (the protecting party's policy) to reiterate that it provides "primary" coverage and that its issuer "will not seek contribution from any other insurance available to an additional insured". Note, however, that Provision (2) of this endorsement requires that the written agreement of the additional insured (the protected party) and the Named Insured (the protecting party) must provide that the Named Insured's insurance is primary and will not seek contribution from the additional insured's other insurance. Requiring in the written agreement between the Named Insured and the Additional Insured that an ISO CG 20 10 endorsement be added to the Named Insured's policy may not achieve the Additional Insured's objectives, if the written agreement itself does not also specify that the additional insured coverage on the Named Insured's policy is "primary and noncontributory" plus contain language defining what is meant by primary and noncontributory. Note that this new endorsement is worded to apply only where the additional insured is a Named Insured. Many of the parties that require additional insured protection are not named insureds under a CGL policy, e.g., officers, directors, and employees of a primary additional insured. Also note that this new endorsement provides that it applies only if the person or entity is named as an additional insured by an endorsement. Also, note this endorsement endorses the Named Insured's Commercial General Liability Policy and is not an endorsement to the Named Insured's umbrella or excess policy. This result might be avoided if the umbrella or excess policy provides that it is primary and does not require the additional insured's policy to contribute, and the additional insured's policy does not provide that it contributes along with other insurance above the primary contributing policies. This desired result of an additional insured is exacerbated by the standard policy's "other insurance" language that provides the policy is "Excess over: ... (b) Any other primary insurance available to you covering liability ... for which you have been added as an additional insured." The additional insured's policy does not state it is excess over umbrella policies of the Named Insured on which it has been added as an additional insured.

²¹⁸ ISO CG 20 10 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person or Organization. The ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Additional Insured Endorsement, is used to schedule an owner (a landlord), a lessee or a contractor on a named insured's CGL policy. It is used to schedule a landlord on the tenant's CGL policy and on a tenant's contractor's CGL policy to schedule a landlord on a tenant's CGL policy.

²¹⁹ ISO CG 20 10 – "Caused by Your Acts or Omissions". This endorsement provides coverage to the additional insured (e.g., landlord and tenant) on the contractor's CGL policy for "liability" "caused, in whole or in part, by" the acts or omissions or the acts of the CGL policy's insured (the contractor) and the acts or omissions on its behalf (those of its subcontractors, etc.). (This form is also used to provide additional insured coverage for a contractor on a subcontractor's CGL policy). The "caused in whole or in part" language was added by ISO to this endorsement form in 2004 replacing the prior endorsement language that triggered coverage for the additional insured when the liability "arose out of your (the named insured's) ongoing operations performed for that insured (the additional insured)." The pre-2004 endorsement language triggered numerous cases over the meaning of "arising out of" and "operations" and whether such terms meant that the additional insured would be insured against its liability in cases where the liability was the result of the additional insured's sole negligence or in cases where the named insured was not negligent and the additional insured and others were the negligent parties.

The 2004 revision to this additional insured endorsement was in part a response to holdings, such as McCarthy v. Cont. Lloyds, 7 S.W.3d 725 (Tex. App. – Austin [3rd Dist.] 1999, no writ), Admiral Ins. Co. v. Trident NGL, Inc., 988 S.W.2d 451 (Tex. App. [1st Dist.] 1999, writ denied) and Mid-Continent Casualty Co. v. Swift Energy Co., 206 F.3d 487 (5th Cir. 2000) holding that the "arising out of" language was ambiguous and should be broadly interpreted as providing coverage for liabilities arising out of the concurrent and even the sole negligence of the additional insured. Texas courts have been inclined to interpret insurance language broadly against the insurer and interpreted the "arising out of" language broadly against the insurer in favor of coverage for the additional insured, even in cases where the named insured was not negligent and the additional insured was the solely negligent party, but there was a causal connection between the liability and the operations of the named insured contractor. Prior to the 2004 revision to the CG 20 10, the CG 20 10 underwent various revisions seeking to limit the broad scope of the "arising out of" language, including a revision changing coverage for the additional insured from liability "arising out of the (named insured's) work" (CG 20 10 11 85) to "arising out of the (named insured's) operations." This type of language is still found in some non-ISO form endorsements and still gives rise to the same issue - is the additional insured covered for liabilities where the named insured is not negligent, but the additional insured is either concurrently negligent with person other than the named insured or is solely negligent?

The 2004 language triggers coverage for the additional insured for liabilities “caused by” an “act or omission” of the named insured (contractor) or by an entity acting on the named insured’s behalf. This language, unlike prior ISO language, requires that the acts or omissions of the named insured be at least a partial cause of the liability. Thus, it is arguable that this new endorsement language does not cover the additional insured either for its sole negligence or cases where the additional insured is concurrently negligent with others, but the named insured is not negligent. However, it remains for courts to interpret this language and to determine the meaning of “caused by”. This language as written is not qualified by typical Texas tort law concepts of “proximately caused by” or “directly caused by.” Additionally, in cases where the liability is for injury to the named insured’s employee, the “caused by” language may present coverage issues for an additional insured, as in such cases the named insured’s employee is barred by the workers comp bar from suing its employer and is suing the additional insured without any allegations being raised by the injured employee as to acts or omissions of the named insured, employer. In W & W Glass Sys., Inc. v. Admiral Ins. Co., 937 N.Y.S.2d 28 (N.Y. 2012) the New York court held that “caused by your ongoing operations performed for that insured” did not materially differ from “arising out of” and “the additional insured endorsement granting coverage does not require a negligence trigger”. The court found that the fact that an employee of a subcontractor was injured while performing the named insured’s work was sufficient to demonstrate that the injuries were “caused by” the named insured’s operations.

²²¹ 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to the Additional Insured Endorsements. ISO revised the Additional Insurance forms to add the following three additional limitations to their additional insured coverage:

(1) Coverage of the additional insured is provided “only to the extent provided by law”. This limitation has been added to avoid violation of state anti-indemnification and anti-additional insured laws. Many states have “anti-indemnification” laws declaring void indemnity and additional insurance requirements requiring a party to indemnify and provide additional insurance protecting another party from the other party’s negligence.

(2) Coverage of the additional insured is not broader than that which the Named Insured is required to provide the Additional Insured under their written agreement. This limitation thus imposes a limit on coverage otherwise provided in the policy.

(3) The limit of coverage is limited to the lesser of the coverage limit required in the parties’ agreement or by the policy.

²²² ISO CG 20 11 Additional Insured – Managers or Lessors of Premises. This endorsement is used when a landlord or the property manager, or both, is to be listed as an additional insured on the tenant’s liability insurance policy. A common risk transfer strategy is for a landlord to provide in its lease that its tenant indemnify and make the landlord and its property manager an additional insured on the tenant’s CGL policy. These provisions recognize that the tenant’s occupancy creates an additional liability exposure to the landlord for injuries and property damage resulting from a tenant’s activities.

²²³ ISO CG 20 11 Additional Insured – Managers or Lessors of Premises - Designation of Premises. See Endnote 225 - ISO CG 20 11 - “Arising Out of Premises” for a discussion of the importance of the description of the “premises”.

²²⁴ ISO CG 20 11 - “Arising Out of Ownership, Maintenance or Use” of Premises. Coverage is broad as it covers the additional insured’s liability for Injuries “arising out of” its “ownership, maintenance or use of that part of the premises leased to you (the named insured, the tenant)” as opposed to using language employed in some of the other current ISO endorsement forms that were amended in 2004 to change from “arising out” to “caused by.” Coverage also is broad as it covers the additional insured’s liability for Injuries arising out of its “ownership, maintenance or use of that part of the premises leased to you (the named insured, the tenant).” This language is broad. It applies clearly to the landlord’s vicarious liability for acts of the tenant (i.e., the “use” of the premises). The language is also expansive and general enough to apply directly to the landlord’s own negligence. It covers liability arising out of the “ownership” and “maintenance” of the premises, areas in which the landlord could be held liable regardless of any involvement of the tenant. The ISO industry standard additional insured endorsement form above does not expressly extend coverage to the additional insured’s sole negligence. It also does not expressly exclude coverage of a landlord’s sole negligence. In 2004 ISO modified several of its endorsement forms (but not this one) to expressly exclude from coverage the sole negligence of the additional insured. An issue may exist as to whether the above ISO endorsement form extends to cover a landlord’s sole negligence. It is unlikely that a tenant can easily or economically provide an additional insured endorsement to its CGL policy that expressly covers a landlord’s sole negligence.

²²⁵ ISO CG 20 11 - “Arising Out of Premises”. This endorsement provides a blank line for the description of the “Premises.” Care must be exercised in completing this blank. This endorsement has a major potential coverage issue. It extends coverage to the additional insured landlord for liability for bodily injury and property damage “arising out of” ownership, maintenance or use of “that part of the premises leased” to the Tenant. A coverage issue may occur if the bodily injury or property damage occurs outside of the “premises” as such term is defined in the lease (for example, in the common areas maintained by the landlord or in the alley behind the project). The most common factually litigated scenario regarding these endorsements involves injuries occurring “outside” the “part” of the premises “shown in the schedule” leased to the tenant. This issue can also take on the nuance of whether coverage is affected if the schedule designates more or less than the “part of the premises” leased to the named insured. Some courts have found that the reference to “premises” is not a geographic limitation of the additional insured’s coverage. Such courts have construed the endorsement’s use of “arising out of” the premises as meaning that the injury or damage does not have to actually occur in the premises. However, some courts have placed a literal meaning on the “premises” and have required the injury to occur in the premises leased to a tenant.

Cases Finding No Coverage. For example, in General Accident, Fire and Life Assurance Corp. v. Travelers Ins. Co., 556 N.Y.2d 76 (1990), the court held that the additional insured endorsement did not cover a claim brought by the named insured’s injured employee when the injury occurred outside the leased “premises.” The court denied coverage even though tenant named insured’s CGL policy was endorsed to name its landlord as an additional insured and designated the landlord’s entire property as the “premises.” The court reviewed the lease and found that it defined the term “premises” as a specific area and the “premises” was not where the injury occurred. New York follows a rule that these type endorsement designate the covered location where the injury must occur, and do not provide coverage when the injury occurs outside of the designated area even though the “occurrence” might be viewed as having “sprung” from the use of the landlord’s facility. See Greater N. Y. Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mut. Marine Office, Inc., 3 A.D.3d 44, 769 N.Y.S.2d 234, 237 (2003), N. Y. App. Div. Lexis 13316 (2003) a case involving an injury that occurred to a HVAC repairman who was injured while walking on the roof of a landlord’s multi-tenant retail center to get to a HVAC unit that the tenant was obligated to maintain pursuant to lease of a retail space in the center. The additional insured endorsement form was the above ISO CG 20 11 Additional Insured – Managers and Lessors of Premises. The court found that the additional insured endorsement did not insure the landlord for the injury as the injury neither occurred in the retail space leased to tenant or on the roof directly above the space. Northbrook Ins. Co. v. American Stats Ins. Co., 495 N.W.2d 450 (Minn. 1993)-additional insured endorsement held not to cover injuries occurring in alley behind named insured’s bakery in a shopping center (in this case an employee of the bakery was injured when he slipped on ice while loading a truck parked in the alley behind the shopping center) and the additional insured endorsement described the “premises” as the 3,200 square feet of space occupied by the named insured tenant. The court stated:

The additional insured endorsement under which (the landlord) was added as an insured specified it provided coverage, only with respect to liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of the insured premises, i.e., the bakery. By its terms, the endorsement provides coverage for (the landlord’s) negligence in the bakery. Coverage is not provided for the rest of the shopping center.

The court also reasoned that since the lease provided for the landlord to maintain the alley the parties did not intend to transfer to the tenant’s insurer the risk of liabilities occurring in the alley. A similar conclusion was reached in Minges Creek v. Royal Ins. Co. of Am., 442 F.3d 953 (6th Cir. 2006) discussed in A. Glickman, J. Johnson and J. Marzullo, What Did I Just Draft? Understanding How Insurance Really Works 2011 ICSC LAW CONFERENCE B-5 and 6 as Case Study 5 “Sidewalk Slip and Fall”. This case arose out of injury to a customer of a card shop who slipped in the icy parking lot of the mall in which the shop was located. The customer sued both the card shop and the mall. The lease provided that the shop was required to maintain liability insurance “with respect to the leased premises and the business operated by the tenant” and to “name landlord (i.e., the mall owner), any other parties in interest designated by landlord, and tenant as insured.” The additional insured endorsement to Tenant’s CGL policy provided coverage to the additional insured landlord “with respect to liability arising out of premises owned or used by you (the tenant).” The court held that the landlord was not insured against the liability by tenant’s additional insured endorsement. The court viewed the lease and the additional insurance endorsement as “inextricably intertwined” and stated that they “should be interpreted in context with each other.” The court concluded that the card shop was required by its lease to provide insured status for the mall only with respect to the “leased premises”—the limited square footage set out in the lease, 6,796 square feet of interior space as shown in the mall’s site plan attached to the lease. The court found that although the parking lot was provided for the “use” of the card shop and other tenants, it was not part of the “premises” used by the card shop. The court found that the context of the lease agreement “requires that the definition of premises in the policy be coextensive with the card shop’s obligation to name (the mall owner) as an additional insured.” Also see USF&G v. Drazic, 877 S.W.2d 140 (Mo. 1994)-additional insured not covered for injuries to named insured tenant’s employee who slipped and was injured on an icy parking lot. See also cases construing the scope of indemnities as to injuries arising out of the use of the “premises” as not extending to injuries not occurring in the premises (but note courts follow a strict construction rule limiting private parties contracts not employed in construing insurance contracts): Rensselaer Polytechnic Inst. v. Zurich Am. Ins. Co., 176 A.D.2d 1156, 1157, 575 N.Y.S.2d 598 (N.Y. 3rd Dept. 1991). The court was not persuaded that a duty to indemnify existed by the argument that, although the accident did not occur within the leased premises, it did arise out of use of the leased premises; Commerce & Indus. Ins. Co. v. Admon Realty, Inc., 168 A.D.2d 321, 323, 562 N.Y.S.2d 655 (1st Dept. 1990)—finding no duty to indemnify where the cause of the damage occurred outside the leased premises.

²²⁶ ISO CG 20 24 Additional Insured – Owners or Other Interests From Whom Land Has Been Leased. This additional insured endorsement applies to a lease of “land”, and ISO CG 20 11 applies to a lease of “premises”. Should ISO CG 20 24 or ISO 20 11 be used in a “ground lease”? The answer may be clearer if the land will be unimproved throughout the tenancy. Like the ISO CG 20 11 discussed in Endnote 130 above, the ISO CG 20 24 has two carve outs: first, cessation of the lease, and second, alterations, new construction or demolition operations.

²²⁷ ISO CG 20 24 – Designation of Premises. See Endnote 225 - ISO CG 20 11 - “Arising Out of ‘Premises’” for a discussion of the importance of defining with care the “premises”.

²²⁸ ISO CG 20 24 - “Arising Out of Ownership, Maintenance or Use” of Premises. See Endnote 224 - ISO CG 20 11 - “Arising Out of Ownership, Maintenance or Use” of Premises for a discussion of the term “arising out of ownership, maintenance or use”.

²²⁹ 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to Additional Insured Endorsements. See discussions in article at Item A.6.e 2013 Amendments to the ISO Additional Insured Endorsements – Not a Friend But a Foe?.

²³⁰ ISO CG 20 26 04 13 Additional Insured – Designated Person or Organization. This endorsement may be used when no other ISO form exists for the purpose or when the parties designate this Form as the form to be used. This form is suitable for use to designate a tenant as an additional insured on Landlord’s CGL policy. In a landlord-tenant context, it may be used to provide additional insured coverage to an owner on a tenant’s CGL policy and vice versa to provide additional insured coverage to a tenant on a landlord’s CGL policy. In cases where the landlord is to be included as an additional insured on the tenant's CGL policy and the tenant is to be included on a landlord's CGL policy, the insurance specifications and the additional insured endorsements must be drafted to allocate on a geographic basis the areas where the landlord's insurance is to afford primary and noncontributory coverage to the landlord and the tenant (for example, the common areas) and the areas where the tenant's insurance is to afford primary and noncontributory coverage to the landlord and the tenant (for example, inside the suite or demised premises leased to the tenant, exclusive of common areas). This endorsement is the broadest of the ISO Additional Insured Endorsements. This endorsement provides additional insured coverage for liability bodily injury, property damage and personal and advertising injury caused, in whole or in part, by the named insured's (in this case the Landlord) acts or omissions "in connection with your premises owned by ... you." This endorsement form does not contain any carve outs from coverage like other ISO additional insured endorsement forms. However, by its express coverage terms it eliminates certain coverages. For example, the injury must be caused at least in part by the named insured. This eliminates coverage for the additional insured's sole negligence. The injury must occur in connection with premises owned by the named insured. The term "premises" is not defined, but likely will be given a broad meaning by courts. In the context of a lease, courts will likely interpret this endorsement listing the tenant as an additional insured on the landlord's CGL policy as covering more than merely the "Premises" leased to the tenant, but also the common areas.

²³¹ ISO CG 20 26 04 13 – "Your Acts or Omissions". This endorsement provides coverage to the additional insured (e.g., landlord and tenant) on the contractor's CGL policy for "liability" "caused, in whole or in part, by" the acts or omissions of the acts of the CGL policy's insured (the contractor) and the acts or omissions on its behalf (those of its subcontractors, etc.). (This form is also used to provide additional insured coverage for a contractor on a subcontractor's CGL policy). The "caused in whole or in part" language was added by ISO to this endorsement form in 2004 replacing the prior endorsement language that triggered coverage for the additional insured when the liability "arose out of your (the named insured's) ongoing operations performed for that insured (the additional insured)." The pre-2004 endorsement language triggered numerous cases over the meaning of "arising out of" and "operations" and whether such terms meant that the additional insured would be insured against its liability in cases where the liability was the result of the additional insured's sole negligence or in cases where the named insured was not negligent and the additional insured and others were the negligent parties.

The 2004 revision to this additional insured endorsement was in part a response to holdings, such as McCarthy v. Cont. Lloyds, 7 S.W.3d 725 (Tex. App. – Austin [3rd Dist.] 1999, no writ), Admiral Ins. Co. v. Trident NGL, Inc., 988 S.W.2d 451 (Tex. App. [1st Dist.] 1999, writ denied) and Mid-Continent Casualty Co. v. Swift Energy Co., 206 F.3d 487 (5th Cir. 2000) holding that the "arising out of" language was ambiguous and should be broadly interpreted as providing coverage for liabilities arising out of the concurrent and even the sole negligence of the additional insured. Texas courts have been inclined to interpret insurance language broadly against the insurer and interpreted the "arising out of" language broadly against the insurer in favor of coverage for the additional insured, even in cases where the named insured was not negligent and the additional insured was the solely negligent party, but there was a causal connection between the liability and the operations of the named insured contractor. Prior to the 2004 revision to the CG 20 10, the CG 20 10 underwent various revisions seeking to limit the broad scope of the "arising out of" language, including a revision changing coverage for the additional insured from liability "arising out of the (named insured's) work" (CG 20 10 11 85) to "arising out of the (named insured's) operations." This type of language is still found in some non-ISO form endorsements and still gives rise to the same issue - is the additional insured covered for liabilities where the named insured is not negligent, but the additional insured is either concurrently negligent with person other than the named insured or is solely negligent?

The 2004 language triggers coverage for the additional insured for liabilities "caused by" an "act or omission" of the named insured (contractor) or by an entity acting on the named insured's behalf. This language, unlike prior ISO language, requires that the acts or omissions of the named insured be at least a partial cause of the liability. Thus, it is arguable that this new endorsement language does not cover the additional insured either for its sole negligence or cases where the additional insured is concurrently negligent with others, but the named insured is not negligent. However, it remains for courts to interpret this language and to determine the meaning of "caused by". This language as written is not qualified by typical Texas tort law concepts of "proximately caused by" or "directly caused by." Additionally, in cases where the liability is for injury to the named insured's employee, the "caused by" language may present coverage issues for an additional insured, as in such cases the named insured's employee is barred by the workers comp bar from suing its employer and is suing the additional insured without any allegations being raised by the injured employee as to acts or omissions of the named insured, employer. In W & W Glass Sys., Inc. v. Admiral Ins. Co., 937 N.Y.S.2d 28 (N.Y. 2012) the New York court held that "caused by your ongoing operations performed for that insured" did not materially differ from "arising out of" and "the additional insured endorsement granting coverage does not require a negligence trigger". The court found that the fact that an employee of a subcontractor was injured while performing the named insured's work was sufficient to demonstrate that the injuries were "caused by" the named insured's operations.

²³² ISO CG 20 26 04 13 – Ongoing Operations. This Additional Insured endorsement form was revised in 2001 by ISO to limit the time of the "acts or omissions" triggering liability to those occurring "in the performance of the ongoing operations" of the Named Insured. Previously, this Additional Insured endorsement applied to liabilities arising out of "your work" (language which did not address the time of the occurrence). A companion endorsement, ISO CG 20 37 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Completed Operations was introduced in 2001 (as subsequently modified) to cover liabilities caused, in whole or in part, by "your work" "at the location described in the Schedule" "performed for that additional insured" and "included in the 'products-completed operations hazard'". Restricting the endorsement to locations and operations described in the ISO CG 20 37 permits insurers the opportunity to underwrite the coverage risk.

²³³ 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to the Additional Insured Endorsements. See discussion in the article at Item A.6e - The 2013 Revisions - Not a Friend But a Foe. ISO revised the Additional Insurance forms, ISO CG Forms 20 10, CG 20 11, CG 20 24, CG 20 26, CG 20 33, CG 20 37, and CG 20 38 to add the following three additional limitations to their additional insured coverage:

(1) Coverage of the additional insured is provided "only to the extent provided by law". This limitation has been added to avoid violation of state anti-indemnification and anti-additional insured laws. Many states have "anti-indemnification" laws declaring void indemnity and additional insurance requirements requiring a party to indemnify and provide additional insurance protecting another party from the other party's negligence.

(2) Coverage of the additional insured is not broader than that which the Named Insured is required to provide the Additional Insured under their written agreement. This limitation thus imposes a limit on coverage otherwise provided in the policy.

(3) The limit of coverage is limited to the lesser of the coverage limit required in the parties' agreement or by the policy.

²³⁴ ISO CG 20 33 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Automatic Status When Required in Construction Agreement with You. See discussion at this article's Item A.8 Additional Insureds May Not Be Covered by Automatic (Blanket) Additional Insured Coverage. ISO CG 20 33 endorsement amends the "Who Is An Insured" provision of the Named Insured's policy to add as an additional insured "any person or organization for whom you are performing operations when you and such person organization have agreed in writing ... that such person ... be added as an additional insured on your policy." It is commonplace for the agreement between contractors and subcontractors and landlords and tenants to provide that persons other than the parties to the agreement be afforded additional insured status. Under ISO CG 20 33 "no agreement between the Named Insured and the Additional Insured, no additional insured coverage". ISO CG 20 33 at Par. B.2 excludes coverage for liabilities arising out of the products and completed operations hazard. Also, at Par. B.1 the 2013 revision to this endorsement added an exclusion for professional services, including the additional insured's hiring, training or monitoring of employees who perform professional services themselves. See ISO CG 20 38. It provides for coverage even when there is no direct agreement between the Named Insured and the Additional Insured.

²³⁵ ISO CG 20 33 04 13 – "Your Acts or Omissions". See Endnote 219 - ISO CG 20 10 – "Caused by Your Acts or Omissions" for a discussion of the meaning of "your acts or omissions".

²³⁶ 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to Additional Insured Endorsements. See Endnote 233 - 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to the Additional Insured Endorsements. See discussion in the article at Item A.6e - The 2013 Amendments to the ISO Additional Insured Endorsements - Not a Friend But a Foe.

²³⁷ ISO CG 20 37 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Completed Operations. This endorsement, ISO CG 20 37 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Completed Operations was introduced in 2001 (as subsequently modified) to cover liabilities caused, in whole or in part, by "your work" "at the location described in the Schedule" "performed for that additional insured" and "included in the products-completed operations hazard". Restricting the endorsement to locations and operations described in the ISO CG 20 37 permits insurers the opportunity to underwrite the coverage risk. It was introduced in 2001 as a companion to ISO CG 20 10 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Scheduled Person or Organization, which in 2001 was revised to limit its coverage to "ongoing operations" of the Named Insured at the location designated in the Schedule in the face of the form and to expressly exclude at Paragraph B injury and damages occurring after work completion.

For further discussion of the importance of completed operations coverage for coverage up to the limits of the Statute of Repose, see the discussion in this Article at Item A.7 Completed Operations Coverages is Important.

²³⁸ ISO CG 20 38 04 13 Additional Insured – Owners, Lessees or Contractors – Automatic Status For Other Parties When Required in Written Construction Agreement. This form was added by ISO in 2013 to its list of additional insured endorsement forms. Paragraph .2 extends additional insured coverage to "Any other person ... you are required to add as an additional insured under the contract or agreement described in Paragraph 1. above." Paragraph .2 cures the malady discussed at this Item A.8 Additional Insureds May Not Be Covered by Blanket Additional Insured Coverage. Thus, make sure that, if automatic additional insured status is being afforded and there is not a direct contract between the Named Insured and the Additional Insured, ISO CG 20 38 is the appropriate endorsement form to attach to the Named Insured's policy. Your examination of the Certificate of Insurance will not confirm which automatic additional insured endorsement form is part of the Named Insured's policy. Many times the parties' written agreement has a laundry list of Additional Insureds. In such circumstances it is not assured that the Insurer will be willing to extend additional insured status to numerous entities with which the Named Insured does not have a contract. CG 20 38 at Paragraph B.2 excludes coverage for liabilities arising out of the products and completed operations hazard. Also, at Paragraph B.1 the 2013 revision to this endorsement added an exclusion for professional services, including the additional insured's hiring, training or monitoring of employees who perform professional services themselves.

²³⁹ ISO CG 20 38 04 13 – "Caused By Your Acts or Omissions". See Endnote 231 - ISO CG 20 26 04 13 – "Your Acts or Omissions". This endorsement provides coverage to the additional insured (e.g., landlord and tenant) on the contractor's CGL policy for "liability" "caused, in whole or in part, by" the acts or omissions or the acts of the CGL policy's insured (the contractor) and the acts or omissions on its behalf (those of its subcontractors, etc.). (This form is also used to provide additional insured coverage for a contractor on a subcontractor's CGL policy).

²⁴⁰ 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to ISO Forms CG 20 10, CG 20 11, CG 20 24, CG 20 26, CG 20 33, CG 20 37, and CG 20 38 Additional Insured Endorsements. ISO revised the Additional Insurance forms, CG 20 10, CG 20 11, CG 20 24, CG 20 26, CG 20 33, CG 20 37, and CG 20 38 to add the three additional limitations to their additional insured coverage listed at Endnote 223 2013 Revisions – Additional Limitations to the Additional Insured Endorsements. See discussion in the article at Item A.6e – The 2013 Amendments to the ISO Additional Insured Endorsements – a Friend or a Foe?

²⁴¹ ISO CG 21 39 10 93 Contractual Liability Limitation. In addition to additional insured coverage, Contractual Liability Coverage is the funding mechanism for a portion of the liabilities assumed by an indemnitor by its indemnity. ISO CG 21 39 10 93 Contractual Liability Limitation is one of the most egregious endorsements in the insurance industry. The provision of Contractual Liability Coverage includes a series of definitions of an "insured contract." The first five definitions are referred to as incidental provisions, but the sixth definition is the provision that provides for the contractual assumption of tort liability. The sixth type of "insured contract" is most frequently the basis of insurance of a Named Insured on its indemnity of third parties (e.g., indemnity for injuries to an employer's employees; indemnity for injuries to a subcontractor's employees). The CG 21 39 deletes this sixth definition in its entirety, deleting coverage for an indemnitor's indemnity of a third party for its negligence. If the indemnifying party's indemnity is not similarly limited, then the indemnifying party has undertaken a risk beyond its insurance and is acting as naked insurer, unless its indemnity falls within one of the five defined “insured contracts”. Anti-Indemnity Statutes in many states preclude enforcement of indemnities as to a third party’s negligence, sole or even concurrent, except in statutorily limited circumstances.

²⁴² ISO CG 21 44 07 98 Limitation of Coverage to Designated Premises or Project. ISO CG 21 44 is added as an endorsement to the CGL policy to confirm and limit coverage to the designated premises or project. The danger of this form is if it confirms and limits the CGL policy’s coverage to a location other than the Landlord’s or Owner’s premises or project. For this reason, the Insurance Specifications list it as a prohibited endorsement. So listing it as a prohibited endorsement hopefully will bring its existence to light.

²⁴³ ISO CG 22 94 10 01 Exclusion – Damage to Work Performed by Subcontractors on Your Behalf. See discussion of this egregious exclusion endorsement as Item A.11.c Exclusions May Be Invisible of this article. Liability insurers have sought to exclude from the coverage of CGL policies so-called “business risks”, those risks thought generally to be under the control of the insured (contractor or subcontractor) and which are not regarded as fortuitous in nature. In crafting policy language (coverage and exclusions) insurers have struggled for decades to draft policy language that clearly and unambiguously covers “accidental” property damage but does not cover uninsurable business risks. The insurance industry has resisted insuring contractors for property damage caused by “business risks” within the contractor’s control. This issue has been the subject of considerable litigation. Although the vast majority of cases involve interpretation of the same CGL policy language, there is a marked split of authority. As reviewed below, the recent focus has been on the “property damage” and “occurrence” requirements of the CGL policy, with some courts applying the legal theories of “business risk” and “economic loss” as a means to exclude coverage. In 2007 courts in Texas, Florida and Tennessee courts rejected negligence, foreseeability of damage and natural and probable consequences as grounds to exclude finding that damage to property arising out of a contractor’s performance of work was an “occurrence” possibly triggering coverage under its CGL policy. See Lamar Homes, Inc. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 242 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. 2007); U.S. Fire Ins. Co. v. J.S.U.B., Inc., 979 So.2d 871 (Fla. 2007); and Travelers Indem. Co. of America v. Moore & Associates, Inc., 216 S.W.3d 302, 308-09 (Tenn. 2007).

²⁴⁴ ISO CG 22 95 10 01 Exclusion – Damage to Work Performed by Subcontractors on Your Behalf – Designated Sites or Operations. See discussion of this egregious exclusion endorsement at Item A.11.c Exclusions May Be Invisible of this article.

²⁴⁵ ISO CG 24 04 05 09 Waiver of Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others To Us. ISO CG 24 04 waives the CGL insurer’s right to step into the shoes of its insured to recover against a third party tortfeasor, that has been transferred by the insured to its insurer by Paragraph 8, to Section IV of the standard CGL Policy. See ISO 00 01 04 13 Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, Section IV, Paragraph 8 Transfer of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us.

²⁴⁶ ISO CG 24 26 Amendment of Insured Contract Definition. See the following: (1) the discussion in this Article at Item A.11.b Exclusions May Be Invisible; (2) Endnote 29 - Contractual Liability Coverage - An Exception to an Exclusion from Coverage for a discussion of Contractual Liability Coverage of an “insured contract” under a CGL Policy; and (3) ISO CG 24 26 Amendment of Insured Contract Definition. This endorsement amends the definition of “insured contract” to limit contractual liability coverage insuring the named insured’s indemnities for the indemnified person’s tort liability to bodily injury and property damage caused in whole or in part by the named insured (the indemnifying person). This causation language was added by ISO to eliminate from the Contractual Liability Coverage of “insured contracts” the sole negligence of the indemnified party. If the indemnifying party’s indemnity is not similarly limited, then the indemnifying party has undertaken a risk beyond its insurance and is acting as naked insurer.

14. Property Insurance Forms

²⁴⁷ ISO CP DS 00 10 00 Commercial Property Coverage Part Declarations Page. The Declarations Page is likely the most important page of the Policy! Among other policy details it designates the name of the Named Insured, the Covered Causes of Loss category, the valuation method (Agreed Value, Replacement Cost), and the name of the Mortgageholders protected by the policy, and a listing of the endorsements to the Policy.

²⁴⁸ ISO CP DS 00 10 00 Commercial Property Coverage Part Declarations Page – Covered Causes of Loss. See Endnote 50 – Property Insurance – “Causes of Loss”.

²⁴⁹ ISO CP DS 00 10 00 Commercial Property Coverage Part - Declarations Page – Agreed Value. An “agreed value endorsement” is an optional endorsement used where the named insured and the insurer agree upon the actual cash value or the replacement cost of the covered property before the policy is written and agree that co-insurance will not apply.

²⁵⁰ ISO CP DS 00 10 00 Commercial Property Coverage Part - Declarations Page – Replacement Cost. See Endnote 51 - Valuation Terminology - Replacement Cost or Actual Cash Value.

²⁵¹ ISO CP DS 00 10 00 Commercial Property Coverage Part - Declarations Page – Mortgage Holders. One of the primary concerns of the lender is the right to claim insurance proceeds arising from destruction of the mortgaged property. Joshua Stein, What a Mortgage Lender Needs to Know About Property Insurance: The Basics, THE REAL ESTATE FINANCE JOURNAL Winter 2001; and Benchmark Insurance Requirements for Commercial Real Estate Loans and Why They Say What They Say, THE REAL ESTATE FINANCE JOURNAL Winter 2004, each found at www.joshuastein.com. If the mortgagee does not carry its own insurance, but requires the mortgagor to carry insurance for the benefit of both parties, the mortgagee must also verify that its interests are properly reflected in the policy. There is more than one form of endorsement for this purpose and they each provide widely different protection. There are at least three types of mortgagee clauses which cover the mortgagee’s interest under a hazard insurance policy and the policy’s proceeds: the open mortgage clause, the standard mortgage clause, and the assignment of the mortgagor’s interest clause.

Simple Loss Payee/Open Mortgage Clause. Courts have held that a clause that simply provides that insurance proceeds will be payable to a mortgagee “as its interest may appear” links the mortgagee’s recovery to the right of the mortgagor to recover and exposes the mortgagee to risks that the insurer will be afforded a defense to payment to the mortgagee based upon inequitable conduct of the mortgagor. An “open” mortgage clause provides that any loss is payable to the lender “as its interest may appear”. This type clause exposes the lender to all the defenses and limitations that the insurer has against the insured mortgagor, such as failure to pay the premium or perform a condition for coverage under the policy. See cases and discussion at 48 A.L.R. 121 (1927) and 38 A.L.R. 367 (1925) and Lee R. Russ and Thomas F. Segalla, COUCH ON INSURANCE 3d § 65:8 (2013). Examples of the effect of such a clause are Commerce Bank & Trust Co. v. Centennial Ins. Co., 446 N.E.2d 73 (Mass. 1983) and Pioneer Food Stores Coop., Inc. v. Fed. Ins. Co., 563 N.Y.S.2d 828 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 1991). In Commerce Bank the mortgagee claimed that it should receive the insurance proceeds regardless of whether the loss was caused by a fire set by the mortgagor. While the court did not determine the question of arson, it held that because the mortgagee was essentially merely a loss payee, it could recover only if the mortgagor would have been entitled to recover. Pioneer also involved suspected arson by the mortgagor; because the mortgagor would not provide financial information or submit sworn affidavits regarding the loss, the mortgagee was denied recovery. Not all borrowers facing financial difficulty consider insurance fraud as the way out of their problems, but the mortgagee of one who has taken this path will be unprotected if it is simply named as loss payee or is covered under an “open mortgage clause” type of endorsement.

Standard Mortgage Clause. See 4 COUCH ON INSURANCE 3d § 65:48 (2013) “Standard” or “Union” Mortgage Clause – General Rule That Mortgagee Unaffected. Standard commercial property policies (e.g., ISO’s CP 00 10) automatically extend coverage to the mortgagee as an insured through the inclusion of the standard mortgage clause. Other property insurance forms that do not include a mortgage clause must be endorsed to provide coverage equivalent to that contained in CP 00 10.

The standard mortgage clause was developed to protect recovery by the mortgagee even though the insurance contract between the mortgagor and the mortgagee might be voided by the insurance company because of certain omissions or acts by the mortgagor (for example, neglect, arson, concealment). The most significant protections afforded by the standard mortgage clause are the following:

- (1) insurance proceeds are paid to the mortgagee, not to the insured or to the mortgagee and the insured jointly (see Standard Mortgage Clause Section F.2.b in the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form);
- (2) coverage applies for the benefit of the named mortgagee even if coverage is denied the insured because of some violation by the insured of the policy’s conditions (see Standard Mortgage Clause Section F.2.d in the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form);
- (3) the mortgagee is to be given notice of policy cancellation by the insurer – 10 days’ notice of cancellation for nonpayment of premium and 30 days’ notice when cancellation is for other reasons (see Standard Mortgage Clause Section F.2.f(1) in the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form); and
- (4) the mortgagee is to be given 10 days’ notice on nonrenewal (see Standard Mortgage Clause Section F.2.g in the ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form).

Numerous cases exist upholding the standard mortgage clauses requirement that notice must be given. E.g., Firstbank Shinnston v. West Virginia Ins. Co., 408 S.E.2d 777 (W. Va. 1991) held that a fire insurance company could not remove the lender under a deed of trust from the owner’s insurance policy without giving notice to the lender of the cancellation. In that case, a homeowner had agreed through a standard mortgage clause to maintain fire insurance on his home, which was subject to a deed of trust securing a loan from Firstbank Shinnston. After two items of correspondence sent to the bank were returned undelivered to the insurance company, the insurance company unilaterally deleted the bank as an additional insured under the policy. The house burned, and the homeowner collected $18,000 from the insurance company but did not rebuild. As a result, the insurance company canceled the policy. The homeowner also defaulted on his loan. Firstbank Shinnston sought to collect the insurance proceeds from the fire, and the insurance company refused coverage. This court held on those facts that cancellation of the policy was not effective as to Firstbank Shinnston, because the insurance company failed to notify the bank that its interest as mortgagee was being canceled.

Courts hold that a standard mortgage clause grants independent rights to the mortgagee from the insurer that can be enforced regardless of the actions of the mortgagor. A standard mortgage clause, like the open mortgage clause, provides that the loss will be payable to the mortgagee “as its interest may appear”, but it goes further to provide that the insurance, as to the mortgagee, will not be invalidated by acts of the insured. Lee R. Russ and Thomas F. Segalla, COUCH ON INSURANCE § 65:9 (2013). Examples of cases that provided payments to the mortgagee under such clauses are Nat. Comm. Bank & Trust Co. v. Jamestown Mut. Ins. Co., 334 N.Y.S.2d 1000 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 1972) and Foremost Ins. Co. v. Allstate Ins. Co., 460 N.W. 2d 242 (1990). In the National Commercial Bank case the insurer claimed that material misrepresentations of the insured voided the policy. However, the court found that the standard mortgage clause created a separate contract between insurer and mortgagee that was not affected by the actions of the insured. Foremost involved yet another case of arson by the insured, but because the policy named the mortgagee under the standard or union clause, it was entitled to recover despite the actions of the insured. See, John W. Steinmetz and Stephen E. Goldman, The Standard Mortgage Clause in Property Insurance Policies, 33 TORT & INS. L. J. 81 (1997).

²⁵² ISO CP DS 00 10 00 Commercial Property Coverage Part Declarations Page – Forms Applicable. The Declarations Page lists the endorsements, amendments, and forms comprising the Policy.

²⁵³ ISO IL 00 17 11 98 Common Property Conditions. One of the components comprising the standard property policy is the Common Property Conditions. Note that the Cancellation notice provision is worded such that the insurer’s obligation to give notice to the “first Named Insured”. Thus, unless the policy is endorsed to give notice to an additional insured, no notice is given to the additional insured on policy cancellation.

²⁵⁴ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form. One of the components comprising the standard property policy is the Building and Personal Property Coverage Form. Among its provisions are provisions addressing the following topics: A. Coverage: Par. 1 – Covered Property; Par. 2 – Property Not Covered; Par. 3 – Covered Causes of Loss (incorporating by reference the Causes of Loss form as shown on the Declarations page); E. Loss Conditions: Par. 6 Vacancy; F. Additional Conditions: Par. 1 Coinsurance; Par. 2. Mortgageholders; and G. Optional Coverages: Par. 1 Agreed Value; Par. 2. Inflation Guard; Par. 3. Replacement Cost.

²⁵⁵ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Exclusions – Electronic Data. Paragraph 4.f Additional Coverages – Electronic Data as an exception to Paragraph 2.n Property Not Covered to CP 00 10 10 12 Building And Personal Property Coverage Form provides coverage for the replacement or restoration of electronic data destroyed or corrupted by a Covered Cause of Loss, subject to the limitations set out in the Additional Coverage.

²⁵⁶ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Causes of Loss. The category of Causes of Loss for the policy is designated on the Declarations page and incorporated by reference into the policy by this reference at Paragraph A.3 Coverage – Covered Causes of Loss ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form.

²⁵⁷ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Additional Coverages - Debris Removal. See ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form Paragraph A.4.a Coverage – Additional Coverages – Debris Removal. The ISO Commercial Property Policy provides coverage for debris removal as “additional coverage” and is limited to 25% of the sum of the paid loss plus the deductible. An additional limit of $10,000 is made available for debris removal if (1) the amount payable under the policy to reconstruct or repair plus the amount payable under the policy for debris removal exceeds the entire policy limit, or (2) the cost of debris removal exceeds 25% of the paid loss plus deductible. Higher limits for debris removal is provided by using the ISO CP 04 15 10 12 Debris Removal Additional Limit of Insurance endorsement.

²⁵⁸ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Additional Coverages - Increased Costs of Construction. Ordinance or Law Coverage is available by endorsement to a standard property policy to insure against loss caused by enforcement of ordinances or laws regulating construction and repair of damaged buildings. Many communities have building ordinances that require that a building that has been damaged to a specified extent (typically, 50 percent) be demolished and rebuilt in accordance with current building codes rather than simply repaired. Unendorsed, standard property insurance forms do not cover the loss of the undamaged portion of the building, the cost of demolishing that undamaged portion of the building, or the increased cost of rebuilding the entire structure in accordance with current building codes. Ordinance or law coverage may be purchased using ISO CP 04 05 to cover the cost above the limit available under the ISO property insurance for cost of construction incurred to comply with an ordinance or law. The base form ISO property insurance limits such coverage to the lesser of $10,000 or 5% of the policy limits.

²⁵⁹ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Additional Coverages – Electronic Data. Paragraph 4.f Additional Coverages – Electronic Data as an exception to Paragraph 2.n Property Not Covered to CP 00 10 10 12 Building And Personal Property Coverage Form provides coverage for the replacement or restoration of electronic data destroyed or corrupted by a Covered Cause of Loss, subject to the limitations set out in the Additional Coverage.

²⁶⁰ Vacancy Clause – Standard Commercial Property Policy – ISO Form CP 00 10 – Section E.6 Loss Conditions - Vacancy. See 17 Am. Jur. Proof of Facts 2d 103 “Vacancy” of Insured Commercial Structure (2010); Annot., What constitutes “vacant or unoccupied” dwelling within exclusionary provision of fire insurance policy 47 A.L.R.3d 398 (1973); 45 C.J.S. Insurance § 999 Change in Use or Occupancy and §1002 What Constitutes Vacancy or Nonoccupancy.

Some Policies Provide for Cancellation or Suspension of Coverage. Unlike the standard commercial policy (ISO CP 00 10), some commercial property policies provide that the policy is cancelled and no proceeds are payable if the property is vacant for a specified period. In Lynn v. USAA Casualty Ins. Co., 1997 WL 61485 (Tex. App. – San Antonio 1997, writ denied) a vacancy clause prevented coverage. In this case the vacant house did not contain any appliances, furniture or other contents, except for one metal desk, as all contents had been stolen during various break-ins and the owner had not spent a night at the house for more than a year as there was no bed. Also see Carolina Ins. Co. of Wilmington, N.C. v. St. Charles, 98 S.W.2d 1088 (Tenn. 1936); and Republic Ins. Co. v. Dickson, 69 S.W.2d 599 (Tex. Civ. App. – Beaumont 1938, writ dism’d). Some commercial property policies suspend coverage rather than void the policy where the insured property is vacant. Barlow v. Allstate Texas Lloyds, 214 Fed. Appx. 435 (5th Cir. 2007).

Policy Issued With Insurer’s Knowledge Of Vacancy Or Partial Vacancy. Policies are sometimes written with knowledge of the insurer that a portion of the premises will be vacant and in such cases the insured will covenant to keep the vacant portion secure. In 730 J&J LLC v. Twin City Fire, 740 N.Y.S.2d 119 (NY 2002) the policy did not cover fire loss; insured breached warranty to keep vacant 3rd and 4th floors of building locked and secured.

Notice Provision. Also, some commercial property policy forms require the insured to notify the insurer that the premises have become vacant and permit the insurer to elect to continue coverage or cancel coverage unless a vacancy permit or rider issue issued and paid for. National Mut. Fire Ins. Co. v. Duncan, 98 P. 634 (Colo. 1908); Corey v. Niagara Fire Ins. Co., 47 S.W.2d 955 (Ky. 1932); Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Merrimack Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 457 A.2d 410 (Me. 1983); Lumbermens Mut. Cas. Co. v. Thomas, 555 So.2d 67 (Miss. 1989).

Occupancy Requirement. Some commercial property policies trigger coverage termination if the property is “unoccupied” for a specified period as distinguished from being “vacant”. In Grannemann v. Columbia Ins. Gro., 931 S.W.2d 502, 504 (Mo. 1996) a city’s order prohibiting occupancy due to disrepair of property did not render insured’s performance impossible and excuse compliance with occupancy requirement in property policy and vandalism loss was excluded from coverage of loss on premises that was unoccupied for over four months prior to loss; in Rojas v. Scotsdale Ins. Co., 678 N.W.2d 527, 529 (NE 2004) sporadic presence of insureds and their workers to make renovations did not rise to the level of residency; and in Young v. Linden, 719 N.E.2d 556 (Oh. 1998) a court held that a property policy did not cover loss due to erroneous demolition of an unoccupied tavern by a contractor hired by the purchaser at a tax lien foreclosure sale, which was subsequently set aside, as vacancy clause in the policy provided for no coverage for any loss or damage occurring if building became “vacant” or “unoccupied” for more than specified periods (presence of $100,000 worth of personal property in tavern did not constitute “occupancy”).

²⁶¹ Vacancy Clause - ISO Form CP 00 10 – Definition of “Vacancy”. The standard commercial property policy (ISO CP 00 10) at Section B.6 Exclusions and Limitations – Vacancy addresses the increased insurance risk arising out of the vacancy of the covered property. The standard commercial property policy states that a building is “vacant” unless at least 31% of its total square footage is:

- (i) Rented to a lessee or sublessee and used by the lessee or sublessee to conduct its customary operations; and/or
- (ii) Used by the building owner to conduct customary operations.

²⁶² Vacancy Clause - ISO Form CP 00 10 – “Customary Operations”. The court in Langill v. Vermont Mut. Ins. Co., 268 F.3d 46 (Ma. 2001) found that a property is vacant even though the owner sporadically spent time refurbishing an unoccupied rental property vacated by tenants three months prior to arson loss; in Catalina Enterprises v. Hartford Ins., 67 F.3d 63, 64 (Md. 1995) the court held that an industrial storage warehouse was considered to be vacant even though scaffolding and a hand truck had remained in the premises after tenant vacated five months previously; and in Schmidt v. Underwriters, 82 P.3d 649 (Or. 2004) the court held that an intent to commence residency in premises that had been vacant for more than 60 days at time of fire was not sufficient to constitute use.

²⁶⁴ Vacancy Clause - ISO Form CP 00 10 – 60 Consecutive Days Vacancy – 6 Excluded Causes Of Loss. The Vacancy Clause in the standard property policy further provides that if the building has been vacant for more than 60 consecutive days losses or damages from the following six causes are not covered losses: (1) vandalism; (2) sprinkler leakage, unless the insured has protected the system against freezing; (3) building glass breakage; (4) water damage; (5) theft; or (6) attempted theft. In Sorema N. Am. Reinsurance Co. v. Johnson, 574 S.E.2d 377 (Ga. 2002) the vandalism exception applied preventing a mortgagee, which acquired property through foreclosure, from coverage for damages caused post foreclosure by vandals; the fact that the former mortgagor’s equipment was left on premises did not mean that the property was not vacant; in MDW Enterprises v. CNA Ins. Co., 772 N.Y.S.2d 79 (NY 2004) the vandalism exception did not exclude coverage for arson destroying a building that had been vacant for the preceding 15 months while pending sale. In Essex Ins. Co. v. Eldridge Land, L.L.C., 2010 WL 1992833 (Tex. App. – Hou. [14th Dist.] May, 2010) the court held that damage to the interior of an insured building inflicted by thieves incidentally to their theft of copper wiring and copper pipe fell within the theft exclusion to vacancy coverage under a standard commercial property policy. Also see Nautilus Ins. Co. v. Steinberg, 316 S.W.3d 752 (Tex. App. – Dallas 2010, no writ) similarly holding that damage to roof HVAC caused by thieves removing copper wiring is excluded from coverage under the standard policy.

²⁶⁵ Vacancy Clause - ISO Form CP 00 10 – 15% Reduction in Proceeds. The standard commercial policy further provides that with respect to Covered Causes of Loss other than those listed as (1) – (6) above, the amount the insurer would otherwise pay for the loss or damage is reduced by 15%.

²⁶⁶ The Standard Mortgage Clause – Standard Commercial Property Policy - ISO Form CP 00 10 – Section F.2 Additional Conditions – Mortgageholders. See Endnote 251.

²⁶⁷ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Optional Coverages - Agreed Value. An “agreed value endorsement” is an optional endorsement used where the named insured and the insurer agree upon the actual cash value or the replacement cost of the covered property before the policy is written and agree that co-insurance will not apply.

²⁶⁹ ISO CP 00 10 10 12 Building and Personal Property Coverage Form – Optional Coverages - Replacement Cost. See Endnote 51 - Valuation Terminology - Replacement Cost or Actual Cash Value. Whether the policy is a “Replacement Cost” policy or an “Actual Cash Value” policy, the loss paid will be limited to the policy limits.

²⁷⁰ ISO CP 00 30 10 12 Business Income (And Extra Expense) Coverage Form. This form of insurance (ISO CP 00 30) covers two types of loss: (1) loss of business income/earnings - covers losses suffered by a business as a result of not being able to use property damaged by a covered cause of loss under a property insurance policy during the time required to repair or replace it (formerly called “business interruption insurance”) and/or (2) extraordinary additional expenses (“Extra Expense Coverage”) incurred due to a necessary suspension of operations during a period of restoration caused by direct physical loss of or damage to property at the premises described in the policy. This coverage is available with no co-insurance or monthly limitation. Frequently recovery is limited to the length of time required to rebuild or repair the damaged property, plus an additional 30 days for recovering business that may have been lost to competitors (typically limited to an aggregate of 120 days unless policy is endorsed to provide for extended time period coverage). Business income insurance may be purchased without the Extra Expense Coverage (ISO Form CP 00 32) and extra expense coverage can be purchased without business income insurance (ISO Form CP 00 50). Extra Expense Coverage covers expenses in excess of normal operating expenses incurred by a business that remains in operation following a direct damage property loss. Extra Expense Coverage is appropriate for service businesses whose property is not essentially income-producing (attorneys, banks, insurance agencies, and doctors' offices), and for businesses that would find it imperative to continue operating regardless of cost (newspapers, dairies).

"Business Income Rental Value" is included under both forms of business income forms (ISO CP 00 32 and CP 00 30) if the attached declaration so provides. Rental value protects the landlord against loss of rents during reconstruction and abatement of rentals if the abatement results from a loss under a named cause of loss in the property insurance.

ISO has recently promulgated an additional insured endorsement form. This endorsement to the tenant's property policy adds the person identified in the endorsement (the landlord) as an insured for loss of "rental value" and thus meets lease requirements that the tenant obtain coverage for loss of the additional insured's rental income. The ISO CP 15 03 provides that notice of insurer cancellation will be provided by the insurer to the additional insured, landlord.

²⁷⁷ CP 10 30 10 12 Causes of Loss – Special Form – Special Exclusion – Contractual Liability. The Paragraph 4.c.(2)(a) Contractual Liability exclusion is in the Causes of Loss – Special Form to exclude from the coverage of the Named Insured's property insurance liability for loss due to the Named Insured's indemnity except in the very limited circumstance that the indemnity is by the Named Insured under a written lease in which it has assumed the liability for building damage resulting from a robbery and provided the assumption was prior to the accident and the building is a Covered Property under the policy. This type of coverage is addressed as an insured contract under a CGL Policy.

²⁷⁸ ISO CP 12 18 16 07 Loss Payable Provisions. In November 2008 ISO amended its CP 12 18 Loss Payable Provisions endorsement to permit a building owner to be designated as a loss payee under a Building Owner Loss Payable option, as an alternative to using the CP 12 19. Under the Building Owner Loss Payable option, covered loss to the building is adjusted with the building owner and loss to betterments is adjusted with the tenant, unless the lease stipulates otherwise. Notice of cancellation is not granted to the building owner.

²⁷⁹ ISO CP 12 19 06 07 Additional Insured – Building Owner. In November 2008 ISO amended its CP 12 18 Loss Payable Provisions endorsement to permit a building owner to be designated as a loss payee under a Building Owner Loss Payable option, as an alternative to using the CP 12 19. Under the Building Owner Loss Payable option, covered loss to the building is adjusted with the building owner and loss to betterments is adjusted with the tenant, unless the lease stipulates otherwise. Notice of cancellation is not granted to the building owner. The phrase "as their interests may appear" often is added in a property additional insured endorsement. This is done in order to limit the additional insured's recovery rights to covered property with respect to which the additional insured has an interest. Without these limiting words, if the policy covers multiple properties, the insurer could include the additional insured on all policy proceeds checks. Under the CP 12 19 the building owner is an additional insured with respect to the coverage provided for direct physical damage to the building and covered loss is adjusted with and payable to both the tenant, as the first named insured (the insured whose name is listed first in the Declarations), and to the building owner, as additional insured. The ISO CP 12 19 Building Owner Additional Insured Endorsement does not provide for notice of cancellation to be given to the landlord/additional insured. Further, the cancellation provision in the ISO common policy conditions states that notice of cancellation is given only to the first named insured. Thus, the tenant's property policy provides notice of cancellation will only be given to the tenant. In Scottsdale Ins. Co. v. Mason Park Partners, LP, 2007 WL 2710735 (5th Cir. – Tex. 2007) the landlord learned the hard way that it needed to follow up and obtain a corrected additional insured endorsement on the tenant's property policy. Although the landlord was designated as an additional insured on the liability portion of the package policy, the additional insured endorsement on the property policy stated that the name and address of the loss payee was "to follow". It never did and the insurance company did not send notice of cancellation of the property portion of the policy prior to the fire that destroyed the Taste of Katy restaurant. The court found "Nothing in the loss payable provision or anywhere else gave Scottsdale notice that (landlord) was the intended loss payee". In addition to issuing the additional insured endorsement to the property policy, the landlord should also have obtained an endorsement to the property policy requiring notice of cancellation be given to it of policy cancellation. The standard property policy only requires notice of cancellation be sent to the first named insured.

Caveat: To assure notice of cancellation by the insurer, the landlord must obtain a notification endorsement to the policy. Additionally, note that the notification endorsement likely will not address notification as to cancellations by the tenant and will need to be manuscripted to include notice to the landlord of tenant cancellations.

²⁸⁰ ISO CP 00 60 06 95 Leasehold Interest Coverage Form. ISO CP 00 60 06 95 Leasehold Interest Coverage Form can be added as an endorsement to a tenant's ISO form property policy to extend coverage for losses resulting from cancellation of its lease, including loss of undamaged improvements and betterments. The cause of cancellation must result from direct physical loss of or damage to property (not necessarily the property of the insured tenant) at the leased premises. Damages are based on the difference in rental rates and the loss of use of improvements.
